HARD NEWS

- Mary's Ascension day is no small deal – the energy on the table is for all of us to access.
- The history of the evolution of us as a species, and what we in the US with the mandate from the Declaration of Independence which has to be re-linked to the original one by the Moorish people of the tribal nation of the Iroquois, yet their ancestors start with black people, going back to the motherland of Mu where everyone was black.
 - Moor was originally spelled "MU - UR", the cradle of civilization was the land of Mu-ur - the black land of the Kennet, of all that we all go back to originally
 - might call it the indigo violet race: indigo merges with every tone of colour in physicality on the earth plane comes from the indigo violet colour is the original source of all the colours
 - the children of the Sun of the Law of One which was called originally by Aknuton the Mosaic Law
- all the 12 rays of the rainbow can be dissected into 12 in each ray – which is 144
- the qualities and how we can combine this stuff is most interesting about all of us

Camp Lovewave

- Guest was S J Tucker, kind of like Loreena McKennet; sings of the Wicca tradition – fairies, elves, dwarfs; has been working with the spirits of the giant redwood trees
 - has met some of these beings around the planet – 25-50' tall, look like Treebeard: can pick up trees, tanks, cars, etc
- With the energies pouring in from Galactic Centre – want to play with CERN today and try and counter act Wave X – cannot counteract Mother! Won't happen!
- Taren talked about the mine spill in S Colorado that has gone into the Dene nation; has to do with the EPA and the senators, congressmen who don't give a flying  about the planet, Mother Earth; they spoke about the yellow river of goo – the Dene folks said "Justice will be Served"
- Talked to Larry, Tom the Cat, Kal TarTec – there is the shuffling of the deck which has to do with these folks vying for the Oval Office
 - Michelle will get in but does not know how it works out – go Bernie! And E Warren will fit into this picture
 - Unlce Joe has to pay for his war crimes, 9/11, and his allegiance to the fake church and its fake leaders – nothing to do with Jeshua and the teachings – it's all a gigantic farce!

Taren, Bear, Nigel: send love to all the complicated situations; they will work themselves out.

Audio: a Paschat message – Solara An-Ra ~ Paschat REMEMBERING Chamber of Light
<https://youtu.be/zcXpd6FrU28>

We, the Lion guards of the universe – we the gatekeepers of the lion frequency – bring to you an enlightened frequency which holds no aspect of duality within it; an enlightened frequency which has been available to you for some time, through those incarnated on your planet in various civilisations and through those channelling the Lion People or PASCHAT frequency.

You are terminating the phase in your ascension process in which there has been more dark than light, more confusion than clarity, more ignorance than wisdom – and less awakened in ratio to those who are awake or awakening. In other words, dear ones, in this period between the 8-8-8 Lion-Gate and the September equinox, you are transmitting into a new and higher phase energetically – and this is marvellous news for all of you who have been struggling – in your physical bodies, in your emotional aspect and in the highs and lows which you have come to associated with Earth life and also your ascension process.'

• MELISSA HARRIS PERRY: JOY REID WAS HOST

Continuation of the celebration of events between US and Cuba

Al Jazeera: went to a place by the seashore, a 4 mile stretch along Havana's coast – Havana's outdoor nightclub! From there it is 90 miles to the key in Florida & the stretch passes by the US Embassy

- the embargo still remains; still needs to be lifted as it is affecting the lowest paid people in the country; this means the criminals in the US need to be removed. It is a totally cash strapped society: a regular person makes about $20 / mo; a Doctor is $35 / mo.
- a park called "the park of death or life"
- reviewed the revolution of 1969; took film footage from a helicopter to see architecture that has been there for 100s of years. www.unseencuba.com – a beautiful place

Hillary: said she never sent any e-mail that was classified, nor received any – now she's saying she never received anything that was marked "Classified" - a sneaky statement!

- guest on Alex Witt said there was material on the site that WAS classified, marked or unmarked!
- she does not want to go to fields and speak where she'll get heckled; nor does the Hair

Animas River: going into Lake Powell - Gov Hickenlooper drank from the river and said "See?"

