- the Virgo eclipse will hit the USA financially and also the communications sector
- MR: this lines up with other things we've heard
- AR makes an offer to the listeners:
 - She's an Aries with 6 planets in Taurus; her moon is in Virgo – people don't know where the planets are in their birth chart which means they won't be aware of the influence of those planets.

HARD NEWS

R: with great certainty: what happened in Chatanooga was another Black Ops

- has to do with the fact that the 13 families are in a corner, and Mother, who was here before the gods were here, has them in her field of vision! They are petrified about what is going to happen.
- Pluto in the midst of this: the latest photos from there – lots to be said about what is going on with Pluto;
 - Chiron, the little system of Pluto, is one of the double planets of the system
 - Pluto is not a dwarf planet; it's a jumping off place from the solar system – the Kuiper Belt is at the edge of the Solar system, then you go close to the Orc Cloud and then out of the solar system into inter stellar space and avoid the asteroids!

The #1 thing in our face: full disclosure any time now

KOS – the photos coming back from Pluto are some kind of signal that full disclosure process is quickening.

Talked to Jimmy Carter and KOS today: Carter called up with the King as he's getting the sense that it's time to beam up: said he feels like a pat of butter spread too thin on a piece of bread: he's 90 and still going strong but has the moments of being really, really tired - getting the sense he wants to continue the mission on the other side with Ashtar – just changed the coat!

- Comes clean with family history and will be saying it publically: father is Joe Kennedy Sr and brother is JFK Sr who was killed because he was going to talk about the galactics and the fact that to this day we are still talking about nuclear weapons.
- All the nukes are neutralized: Ashtar has it in the bag; they are playing with the brinkmanship game, even with the conventional weapons left, and they will be useless pretty soon!
- Also heard Mark Lavene, an intern for Barney Frank and worked on the Dodd-Frank Bill alongside of Barney Frank and Chris Dodd – talked of the shooting in TN- what is going on here is that Peppy la Peu [head of NRA] has to be held accountable for war crimes as he has been providing guns for various war efforts and for the number of guns available in the US
 - Mark, who is gay, went into the story about the murder of his sister - has to do with C Street and their unusual activities. She found out about what was going on there and started to talk about it, word got out and she was murdered
 - He says it has to do with Denny Hastor and Bill Frist and Hastor has just been cleared of something when he is guilty
 - Where the evangelical men hang out and have all kinds of partners, sexual and all kinds
 - To learn about C Street, go to www.FamilyofSecrets.com tells the whole story of it;
 - even brings up Ted Gunderson who was involved in bringing young kids to the W H for "use" by officials, after which they were murdered.

AR: what did the Greeks use as collateral for the money they borrowed from the IMF?

T: haven't borrowed it yet - the next payment due on the 20th ; didn't pay the last one

- the Troika stole their commons and will sell it off or put it in the hedge funds and triple it
- No, they did not use 2 islands; took a lot of land, all their airports & have privatized things so they can sell it off and triple the worth, and put the money in their pockets.

AR: thinks it would shake up the US because of their military bases.

T: nothing is as it seems: they are lizards and run the world as they see fit - until they don't

- Reminds us that the entire extended family of Obama including all of Michelle's extended family down to the last baby has been threatened with death if Obama does not push the TTP
 - They also threatened the entire family of P.M. Tsipris in the same way.
 - They did it to Sen Tom Daschle when he exposed Bush Jr after the Second State of the Union – he gave a $1 Billion tax break to all kinds of people; when Daschele said this with the beginning of the end of the US & he was causing the demise of the country, they killed and cloned every last person in the extended family
 - They are getting more prolific with this as they are desperate!

Feb 6th, 2014 the entire global economy collapsed – all that has happened since is treason, lies and debt to the tune of thousands of trillions – astronomical amounts of complete, total treason

- this is why Max Keiser is screaming on RT about getting money out of the big banks before it is entirely gone
 - the EU is a criminal organization set up by the 13 families based on the Babylonian Money machine; the satanists worship the owl god
- Mother's wayward children, the old Elohim that fell -

T: At a meeting of a full disclosure group with the lobbyist, Dr Stephen Bassett, at the Joshua Tree about a week ago: they were uncovering what is going on and they called it the 4th Reich. This started right after the war, and the United States corporate fascist state is the 4th Reich in the US – they are unravelling all the criminals since the end of WW 2

- Hank Paulson and some Greek oligarchs and the Masters of the Euro Zone [name of article]

[SEE BELOW]

- Lucas Papadamos ran the central bank of Greece, as well as being prime Minister – working with Goldman Sachs and was able to hide the debt of Greece – did it in the credit swap derivative market. Paulson provided the platform to enable this & put lots in his pocket.

