T: need to stay abreast of the radio costs; we are also at the tail end of the most dangerous time & at the beginning of the more participatory

Hard News:

- R: Lots of Native American stuff going on; R met Robert Mirabal and the grandsons of 2 elders in Santa Fe; asked them what is going on with Yellowstone these days
- They shared this: under Yellowstone and the Ring of Fire, are the fire beings that work with the frequencies of the lava flows, these ancient ones who have been here as long as Mother
 - The dark ones - archons/ ankle biters - are so very desperate to distract the people from the one pointed focus we have going; these ancient ones and the others who were elohim who fell to elohim because of listening to the whisperings of Wormtongue/Lucy
 - We are in a new cycle of frequencies since the end of the Mayan calendar, and serendipity, synchronicity are the order of the day – we are already in the 5rh D and moving to the 10th
 - The frequencies are so intense and all the beings, including us, who work on scalar waves – the ancient ones have been agitating the beings working with Pele, Kali, dirga, Mother Sekmet and they have been resisting.
- Quan Yin's warriors have their dander up too! These beings have resisted and the tide has turned:
 - the dark ones know they can go no further: desperately trying to create some sort of global catastrophe leading to extinction events WHICH ARE ALREADY CANCELLED.

- Yet the last vestiges of the program, thought form frequencies, are still running,
- until we all get on the same page : Now is the time for peace; now is the time for Love.
- The Jinn have come back to love and other beings too are resisting the archons – what is happening is the heat is increasing and //
- These guys said we are in uncharted waters at the moment – the solar system is being pulled into the centre of the Milky Way Galaxy; the Hopis have a name for it: KOYAANISQATSI-

[http://www.disclose.tv/action/viewvideo/64335/Koyaanisqatsi_Life_out_of_Balance_Full_Length/]

KO.YAA.NIS.KATSI (FROM THE HOPI INDIAN LANGUAGE),
 1.CRAZY LIFE. 2.LIFE IN TURMOIL 3. LIFE DISINTEGRATING.
 4. LIFE OUT OF BALANCE. 5 A STATE OF LIFE THAT CALLS FOR ANOTHER WAY OF LIVING.
[SEE BELOW FOR MORE INFO ON THE FILM]

R: he went to the UN with the elders in 1978 & 1987; both times, they showed this movie along with Wizards; there was not a dry eye in the UN – as they knew what was going on

This is the ground crew right here, as we move it forward, pay it forward - ???
 The infinite morphogenic field, the fibinacci spiral – the story being danced in front of us

R: also asked them: – Chief Jim Jille? – a song called The Buzzard Dance – tells a story about what they saw which was genocide

- Bob Grams, a multi millionaire ??

R: has to re-iterate Where did the towers go? By Dr Judy woods – called the Hutchison Effect

- Used particle beams from the satellite
- What is connected with the native Americans rising: they wanted a fossil fuel empire which is cancelled
- The grandsons of the two Pueblo elders who transitioned are taking their places as Warriors For Peace.
- Robert Mirabal and these 2 described it: until the real story of the Moabite Aboriginal Nation is told, and the story of the great lie where Palestine is and always be the land, and the configured name of the League of Nations [Isreal] is removed -
- Hitler tried to open up a portal and bring in the Jinn – this was stopped by Mother; and nothing more will happen as it is cancelled.

R: saw the earthquake in LA yesterday right in the middle of the baseball game: very intense stuff happening on the planet – some was 10 seconds, others 30 sec

- They said call on the ancient, anciet beings of love and joy

T: this is 2 earthquakes in LA inside a week -

R: they shared that there is a clarion call for people to work with all the beings from the smallest pixie to the biggest archangelsthat sit in front of the throne of God;

- the ankle biters like to create fear and chaos, and feed on it
- Brought up the ancient families who are hybrids of the archons and they are playing with their ancients rituals and their blood sacrifices but the energies are backfiring on them!
- They have been sacrficing children and are getting their own karma back on them, as they chose not to accept love and foregiveness
- Accepting love is the only way to get through the eye of the needle which is as large as the Grand Canyon.