- the scientist on said (1) he's crazy for doing that and (2) the Gold King mine has been leaking toxic for years – 3 MILLION GALLONS OF TOXIC SPILL – copper, cadmium, arsenic, lead
- The caller from MARYLAND SAID didn't have to worry on the east coast:
 - her answer was that they had their toxic spills in Virginia, some going to Ohio
 - also, the oil spill in the Gulf goes all the way up the Mississipi to the Great Lakes, up the St Lawrence River and back down the east coast – the correxit forces the toxic stuff to the bottom & kills the beginning of life; the flow hugs the coastlines & goes around the whole world
- She knows that molecule water has been dropped into the waters mentioned, and actually turns everything that is toxic and sludge that returns things to plant protein and life starts all over again but she does not know the extent of that

Obama: going to Alaska to make larger points on climate change

- would like to see him say keep out of the Arctic, but he also has to stay alive

The EPA causing the spill:

- the EPA was started very naughtily by Bush Sr and Al Gore: they planned things to make money off of it
- Gore's An Inconvenient Truth: getting away with half truths, was gearing people towards making $ for them
- the EPA has not been a good caretaker; the corporations, along with the subtle aspects of its purpose – no externalities: not being held accountable – WE THE PEOPLE HAVE TO SQUAWK, same as Black Lives Matter
- Thom Hartman explained that EPA has to hire people to clean up the mess – they do not do it themselves; and we the people dish out the money; the law goes back to the 1800s and does not hold anyone accountable.
 - The Repubs are now saying they don't want to give the EPA any more funding: want to take the teeth out of the "attack dog" - this could hurt Obama: time to arrest some bad ones
 - There are 500,000 abandoned mines with all the waste lying around; including unreclaimed mines mostly west of the Mississippi – [from New York Times]

- 40% of all the headwaters of the western water shed has been contaminated – according to EPA: there are many similar disasters waiting to happen!
- The EPA has said it will cost $50 BILLION to clean up all the problem mines, as none have ever been cleaned up. They are already leaching into the rivers; the Gold King Mine has been belching stuff into the environment for some time – if there is no funding for the EPA, it's a ticking time bomb before another one blows up.
- Put this in the circle of support; get some scientists energized & onto it

Lake Powell serves Nebraska, Montana, Idaho, Colorado, Arizona, New Mexico

- the Columbia and the Snake River are the same river: the Columbia River has tons of radiation in it from Hanford who just dumped tons into the water and it ends up in the ocean. And Fukushima is sending it from another direction!
- ADDS UP TO A BIG PROBLEM.

Shaming of the homeless in NYC by the police Dep't : the Flickr site – the police have been taking pictures of the homeless ones in the streets; this situation is at the highest level since the Great Depression –

- over 75,000 homeless on the streets+ 56,000 people in shelters – 131,000 homeless people.
- Voters are saying they have seen more homeless than ever before: Ron Reagan shut down the hospitals, buildings that looked after these ones

16 active wildfires in CA: 10,000 firefighters on the ground

- 30-40% of the firefighters are state prisoners – they are part of a program that allows them to earn money by working outside the prison
- they live in conservation camps in the forest – they are supervised by correctional officers, chosen for good behaviour - depending on what they are in for. They are paid $1 an hour while on the line; get 2 days off their sentence for every day served.
- The agency running the program – SESA – says the prisoners create the containment lines – it is life or death situation they work at.
- The panel was asking what are the ethics of this? Many are women – professional fire fighters make a good dollar / hour. Wal mart and Victoria's Secret take advantage of the low wages paid to the prisoners; this program means they get out of the prison into the outside.
- They can collect DNA from folks under arrest WITHOUT A WARRENT. Who is next was the question.
 - Mapping Police Violence – co-founder of this program was on the panel. She was arrested when she went back to Ferguson; when she got to the jail, they told her to open her mouth and would not answer her "What for?" question. Then she found out what was going on
 - Supreme Court: the 3 women judges and Scalia were against the law; Thomas,
 - The 4th amendment says they have right against unreasonable search and seizures – how come they can do it to arrestees – who are mostly non-white?
 - On purpose, they have concentrated the lack of education in certain neighbourhoods
 - it freaks Justice Scalia out that we are all part of the data base: even a drop of blood from birth that could show up on a biometric ID card? Scary.
- This is the responsibility that goes with getting the money: it is for helping to change things and we need to know the higher knowledge

Kansas: Gov Brownback has appointed Sec of State Kris Kobach
Melissa Harris-Perry 8/15/15

It's time to talk about Kansas voting rights

Joy Reid sends a letter to Kansas Secretary of State Kris Kobach, who was recently deputized to personally prosecute "voter fraud" and could purge more than 30,000 Kansans from the voter roll. Duration: 4:46

