HARD NEWS

T: many questions as to the significance – he said very powerful things:

- today is Global Central Citizens day at the UN, and people are gathered in Central Park
- Need to remain focussed on the positive, not the negative and they are going to do this!
- The underbelly is that there is someone set up as the Black Pope but we never see that person; Francis is not the Pope, just a stand-in as Ratzinger is holding those reins & lives in the Vatican, while Francis rents space and pays for it outside the Vatican
- There is not one war or any activity of any military, including the US and the Black Ops going on around the world – that do not get approval from the Vatican; the overlord is Benedict 16th
 - The church is losing “customers” which is what it is: people make a pledge and pay it every Sunday. The coffers are emptying, and the Vatican is really run by drug cartel money & HSBC
- The overlords are the archon energies, the White Albino Dragon energies who are desperate for access to the energies, and the people who are having an emotional experience – and she is positive about what he is doing – yet there are too many lies which have to be lifted: the mechanism behind the Vatican is drug cartels and how many die every day as a result of that? Human trafficking, child molestation, etc
 - The Trump and The Hillary have been involved in human trafficking for years and the money goes to the Vatican. This all has to go now – and we praise, respect, thank & love the feelings in between.
 - The Pope knows all about NESARA and underneath all of this, he is terrified: “Please pray for me” is what he says to everyone. T heard a segment on Al Jazeera about John Boehner being alone with the Pope, unexpectedly, and the Pope asked him to pray for him. Mr B didn't know how to answer it: he couldn't pray for the Pope!
 - What we are seeing is them trying to save themselves.

Rana Mu and Tom the Cat:

- the gamma ray energy from the centre of the Milky Way Galaxy is pouring in like an ocean, and the ocean of frequency is raising everyone up to the 12th dimension
- it is a challenge for these lifeforms who only know one way: will be interesting to watch.
- They are acting up because they cannot stand the frequencies: just burning up inside.
- The shenanigans happening – there is one side of Mr Xi that can be a real dick, and the other is who he is supposed to be: he will talk about the galactics & full disclosure: the military under him are the entire governance of the country are not on the same page as he is

Craig Barnes: had on a professor talking about about the lineage of Chairman Mao

- he is a descendant of Mao
- he is a hair's breadth from being taken out as the old guard does not like what he is doing – revolutionizing China
 - the Qui Qung / Falon Gung is changing China from the inside out
 - turns out that Tai Chi is a derivation of Qui Qung, as are many of the other “martial arts”
 - Rana Mu is saying work with the chi, as it changes every thing: right now, we are in the 5th dimension & on up to the 12th – we have our briefing orders – time to dance with the fairies!

[Qi Gong exercises (Falun Gong)

https://www.youtube.com/watch?

v=hfMTkT017Ck]

The story of the Vatican is done: time to move forward

- the whole organized religion thing is a way to give your power away; the church is a Luciferian operation, has nothing to do with the Office of the Christ
- R has a quartz crystal he got from Lord Michael, Planetary Prince of this Universe – when you stand in his presence, it's a big fing deal, as Joe Biden says!

- T sees chemtrails through the whole of the film footage!
- When we watch and witness something together and broadcast it through this media of BBS, we are sending out very high vibrations: the vibration of who we are [in this show] and what we have awareness of and we do it with our whole hearts and souls, it makes a big big difference!

T: At the Global Citizen event in Central Park, Bejonce has been dancing for an hour!

T: we are at the stage of having outlived our welcome on the meat protein diet - these guys have to go [in order for us to make a lot of changes]. The body does not need any carnivorous products: eggs, cheese, meat – vegans are the longest living.

R: There are whole levels on the the New Jerusalem where there are horses, cows, pigs on meadows as far as the eye can see: IT IS A HUGE mothership!

Well, these days there is just so much going on that if you try to do it all you will either do a lousy job on everything or fail to get it all done! Hence the need to decide those priorities and only do what is REALLY on your path.

The bottom line of course, then, comes down to "Are you on your path?" and the need to more clearly define your path, your goals, your direction, and your purpose..... so we are talking bigger stuff than just "getting things done." There is a Spirit purpose behind flooding us all with big plans, dreams, and visions that take tons of time, energy and attention to accomplish. That is that we all get to know ourselves on new and deeper levels through choosing what we want/can do and what we need to pass on.

Wishing you the best as you draw your lines in the sand and carve out that special niche in life just for you. Injoy!