T: Very soon people will be coming out of the Grand Canyon – the military is getting kicked out of the GC, and the temples are being opened. Those who are digging for uranium at the edge of the canyon will find that their equipment will disappear in a hole and them too! They did not ask for permission to use the energy that is uranium and ends up as depleted uranium that poisons?

R: Why does Leonard Pelletier still sit in jail and Jamal who sits on death row who have done nothing?

- Robert and the others said the archons are giant amoebas: some are giant worms like Jaba the Hut, giant worms; because they are intergalactic beings from other realms; our scientists / “ wisdom keepers” have not shared this wisdom with the people of the earth because they are scared *less of what they have seen: all they can get past is going into underground bunkers and shutting the hatch – which is not the way we get things done!

- Christine Lagarde looks like a mini T Rex: an eating machine with a large mouthful of teeth: her height varies as she is a skin walker, shape shifter – a carnivore - which means she eats children and babies like those in the vatican

- The archons in the unseen realms are the last remnants of the fallen angels or the Luciferian elohim: maybe this is why Ted Cruz wants to have a bazooka in his back yard: how do you stop these life forms?

R: Thor and the good people of Asgard have the answers: do not do this with war, but with love, negotiation and mediateion.

T: What about the drone stuff? All they said is that this will go the way of the dodo;

R: you can buy your own personal drone at the Verizon store down the street for $200! They can do a lot of stuff like spy on your girlfriend! Send them love; they know their time is up

T: The ancient ones are so, so tired

R: Yes, Obama gets tired a bit

T: Obama was sitting in front of King Abdullah and knows what he is looking at - a lizard!

MHP: talking of Abdullah: 2 of his daughters went on BBC prime time and said Obama you should not go visit our father who has kept his 4 daughters under house arrest for 10 years.

- They are risking their lives to say this – & how did the 2 get out?

KOS: said Keep yourself lying low

- Yet Barack is out there on only moving forward on the things that can be moved forward on. They are pissed off with him and he continues with that grin: about Syria and dialogue with Iran

- Obama and Putin know they have to stick together and work Iran in the face of archonic energy in the US, called APAC

- Also the Ukraine thing: refers to the man who spoke on Thom Hartmann on Thursday, and they played the interview: the IMF bailout is no better than the deal for Greece

- An Al Jazeera program: In Greece, people are grovelling in garbage cans

R: Austerity program is a sham – does not take into account nature and nature's god

Greece: the US / Hank Paulsen the western plants in the gov't of Greece – got into the gov't and figured out how to get hands on pensions, and assets and so on

- From Al Jazeera last night: a program about the idea that they literally don't need people, and they have figured a way to have unlimited funds for themselves – yet they have not reckoned on nature and nature's god, just like the rituals don't work: and Carl Boudreau is saying the same thing.

Reading: the I Ching for March 24th, this week

[SEE BELOW]

- The Republicans are saying that Obama is weak, not starting wars etc etc – yet this is wisdom; hiding his strength

Ukraine: even though there are 40,000 – 50,000 Russian troops on the border, Obama, Putin and the north korean guy know this is a brinkmanship game, and there there will be NO NUKES.

R: The Taos folks watched the Sochi Games; there are many in the Russian military who are gay; they want to come out and be accepted as normal people. This opens the doorway – as we get past this bit, we can have a conversation.

T: trying to say be afraid, be very afraid of Putin who will go into Ukraine & eastern Europe, yet this would be a different mix: yes, the cities in eastern Ukraine are mostly Russian speaking; oil, gas, steel industry are in eastern Ukraine – super industrial production level

R: people there are living in dire poverty

T: this appears to be a gov't in Kiev that looks to be pro-West , yet most of the IMF bailout will go to Russia and to the West, will NOT go to the people

- Mike Papantonio on Thom Hartmann yesterday told the story of how the money will be distributed and it will not be to the people

- Enter Merkel & President Xi:

- The trade between China and Germany is the largest trade exchange in the world!

- The US has 500,000 fracking wells – obscene as the amount of water required to do the drilling in each of the well until it is depleted; the water is contaminated for ever after.