- 84 million votes cast in 22 states: found 14 cases of duplicate votes .000000017%
- There were ONLY 11 cases in Kansas
 - the Sec of State's new powers allow him to prosecute the fictitious cases as felonies including anyone who is confused as to which polling booth to go to, or make a mistake on voter registration application
 - No other state has this power: his office can purge 30,000 + voters from the voter rolls by declaring the 30,000 applications incomplete because of not providing sufficient proof of citizenship – no birth cert, no passport, no naturalization paper! This is ON TOP of the 25,000 voters who had their registration suspended before the 2014 election due to the birther law of 2011
- Under current law, voters have until voting day to provide the proper papers. They want to extend this to 90 days before the election!
 - People most likely to be affected: young people, low income people, the elderly, african americans
- An active birther stance is no way for your party to reflect its historic support for the voting rights act, and it will not help you to gain more voter support for your party from minority voters – though this may not be their actual goal anyway!
- Review of Bernie's program for Racial Justice [These items are NOT in other candidates' programs: Hillary and others]
 - demilitarize the police forces so they don't look like invading forces
 - invest in community policing and train police to de-escalate the situation, train them to interact with the people in the community [if the community is 90% black, then the police force has to be the same %]
 - include training to be able to identify people in the community who are mentally or emotionally challenged: in the Scandinavian countries, applicants have to have college background in various subjects.
 - Should be use of federal resources to clamp down on the illegal use of hate groups, plus education on what this is
- Akhil Reed Amar and a former student, Cornell Williams, were on the panel
 - need to be talking about grand juries and criminal trial juries: the rules need changing as they are in bed with the police
 - there are pre-emptory challenges to applicants for jury duty: the Supreme Court has just accepted the case to discuss this – young people, elderly, african Americans are almost always eliminated with no explanation.

Need a NEW Voting Rights Act –

- this is key as there will be no racial justice in the US unless EVERYONE VOTES! In Australia, 98%+ of the people vote: we have an obligation to learn what is involved in the Constitution of the US.

Published on 18 Jun 2015

Harvard professor Lawrence Lessig, recently on Pirate TV talking about his book, Republic, Lost: How Money Corrupts Congress—And A Plan To Stop It, was back at Town Hall Seattle for this event taking the New Hampshire Rebellion which he instigated on the road. The New Hampshire Rebellion is "a cross-partisan movement of citizens who are Walking the Talk to get big money out of politics" and is patterned after the cross country walk of Granny D. The event presented by Occupy.com also featured best selling author, activist Marianne Williamson (A Return to Love, Healing the Soul of America) and the Seattle premiere of "Killswitch: The Battle to Control the Internet," a new documentary which prominently features Lessig who was a close collaborator and mentor to Aaron Swartz. We have included the trailer for this film which is going to be a must-see for everyone who watches this show.

The Pele Report: Astrology for the Soul

<https://youtu.be/V37tZnD1Ef8>

When it's all, all gone, absolutely nothing left,
No hopes, no aims, no desire remains,
It is here in complete vulnerability,
That I cultivate the ability,
To let go of all past pain,
Allowing only love to remain.

In the meantime, let it all go! What has been coming up for you lately has its origins deep in your soul history and the “players” in front of you have many other soul/spirits behind them from who knows how long ago. Feel into it and wish it farewell, goodbye, and clear your space. It can be scary to “give up the ghost,” and change the identity.

The confusion of Jupiter/Mercury opposite Neptune is also part of the shape-shifting we are capable of these days. It is like we are playing multiple characters in the play of life, and now we’re between acts changing costumes to come out a whole new character. Through August and September, we will be wrapping up projects, relationships, and attitudes adopted last December so put a bow on it and kiss it goodbye! Enjoy!

CONFERENCE CALL

T: It is so time for a change! Mystic Momma saying we're ending the chaos which has been leading us by the nose: profound that they met with Carolyn yesterday: brought all of her belongings from Pennsylvania: everyone in the family doing fine, mother passed over -

Mr McGoo: Working with Master Rumi on his eyesight: brings a message to Rama, Tara, Penny • Rumi is on Venus; sends kudos to the 3 of us for the work we're doing and the growth we're experiencing on the inner; we are growing especially on the inner and it's showing. Mr McGoo has been working on the exercises; Rumi gives his best & his love.

- T asks if his vision coming back; Answer: they are using the golden ray, a variation of the new prime ray from the Creator: he feels stabilization taking place; has been visiting Rumi – there's a chamber there – feels very good about it.
- On a monetary basis, on Sept 29th getting back into retirement; has an opportunity to work with a New Zealand 150 year old trust: want to move some 3000 Quing vases in the J Paul

Getty Museum in LA; they have 400 or so to move; planning to create a permanent display – need all the clearances to move them to the US: they are a good size, beautiful colours, butterflies painted on them in such a way as to give them a 3D look. Things are opening up for all of us

T: can he see the colours? Answer: When someone explains something to him, he has the ability to see – an intuitive thing; he has a little vision and on Sept 15, will go to the VA and explore getting a computer again.

