We don't care about your age, sexual orientation, religion or whatever. Even though we are located in a rural environment we are still a cultural hotspot in the district of Pankow. Mainly focusing on (bilingual) reading promotion, language courses, in-house cinema for refugees, intercultural dialogue, evening readings, special events: including a monthly journey through other countries – experience a series of events where people from different countries dance, sing and let you get to know their traditions and cultural background.

Start: 10am at the Amerika-Gedenkbibliothek, max. 12 people

Duration of public transport trip to library: approx. 50 minutes