R: The Pueblo elders told him that water has a spirit, a mind and a consciousness; don't mess with it or use it in the wrong way: it will get you!

T: the dark ones have been thinking they would go to another planet after this one is completely polluted, used up – this will not happen.

T: The last of the reading of the I Ching:

- Keep your light hidden: we are vulnerable in ways that are not familiar; the dark feeds on our light, and the heaviness we are feeling is real

- Continue to develop but not out right: stay chilled:

- Brings up Kiev again: the leader of the right central party which is pretty radical – the people are in the central square again because internal ministry of the so-called temporary gov't run by the 39 year old bankster: got hold of the leader of the group, tied him up, shot him in the head in a public execution in broad daylight in Kiev: the people are outraged: even Yanakovich didn't do things like that! This is the cover story of cabal money that is in charge of Ukraine at the moment, so we must respect Putin for knowing what to do there at this moment. Yet there are still oligarchs in every country, including Russia who don't want to give up.

- Obama is doing something we cannot fathom at the moment: the power structure of the oil companies is in Saudi Arabia where he is walking around in the archonic, demonic matrix shaking hands, talking to the women, and then going to the Vatican. With President Xi & Putin in the background.

- And he is going to China where his wife is talking to the Chinese about getting their shit together!

- no justice in China, nor in the US – don't call the kettle black.

- A film on the Vatican & the corruption there! “Holy Money” - about the corruption of the finances of the Vatican - being aired on Al Jazeera – on Sun, at 7 pm]

- Fool hardy to confront the negative forces: make like you don't see them!

- Don't let on that you know it is evil – this is not about retreat: make it appear that you are oblivious to what is obvious!

Audio: The Dance from the Pueblo

Turkey: PM Erdowan got caught and it was put on YouTube: he thought he wasn't being heard; they were planning a black op / conspiring to make it look like something else – were going to make an attack on a Turkish base in Syria and make it look like CIA and then justify going into Syria with military stuff and kill all kinds of people. Very ugly – let's apply the energy we have just learned about.

Reading: The March 2014 New Moon at 10 Aries – A Brief Look Before it Happens

by Robert Wilkinson

The New Moon happens at 11:45 am PDT, 7:45 pm BST on March 30. I will be composing more on this tomorrow, but for now here are the highlights!

This one begins the Great Fracturing! The Lunation at 10 Aries gives us a new understanding of recent events, and jumpstarts our Aries sector in a huge way! Yes, the Cardinal T-square is in full force for the next month, so be balanced, re-dedicate yourself to your “Truth of Being” in action, adjust to the natural rhythm of things, and keep in mind that whatever is disrupted or dislodged this month will prove to be a source of relief beginning in late May.

This begins the trial by fire that will show us how well-trained our Spiritual Warrior is. If you need to refresh your understanding of what the Spiritual Warrior or Guardian actually is, please take a new look at “Life’s Battles and the Spiritual Warrior Who Can Never Lose.” I elaborated on this coming time of intensity, fracturing, and how to do this very tricky and potentially destructive time in my interview with Michele Meiche on “Awakenings” last Wednesday, so please visit that show if you haven't already.

You can find the link to that show at Awakenings with Robert Wilkinson speaking about the coming Great Fracturing of the Grand Cardinal Crosses, coming Eclipses, and the on-going Grand Irrationality. I begin about 45 minutes in, and it's a wild ride from there, with a lot of compressed, concentrated information on how to navigate the fracturing that's already happening and getting heavier by the day!

This New Moon is conjunct Uranus, powering up our Higher Path to Individuality we've all been walking since 2010. This is the last revelation of the Great Mystery we've all been exploring since Summer 2013, and the potential for illumination is extremely high over the next 4 weeks! Find your place of greatest service, or your higher Path to learn and teach. Embrace the new identity that was awakened over the past year, and give the past a new interpretation.

This is a heavily transmutational New Moon, with the ability to “raise the natural to the human,” or see the natural magic in who we are once we drop old emotional sludge or baggage that may not have ever been ours to begin with. See a great vision of “civilized living,” and be willing to be called to a renewal. Just expect that things will accelerate with extraordinary speed in the near future, so don’t get bugged by the pressure.