Caller: learned of the conviction of the shooter in Aurora, CO - found guilty; will do the sentencing phase in next 10 – 14 days. Two weeks ago, same situation in Boston – what about the whole situation?

- Mark Lavene brought this up on his show: he went all the way back to Columbine – all Black Ops set up by the 13 families to promote fear and fascination with the dark side
 - Hillary Clinton planned and set up a blood sacrifice in Charleston – set up the ritual energy for Daryll Storm Roof who was just a go-between, like the Aurora killer. The police were in on the Aurora operation as they held the drugged young man in the police cruiser. The drug they used was one that wiped his mind clean: which is why he does not know why he is in court or what he was supposed to have done.
 - Hillary set up the blood ritual sacrifice [in Charleston] to feed the dark side so they can continue to keep people distracted while they continue their NWO

C: in the news, Obama visited a federal prison in Oklahoma City the KKK were all there

- It's the same KKK members who helped set up Charleston:
 - Thom Hartmann talking about this all week – if the statistics from the racist states, it those states were eliminated the US would not be at the bottom of all kinds of lists
 - the stats are heavily laden with negative results that are from the southern states
 - only 1 state was not a confederate state; all the others do not accept extended Medicaid
 - this state was Wisconsin as the Koch Bros want Walker to be president
 - another story yesterday: the supreme Court Justice became a S C justice when he brought forth the 10,000 votes that “Had been missing the day before” The election of Walker was rigged behind the scene:

- ordered the burning of all the investigative material that tied him to the planning for the rigging and the 10,000 votes "discovered" over night after the polls were closed and he had lost
- he's all got his "right to work" thing going on, too.

C: could anyone knock Trump off his pedestal and ask for his birth certificate? Will some reporters bring this up?

- it will happen when it happens; he is a shoo-in to get rid of Jeb Bush as the front-runner and to set up Scott Walker by the Koch Bros
- the Dutch royals are part of the 13 families and basically own the planet; they set up the Bush family in power along with the Thyssen chicken company - and if you try to follow that rabbit through that rabbit hole, you'll get lost!

MR: the fastest selling pinata is of Trump - and it has no candy in it!

- Japan's Shinzo Abe and the lower house over which his coalition has control passed a bill to send military forces abroad - so the whole position of Japan has been changed.
 - A young person said the bill destroys the principles of our Constitution and especially the 9th Amendment: unless you are attacked directly on the turf of Japan, you don't take up arms - putting this bill into law changes the country: the people cannot accept these bills!
 - the upper house has 60 days to review the legislation
- Don't get stuck on any one thing - lots of fingers on this octopus that are encroaching. We are the United States of Altea America & it's not for nothing that St Germain has 2 offices in Virginia and 1 in DC!!

C: what about Italy and Portugal - are they next to fall?

- It is not about them falling; it is about them rising up!
- GREECE IS A FIRST WORLD COUNTRY & 40% OF THEIR CHILDREN ARE MALNOURISHED LIKE YEMEN!
And Yemen is in the verge of total famine! Courtesy of the Empire - from America!
 - People are 80 years old & still trying to scrounge a living: Greece is Auschwitz in public!

C: the people must rise up and say "No more!"

- The real Troika endeavour is to wipe out Tsipris' party which represents the people rising up; want to have an early election in Sept & put in the party they have bought which is the right wing Nazi conservative one; this has been planned.

C: time for lightworkers to wake up and walk in love, light and freedom!

- The other thing is that the Republicans have lost their mind, as Obama and his team have pulled off an absolute marvel in Iran.
- On the NESARA story, there are some changes; currently, the only info out there is the Faction 2 report which is not correct in many details.
 - People need to know that THE ENTIRE CONGRESS [not just 15 people] WAS USHERED INTO KOS' STARSHIP AND VOTED TO BRING Nesara into being. Didn't want to talk of starships either. March 9th, 2000
 - AND THE BRITISH SOLDIERS DESTROYED ALL COPIES OF THE TONA [Title of Nobility Amendment] IN WAR OF 1812 which said IF YOU HAVE A tie to the Crown of England, you cannot hold office in the US - 95% of members of Congress have a title of nobility and they will be deposed
- N REMOVES publically THE ENTIRE SHADOW GOV'T, the IRS, Fed Reserve Bank
 - #13 Eliminates the THE FED RESERVE system - that is changed: the fed Reserve system will not be allowed to work side-by side for a year NO - when the announcement is made, the entire Fed Res will be shut down - cannot turn our old bills / cash sitting under our beds and take it in at a major bank as they will all have new rainbow bills. The old money will only be honoured in credit unions; 401Ks will go back to zero, also any money in the market will be gone - yes - all goes to Zero

- Everyone will be assessed on the spiritual level - we are going to Divine government.