T: saw some new technology that will come in very soon. Answer: He may not need it – has other sources, Masters who are willing to help him too.

T: can feel it – maybe he didn't have the vision so he could develop the intuitive vision –

Answer: he has another master he talks to and heard from him via some other channels that he has learned he is responsible for what happens to him: the cause of his blindness happened 5 lifetimes ago – a self-inflicted thing – thinks it happened when he was a Paschat – Sekhmet knew him as Gerry and knew him in that lifetime: as he forgives using ho'o'pono, especially himself, he sees things changing dramatically. Now Rumi has stepped in and the others are stepping in – as he learns, he knows that each of us are learning rapidly, each in our own ways.

- Could have been one on Atlantis – very traumatic. In 1983, in Sacramento, CA – spoke to someone on the phone about Howard Hughes, underground places – she said that, in 1895, he was in CA with a friend; one of the inner masters suggested that he forgive two others so he could go on and so could they; he did forgive them and they moved on – a few years ago, he was talking to 2 Paschats on Nibiru – he was told that the 2 men who betrayed Gerry and his partner Vicky were harshly dealt with.

T: is that one of the picture he sent? Answer: yes + the one of Tabriz: he was the one who created Whirling Dirvishes; they love you and Rumi sends his blessings to all 3 of us.

- Both were Persians & Sufis: they met in the same life time there and became great masters. Fa-I-Tabriz is in charge of the Temple of Golden Wisdom on the 5th dimension; Rumi in charge of that temple in 3D: they are on the same level, but working in different dimensions. They are spiritual family
- Gobal Das – in charge of the Temple of Golden Wisdom in the 4th dimension. He has a Macedonian look: 6' tall, golden hair, full of love, wishing to assist – want to be friends and work with us, not to be idolized.
- He also has a Chinese guide: Lai Tsi – lived in China 3000 years ago: he's the one giving McGoo nudges to work with the Getty situation. It is being considered one day that there will be visitors to us!

T: hopes everyone is enjoying the material being presented. Santa Fe is ahead of the curve: lots of organic food, 2 organic restaurants;

Caller: a report earlier in week about ISIL – there is a specific ethnic religious group targeted for torture – they have 7 angelic deities at the centre of their worship: the girls are particularly tagged for rape and slavery. Any more words on the Kurds?

- The Kurds have their own country and that was annihilated. The Kurdish people are in Turkey and make up 1/3 of the population; they have a Maoist Marxist philosophy; they are really nationalists – want their own country again. About 5 Million in Syria, 2 million in Iraq
- the thing about the relationship happening now: the Kurds in Kurdistan went up against the ISIL and were fighting back in spite of what the ISIL did
- Mr. Erodwan is very evil: he was PM last time, now is the President: he wants more power as he always has; using the deal with the US to have the US air force use Turkish bases instead of taking off from aircraft carriers in the Gulf as it is cheaper and quicker
 - the US intention is to hit ISIL from the air yet Erodwan wants to go after PKK [Kurds]. In the last election, the PKK an organized group of fighters within the Kurdish people who have over 8% of representation in the Turkish parliament: the black people in the US are like the PKK in Turkey.
 - ISIL is backed by the Saudis, McCain, Graham etc – this is the same group that used the chemical weapons on the children: the West is doing it – the 13 families are putting up their money for both sides: war makes profit. And they are pitting groups against each other who were not antagonistic in the past.
 - ISIL has revived sexual slavery as an institution: an Islamic professor at NY University makes it very clear that ISIL has nothing to do with what is going on there: it is just a game.

T appreciates the questions, as the people in the west are so ignorant about what is happening there – the Ottomans are Arabs but they are also Jewish! Then there is another different group – White Russian Jews / Khazarians. Yet neither group would recognize the other: the Khazarians call themselves Ashkenazi Jews, using a religious twist to cover up their roots as Khazarians

- the Republicans are also war mongers, among other things; ½ million will be gone and all of their timelines will be removed: put a bow on it and wish it good bye [ref to the words of Mystic Momma] – brings up the article she read on Thursday – re-reads it as it is so important. Reading: 2015-08-11 The September 2015 Wave X Awakening [see below]
- Refers to Mahala Gayle's writing from June, and the fact that the space weather is being manipulated – these things are in the mix: in response to Rama's comment that a 4.0 quake was predicted.
- The term "Event Horizon" has too many other ideas attached to it: not the right term to be used for the positive quality of the rest of the ideas/article.