And of course there’s more to come over the weekend. For now, get ready to rock and roll!

Description of the movie “Life Out of Balance”

Koyaanisqatsi is a Hopi Indian word meaning "life out of balance." Created between 1975 and 1982, this film was the debut of Godfrey Reggio as a film director and producer. The film is an apocalyptic vision of the collision of two different worlds: urban life and technology versus the environment. The musical score was composed by Philip Glass.

This full length documentary is visually arresting and possesses a clear, pro-environmental stance. Koyaanisqatsi is composed of nature imagery, manipulated in slow motion, double exposure or time lapse, juxtaposed with footage of humans' devastating environmental impact on the planet. The message of director Godfrey Reggio is clear: humans are destroying the planet, and all of human progress is pointlessly foolish.

KOYAANISQATSI attempts to reveal the beauty of the beast! We usually perceive our world, our way of living, as beautiful because there is nothing else to perceive. If one lives in this world, the globalized world of high technology, all one can see is one layer of commodity piled upon another. In our world the "original" is the proliferation of the standardized. Copies are copies of copies. There seems to be no ability to see beyond, to see that we have encased ourselves in an artificial environment that has remarkably replaced the original, nature itself. We do not live with nature any longer; we live above it, off of it as it were. Nature has become the resource to keep this artificial or new nature alive.

KOYAANISQATSI is not so much about something, nor does it have a specific meaning or value. KOYAANISQATSI is, after all, an animated object, an object in moving time, the meaning of which is up to the viewer. Art has no intrinsic meaning. This is its power, its mystery, and hence, its attraction. Art is free. It stimulates the viewer to insert their own meaning, their own value.

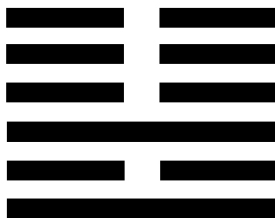

The film's role is to provoke, to raise questions that only the audience can answer. This is the highest value of any work of art, not predetermined meaning, but meaning gleaned from the experience of the encounter. The encounter is the interest, not the meaning. If meaning is the point, then propaganda and advertising is the form. So in the sense of art, the meaning of KOYAANISQATSI is whatever you wish to make of it.

This is its power :)

I Ching For The Week of March 24, 2014

#36 Ming I Hiding the Light

Below Li Fire (light)

The Wisdom:
Caution is advised
Do not show your strength
Keep your light hidden
Dark forces feed on light

The heaviness that you are feeling is very real. Know well that while developing your inner strength and working for your betterment, you are vulnerable in ways that are not familiar; therefore you do not have the experience to defeat the negativity around you at this moment. The benefit now is to stay in the background, in the shadows, while you keenly observe the situation. Be cautious, for in the darkness is danger and the likelihood that you can suffer great damage if you try to confront what is blocking your progress.

These times denote the obvious differentiation between light and dark. Know this and hide your light. Continue to develop but not in the open. These are times of difficulties where you are confronted with danger or obstacles on the path. It would be foolhardy to confront these negative forces. Stay chill and let it seem that you don't notice their divisiveness as they strike out or try to stop you; just hold steady with the knowledge that this time of hardships will bring knowledge and creativity that will serve you well when it is the appropriate time to step out of the shadows into the light. Do not confront evil nor let it know that you recognize it for what it is... branding darkness only gives it power and that power is taken from you and you are left standing naked on the shore of your dreams and desires. Retreat is not what is called for, as retreat empowers the opposition. Stand steady, and make it appear you are oblivious to what is obvious. A delicate balancing act for sure, but it is a tactic of survival.

If you were to give up your position you would lose all the advances you have made from your inner emotional and spiritual work. If you confront the demon, be it a person, a nasty situation, or a major delay, you will show too much of yourself, your inner light, and the danger will easily suck your energy and leave you vulnerable to real injury, physically or psychically. Instead, this is the time to be strong and powerful and not show your light. Your brilliance of intellect and spirit must remain hidden for now. In this way, you will maintain your inner strength, combined with a sense of confidence and humor. In many ways there is a comic veneer to this obvious play for power over you. Keep your irony inside and know that your stillness is of the greatest benefit of all.