CONFERENCE CALL

C1: Has she heard of Peter in Great Britain doing his own kind of banking for the people: do a promissory note and send cash in, and they send back a cheque book and you can pay your bills with it. Side stepping the fed reserve notes – sign the promissory note for 10 years – wearebank.com

T: that bank goes to zero when NESARA comes in – no longevity at all. Still part of the old system whether you know it or not – it's not Faction 3 connection at all.

C1: some people are getting their bills paid

T: what they are doing is exchanging cash for the bills; and some credit unions are rejecting it – another type of new money system

C1: saying they are helping people pay their bills and avoid foreclosure & have money to live

T: if you don't have any money, how is this helping?

C1: 25 £ pays so much of the bills – and 10 £ per month as a fee; it's extending credit – and is working off social security somehow.

T: it will be very temporary – can't give dates, but they are shaking in their shoes at the moment and are still very lethal because of that fear: projecting that the people are the problem

C1: thought Boehner didn't have feelings -

T: they are scared – they have no empathy; they do have negative emotions which are based on illusion – he's not crying over anything except that he is scared. In yesterday's update, Rama talked to Bob Ney who served 4 years in prison for money laundering with Jack Abrahoff – it's a fine line when you don't live in reality and you create something and make yourself believe that reality: Bob Ney said he witnessed the huge reptiles / raptors – they eat live humans for dinner, and Bob watched this happen: it was because of Boehner that these people were getting eaten – they all know that they can buy a little time, but the time is up and they can no longer get away with anything – they planned to go underground and live, while we died on the surface.

- Things are not bound by a date: the mayan calendar did not cease on a specific date – the convergence of the huge gamma rays and the lockdown which means they cannot get out
 - there is no escape, and we listened to the 1.5 piece – the figures – the one thing that could change the world would be going vegan not because we want to, but because it's necessary as the only way to save the planet.
 - They came to Santa Fe with her [a grandmother] and stayed afterwards with the presenter; they went into a shaman circle and the grandmother remembered someone from many, many years ago: she told him his karma and he'd better clean up his act – he sat up and could not believe he'd just been nailed!
 - The most important lesson is to not get caught up in linear time: dates do not exist in the 5th dimension – if we think of time in the linear way, we are not really getting it – means that at a subliminal level, we are still caught in FEAR and limitation
 - Saturn arrived, and the blood moon [they are watching the Global Citizens concert with the sound off] - members of the 13 families chose this particular moment to do this; they are feeling something – the reality is they cannot escape their karma and how we witness that – judge not as we would not want to be judged that way: even the pope knows the gig is up and is asking all the time for people to pray for him.

- They were watching something earlier and can't watch it without being traumatized; as the way people disappeared on the south side of Chicago and T knew about this – they are gone and there's nothing to be done

Nada: all things are true but no dates can be nailed down.

C1: liked what T said about dancing and being in the air more and not on the ground: thinks we would be tapping into that energy

T: did experience that energy;

Two callers: will be sending some money via paypal because T & R are so precious to us

T: Rama is now down to 95 lbs again – way too thin – emaciated. If there's food – he eats more than T does -

Two callers: want to see them get more protein

T: don't need any kind of flesh protein: sunflower greens are the ideal protein for the human body

Caller: he's way behind – could he not have wild caught salmon to catch up?

- No: it's poison at the moment – full of radiation – the entire ocean is radioactive

Callers: will send something tonight: talks about ENSURE

- T says there is way better stuff than that and they know where to get the better stuff!

Callers: concerned about getting weight on him –he needs the micronutrients –

- T someone has blessed them with the best there is –

Callers: should he be eating 6 small meals a day to keep going?

- Lloyd Mear said his chromosomes were whacked out! Has been doing numbers – they also take on global karma – we are all part of a one Beingness and we have been together from 1999 – 16 years: we as a group consciousness took on a group karma and we are moving to change at a much higher level - how well we can take care of each other:
 - Rama is representative of how the group is faring – we are even more so than the others, as we are to transform at the highest level and bring NESARA LAW into manifestation
- Michelle Obama was at the concert, as was Malala who wants to see girls educated: every person has a mother, and behind every man is a good woman.
 - The manifestation of NESARA – they just presented something which went over our heads: we could go totally vegan and be healthier – it's free: do it now – the planet is dying – in a sense there will be help with the technologies – no one can ascend and eat flesh foods of any kind – THAT IS NOT THE TEMPLATE OF THE BODY WHICH IS AS A HERBIVORE.
- Thou shalt not kill – the higher up on the food chain as you eat flesh foods, the longer it will take to ascend – she has seen an animal sacrifice itself for the sake of the people – she saw animals communicate at a higher level when she was in Norway -

C1: thank you for so much to those – go to Paypal and send to friends and family so there is no fee – whatever you can. Koran999@comcast.net is the address people are most familiar with.