Guest: Omena Topic: healing rays of the soul + components

We each come in on a ray depending on the quality we want to develop

Blue - strength, faith and courage to stand in our own personal power

- means you take personal responsibility for it
- brings lots of challenges to those who come in on the blue ray

Pink - love, light and oneness in all creation - we come totally from the heart

- respect all on their journey; we see everyone as one

Green - balance, understanding, forgiveness

- Invocation is "I am love, I am Light, I am healed" - keep saying this if you have any problems - it invokes the vibrations to bring in healing.

Orange - talent, resourcefulness, being creative

- Mantra: "I am aligned with my soul's purpose." Keep saying this if having troubles knowing what your soul's purpose is; The I AM is the strongest vibration to be invoked

Purple - the transcending ray

- " My soul is the purest of the god/goddess desire." To keep repeating if trying to transcend an attitude, a feeling, whatever

Gold - wisdom: the wisdom to know my truth

- have to listen to own heart & soul to find this; if our consciousness is high enough, we will realize what it is; the wisdom is to allow others to come to their own truth without us imposing our ideas on them.

Iridescent - spiritual enlightenment - embodies all the other colours

- Mantra: "I am all that I am, all that is, always will be."
- This is a circle from the spiritual to the body, the human element
- Keeps us connected to our higher realms

MR: what is the best way to find out which ray we belong to?

O: the rays are a way of attuning to our spiritual selves; people ask what ray they are and oftentimes we are attracted to certain colours

- Each of the colours is a royal tone - shows as the deepest colour level
- Each healing ray has 7 levels too - from the palest to the deepest color level
- they keep us focused on our spiritual growth by giving us ideas on what we have to heal

MR: what is her colour?

O: has MR on 2 - pink about creation in all
Purple - transcending

- MR is using the love ray to help her with the purple ray

MR: does Robert's merging with M have something to do with this?

O: he's on pink ray and helping her; she is on purple ray and working on transcending to more of her spiritual being. Robert is helping her - he's talking to Omena at the moment! She's never had this happen before!

MR: she didn't know it was possible to merge these energies - this happened 8 years ago, shortly after Robert left the planet.

O: Robert hasn't finished his contract with her on a soul level so he merged some of his energy with her from the pink ray to help her; now she's beginning to transcend into the Oneness, to see all as the Oneness.

C1:

O: she's on the orange healing ray – talent, resourcefulness, creativity

- Start using "I am aligned with my soul's purpose"
- she's also dealing with fear of rejection which is another of the blocks
- Fear of rejection is a false thing – others may not vibrate to her energy

CL:

O: she's blocking O - that blocking is unconscious; she's on the green healing ray trying to achieve balance, understanding and forgiveness; some old stuff needing attention: forgiveness of self first. "I am love, I am light, I am healed."

CL: just a little surprised: needs to think about it

- feeling good about forgiveness – has done a lot of work there

O: could be something from another life time or life times

- people also misunderstand about forgiveness which implies we have to give something to somebody; we need to start with self and forgive self for not honouring self - can be too critical of ourselves and that gets in the way of balance – ask soul to show it to you and use the mantra to bring it forward.

MR: is there a collective something that all the members of the group might be working on or just fulfilling individual goals?

O: all working on own individual goals, and what brings all of you together is the golden ray – not important to agree with each other, but to allow the others to follow their own path – that is the collective ray

T: has an analytical part to her [O: you're just kidding us, right?!] - familiar with the orange ray – you're having a false sense of your own humility and the way to break through this is to call on great courage - sees this as some info for Caller 1

O: she's on the blue ray! from orange ray, using resourcefulness

- came in on blue ray to develop the strength, faith & courage to stand in own personal power – you honour it, you own it! And people will challenge you – as T knows.
- sometimes analytic mind gets in the way
- the part of the green ray is to understand it all which is part of
- True humility comes from knowing, having the faith that this true for you

T: when her [Omena's] voice comes on, there is so much love in it

Ask about Carolyn's ray: she's on Pink – learning to come more and more from the heart

- surround yourself with pink! Would be interesting to know if she likes the colour pink.
- If someone doesn't like the colour pink, ??

O: take a leap of faith; you can always use a bandaid!

C says some part of pink she likes, others not

- looks like a real fear of being hurt
- the part of the pink she does like, wear it,
- will send energy to the pink she does like, and more to the pink she doesn't like

CL: Carolyn says thanks for the answers.