The light of hope and faith
Has sunk into the earth

And cannot be seen;
The treasure is thus hidden
From thieves.

If there is danger on the path – be it in your family, your tribe, your finances, your business, your health, or in travel – now is not the time to try and fix it and to show your light. Your light is the result of having done your work and having gathered information and strength through your diligent work for your own and the greater good.

The beneficial and correct action to take during this delay and danger is to stay out of the fray. There is a teaching in early Chinese writings that says a Calling Bird will call you forth at the correct time and will open a new and glorious cycle for you to gain the freedom, love and abundance that waits, but it is masked by the chaotic swirling energy before you. Be still and listen for the sweet song of the Calling Bird. Never doubt that it will come.

When a dark force seems to be entering your business, health or your relationship, the ego says to step up and try to beat it down. Ming I, this hexagram gives you the message that this is not the proper action. Don't let your analytical mind take over and tempt you to figure a way to defeat the challenge. That would be an error of great magnitude. Be seen as gentle and compassionate, for if you were to go on the attack or go to war, you would only feed and empower the negativity. A confrontation would empower this dark force and it would gain more strength to obstruct your progress for a very long time.

If you find your progress is blocked now and you want to effect change, stay on your path and conceal your light for the time being until the demons have become exhausted and have vanished. Then proceed when the road is clear. The obstacles, negative energy, or people in the way would only feast on your reason and light and remain in your path for a very long period of time – too long.

In confinement, whether self-imposed or not, is where creativity will flower. And King Wen, many thousands of years ago, wrote the Yi Jing (the classic that the I Ch'ing is drawn from) while hiding from enemies and mourning for his father.

The time to shine like the sun at midday is coming, but for now chill out and let the darkness pass. Very soon you will be safe to continue with beauty and light toward completion, tranquility, peace, love, and abundance.

This is one of the most powerful lessons within the I Ch'ing, a lesson once learned will be your medicine in this world of yin and yang, darkness and light. Do not avoid the darkness, see it, know it, and let it run its course. In stillness you are safe; in action of confrontation you are in danger. Let love lead the way inside, and embrace the stillness as an elixir of your life force. From this point all will be clear.

Love and Many Blessings

NEW MOON in Aries heralds in a powerful new start. It is the beginning of the Astrological New Year and a momentous time in history where the ripples of transformation have been seeded and action to bring in the new is being called for now. Each of us plays a part in this collective rebirth. It is time to find and trust our own unique expression, and use our voice, our being, and our vibration to embody the changes and the energies we wish to experience.

Like the International Council of 13 Indigenous Grandmothers reminded us this past weekend spent in deep ceremony and prayer, "The hardest journey is from your head to your heart, but once you get there, you'll know who you are."

Here are the MYSTIC MAMMA Astral Insights from the most tuned in readers of the stars...

First from the always progressive Cathy Pagano from her Wisdom of Astrology:

“With both the Sun and Moon in Aries, we really begin the new astrological year....Aries’ primal fire and passion move us into life...”

“We must each find our courage—an Aries trait—to become the people we are meant to evolve into. And to bring our ideas, our love and our purpose to help the larger community as we go through our collective transformation.”

“This New Moon is truly a new birth. It is energetically connected to the on-going Pluto-Uranus square, the womb of evolution that is presently shaking and re-shaping our planetary life. We are living in such important times—times where not only people, but the Earth herself needs defending. We all are being called upon to take an active role in shaping our future.

“As Pluto pulls down the decaying structures of patriarchal society (and corporations becoming ‘people’ is the ultimate sociopathic attempt by patriarchy to hold onto power), we need new ideas, new leaders and new structures that reflect true democracy around the world to fill the void left by Pluto’s destruction.

“And that includes equality not only between women and men, but between feminine intuition/feeling and masculine rationality/facts. We need both sides of our brains to help solve our problems and create a more caring, open and free society.