BBS

- Interview with Yusuf Islam / Cat Stevens – getting another award. home is Dubai

Audio: Linda Sarasou, ED of Arab American Association of New York

Audio: Thom Hartmann on Corporations, their history, how they work.

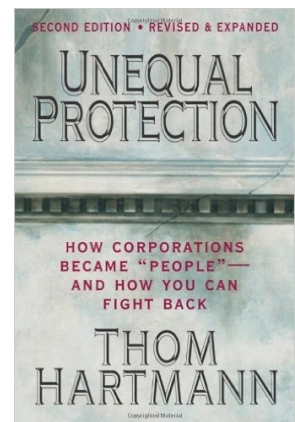

Unequal Protection: How Corporations Became "People" - And How You Can Fight Back Paperback – June 14, 2010

by Thom Hartmann

Unequal taxes, unequal accountability for crime, unequal influence, unequal control of the media, unequal access to natural resources—corporations have gained these privileges and more by exploiting their legal status as persons. How did something so illogical and unjust become the law of the land?

Americans have been struggling with the role of corporations since before the birth of the republic. As Thom Hartmann shows, the Boston Tea Party was actually a protest against the British East India Company—the first modern corporation.

Unequal Protection tells the astonishing story of how, after decades of sensible limits on corporate power, an offhand, off-the-record comment by a Supreme Court justice led to the Fourteenth Amendment—originally passed to grant basic rights to freed slaves—becoming the justification for granting corporations the same rights as human beings. And Hartmann proposes specific legal remedies that will finally put an end to the bizarre farce of corporate personhood.

This new edition has been thoroughly updated and features Hartmann's analysis of two recent Supreme Court cases, including Citizens United v. Federal Election Commission, which tossed out corporate campaign finance limits.

HE ALSO GOES INTO THE HISTORY OF WOMEN'S FIGHT FOR EQUAL RIGHTS in the US.

Audio: a recent Rachel Maddow segment

- JFK on peace –June, 1963 at American University; he was assassinated less than 6 months later. His "Strategy of Peace" speech – he announced new policy AND he broke a rhetorical taboo by speaking of the Soviet union as regular people: heresy at the time.
- Obama went back to American University and made the same point about Iran. Not all Iranians shout down to America; those who do are making common cause with some in Congress
- talks about the all reasons for supporting the Iran deal

2015-08-14 Mystic Momma NEW MOON in Leo August 14th 2015~

ART: ELENA STONAKER

A roaring NEW MOON in LEO is upon us sparking creativity and originality and igniting our passions with soul aligned purpose.

Here are the MYSTIC MAMMA Astral Insights from our beloved featured astrologers. First from the inspired KELLEY ROSANO:

The Sun, Moon and Venus are coupled in Leo...

"You are encouraged to be a powerful creator. Be unique. Be who-you-really-are. Be creative. Come from your heart. Be love..."

"The Leo New Moon lights a creative fire in you. You are the author of your life. You are creating your reality. You are the King or Queen of your universe. You are a precious soul of light..."

"You were born for these transitional times. You came to create. You are here to make a difference. You are a player in a grand experiment. You are a change agent. You are an emissary of our New Earth..."

"The New Moon is flooding you with Light empowering you to release the past. Heal your heart. Create your life based on your authentic nature."

From MOLLY HALL from Astrology/About.com:

"The spirit of a new beginning is alive at the New Moon, with Uranus in fresh starts Aries fanning the flames.

"This is no time for watered down, diluted, spacey collective-speak. The theme of the lunation is your one-of-a-kindness, and its creative power. So much pulls us into abstract ideas and a soul-sapping culture that has us on the outside looking in.

"Don't miss this potent chance to rededicate yourself as the center of your own universe. You retrieve parts of yourself that cry out for attention, but that are stuffed down in the ennui of the everyday. From what has punch and color, and runs like a thread of gold through your life since time immemorial, is the focus.

"Acting from that place brings up vulnerability, the stuff of art and bare-naked soul intimacy. To be present through that creative chaos is to be living at what poet David Whyte calls 'the fierce edges of life.'

"Leo is about whole-hearted engagement in life. And New Moons give you a chance to renew yourself, and draw from the rich and restful void..."

From CATHY PAGANO from her Wisdom of Astrology:

"This New Moon in Leo is about developing our leadership abilities. To lead means to take a stand on what you're passionate about.