Rama:

O: he's all over the place! Couldn't even decide before he came what ray he wanted to come in

- he's on the orange ray – still trying to line up with his soul's purpose
- He dances all over the place and doesn't spend enough time focussing on his talents – focus more on the thing you love the most.

- He has a hard time receiving

R: this is so – thank you.

Angelsu: [Su]

O: the gold ray – about wisdom; she's searching for wisdom but in all the wrong places

- sometimes she denies her own truth – surround herself with gold light!
- She's a little shy

C2:

O: blue ray! Developing strength, faith and courage to stand in own power getting better at it

- in order to develop, need to start practicing not to personalize things too much –
- remember it's about the other person, not about you. Sometimes courage is about just standing there and saying nothing – just say “I am strength, I am faith, I am courage” - especially when you'd like to say something and you know you shouldn't.

O: practicing not to take things personally is hard for the blue ray - as they deplete your energy and lower your vibrations – as you listen, remember it is about them, not you!

C2: How to tie in with lessons of patience and trust?

- Trust has to do with finding trust within self, patience is developing the strength to hold your own when you need to and to know when to remain silent when you need to – and to know the difference between the two: especially when someone is being critical of you. Just say “You're entitled to your own opinion” and don't take on their energy – that stops them because you are not taking on their energy.
- Also have a guardian angel whose name is Lilac – just ask her for help. Nothing can happen to you without your permission: no one can get in your face or your space without your permission. Believe that and have faith in that: give voice to who you are!

MR: Nicholas Alexander – grandson

O: purple ray – vibrates to both “Nick” and “Nicholas”

- going through a transformation; feels like a lot of them at times – transcending old habits, looking for new insights
- they are connected but working on different aspects of the purple ray

O: the violet flame / cosmic

“ “ My soul is the purest of the god/goddess desire.” repeat at least 3x – 6x, 9x, 12x

“I am the cosmic law of forgiveness forgiving all past mistakes that mankind has every made.

I am the cosmic law of forgiveness forgiving all past mistakes that I have ever made.

In God's most holy name, I AM.”

When we recite this, we are standing in the purple flame – and we invite the person to stand there too

- this begins to clean up the karmic stuff from a cellular level - a very, very powerful flame
 - wonderful way to speed up the process, and to clean up energy and transform it.
- And send it to Nick for use in all parts of his life – and put it in your car!

Closing: what's really important for us to know – the love vibration is the one most important to pay attention to

- negative energy is dense
 - the love vibration is warm, light and bright – takes constant attention to remind ourselves that we are children of god, and that we are good enough to be loved, to give love, receive love and to be part of that vibration.
 - Have to think about it and bring it down to the heart and let the heart do its thing!
 - “I am love, I am light; I love myself; I love myself to let others love me unconditionally”
- She calls it Impersonal Spirituality

D'Yanna: any guidance ?

O: going through a spiritual crisis; understanding this takes the fear out of it

- she's leaving blue ray & going to the purple ray; there is some healing that needs to take place – there is much confusion when in a crisis – she has to decide what she wants to focus on – “I am strength, I am faith and I am courage to be my own person”

D'Y: Issue has to do with health and coming back stronger – stuff going on is very intense

O: part of the healing journey is letting go of some old stuff; some things stuck around heart chakra and her mid section: the creative centre is blocked – heart is feeling centre; digestive centre

- Ask for help to clear this out: www.omena777.com is website; e-mail her from there

• Use the invocation of the violet flame

D'Y: Yes, she does use it!!!

- Begin to have a willingness to let go of that which no longer serves your highest good
 - If you want to be a superhero, we sell capes for that!!!
- This is a spiritual crisis and that's what the physical thing is about

D'Y: It's chronic and heredity

O: give it back to the family – why did you take it on?

Just transcend it as you no longer want to be part of that: surrender it

“I am willing to give up this chronic condition.”

www.omena777.com

e-mail is there

Phone: 860-871-6076

MR: almost all of the team have different rays so they can come together and support each other

O: yes – they support & help each other, as well as force each other – and good humour is a wonderful thing!

- No one is on the iridescent yet – Omena is working on it. She's moving from the purple ray to the 1st level of the iridescent ray. It's another story!
 - Her mission is life is spiritual enlightenment and teaching others.
- It's about healing what we have to heal – thinks human beings are the funniest things on earth.

Another caller:

O: her brain is very busy, not letting her in

- Green ray – AC: she likes that colour! It's no coincidence -
- “I am love, I am Light, I am healed” – need to say that; healing from past lives & from this one
- Can also use the purple ray for transcending
- Sees children around her – has no children, but deeply in love with her neices and nephews
- Has to pay attention to what feelings the kids bring up in her; understand them, let them go

AC: Yes, 2 do irritate her – what do they bring up in her?