“...Each of us has a different destiny, a different calling. That’s what Aries’ energy moves us to explore...We’ll activate our Aries energies in a big way with Uranus in Aries very close to this New Moon. Uranus is the great Awakener, the revolutionary and the mad genius of the zodiac...”

“With Mars the warrior retrograding in Libra, the sign of the Other, we are more willing to defend the rights of others, to work on being fair and balanced and to be kind and courteous. Libra is ‘ruled’ by Venus, the feminine energy of love, wisdom and connection. This loving energy will sustain us when express ourselves....”

“As we ground in this new identity (Uranus in Aries), our warrior nature will help us challenge the powers-that-be that stand in the way of needed transformation (Pluto in Capricorn). So find your inner spiritual warrior who will guard your back and help keep you focused on your destiny. And don’t be afraid to step in and defend people, places and animals who can’t help themselves.”

“The Aries New Moon, birthed within the Uranus-Pluto womb, is strengthened by the addition of Jupiter in Cancer and a wide opposition from Mars. These four planets are slowly coming together to form a cardinal grand cross in the sky—a celestial call to action.

“Jupiter in Cancer opens our emotional bodies so we can integrate these transformative energies and find a new wholeness. Mars energizes our willpower as well as our desires, and Jupiter challenges us to include the desires of our community and our world.

“So you can see why this New Moon is so potent. The energy of transformation is being seeded within each of us. Find out where Aries and Mars are in your birth chart, and it will give you a good idea of the texture and focus of this new beginning and the kind of warrior energy you carry.

“The Sabian symbol for the Sun and Moon at 10° Aries is: A shining golden ring, engraved with magical symbols. This image speaks of a marriage ring which symbolizes a union with the Self—the divine spark within each of us. The magical symbols represent the archetypal laws of life which are the foundations of our own life. When we are connected to the Self, we are Self-confident, Self-possessed. We include all of ourselves into the truth of who we are and who we are here on Earth to be. Then the magic can happen.

We'll need to live out our higher Self to take on this challenge. We are being initiated into a higher consciousness; we are birthing a new future for our world. We are the grandmothers and grandfathers of the future. Don't be afraid to blaze new trails and think new thoughts.

“Venus in Aquarius challenges Saturn in Scorpio to hold onto our high ideals and our unique gifts in relationships. Old relationship wounds need to be transformed into understanding, as our higher Mind gets activated.

“Our visions of the future must be grounded in our collective welfare. Saturn is part of a grand water trine, along with Jupiter in Cancer and Mercury in Pisces. Our connection to each other through this water triangle merges with the grand cross through Jupiter in Cancer. We really need to think outside the box and understand that what's good for me is also good for you. The psychic water trine brings our emotional bodies into balance so we can handle the grand cross' energies.

“We are heading into an intense month. By mid-April, this grand cross will tighten just as we enter eclipse season. Life is picking up speed. The best thing you can do is stay centered, married to yourself, so you can open up to the energies in a conscious way. Become channels for this energy by naming it and owning it.

“During April, the grand cross hits America's 4th of July birth chart Sun square Saturn. It will ask Americans to grow up and find their true freedom. Astrologers are guessing at all the ways these energies will manifest in the culture. We cannot predict what will happen, although we can certainly imagine some of the outcomes. This will be a pivotal moment of change in some way. But since we don't want to sit back and just be spectators, here's an idea.

What would happen if during this month, we consciously use this energy to interact with people in a deep way by radiating who we really are. We can use the energies of this grand cross to BE an example of the best way to deal with our times.

“We could stop hiding our light under a bushel. Imagine how you want to BE and trust yourself to be it.”

From the always insightful Dipali Desai and her Celestial Space Astrology:

“The New Moon in Aries at 10 degrees on March 30th, 2014 ushers in extremely creative energy. Consider this New Moon as an ignition point for the month ahead as it contains intensely accelerated unpredictable and transformational energies and astrological configurations.