- There is still a fee for friends and family: they will charge the sender, not the recipient. [the sender gets to choose which way the fee will be paid]
- things are taking so long because of what is happening in the lightworker community: the hollow earth people are black ops totally, and the lightworkers are resisting the truth of this.
- There is the idea of building a wall – Hungary is actually doing it and sealing people from coming Czechoslovakia – the underbelly is the 4th Reich, Germany – not even France is surviving this – by the end of 2015, Germany will have a full 1 Million people in that country, and Lebanon as 1.6 million people at 1/3 of the land mass of Germany. The president of Turkey is killing the Kurds from the air under the cover story of allowing the US to use their bases.
 - The head of Syria is determined to go after ?? - these are the manipulations – to start with, Syria went through a 4 year drought and the people were dying of drought; the gas poisoning was done by Netanyahu – the underlying thing is this group being exposed and called out.

C: all this has to change!

T: reads a bit every night from the unicorn book, which are real. National Geographic was sold to Rupert Murdoch – a reptile who drinks the blood of babies – yet we must realize that we actually allowed this over time, we lost our way –

- Collective soul is a group – hopes there's enough of the collective on board to do the transforming: it's been a challenge because we have been in isolated groups in our lives
 - August Rush: the movie – a few years old: a very good movie – Robin Williams is in it

Caller concerned about fattening up Rama!!! he came in as a water snake in the Chinese astrology – one of the most stubborn of folks! We all decided to come together, we did!!!

Gerry: having great adventures! Some folks will be leaving LA. When he sends money, send by priority mail

T: DO NOT SEND CASH: THERE IS A MOLE WHO KNOWS WHO THEY ARE AND TAKES THE MAIL.

Callers: asking about doing bank transfers

T: to do any money order, the BEST IS A POSTAL MONEY ORDER.

G: businesses do it, but you need the tracking #

T: yes, they do have a postal box – don't send money! Yes, they are marked!

MUSIC: Clips from the movie: August Rush – the story is total magic!
Can watch it on Youtube.

2015-09-25 FULL MOON in Aries + Blood Moon Total Lunar ECLIPSE Sept 27th 2015

It's all energy. We're swimming in energetic streams. We are connected to the movements of the cosmos and are all woven together in this intricate and multidimensional tapestry that is Life. There is a lot of charge in the air which could be wiping some of us out! Energy has been building toward this BLOODMOON~ LUNAR ECLIPSE in Aries, which is the final of the "rare" tetrad configuration that will culminate on September 27th.

Passions will be stirring so we must take deep breaths, connect with the grounding energy of the Earth, and bring patience and love to our interactions/relationships. We can transmute the fire and rise to see a new dawn with an open and accepting heart.

Here are the MYSTIC MAMMA Astral Insights from our beloved readers of the planetary bodies. First from the wonderful CATHY PAGANO from her Wisdom of Astrology:

"This month's Aries Full Moon is very powerful, so don't be surprised by the surprises that come your way.

"It's the Harvest Moon, the Full Moon closest to the Autumn Equinox. It is the 4th consecutive Blood Moon Total Lunar Eclipse in the last two years, a rare occurrence called a tetrad.

"It is also the second and most powerful Super Moon this year, when the Moon comes the closest to Earth in its elliptical orbit—as well as closely aligning with the Lunar Nodes. This means the Moon will look BIG!

"So this lunar eclipse will create extra strong tides and energy flows, disrupting sleep and energy levels.

"Added to this, when eclipses occur near the equinoxes, a time when the Earth's magnetic field decreases, they aid us in making rapid changes, releasing old energy patterns so there's energy available to create new forms.

"Needless to say, the energies will be intense. Give these energies a week or so to calm down before you try to integrate what you've learned..."

"All four Eclipses occurred in the signs of Aries and Libra because the Lunar Nodes have been moving through these signs for the past year and half. The Lunar Nodes point to a collective lesson we all have to work through, old patterns to be dropped and new lessons to be learned.