- No, they are not her grandparents re-incarnated – the grandparents are still on the other side.
- The children are trying to teach her things. The more you love one, the more irritated the others will be.

AC: Asks about going back to london: something blocking her – fear of being rejected if she goes.

MR: lots of revelations – thank you so much!

O: loves us all, grateful we are in her life! Wonderful to be able to share

HARD NEWS

T: Omena is a very wise owl!

- Please send MR blessings too – it all goes into the kitty!

MR: signing off.

HARD NEWS

The overall message from KOS, Nada, KOE – Greece will definitely leave the Euro zone

- the fearlessness of the people is to be honoured: we have no idea what the austerity has done to the Greek people! In their true ancestry, they are people of colour
- The statues have been bleached – they are people of the black land of Kennet
- between Greece and Egypt was the white city of Poseidon, capital of Atlantis– the great white city is on the floor of the Mediterranean Sea and it is intact!!!

- we are all here to stand for the changes!

[‡] Trans-Neptunian dwarf planets are called "plutoids"

The Kuiper belt /ˈkaɪpər/ or /ˈkɔɪpər/^[1] (as in Dutch), sometimes called the Edgeworth–Kuiper belt, is a region of the Solar System beyond the planets, extending from the orbit of Neptune (at 30 AU) to approximately 50 AU from the Sun.^[2] It is similar to the asteroid belt, but it is far larger—20 times as wide and 20 to 200 times as massive.^{[3][4]} Like the asteroid belt, it consists mainly of small bodies, or remnants from the Solar System's formation. Although many asteroids are composed primarily of rock and metal, most Kuiper belt objects are composed largely of frozen volatiles (termed "ices"), such as methane, ammonia and water. The Kuiper belt is home to three officially recognized dwarf planets: Pluto, Haumea, and Makemake. Some of the Solar System's moons, such as Neptune's Triton and Saturn's Phoebe, are also believed to have originated in the region.^{[5][6]}

The Kuiper belt was named after Dutch-American astronomer Gerard Kuiper, though he did not actually predict its existence. In 1992, 1992 QB₁ was discovered, the first Kuiper belt object (KBO) since Pluto.^[7] Since its discovery, the number of known KBOs has increased to over a thousand, and more than 100,000 KBOs over 100 km (62 mi) in diameter are believed to exist.^[8] The Kuiper belt was initially thought to be the main repository for periodic comets, those with orbits lasting less than 200 years. However, studies since the mid-1990s have shown that the belt is dynamically stable, and that comets' true place of origin is the scattered disc, a dynamically active zone created by the outward motion of Neptune 4.5 billion years ago;^[9] scattered disc objects such as Eris have extremely eccentric orbits that take them as far as 100 AU from the Sun.^[nb 1]

The Kuiper belt should not be confused with the hypothesized Oort cloud, which is a thousand times more distant and is not flat. The objects within the Kuiper belt, together with the members of the scattered disc and any potential Hills cloud or Oort cloud objects, are collectively referred to as trans-Neptunian objects (TNOs).^[12]

Pluto is likely the largest and most-massive member of the Kuiper belt and the largest and the second-most-massive known TNO, surpassed only by Eris in the scattered disc.^[nb 1] Originally considered a planet, Pluto's status as part of the Kuiper belt caused it to be reclassified as a dwarf planet in 2006. It is compositionally similar to many other objects of the Kuiper belt, and its orbital period is characteristic of a class of KBOs, known as "plutinos", that share the same 2:3 resonance with Neptune.

2011-11-18 What price the new democracy? Goldman Sachs conquers Europe

While ordinary people fret about austerity and jobs, the eurozone's corridors of power have been undergoing a remarkable transformation

Stephen Foley

The ascension of Mario Monti to the Italian prime ministership is remarkable for more reasons than it is possible to count. By replacing the scandal-surfing Silvio Berlusconi, Italy has dislodged the undislodgable. By imposing rule by unelected technocrats, it has suspended the normal rules of democracy, and maybe democracy itself. And by putting a senior adviser at Goldman Sachs in charge of a Western nation, it has taken to new heights the political power of an investment bank that you might have thought was prohibitively politically toxic.

This is the most remarkable thing of all: a giant leap forward for, or perhaps even the successful culmination of, the Goldman Sachs Project.

It is not just Mr Monti. The European Central Bank, another crucial player in the sovereign debt drama, is under ex-Goldman management, and the investment bank's alumni hold sway in the corridors of power in almost every European nation, as they have done in the US throughout the financial crisis. Until Wednesday, the International Monetary Fund's European division was also run by a Goldman man, Antonio Borges, who just resigned for personal reasons.