"To lead is to explore the unknown and leave the known behind. To lead is to act courageously despite your fears. Both the King and the Queen within us want to do just that.

"Leo invites us on a journey of self-discovery—to find our unique vision and create it with joy and love. There is a generosity to Leo, an open-heartedness that isn't afraid of the give and take of life..."

"With Venus joining this New Moon, the seeds we plant are full of the beauty, grace, wisdom and joy of the end of this Venus cycle..."

"She's giving us time to re-birth ourselves into our royal nature. Everything we create is meant to benefit the 'whole'.

"Venus retrograde brings harmony and centeredness to this New Moon offering. Exactly what we need to find our focus, to meet our challenges, to renew our energies.

From DIVINE HARMONY:

"This New Moon is exceptionally potent as it is conjunct the asteroid Eros- whose name is the root word of erotic. The erotic encompasses more than just sexuality- it is about the fire that burns inside and it is ultimately about passion for life.

"As the only Sun-ruled sign, Leo is very much in touch with this inner passion and fervor and with Eros on the New Moon we have a huge call to own our desires, passions, creativity and originality in new and deeper ways..."

"On Saturday the 15th we have the Sun/Venus conjunction- which marks the midpoint of the Venus Retrograde cycle we are in that began on July 25th and ends on September 6th..."

"Another really important aspect configuration in the New Moon chart is the Sun/Moon/Venus alignment linking up with the Uranus/Chiron semisextile..."

"The Highest expression of this New Moon lining up with Uranus and Chiron is to use the new cycle being seeded as a time to face what we need to face and bring the Bright Light of consciousness to the darkest places within us that cannot see the Light..."

"Chiron's tense aspect to the Sun, Moon and Venus in Leo in the New Moon chart can bring up deep, ancient wounds and pain around shame, self-worth, self-value and ego (from childhood or past lives)."

"If we undervalue ourselves and think we are worthless or if we overvalue ourselves and think we are better than everyone else- both are coming from a wounded expression of ego."

"This New Moon seeks to find the middle point where we can own our shadow without letting it define us, where we can face our shit without wallowing in it and where we can embody our Light without hubris."

"There's a collective piece to this but also a personal piece- and we each can get insight into our own personal piece at the time of this New Moon (so pay attention and listen to the Divine Message being sent your way)."

2015-08-11 The September 2015 Wave X Awakening

by Zen Gardner <http://www.zengardner.com/september-2015-wave-x-awakening/>

by Dr. Kathy J. Forti

in5D

I once had a media and communications professor ask a packed auditorium of journalism students the interesting question: "What is the singular factor that affects all of humanity? A factor that can start or stop wars? That can raise up civilizations or destroy them?" Not one student could come up with the right, yet so obvious, answer: Space Weather.

Almost 35+ years later, I still remember his words.

When I heard Dr. Simon Atkins recently talk about the "WAVE X shift of 2015?" it made complete sense. Atkins is a well-known climate risk economist and planetary threat forecaster with a doctorate in Biometeo-electromagnetics. He uses the science of magnetism to bring clarity to what is presently occurring in our world.

Space weather not only influences, but guides humanity. Statistics show that when there are intense solar flares from space, 82% of the time there is a downshift in the stock market 1-3 days later. These same solar flare peaks are known to cause eruptions of violence between classes (sort of like the full moon effect). It's a natural phenomenon, but its all due to magnetic waves that ultimately affect every living organism on our planet.

On a positive note, when there are coronal mass ejections from the sun (CMEs), humans are more likely to experience euphoria, calmness and ultimately peace. CMEs are explosions of electricity and energy in the form of electrons and protons, according to NASA. This magnetic energy that comes from our Sun (which is why the Ancients saw the Sun as the God Source) actually elevates consciousness levels. The Sun is the great benefactor. If you stay out of the Sun you quickly lose your connection to third eye consciousness. You also can experience depression and/or illness.

I experienced this first hand many years ago when I worked in a darkened lab doing altered states studies during daylight hours. I started not only getting oily skin and breaking out with facial eruptions (which I had never had), but I became quickly depressed. Something told me to take a few 15 minute breaks outside each day and just sit in the Sun. It was like a miracle cure. Like a plant, we need light to thrive. Without it, it will lead to dysfunction, be it emotional and/or physical. It's a lesson I never forgot.

The BIG SECRET is the Sun is also connected to our evolutionary awakening. During the last half of September 2015, there is a powerful wave of gamma light coming from the Galactic Core. This intergalactic WAVE X energy will be coming through to Earth at maximum strength and peaking on September 28th. We are already well into it and feeling its effects. It happens every 3,600 years, and is being called "The Event Horizon." It is the next step in the evolutionary cycle of man.