"With the South Node in Aries, we've been called on to let go of our old behavior patterns of reacting to situations with anger, domination and aggression, as well as our need to 'go it alone'.

"The Libra North Node calls us to learn cooperation, diplomacy and partnership equality..."

With this last Aries Blood Moon Total Lunar Eclipse, it's time to integrate the endings, awakenings, transformations and death and rebirth experiences related to the balance of Self and Other, completing our initiation into a more balanced exchange between the masculine and feminine energies of life as well as between women and men.

"All new things start with our choices. Our free will is our greatest gift, and yet many people don't use theirs. That's when we get stuck in life and can't seem to find a way out.

"Being a victim entails not seeing options in our lives. We shut down on life. Being an optimist means that we see different opportunities and choices we can make. There are possibilities in life.

"Choices begin the process of change. Our brain chemistry changes when we make choices. Making a choice signals our brain that we're ready to begin a journey. So the choice is the first step in changing our behaviors...."

"Lunar Eclipses occur when the shadow of the Earth moves across the face of the Moon, cutting off the sunlight.

"Usually, full Moons help us become aware of something within us, some feeling or belief that we keep hidden. At a Lunar Eclipse, these feelings and beliefs come out unconsciously. You could say, our shadow is showing.

"So look for your Shadow turning up this weekend, and instead of pushing it back into the Unconscious, embrace it, name it and allow it into your life.

"This is the ultimate choice—stay open to all of yourself and own it. Then take it into your relationships and work consciously to include those rejected parts of yourself.

"If your partners are strong, they'll accept these elements of your personality and learn to work with them. The point is to keep your standpoint, try to find the compromises that work for both of you, and communicate with grace, openness and love...."

*"The Sabian symbol for the Moon at 5 * Aries is: A triangle with wings. This mystical symbol lifts us to a higher level of consciousness, helping us envision new possibilities. The triangle is related to the number 3, the energy of process and becoming. With the wings attached, the symbol shows us a process of ascension and awakening."*

© Copyright 2015 ~CATHY PAGANO All Rights Reserved

From DIPALI DESAI and her Celestial Space Astrology:

"The Lunar Eclipse tends to symbolically super-charge the Full Moon energy. It will turn up the volume of emotions and highlight the issue that needs to be felt through and processed.

"You may feel like you are losing the grip on controlling your temper or anger, so allow for a private safe space to move through it.

"Unconscious aggression could be projected onto someone or an issue. Immature reactions could do damage and create a shut down rather than an open dialogue.

"A better approach to handling the energies now is to consciously direct the adrenaline and fiery energy to directly address the person or issue so that it can move towards greater harmony. Motivate yourself to take responsibility for your own unresolved emotions and allow others to do the same..."

"It is possible for an ending of a certain type of relationship (business or personal) or the way in which a relationship functions. The relationship where the giving and receiving is out of balance will be evident.

"It may be about letting go of a stale emotional habit that goes against your healing and growth. It may be a realization of the pattern of co-dependency in a relationship and the time has come to break away from it or heal and be more independent.

"Another possibility during this time, may be learning to work with your anger in a healthier way and expressing your assertiveness more frequently.

"Sometimes the closure or endings happen through your choice and other times it may occur due to a series of life events that feel sudden.

"Why does this happen? To wake you up. Perhaps you are dragging your feet or stuck in limbo regarding making a clear-cut decision and taking action.

"During the Full Moon and Lunar Eclipse in Aries, it's even possible that there may be a feeling of being out of control or powerless, whether it is presently occurring or due to an old issue from the past. More than likely, it is something from the past rising up again that needs closure or a clear choice.

"It is wise to watch the level of reactions and angry outbursts, meaning do not project your emotions onto others during this time. Be careful not to become overly impulsive and quick triggered. Gather all the facts and information and then take charge to make a decision."

From the insightful DIVINE HARMONY:

"We are in the Eclipse portal- which is a time of great transformation, change, endings and new beginnings.

"This high energy frequency is doubled down by several other astrological happenings (Mercury Retrograde, Pluto direct, the North Node on the Galactic Center, Saturn having just left 29 Scorpio)- All of which are converging into a very high intensity and high transformational period of time on Earth- personally and collectively..."

"This tetrad of Eclipses have definitely highlighted any imbalances playing out in our relationships..."

