Hard News:

R: we are making it through this moment with flying colours in spite of the "stuff" going on!

T: I have made a bunch of mistakes every single day, but I have been true to my path and the American people the whole time - Obama's comments, played by Rachel Maddow

R: each passing day and the truth is not told about 9/11, other events pale in comparison as there is no closure

- Says in last 24 - 48 hours, something has changed, and has to do with Carolyn Kennedy, Bill Clinton and B Obama; they know how this game is played. Jack will be back which has to do with the conclusion, end of Mayan calendar.
- Nibiru is there; what he has experienced is NOT what people are talking about; story is about ascension and not extinction kinds of events.
  - Kerry Cassidy's stories are not the true story: lots of fear porn stories about Mother's ship
  - Mother's children are literally shitting bricks and cleaning house; since the time they broke through the Scorpi black hole 450 billion years ago is just a blink of time; there are beings here that are millions and billions of years older than that - what is happening is exposure of a group of 13 families who want to buy the planet which is not for sale, the story is about Ascension.
  - People want excitement and turned Wall Street into a gambling casino and now we will return to boring banking! Bring up Angelca Merkel, and re-hypothecation of gold and other subjects.
- In this hypothetical situation, 144,000 x 144,000 x 144,000 have the power to overturn the .5 million life forms or so on; they cannot hypothecate [a Max Keiser term from the financial world] themselves out of the story any more

- In the next few days, things will transform with the astrology - not about war, but peace. What is not about peace is coming up -

T: 41 people killed in Afghanistan - dressed as a police man and got through 4 checkpoints and blew himself up in a mosque. Every single war has been instigated by the US. Part of privatizing the whole planet.

Audio: Max Keiser's Report [\[KR358\] Keiser Report: Goodbye, German Gold?](#)

We discuss how it is that Gordon Brown's Bottom turned into an audit the gold movement in Germany. They also discuss the mother of all bond bubbles getting set to burst and all that will be left in the Bank of England 'gold' vaults are a big pile of gilts. In the second half of the show, Max Keiser talks to Dominic Frisby, author of Life After the State, about Germany's gold quest, the future of relations between the US and Germany if the gold is not there and about 'life after the state.'

Database confirms Max Keiser Guest statement

The biggest challenge of the BullionBars database is knowing what questions to ask of the data warehouse; at any given time there are a number of research streams in progress - but these do take time to build and mature. The biggest advantage (of having a huge chunk of data there) is the ability to run very quick random checks on anything bar-related. Today, Screwtape Files bolsters support for a particular story. Brought to my attention by Bron Suchecki this morning was a Max Keiser interview where guest Dominic Frisby makes a comment regarding Chinese gold bars (ref 20:30-21:15):

Dominic Frisby, Author/Writer

(edited for clarity) "... I had dinner about a year or two ago with the head of Gold at

HSBC and one of the things that he described — and most of the world's gold goes through HSBC, at some stage — looking at the gold in his vault ... despite the fact that China is the biggest producer — he never sees bars, with Chinese stamps on them ...”

THIS OBSERVATION IS SUPPORTED BY THE DATA WE HAVE ON RECORD.

In the database I found ZERO matches for Chinese-manufactured gold bars in the GLD records, and also extended the query to see if other vaults had any. I was mildly surprised to find NONE ... surprising because our current gold sample size includes data from not just HSBC London vault, but also Royal Canadian Mint and Via Mat (London, Hong Kong and Zurich). Worth mentioning that although our database is large, there are still some data sets we have not yet loaded (like the Julius Baer Precious Metals Fund data, for example) so the conclusion is not yet complete. If I do find some Chinese-Manufactured Gold Bars in subsequent data records I will update this post, but since GLD is the grand-daddy of all ETF's I expect the 'zero' result will likely extend to all other result sets. At time of writing, the current size of the WAREHOUSE_GOLD table is 34 million rows (also note our data does not comprehensively account for the entire vault contents – we are only able to reference what is provided in the bar lists we download).

So my test result currently confirms the statement from the interview – namely that the HSBC vault contains no Chinese gold bars. This seems to directly support the idea that China may be keeping the lion's share of gold output from their refineries, and is also consistent with FOFOA's ideas about China and Gold. Interesting – I had never noticed the absence of Chinese gold bars.

T: have heard a rumour that a prison ship on west coast sank - which means that a whole bunch of people / banksters have died - Rama has not been able to confirm this -

Caller: Hurricane Sandy seems to be turning from the east coast; AA Michael asking all to meditate; Romney's speech in DC is cancelled;

T: Seems that Bloomberg has plans to evacuate NYC: a storm from Canada, one from the mid-west, and hurricane Sandy supposed to converge in a super storm on NYC - this is planned! This is about creating havoc - so stay strong in your being

- Berlesconi was arrested, then freed on bail, but convicted of tax evasion - got one year off already; is appealing it. There are several sets of indictments coming at him, and he keeps saying it is a witch hunt - but he is going down.

Caller: thought the storm from the start was a put-up job - there is a lot of evidence in NYC

T: Not an issue as there are duplicates on the ship - it cannot be hidden!

Caller: Cannot evacuate NYC - no way to move so many people!

"The Democratic army is on the march! We are fighting for every last county, every last precinct, every last vote! We are going into battle here, people! Suit up and get ready to roll out!" says Jennifer Granholm, who is suited and booted and ready for battle.

Chris Lehane, Democratic strategist and former press secretary for Al Gore's presidential campaign, joins Granholm in "The War Room" to discuss the final push to get out the vote and the campaign ground game in the final sprint to Election Day.

Obama tough on oil? We're headed to No. 1

by Viewpoint Staff

The United States is on track to becoming the world's top producer of oil, despite Republican complaints that President Obama won't let U.S. companies pump it. read post

Dependence on foreign oil has dropped to lowest level since 1995. Pres does not control the oil prices because the banking cartels around the world set the prices. Massive surge in oil production . . .
