HOUSEKEEPING ITEMS

4. about the Conference calls: she is wondering if it's worthwhile to keep the recordings on the phone; if she does not hear from people using the phone, she will let the recording of the conference call drop: the calls are saved on BBS Radio and are kept in perpetuity; the phone backup only lasts for 30 days

T: Rama saves all the calls forever as they go on his harddrive and they are not gone in 30 days -

MR: She does not see the people who use the conference call using the recording – it is a waste of money if the recordings are not being accessed.

- The number of phone listeners is dropping by about 2-3 every couple of months.

MR: She is not eliminating the conference call line – ONLY CONSIDERING ELIMINATING THE RECORDING PART, AS SHE HAS NO EVIDENCE THAT IT IS USED.

Guest: Dr Stephen Greer – will do more of the tape presentation that he made

- MR and Robert were at the Global Sciences Conference in CO when Dr Greer started including all kinds of people in his team

HARD NEWS

R: has spoken to KOE, Dodi and Di who are in the Wesak Valley; they are on the plasma off-grid system that gets energy from the air & the sun – about 500 people in the community there

- They shared that: we are watching the collapse of the old empire [the USA] , and old empires go to die in Afghanistan. We have not had all the answers about 9/11 and absolutely everything going on now is due to those 3 numbers.

- Mr Hair [Donald Trump]: there is a price on his head. Doesn't really solve anything, yet the right folks will take care of things according to cosmic law.
  - He is as crazy and strange as Kim Jong Un yet he is creating a situation that allows all people to see that all on the Republican side are like that; even though they don't want to be so exposed, they are running from it – and they have known better from the beginning so, in a sense, he is a gift!
- Everything going on is due to the lack of closure over 9/11. The cracks across the cosmic scene go back to there: everything that is seemingly moving us to a timeline of our not being here is not the case: just looks like that
- He is always told we are in the most awesome time to be in a body – we are literally watching part of the shift in consciousness which does not necessarily mean a body – consciousness comes in many forms.
  - As the frequencies get higher, higher and higher, these ones are acting out more strangely and bizarrely; they are slitting their own throats with the deeds they do each day; what they are doing is so blatant.
  - In 2008, Obama became president: the seeds of racism have been going on for over 400 years, yet having Obama in the WH is like a boil that has come to the surface. The acts that have been done against the people of the Aboriginal Moabite Nation are abhorrent. He grew up in an integrated family; his mother marched with MLK.
  - The racism and the hatred that is in this country is being catalyzed by Trump to “stand in their power”; at the same moment, everyone's “stuff” is coming up to be healed.
- It's a wild dance to watch: it is hitting the core of our communities;
  - R has been told by his folks that Islam is not the problem; it is that we have not dealt with the criminals in the US who seemingly hold the gauntlet of power and who are twisting the stories and the words; as was spoken of in Avatar and other movies: about “word magic”. Even Scalia who owes his allegiance to the Club of Rome- he is exacerbating the issue and bringing it to the forefront.
  - Everything coming to the forefront is a chance to send more love to those in the 13 families.
  - It is a challenge for R to speak of this: he does not wish ill on any of them, yet they have already sealed their fates. As they go about their . . . [not finished]

MR: she turned her TV off last week and has lost the remote so cannot turn it on: has had a quiet week! She uses the TV to watch the weather and the weather fronts & patterns moving in; knows it's in the house – just disappeared.

CL: asks about Neil Kennan and what is happening with M1?

R: Has been told that M1 and Neil K – they have nothing to do: it is another piece of work that certain members of the so-called White Dragon Society are putting them up as spokespeople for the 78 programs. This has nothing to do with reality, as all is in the hands of St Germain

- that group is completely compromised and are tied to the dong and dinar; are connected to the 13 families

CL: Putin stepped up and let the world know that the US is behind 9/11 – she read something of it

- she did not read the entire article: just saw the headlines - he is outing the USA as the perpetrators of 9/11

- It had to do with the money that was in the building

MR: all the gold bars were hauled out of the basement - $14 Billion worth

R: in the article, Putin also said 2.3 TRILLION dollars disappeared from Rumsfeld's office

T: it is over 3 TRILLION!