“The New Moon in Aries makes a bold statement and thus leaves no stone unturned as it may symbolically or literally directly point the way to the path that is untraveled. Within the unknown or unfamiliar, the Divine as the opportunity to bring in wonderful surprises.

...Be straightforward and ask for what you need and what you will accept in your life. This is a time to embrace your individual life path and it's uniqueness. Provide plenty of breathing room within relationships this week until after the New Moon in Aries. Smothering or being overly clinging is not a viable option.

"In fact, if this potent energy is not grounded or directed into healthy outlets people may act over hyper, lash out, be super hyper and even agitated or angry. It is raw energy seeking for healthy use but you have to do this consciously otherwise it may become destructive and hurt others.

What is evident is that there is huge emphasis on big changes in lifestyle, nutrition, exercise, addressing old issues and healthy empowering emotional expression. This is not going away, rather only increasing its symbolic or literal pressure to ensure that each person takes this seriously and makes the necessary adjustments in a realistic way.

"The New Moon in Aries is a breath of fresh air as it provides the impetus to act in accordance with inner guidance and move swiftly.

"It is best not to force, coerce and dominate others with this potent energy. Bending another to your will only backfire now. More importantly why would you want to do that when you can be putting all your energy and focus into your life path and happiness?"

"This New Moon, suggests to embrace your individual spark and to have the courage to take action in life. Even if you do not know where it leads, the Archetype of the Inner Compassionate Warrior (symbolized by Aries) will help you explore a new way of life or expression. Go forth with gusto as this may just bring delightful surprises you may not expect."

A wonderful perspective from Andrew Smith from Cosmic Intelligence Agency:

"Throughout history there have been times when the Veil between the spiritual and the physical has thinned; times wherein we, as a collective, experience pressures to seismically regenerate as monumental libidinal energies are liberated. Those times are replete with paradoxical themes – the burgeoning anticipation of birth, coupled with the anxiety of overwhelming body splitting pain; the euphoria of love that comes with cradling the nascent infant and the knowingness that your life (and body) will never again be the same; the hope that comes with projecting into the future and the fear that life will continue to unfold in the way that always has. Tension and its companion, release, walk confidently hand in hand through the chaos that precedes the emergence of new life.

"As the Veil thins and through this 'Tempest of Transition', lights have always shone brightly, as brave and solitary souls. Those pioneers do not waver from their authentic path and they speak of their truth (often to the detriment of their social standing), producing work that has heralded quantum shifts within our human consciousness..."

"We are living through one such time. The Veil is so thin at the moment and our world is not the same. Moreover, your world is no longer the same! Both are experiencing massive changes, penetrating all levels of reality – personal, social, cultural and environmental.

"Now is not the time to maintain the thought forms that defined the previous way of being. Those methods simply do not work anymore – be they the limitations of the logical positivist methodology of the material and economic sciences or the codification of a hierarchical misogyny within the monotheistic religious traditions – never in recorded history has there been a level of awareness that the system simply is not working! What that new system looks and feels like is up to you.

"We are living through the birthing a new way of viewing life..."

“Have you ever been in the presence of someone who utterly exudes a sense of being or a sense of oneness with what they are doing; who has a sense of complete immersion in and focus upon the task at hand? Have you noticed how enrapturing it is to be in this person’s presence? It is as if their aura ensorcells all those around them and thereby further enabling the manifestation of their devotion, even if the inspirer is without a notion of wilful egoic desire...”

“Many people who are consumed by this fire are invisible to both the media and the masses owing to the fact that to be truly immersed with what calls them means that they just are. When you are in this state of being you simply act. You do. You don’t talk about it. You don’t promote yourself, ask people to write about what you are doing, and you don’t sit and over analyse the pros and cons about it, or think about whether it is going to make you money and successful. In this state of being you simple are. So deeply infused with spirit and passion, you are prompted to act, without thought and without concern for the outcome, since you will find a way to make it happen, irrespectively of the challenges and disappointments.

“Think of any young children in your life. Think, too, of what you were like when you were an innocent child. Within you there remains an enchanted place where the colors are more luminous and the air more fragrant than ever; a place where marvels never cease; miracles and magic abound; and where fascination and enthusiasm breed creation. This place is called Aries.