As reported by Time Magazine, scientists know about this event, but are questioning what these mysterious intergalactic bursts are or, more importantly, what they will bring. Change, for sure. It is no coincidence that in the last 18 months worldwide earthquakes have suddenly quadrupled as this energy is beginning to be felt more and more on the planet. The earth is doing strange things. People of all countries and even the media have reported eerie sounding, and rather loud, groaning sounds coming from the earth. Expect more in August as these are signs of dimensional portals opening in the earth itself, says Atkins. Intergalactic WAVE X is getting closer. This is no Armageddon scenario as many biblical adherents are predicting, but a time when our cellular DNA is able to shift and open up our true gifts.

In 1984-1985, Dr. Peter Gariaev and his team of Russian linguists were studying DNA and the ways light, sound and frequencies interact with DNA. Their research led to many groundbreaking and paradigm-shifting discoveries with one of them showing that DNA is able to absorb and emit light (photons), which spirals along the double helix in sacred geometrical form. Literally, DNA creates magnetized wormholes in the time-space fabric. DNA acts as "tunnel connections between entirely different areas in the universe through which information can be transmitted outside of space and time. The DNA attracts these bits of information and passes them on to our consciousness." The researchers found that with the presence of light (photons), DNA activation and thus evolution can occur.

This is the great awakening that has always been promised us. This is an incredible time to be alive to witness this shift. It does not pick favorites. It does not matter what race or religion you embrace. It is here for us all. We are the Oneness.

Some people believe that helpful extraterrestrials (ETs) are trying to slow down this planetary energy from being too much for us because this faster electromagnetic energy can cause some people to feel like they are going mad (it opens enhanced mind/thought patterns). Call it energy weirdness. It's no coincidence that violence rates suddenly surged in the US during 2015, after years of showing a decline.

This new energy is nothing to fear. We want this WAVE X energy. It serves to cleanse and help raise the consciousness of humanity. There are those who might disagree and are doing their best to suppress it. The CERN particle accelerator in Switzerland is ramping up to go full steam on August 15, hoping to stop this galactic energy. They've spent trillions of dollars for this very purpose. The dark forces behind CERN know this energy shift will spell the beginning of the end of control of the masses as it begins shifting DNA. Just imagine a world where a greater percentage of people are fully awakened than ever before. The 1% who have worked hard to enslave humanity for their own greed and benefit—well, their days are numbered.

Everywhere in our world we are now seeing the awakening of humanity speed up. We are seeing massive rallies against corruption and rallies for peace spread. We are seeing tyranny, cover-ups and false flags exposed. And more importantly, we are seeing movements converging that offer solutions to these issues the world faces. People's inner worlds of heart and mind are breaking free and we are seeing this have direct and positive impacts in our outer world.

If you talk to most people these days they all feel like something is getting ready to happen in the next month or two. Most don't know what it is, but they can sense it. Whether it be a global currency reset, financial collapse, civil chaos, more earthquakes, or something else—as a collective mass we are the precipice of a new world emerging. Trust that this is not the end. You may be feeling more tired than usual lately—like you just can't get enough restorative sleep. Maybe you've even taken to power napping—which is good. Take care of yourself. Your cells are already feeling the energy change. No sense fighting it. It will be interesting to see what emerges for us all.

2015-08-14 American Revolutionary: The Evolution of Grace Lee Boggs
#americanrevolutionary

PBS Premiere: June 30, 2014

Film Description

Grace Lee Boggs, 98, is a Chinese American philosopher, writer and activist in Detroit with a thick FBI file and a surprising vision of what an American revolution can be. Rooted in 75 years of the labor, civil rights and Black Power movements, she continually challenges a new generation to throw off old assumptions, think creatively and redefine revolution for our times.

Right at the start of American Revolutionary, director Grace Lee makes clear that she isn't related to Grace Lee Boggs. She met the older woman through her earlier documentary, The Grace Lee Project, about the shared name of many Asian American women and the stereotypes associated with it. Philosopher, activist and author Grace Lee Boggs, then in her vigorous 80s and very much a part of Detroit's social fabric, began applying a spirited analysis to the film project itself. She habitually turned the tables on the filmmaker with a grandmotherly smile that belied her firm resolve, probing the younger woman's ideas and suggesting she consider things more deeply. Thus began a series of conversations over the next decade and beyond.