Even before the upheaval in Italy, there was no sign of Goldman Sachs living down its nickname as "the Vampire Squid", and now that its tentacles reach to the top of the eurozone, sceptical voices are raising questions over its influence. The political decisions taken in the coming weeks will determine if the eurozone can and will pay its debts – and Goldman's interests are intricately tied up with the answer to that question.

Simon Johnson, the former International Monetary Fund economist, in his book 13 Bankers, argued that Goldman Sachs and the other large banks had become so close to government in the run-up to the financial crisis that the US was effectively an oligarchy. At least European politicians aren't "bought and paid for" by corporations, as in the US, he says. "Instead what you have in Europe is a shared world-view among the policy elite and the bankers, a shared set of goals and mutual reinforcement of illusions."

This is The Goldman Sachs Project. Put simply, it is to hug governments close. Every business wants to advance its interests with the regulators that can stymie them and the politicians who can give them a tax break, but this is no mere lobbying effort. Goldman is there to provide advice for governments and to provide financing, to send its people into public service and to dangle lucrative jobs in front of people coming out of government. The Project is to create such a deep exchange of people and ideas and money that it is impossible to tell the difference between the public interest and the Goldman Sachs interest.

Mr Monti is one of Italy's most eminent economists, and he spent most of his career in academia and thinktankery, but it was when Mr Berlusconi appointed him to the European Commission in 1995 that Goldman Sachs started to get interested in him. First as commissioner for the internal market, and then especially as commissioner for competition, he has made decisions that could make or break the takeover and merger deals that Goldman's bankers were working on or providing the funding for. Mr Monti also later chaired the Italian Treasury's committee on the banking and financial system, which set the country's financial policies.

With these connections, it was natural for Goldman to invite him to join its board of international advisers. The bank's two dozen-strong international advisers act as informal lobbyists for its interests with the politicians that regulate its work. Other advisers include Otmar Issing who, as a board member of the German Bundesbank and then the European Central Bank, was one of the architects of the euro.

Perhaps the most prominent ex-politician inside the bank is Peter Sutherland, Attorney General of Ireland in the 1980s and another former EU Competition Commissioner. He is now non-executive chairman of Goldman's UK-based broker-dealer arm, Goldman Sachs International, and until its collapse and nationalisation he was also a non-executive director of Royal Bank of Scotland. He has been a prominent voice within Ireland on its bailout by the EU, arguing that the terms of emergency loans should be eased, so as not to exacerbate the country's financial woes. The EU agreed to cut Ireland's interest rate this summer.

Picking up well-connected policymakers on their way out of government is only one half of the Project, sending Goldman alumni into government is the other half. Like Mr Monti, Mario Draghi, who took over as President of the ECB on 1 November, has been in and out of government and in and out of Goldman. He was a member of the World Bank and managing director of the Italian Treasury before spending three years as managing director of Goldman Sachs International between 2002 and 2005 – only to return to government as president of the Italian central bank.

Mr Draghi has been dogged by controversy over the accounting tricks conducted by Italy and other nations on the eurozone periphery as they tried to squeeze into the single currency a decade ago. By using complex derivatives, Italy and Greece were able to slim down the apparent size of their government debt, which euro rules mandated shouldn't be above 60 per cent of the size of the economy. And the brains behind several of those derivatives were the men and women of Goldman Sachs.

The bank's traders created a number of financial deals that allowed Greece to raise money to cut its budget deficit immediately, in return for repayments over time. In one deal, Goldman channelled $1bn of funding to the Greek government in 2002 in a transaction called a cross-currency swap. On the other side of the deal, working in the National Bank of Greece, was Petros Christodoulou, who had begun his career at Goldman, and who has been promoted now to head the office managing government Greek debt. Lucas Papademos, now installed as Prime Minister in Greece's unity government, was a technocrat running the Central Bank of Greece at the time.

Goldman says that the debt reduction achieved by the swaps was negligible in relation to euro rules, but it expressed some regrets over the deals. Gerald Corrigan, a Goldman partner who came to the bank after running the New York branch of the US Federal Reserve, told a UK parliamentary hearing last year: "It is clear with hindsight that the standards of transparency could have been and probably should have been higher."

When the issue was raised at confirmation hearings in the European Parliament for his job at the ECB, Mr Draghi says he wasn't involved in the swaps deals either at the Treasury or at Goldman.