“This is the place within you wherein Spirit remains embryonic and wherein you can live without complexity, in simple honesty and awe. Yet, maintaining this singular focus, or belief, throughout your life is not easy. Yet it is possible... regardless of whether your Path is one to actively experience this dimension, it is one of the twelve spiritual paths that exist within you.

“This path, known as the path of Initiatory Spirit, is what astrologers call Aries and it simply is a path, like that of a child’s, that pronounces a willingness to courageously bear the light and express love without any doubt or fear.

“A child simply is. His/ her imagination is immanent and real, not something into which they escape. He/ she lives completely in the now. They do not worry. Their minds are not full of ‘what if’ questions. They are true scientists continually asking What? Why? And How?! They are fuelled by enthusiasm and wonder. They live in joy because they only do what they love to do. They are the ultimately spiritual beings because they are in the continual act of creation through their own creativity.

“... With the alignment of the Lights to Uranus and squaring both Pluto and Jupiter, you have an opportunity to change fundamentally old and well grooved patterns, replenishing them with your authentic self, that 4 year old within, that lived life free from worry, stress and only did things that he/ she loved – the 4 year old that demonstrated the Aries within.

“Remember the child within you. Remember what you loved/ love. When you focus on what you love to do, you will worry less simply because you are in a state of joy. And when you worry less, you are free to take action.

“Moreover, if you genuinely believe that you cannot move consciously onto your authentic path, find some way to make your existing path fun and enjoyable. Even though there may be days when you feel that facing the day with the spirit of a child is impossible; it is one of those challenges that when faced head-on – you will reap rewards beyond your wildest dreams!

“So this coming Arian lunation display that spirit of eagerness and adventure which will allow you to create absolute miracles in what you achieve; allow yourself to play; to take risks; to abandon any fears and doubts; and your greatest thrill will be when you learn that you can develop a ‘habit’ of rising in the morning and facing each day with a child-like spirit!”

From astrologer Divine Harmony:

“On Sunday we have a very powerful New Moon in Aries that takes us into the most intense and profound month of astrology I have ever seen (in my years studying astrology intensely that is).

“The seeds we plant and intentions we set this weekend will take us far into the future- so it is wise to take a moment to really get clear on what it is we want! In relationships, in work and career, in family situations, in finances, in health. Finding our own True North - that guiding Light that leads us back to our original selves - is the most potent manifestation of this lunation.

“Yet we do have to keep in mind that this Lunation is conjunct Uranus and square Jupiter and Pluto- so this New Moon cycle also takes us into a radical month of shake ups, wake up calls, breakdowns and breakthroughs of massive proportions. This is personal as much as it is collective- so pay attention to your Inner Life as well as what is happening around you in the coming months.

“There may be times when life is really chaotic and the only control you have is on your reactions and your response to what is playing out around you. I have been saying this for months now, but it cannot hurt to say it again here: Finding your center and strengthening your capacity to return to it again and again despite the storms outside will serve you well in the coming month.

“This kind of astrology has a really BIG energy around it and many people can feel it amping up right now. Apocalyptic thinking won't serve if it only causes you to go into fear. But if you don't know the true meaning of Apocalypsia- you should know: it means the lifting of the veil. Sometimes specifically it means the lifting of the bridal veil.

“We all have amazing opportunities to lift the veil this coming month. The veil of delusion, illusion, deception - of self and by others. The veil of confusion, lack, disconnection and apathy. And yes considering the bridal veil connotation - we may even get a glimpse of the Goddess in her full glory in the coming weeks! So keep your eyes, mind and heart open!”

Lastly from Robert Wilkinson from his Aquarius Papers:

“This is a heavily transmutational New Moon, with the ability to ‘raise the natural to the human,’ or see the natural magic in who we are once we drop old emotional sludge or baggage that may not have ever been ours to begin with. See a great vision of ‘civilized living,’ and be willing to be called to a renewal. Just expect that things will accelerate with extraordinary speed in the near future, so don't get bugged by the pressure.”