CL: wants to talk about the trucks that were sequestered in the middle of the night, and where did they go - how the money left the basement prior to 9/11

R: Guliani, Bloomberg, others are connected to that

MR: wants to hear the rest of the story

T: Cynthia McKenney was the one who told blew the whistle on the $3 Trillion: she was going up to the Capitol Building and was minus her ID; they were going to send her to jail – a sitting member of Congress!

- she blew the whistle and so her district was gerrymandered, and she was out of office.

CL: article said the money was stolen

T: hundreds of thousands of trillions of made-up money from the hedge funds has been stolen and stashed in secret places to make a trust indenture.

- They want to get rid of the CFPD – Financial Protection Agency set up by E. Warren – they put a rider on the omnibus bill that deals with the budget & has to be dealt with tomorrow,

- saying they are not going to vote on it: just going to go home for Christmas and see what happens.

- Jon Stewart got on The Daily Show with Trevor Noah – they went 5 -10 minutes overtime and said that the money for the First Responders of Ground Zero is almost gone, and no one of this bunch of criminals is breathing a word about it: some of the people who rely on the money could die very quickly without that support

- another rider: get rid of Obama care, the Visa waiver program, immigrants coming to the US and other things

- Jeff Henslerling one of the 14 traitors at the restaurant in Jan/09 while Obama was being installed: he and the others hang out with JP Morgan, Goldman Sachs, the American Bankers Association, and the pay day loan association people

- Something good: it would be considered a crime for a pay loan operation to lend money to someone who cannot pay it back at those kinds of rates : they use the pay day loan places to help them keep what they have! Their homes, their cars, their insurance
- The last draft of COP 21 is a total crime: would bring us up to 3.7 degree celsius which is catastrophic; – Michael Mann was on Tom Hartmann said 1.5 degrees is questionable; we are already over 1 degree celcius
  - people in Bangladesh & people on islands are literally drowning
  - Such a drought in Chad that the entire lake is almost gone: all that is possible to save the people is to have the units that are being used in Mali that takes water out of the air – there are NGOs taking donations from people so these units can be put in peoples' homes so they can survive and not die of thirst or die by drownin.

Trump: there are many paper articles about him: editorial cartoons in the Hindu paper, and there has been a suggestion to ban him from the entire EU because of what he is doing

- the Hindu is trumpeting bigotry: his devisive rhetoric may land him the nomination but could hand the White House to the Democrats

- Toronto Globe and Mail: a cartoon showing Trump as Dr Frankenstein experimenting on the Statue of Liberty

- the Times of London has a cartoon showing Trump extolling his virtues, and giving his outrageous views in a series of little cartoons

- COP 21 released another draft today: who would pay to help the most vulnerable nations to pay?
- Congress has to approve the money that Kerry promised [$7 million for endangered nations]: and they will not support anything!
  - These criminals are going to be held accountable for all the deaths they have incurred from their inaction and for all from this period onwards.

R: tries not to tune into all the talking heads who pump so much fear on a daily basis about the Islamic people; making things much worse than they really are: the fear about Islamic people.

- All stems from the fact that the criminals who did 9/11 have not been brought to justice

2015-12-09 Naomi Klein Decries Climate Deal as Extraordinarily Dangerous; Backs Defiance of French Protest Ban

<http://www.democracynow.org/shows/2015/12/9?autostart=true>

Guests Naomi Klein author of This Changes Everything: Capitalism vs. The Climate.

Climate activists in Paris are planning a major day of action on Saturday despite a ban on protests put in place by the French government after the Nov. 13 attacks that killed 130 people. "By taking to the streets, we will be clearly and unequivocally rejecting the Hollande government's draconian and opportunistic ban on marches, protests and demonstrators," says Naomi Klein, author of "This Changes Everything: Capitalism vs. The Climate." We feature part of a major address by Klein at the U.N. climate summit.

AMY GOODMAN: We're broadcasting from the U.N. climate change summit. It's called COP21, here in Paris, France. Climate activists are planning a major day of action on Saturday, December 12, despite a ban on protests put in place by the French government after the November 13th attacks that killed 130 people. On Monday night, Naomi Klein, author of This Changes Everything: Capitalism vs. The Climate, spoke here in Paris about the climate negotiations and Saturday's protest.