"First and foremost we want to dramatically change our relationship with ourselves- as anything we want or need or desire OUT THERE can only be fulfilled and truly experienced when we have found it IN HERE."

"Any relationships that are on solid footing are fine- you may experience things that rock your boat, but if your ship does not have holes in it and you are both willing to do the work to row to a safe harbor you will be fine."

"For others who have issues up and perhaps have large holes in their boat- this final Eclipse may be a time to think about whether those issues/holes can be fixed and if both people are willing to do the work necessary to fix them- or if it's better to jump ship before you go down with it..."

"Lunar eclipses also tend to build things up to a point that things explode- hence the reason Full Moons are times of heightened emotion, more child births and more accidents (according to ER research)."

"Since this Full Moon Eclipse is in Aries, our Unconscious emotions and feelings around anger and rage and our immaturity, selfishness and tendency towards denial can arise to be confronted at this time."

"This is no tall order and most certainly not all hearts and roses- but it can be quite profound and growth producing if we stay with the transformational energies and see them through."

"In the final Total Lunar Eclipse chart we have lots of Divine Feminine archetypes involved in the eclipse dance- all adding their energies into the mix. The Sun in Libra is conjunct Juno (the Asteroid of partnership and marriage), Black Moon Lilith (the fierce, Dark Feminine), and the evolutionary North Node of destiny and growth."

"All of these are opposite the Full Moon in Aries who is conjunct Vesta (the priestess Asteroid) and the karmic South Node that connects us to the past."

"All lunar Eclipses are tied to the Nodes- which is one of the reasons Eclipses are so potent. They energize our future path of growth and they also energize our past- and in this Eclipse portal we stand at the threshold of choice: will we move forward and grow into uncharted and unfamiliar territory or will we stay stuck in the karmic patterns of the past?"

"The Sabian symbol for 5 Aries is 'a triangle with wings'. This stands out to me as the triangle is a symbol of the trinity and wings are a symbol of ascension, Higher self or Divinity..." "Carl Jung said 'The meeting of two personalities is like the contact of two chemical substances: if there is any reaction, both are transformed.' Here we see the triangle in action. When two things join together in Union a third entity is created."

"The two bottom points of the triangle then connect in with the top point. Out of duality a trinity is born. We no longer have black and white- but we have grey. We no longer are just masculine or feminine but we are both/and and as such we are whole."

"This Sabian symbol speaks to me of the potential during this 4th and Final Eclipse to find that wholeness within- which will then bring clarity to all other situations without.

"When we operate from a place of lack within we keep looking outside for something to fill us and make us whole. But we when we come from a place of inner wholeness then the whole game changes. 'He who looks outside dreams. He who looks inside awakens' (Carl Jung).

"Use this Eclipse to go deeply within- it can dramatically change your life for the better!"

"...this time in astrology is really unprecedented. So many things are happening all at the same time- any one of which would be potent on it's own, but in actuality they are all happening together in the same time frame.

"The portal is open right now for amazing, exponential growth and karmic clearing. Of course we have to choose to walk through the portal- no one is going to push us through it or do the work for us. We have to show up and do the work ourselves.

"We have to take responsibility for where we are at, where we are stuck and why we have chosen to remain stuck there- and then we have to get our butts into gear and get going. 'on the road to enlightenment there are many tempting parking spaces'. get out of neutral and get going!

"May this Eclipse portal awaken you to the Highest version of yourself!"

2015-09-18 Astrology Status for 09/18 - October 2015 - The Threshold

Not Just Another Ingress

I think the best way to understand October 2015 is as a followup to Saturn's re-entry into Sagittarius for the full transit. This ingress is one of those astrological events whose truly immense significance can easily be missed.

It's true that October will be about coming to terms with the complexity and difficulty of the energies unleashed in September, among other things (<http://on.fb.me/1FMYcNo>). But the deeper astrological truth about October is that it will help us once again bring the gifts of Saturn to bear against injustice, inequality, exploitation and oppression. Saturn's Sagittarius ingress will end a hazardous, decades long odyssey for Saturn and the world.

Saturn and the Major Planetary Cycles

Astrologers who study the long term, pay special attention to the cycles of the outer planets: Saturn/Pluto, Uranus/Pluto, Neptune/Pluto cycles, etc., etc. In this post, I will be primarily concerned with recent Saturn cycles.