It has proved impossible to hold the line on Greece, which under the latest EU proposals is effectively going to default on its debt by asking creditors to take a "voluntary" haircut of 50 per cent on its bonds, but the current consensus in the eurozone is that the creditors of bigger nations like Italy and Spain must be paid in full. These creditors, of course, are the continent's big banks, and it is their health that is the primary concern of policymakers. The combination of austerity measures imposed by the new technocratic governments in Athens and Rome and the leaders of other eurozone countries, such as Ireland, and rescue funds from the IMF and the largely German-backed European Financial Stability Facility, can all be traced to this consensus.

"My former colleagues at the IMF are running around trying to justify bailouts of €1.5trn-€4trn, but what does that mean?" says Simon Johnson. "It means bailing out the creditors 100 per cent. It is another bank bailout, like in 2008: The mechanism is different, in that this is happening at the sovereign level not the bank level, but the rationale is the same."

So certain is the financial elite that the banks will be bailed out, that some are placing bet-the-company wagers on just such an outcome. Jon Corzine, a former chief executive of Goldman Sachs, returned to Wall Street last year after almost a decade in politics and took control of a historic firm called MF Global. He placed a $6bn bet with the firm's money that Italian government bonds will not default.

When the bet was revealed last month, clients and trading partners decided it was too risky to do business with MF Global and the firm collapsed within days. It was one of the ten biggest bankruptcies in US history.

The grave danger is that, if Italy stops paying its debts, creditor banks could be made insolvent. Goldman Sachs, which has written over $2trn of insurance, including an undisclosed amount on eurozone countries' debt, would not escape unharmed, especially if some of the $2trn of insurance it has purchased on that insurance turns out to be with a bank that has gone under. No bank – and especially not the Vampire Squid – can easily untangle its tentacles from the tentacles of its peers. This is the rationale for the bailouts and the austerity, the reason we are getting more Goldman, not less. The alternative is a second financial crisis, a second economic collapse.

Shared illusions, perhaps? Who would dare test it?

2015-06-18 Astrology Status for June 18, 2015 - July 2015 - Drawing Lines in the Sand This Far and No Farther

<https://www.facebook.com/notes/carl-boudreau/astrology-status-for-june-18-2015-drawing-lines-in-the-sand/10207174894439157>

For many months, now, the astrological message has been about challenging and repeated emotional releases, confusion and indecision. That will almost surely change dramatically in July.

Neptune, Chiron, Nessus and Saturn have softened the ground. Positive aspects have planted seeds of hope and aspiration and begun paving a way forward.

Beginning very soon, as soon as July's New Moon makes itself felt, we will define a goal for ourselves. We will experience a grim and righteous determination to achieve that goal, even if that means outright confrontation with those who resist us.

The Moon's Work

Cancer, presently being transited by the Sun, is the Moon's home sign. Both Cancer and the Moon are closely associated with the psychologically and spiritually vital 4th house.

Cancer, the Moon and the 4th house are all closely associated with the weaving and reweaving of patterns in our unconscious mind. These patterns affect our spirituality and our psychology. They strongly influence, if they do not simply determine, our attitudes and behaviors.

Moon to the Nth Degree

Every July, the Sun transits Cancer, placing its energetic emphasis on the deep psychological and spiritual processes governed by Cancer, the Moon and the 4th house. In July 2015, a number of factors will dramatically heighten this focus, intensifying, accelerating, amplifying and spiritualizing these psychological and spiritual processes.

There are three Moons in July 2015.

July 2nd, Full Moon in Capricorn.

July 16th, New Moon in Cancer.

July 31st, Full Moon in Aquarius.

This surplus of lunar energy will, by itself, put psychological and spiritual processes into overdrive. But there is more.

Some Serious Sirius

Sirius is by far the brightest star in the heavens. It is also the most sacred of the stars. Located in Cancer, I think of Sirius as the light of higher consciousness shining through the psychological and spiritual processes governed by Cancer.

The patterns we weave in the course of the Moon's monthly cycle must not be so dense as to obstruct the light of Spiritual Intuition that shines steadily through Cancer, providing insight, guidance and support. In symbolic terms, this means that we must not shut out the light of Sirius by weaving rigid and opaque patterns in our unconscious.

With relatively few exceptions, the New Moon conjunction will produce a beam of Sirius energy strong enough to soften and penetrate even the most rigid and opaque patterns in our subconscious. Although some may be brittle enough that they snap under the strain.

It is worth noting that, historically, the Cancer/Capricorn axis has proven powerfully sensitive. Pluto's transit of this axis, whether in Cancer or Capricorn, has consistently correlated with major historical events.

At the moment of the New Moon on July 16th, Mars, Mercury and Sirius will conjoin. This triple conjunction is closely opposed to retrograde Pluto in Capricorn. For astrological purposes, the distance between Mercury, Sirius and Mars is negligibly small.

