

Learn the “Heart Lessons” of your Initiation Weekend through the Primary Integration Training

Your New Warrior Training Adventure showed you the possibility of integrating your inner strength and deeper emotional self into the life you’re living now.

The Primary Integration Training (PIT) will:

- Take you through processes that will deepen the understanding you gained on your New Warrior Training Adventure weekend
- Increase your ability to give strong support and safety to your warrior brothers
- Increase your ability to receive strong support and safety
- Enhance your ability to lead circles of men

Men all over the Project report that the PIT has added powerfully to their NWTa experience, helped their individual growth, and provided them with an even stronger sense of support and community.