Such cycles begin with a conjunction and end when the two bodies return to conjunction decades later. In the first half of these cycles, beginning just after the initial conjunction, the planets move toward opposition. During this phase, until the point of opposition, the faster moving, separating planet, remains subordinated to the the slower moving planet.

Beginning in 1980, all of the outer planets, including Saturn, gathered in a fairly tight grouping in signs closely identified with the 1% - power signs. Consequently, all of their Saturn cycles began at roughly the same time.

As a result, during those years, Saturn was subordinated to Uranus. Uranus was subordinated to Neptune. Neptune was in turn subordinated to Pluto. The combined power of all the outer planets was subordinated to the power of Pluto. The power of the outer planets was woven into a single intense current of social, economic and political power under the sway of Pluto, a planet associated with the use of power for its own sake.

Pluto would be supreme. Saturn would remain in a deeply subordinate, weakened position in relation to the other outer planets for the better part of the next 30 years. While Saturn was so subordinated, the world, freed from the discipline of careful thought and hard work, would get progressively more out of control.

Advantage the 1%

This alignment took place in the signs Libra thru Pisces - signs closely associated with society's social, cultural, economic and political elites - the 1%. This new concentration of power was in addition to the considerable advantage the elite already had by virtue of their position in society.

Under the influence of this grand alignment, every conceivable effort was made to channel social, cultural economic and political power into the hands of the 1%.

A World Without Saturn

Saturn stands for sober and objective judgment. It tests our reasoning, our skills and our assets against reality. It imposes discipline and hard work. It engenders good conscience and strength of character.

Saturn is blind to privilege. Its reason is unfailingly rigorous. Its commitment to the truth is unimpeachable. Its sword cuts both ways.

With Saturn subordinated to Pluto, et. al., little if any defense remained against the accumulation and inevitable abuse of power by the overly empowered 1%.

With Saturn's influence so seriously impaired, rules were bent and broken with relative impunity. Science and sound reasoning took a back seat to demagoguery. The truth gave way to outright lies. The public conscience was muted. Nothing was out of bounds if it increased the concentration of wealth and power in the hands of the 1%.

The grand alignment has been breaking up slowly for some years, now, and it will continue to break up in slow stages over the coming decades.

One of the things we can look forward to in the near term, though, is the return of Saturn's power. Saturn will dramatically re-empower those among us who fight for social, political and economic injustice.

Saturn in Sagittarius, a Major Milestone

As explained above, during a Saturn cycle, Saturn will initially break free of the slower moving planet's dominance at the halfway point, at the opposition. Saturn does not actually come into its own, however, until it squares the slower planet in the final quarter of the cycle, as it returns to conjunction.

Accordingly, Saturn reasserted some of its power when it squared Pluto from Libra in 2009-12. Saturn will assert significantly more of its power as it squares Neptune from Sagittarius.

In fact, Saturn in Sagittarius is forming a T-Square with Jupiter in Virgo and Neptune in Pisces. The intense, prolonged friction from this T-Square will affect all of the mutable signs - the signs that govern the creation, maintenance and dissemination of thought.

In so doing, the T-Square will burn off the grit of lies that has frozen the gears of reason. It will dispel the fogs that blind people to the truth and to their own best interests.

Saturn's Sagittarius ingress will, in effect, empower those who speak truth to power. It will awaken reason and conscience from their long slumber.

For the first time in many decades, the 99% will have the tools to block further abuses by the 1% and roll back previous abuses. They will have the resources to find genuine, truthful answers to the countless questions enveloping us.

Imposing Truth on Power

One of the most insidious effects of the great alignment of the last thirty-some years was the creation of a worldview enshrining the ideas and false principles that supported the supremacy of the 1%. This great body of lies flourished and grew for decades in Saturn's absence. A great density of lies shielded the 1% against the truth and the consequences of their actions.

One of the most important and empowering effects of Saturn's ingress will be to destroy this false worldview, suppress the demagoguery it engenders and answer the lies that breed oppression and exploitation. The ingenious lies that used to set the ignorant marching will fall flat.

Truth will begin to matter again. It will become progressively easier to convince each other and ourselves to do the right thing for the right reason. Blessed once again with conscience and the power of individual thought, people will break free of the oppressive system we have created since the 1980s.

So think good thoughts about Saturn, and spare a generous thought for the Sagittarians who actually have to deal with Saturn in their Sun sign. ;)