Director Grace Lee always knew she'd make a film about the woman with a radical Marxist past, intimidating intellectual achievements and enduring engagement in the issues — a sprightly activist who can gaze at a crumbling relic of a once-thriving auto plant and say, "I feel so sorry for people who are not living in Detroit."

In some ways, the radicalization of Grace Lee Boggs typifies an experience many people shared during America's turbulent 20th century. Yet she cut an extraordinary path through decades of struggle. As Angela Davis, an icon of the 1960s Black Power movement, puts it, "Grace has made more contributions to the black struggle than most black people have." Actor Danny Glover and numerous Detroit comrades, plus archival footage featuring Bill Moyers, Ossie Davis, Ruby Dee and Boggs' late husband and fellow radical, James Boggs, all testify to Boggs' highly unusual position.

How a smart, determined, idealistic Chinese American woman became a civil rights movement fixture from its earliest post-war days and, later, a spokesperson for Black Power (often the only non-black — and only woman — in a roomful of unapologetic activists planning for a revolution they believed inevitable) is a riveting and revealing tale.

American Revolutionary shows that Boggs got in on the action — and the action got going — long before the turbulent 1960s. As she reminds a group of students, "I got my Ph.D. in 1940. Just imagine that." Born in 1915 in Providence, R.I. to Chinese immigrants who moved to New York and prospered in the restaurant trade — Chin Lee's opened in Manhattan in 1924 — she grew up relatively privileged and excelled at the nearly all-white Bryn Mawr and Barnard Colleges.

Then two things happened. First, she read the works of German philosopher Hegel, the founder of "dialectical thinking" whose work influenced Marxism, which steered her into philosophy and a more critical stance toward society. Then, after finishing school with doctorate in hand, she found herself blocked by "We don't hire Orientals" signs. So she took a train to Chicago, where she found a job at the University of Chicago's philosophy library and an apartment on the South Side and began organizing her new neighborhood against rat-infested housing.

The rest is a people's history of the American left. American Revolutionary deftly follows Boggs' path from her first community campaign — as a tenants' rights organizer — through the 1941 March on Washington movement, which demanded jobs for African Americans in defense plants; her mentorship under the West Indian Marxist writer and theorist C.L.R. James; her move to Detroit; her 1953 marriage to Alabama-born James Boggs (auto worker and author of The American Revolution: Pages From a Negro Worker's Notebook); her split with orthodox Marxism in favor of Black revolution; her preference for the ideas of Malcolm X over those of Martin Luther King, Jr.; and her emergence as a spokesperson for Black Power.

Along the way, she studied, wrote influential books, engaged in protest and, together with her husband (who died in 1993), discovered increasing tolerance for what they saw as revolutionary violence in the face of violent repression. Then Detroit exploded in the 1967 riots, which, as American Revolutionary reveals, were watershed events for Boggs. Indeed, she instructed PBS's Bill Moyers to call them "a rebellion." After a short period of community solidarity, disorder and lawlessness took over the streets. Rebellion did not become revolution. Boggs and her husband began to reexamine their ideas in the light of experience. Though there are many who would argue with her, and she'd be ready for the argument, Boggs has maintained her dedication to humanist and even radical ideals, while tempering her understanding of revolution as an evolutionary process.

Grace Lee Boggs can feel hopeful about Detroit not despite the city's unstable financial and social condition but because of it. She retains the radical's abiding faith that a new way of living can dawn. "We are in a time of great hope and great danger," she tells Democracy Now! host Amy Goodman. Yet, as American Revolutionary chronicles, this faith has also been tempered by mistakes, lost battles, unintended consequences, age itself and the sheer evolutionary force of social change. "It's hard when you're young to understand how reality is constantly changing because it hasn't changed that much during your lifetime," says Boggs. Still, channeling Hegel, she challenges people to "not get stuck in old ideas. Keep recognizing that reality is changing and that your ideas have to change."

Boggs' approach is radical in its simplicity and clarity: Revolution is not an act of aggression or merely a protest. Revolution, Boggs says, "is about something deeper within the human experience — the ability to transform oneself and transform the world."

"From the moment I met Grace Lee Boggs in 2000, I knew I would have to make a longer film just about her," says director Grace Lee. "Over the years, I would return to Detroit, hang out and watch her hold everyone from journalists to renowned activists to high school students in her thrall. I recognized myself in all of them — eager to connect with someone who seemed to embody history itself.

"This is not an issue film, nor is it about a celebrity or an urgent injustice that rallies you to take action," she continues. "It's about an elderly woman who spends most of her days sitting in her living room thinking and hatching ideas about the next American revolution. But if you catch wind of some of those ideas, they just might change the world."
