

The Credit Score Scale

Positive Credit

Negative Credit

600

600

650

550

700

500

750

450

800

400

850

350

To better understand how credit repair works
It is important that you know how your credit score is calculated.

In simplistic terms there are only two forms of credit.

- Positive Credit that pulls your score higher
- Negative Credit that pulls your score lower

The difference between your positive credit and your negative credit determines your credit score.

How Credit Repair works is by permanently removing the negative credit allowing the positive credit to pull your score higher.