This exact conjunction and opposition is highly unusual. I checked as far back as the 1600s and found nothing comparable.

Mercury at 14° 11' Cancer.

Sirius at 14° 17' Cancer.

Mars at 14° 21' Cancer.

Pluto at 14° 02' Capricorn

Sun and Moon conjunct in Cancer at 23° 14' Cancer.

The New Moon in July marks the beginning of the Moon's annual cycle of New Moons, another factor that increases the significance of this conjunction/opposition.

If you use Greenwich Observatory (UT) as the birthplace, as I do, this potent opposition will fall across the financial access of the chart, heralding a profound shift in global economic attitudes.

Drawing Lines in the Sand

A strong Sirius imparts a clear and strong, often relentless sense of spiritual mission. It can also cause life-changing events that return us to alignment with that mission.

When Sirius aligns with Mars, passion and initiative combine with a strong, distinctly spiritual kind of inspiration. Through Mercury, Sirius infuses thought and language, spoken and written, with spiritual inspiration.

Sirius, Mars and Mercury, then, will create a kind of righteous, spiritually inspired determination in us and impart a solid psychological confidence in ourselves and our mission. We will become convinced of the rightness of our goal and of our ability to achieve it.

We will become increasingly convinced that we should and can overcome the seemingly innumerable challenges we are now facing. It will also bring a continuing series of spiritual and psychological changes in us.

The exact opposition from Pluto can add an obsessive, self-righteous tone to our determination. We can become demanding, domineering, impatient and combative, overlooking or even overriding the rights and expectations of others. No doubt, some will behave this way.

By Any Means Necessary

It would be hard to underestimate the power and intensity of this influence. On the individual level, it will grant many of us the determination and direction we've been lacking. Others of us can become obsessed and controlling.

On the macro-level, this influence will almost certainly cause extreme and fanatical acts.

Mitigating Factors: Retrograde Motion and Mutability

Saturn, Pallas, Ixion, Pholus, Quaoar, Chariklo, Pluto, Ceres, Nessus, Chiron and Neptune will all be retrograde at the New Moon in July.

By itself, the Pluto/Sirius/Mars/Mercury opposition should be considered dangerously volatile, even explosive. However, retrograde motion predominates in the chart.

Retrograde motion encourages thoughtful, reflective, introspective responses and stimulates discussion. The circumstances and resources needed to act, or overreact, tend not to be available.

But the retrograde motion will also make the world permeable to this intense burst of spiritual energy, which will sink in and percolate through the many layers of our reality.

Last month <http://on.fb.me/1d29yEV>, I discussed the significance of the retrograde motion of the dwarf planets that govern collective consciousness. The transformative discussions taking place as a result of these retrogrades will now be infused with the distinctly spiritual energy of the Pluto/Sirius/Mars/Mercury opposition.

Again, if, as I do, you use Greenwich Observatory (UT) as the birthplace, all these retrograde dwarf planets fall in mutable Sagittarius in the 7th house, foretelling a profound transformation in our ideas about social relationships and our obligations to each other as members of a society.

Many of the most significant placements in recent charts have been in mutable signs. This mutable energy will also tend to soften and dissipate any harshness.

Supportive Aspects

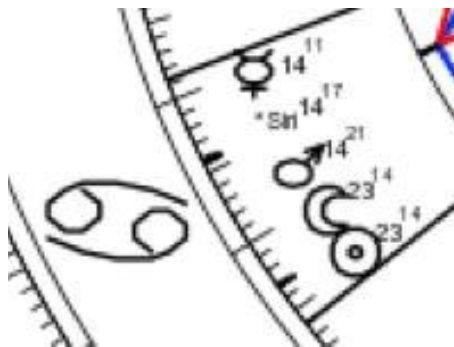

There is a generous assortment of trines in this chart. Most notable, perhaps, is the Grand Trine between Chiron, Saturn and the grouping in Cancer. This trine will dramatically facilitate the change of worldview required to allow these radical new Sirius energies to express effectively.

Furthermore, Pluto sextiles Chiron; Chiron, in turn, trines the cluster in Cancer. This will channel the disruptive energy of the Pluto opposition into constructive, transformative dialogue.

All of the trines complement the bracelet of minor positive aspects in place long-term.

Mixed Messages, As Usual

So, in July, as in previous months, our opinion about whether things are falling apart or coming together will depend on which signals we are reading. And again, as in so many previous months, if we focus on the inevitable negative events, we will overlook a rare and profoundly transformative astrological event, one that marks a historic turning point in key social and economic attitudes, world wide.