NAOMI KLEIN: The deal that will be unveiled in less than a week, likely to much fanfare and self-congratulation from politicians, echoed by an overly deferential press, will not be enough to keep us safe. In fact, it will be extraordinarily dangerous. We know, from doing the math and adding up the targets that the major economies have brought to Paris, that those targets lead us to a very dangerous future. They lead us to a future between 3 and 4 degrees Celsius warming. These are figures from the Tyndall Centre and Kevin Anderson, who have analyzed those numbers. It does not lead us to 2 degrees Celsius, which is what many of our governments pledged to do in Copenhagen in 2009. In 2009, dangerous warming was defined as anything above 2 degrees Celsius in a document known as the Copenhagen Accord. When a draft of that document was leaked to the convention center in Copenhagen, the Bella Center, African delegates marched through the halls of the convention center and called it a "death sentence for Africa." And the island—low-lying island states held demonstrations, chanting "1.5 to survive."

We also know, from leading climate scientists like James Hansen, that 2 degrees is just too high. Indeed, we know from lived experience that the amount we have already warmed the globe is too much. We are already living the era of dangerous warming. It is already costing thousands of lives and livelihoods, from the Philippines to Bangladesh to Nigeria to New Orleans and the Marshall Islands—I could go on and on. But it's important to understand that language matters and that when we speak about dangerous warming as something that is far off in the distance, it is nothing less than, as my friend Kumi Naidoo put it yesterday, "subliminal racism." And that racism is getting less subliminal every day. We are discounting lives when we speak that way, and we have to stop doing it.

So, given this context, we know that the deal that will be unveiled at the end of the week, on the weekend, is going to steamroll over crucial scientific red lines. We also know, from the paltry levels of financing that wealthy governments have brought to the table, that it is also going to steamroll over equity red lines, which means that wealthy countries that have been emitting fossil fuels on an industrial scale for a couple hundred years will continue to fail to do our fair share of emission reductions, sharing the atmospheric space—failing to share it—and we will continue to pay our fair share for the impacts of that, for loss and damage caused by climate change, and also the resources that are badly needed so that poorer countries can leapfrog over fossil fuels and the car culture, and go directly to renewable energy, community-controlled renewable energy, energy democracy, which is viable, as we're seeing in countries like Bangladesh, and also leapfrog over car culture and go to modern, renewable-based public transit. It takes resources and technology transfers to happen. We also know that it's going to steamroll over our legal red lines, because the U.S. has come to these negotiations announcing that the deal cannot be legally binding. Any talk of penalties was off the table before it even began.

Which is why on December the 12th at 12:00—that's 12/12/12—many activists will be in the streets of Paris peacefully demonstrating against the violation of these red lines. We will also—we will also be mourning the lives already lost to climate disruption, in solidarity with the lives lost to the tragic attacks here in Paris, and enlarging that circle of mourning. By taking to the streets, we will be clearly and unequivocally rejecting the Hollande government's draconian and opportunistic bans on marches, protests and demonstrations. We will be rejecting the shameful preemptive arrests of climate activists, the unprecedented restrictions on civil society inside the COP, the restrictions on free speech and movement, because liberté is not just a word and it doesn't just apply to Christmas markets and football matches. Indeed, it means nothing if it does not apply to political dissent and the defense of life on Earth. This climate disobedience does not make us insensitive. It does not make us hooligans. It is our sacred duty to those suffering in the present day and who stand to lose so much if we fail in this race against time for climate justice. And let me also say this: I hope that the trade union movement and that workers in this city will stand with us on December 12th, because the right to assemble, the right to dissent, is central to all of our movements and all of our victories, past and future, parce que "la liberté" n'est pas qu'un mot. C'est un devoir qu'on doit defendre ensemble, et la solidarité aussi.

AMY GOODMAN: That's Naomi Klein, author of This Changes Everything: Capitalism vs. The Climate, speaking Monday night here in Paris about the major day of action planned for this Saturday, December 12, despite the state of emergency.
