

Eco Watch ~ Social Networking

Mission Statement.

A Not For Profit Organisation

Our Objectives

“To create an internet social networking group of likeminded individuals from all over the World, to facilitate a forum, to research, develop, produce, facilitate and promote nature and conservancy issues, environmental issues, reports and Projects, to highlight erroneous practices and dubious methodologies, to make appeals on behalf of nature conservancy and protection wherever there is a need and to celebrate and educate members and affiliates in and of our nature and natural resources..

To provide a forum whereby likeminded individuals can ask for, seek or elicit help, guidance, information or advice from Members, or affiliates, or undertake research or appeals on behalf of nature conservancy and protection.”

Our Mission

“To provide likeminded people and groups with a global internet forum resource whereby member numbers may draw from experience, information or guidance in a positive sense, for those related nature conservancy and protection and environmental Projects.

To use positively and constructively the congregated voice of the collective of Eco Watch members to raise awareness of nature and environmental issues.

Eco Watch is not an income generating organisation but may from time to time handle appeal monies on behalf of both applicants and members.

Eco Watch will not retain any monies whatsoever from such activities but transfer whole collections/donations amounts.