Hard News:

R: All he can say at the moment is that there are interesting things happening -

R: has to do with Captain Ashtar and Commander Sananda - the 13 families want to play out an old story about Lucifer meeting Sananda on the Plains of Megido - everything will be shut down & no equipment of war will work

T: They are talking about Hebron; Aleppo; Jerusalem; Megido in Palestine - 4 stargates in the Middle East; they are also entrances into the Inner Earth & the Cities of Light

- they wanted to do WW3 on April 13, 2001 - Good Friday - when Bush Jr was in office
 - They had China build a nuke for them: a clone of Bill Clinton who went to Los Alamos and got 2 disks and took them to China in 1997 via the airport in Albuquerque - a scientist was accused of the theft and tortured!
 - The clone passed on the plans - they built a nuke in China - it started on April 7th
 - Rama met Mr X on April 13, 2000 - he represented KOS who was too busy with Bush Jr & 12 of his White Knights who blindfolded him and took to "an undisclosed location" which was KOS ship below the White House.
 - 13 of them remotely viewed Bush Jr; what they saw was being relayed on screen to all the locations around the earth from KOS ship so they all saw - remotely - what the whole story was: he knew what the story was as he had been briefed on it & it was in his brain.
 - So the nuke was moved from China to Iran ; it was the Ayatollah, not Ahmadinejad - the Ayatollah has the CIA at his back. It was Romney who gave the Ayatollah all kinds of horrific gases and the ayatollah and the CIA there got them to Saddam Hussain who used them on the Kurdish people
- then they moved it from Iran to Lebanon with a little help from the CIA and the Mossad:
- when the nuke got to Lebanon, they were going to nuke Tel Aviv , kill a million. 5 people, blame it on Iran and start WW III in the Easter window when NESARA was to be announced
 - head of Mossad in USA is Rahm Emmanuel who has been meeting with Israel's Defence Minister, Ahud Barach. This annoyed Netanyahu to the max! The people in Israel do not want to hear anything more from Netanyahu or see his face, either.
 - Rumbles that Ahud Omert, former President, may return to politics and create a block of parties
 - Omert is running because he says that the case against him is weak [corruption charges]
 - He's guilty of the charges and would be wise to forget running!
 - Netanyahu still trying to pass the 2013 state budget to avoid an election - they need to get their budget deficit down to 3%, according to the Bank of Israel

R: met with Natasha regarding the article about world peace and NESARA that Tara and Penny have been working on

- R and Natasha didn't get to it, as things going at lightening speed: the UN Security council meeting behind closed doors regarding Syria/Turkey
- Natasha said the 13 families are in the final death throes
 - Putin is one of them yet trying to pull himself out - the whole thing was no mistake: Turkey returned the shelling to the location of the original shelling and killed a few of Al Assad's military.
 - The 13 families really want WW 3 - there are stockpiles of WMDs all over Syria;
 - Israel apparently nuked a location in 2006, 2007 where there were some WMDs
 - Turkey is a super power - has nukes!
- Where is Ashtar? Natasha is not at liberty to say: just rest assured this is the main issue going on right now & is uppermost in the President's mind; all else is a distraction : only race-baiting & removing him from the White House

T: there were almost 114,000 jobs created - Alex Witt said there were really 86,000 from June and July + 873,000 in September alone!

- The GOP saying that Obama cooked the books and guilty of high treason

R: they are the ones guilty of high treason: voter fraud; obstructionism

- He asked Natasha about Jamie Dimon and the warrant for his arrest: she would not comment yet said he is a person of extreme interest to us!
- Nor would she comment on Tom Hannigan of Faction 2 - this is based in fear-factor stories which have to do with the idea that Mr 19.5 degrees is not legitimate enough!!!

Audio: some of Alex Witt's report [MSNBC] - on Saturday Oct 6

- 7.8% is the jobless rate: 873,000 jobs added

- Natasha said they are all legitimate numbers - some are not full time, some are in service sector yet it is mind-blowing!

Audio: BO campaign raised $118 M in September alone

- Plays Jack Welch saying the jobless numbers "defy logic"
- Jared Bernstein talks of how tight the lock-down is on jobless number calculations - no connection between White House and the Office that does the calcs.

- time to put the suits in jail

R: Natasha said the time for negotiations is done: you have made your bed, you will lie in it, "you will meet the Great Mother"

T: John Thane is the CEO of former failed bank Merrill Lynch and negotiated all kinds of money for presiding over the implosion!!!!

- Mitt Romney: lots of practice "I won't touch your pensions; I won't touch your medicaid and so on and so on" - has been saying it since 1980s!

T: talks of Pennsylvania & how confusing it is there - picture ID or not:

- The state could not prove that the new law would prevent fraud
- The Republican strategy to affect the vote has been stopped; still happening in other states.

T: reference to Greg Palast's presentation played last night:

- 475million mail-in votes have been trashed;
- also re: voting machines - just pull the plug; it won't work, and they don't have to prove fraud.
- Behind name of every person of colour have "bla"
- and behind the names of Native Americans "ind" - so they know which votes to trash.

www.billionariebandits.org

T: found out that Scott Brown is not a moderate, but a right wing - when he thought Judge Scalia was a model judge. Not in line with values of people of Mass.

- The hunting trips of Scalia with Bush - not hunting birds, but hunting children! Give them a head start and then send the dogs after them!

Caller: October will soon be done: congressmen & Senators left 3 weeks early: are they being rounded up?

T: no days, no nukes, no flukes - this is still a "when" question! There will be NO CIVIL WAR and killing each other with guns!

R: yes, as far as Natasha knows, KOS made the US Basel 3 compliant

T: the head of the European bank - an ex-Nazi - super rich.

- Said Greece is days away from full collapse: the people keep on striking and refuse to accept any austerity measures.

Caller: are we still having elections in Nov?

T: NO IDEA: NO DATES, NO NUKES, NO FLUKES. As Greece goes down the EU goes down; as the EU goes down, so do all the other economies in the world - except that of Argentina who paid off the IMF, then went across the street and filed a major law suit against the IMF for immoral procedures in the way in which they created debt and the rates of interest and the way they collapsed the Argentinian economy. Iceland is not paying IMF back -

- Greg Palast and Naomi Klein went down to Argentina and filmed people in Argentina going back to their factories - documentary called "The Take" -
- Does not know the answer but only that those in charge will not do anything that will create worse consequences
- Last night at 2 am in the morning: Syria hit Turkey back in spite of the signing of documents
 - Turkey has called on UN to help - we have to walk through all this first
- Natasha has said there will be a virus get into all the instruments of death so they won't work!
- Take Dr Keshe's warning seriously: they can take out planes, satellites, ships that carry nukes!
- October is supposed to change all on a dime, as we go into final countdown into

- Mike P on Ed Schultz Show on Friday, Oct 5th; Provost Marshal General - do your job!
 - This person takes orders from Comm. in Chief, who takes his orders from 38 higher levels up.
 - So declare martial law and arrest all the characters; it also means the Ashtar Command in ACIO will use their force fields and contain those who would use force
- Mike P also said that Mitt won't be around much longer.
- The Horse Whisperer also said Hillary will be gone

Camp Loveway: they talked of the fairy tales of Asgard, and the Great Tree and the 9 Realms and the return of the Mother Goddess

- LM Nada is White Buffalo Calf Woman in the west [she was both Magdalene, Jeshua's wife, and his mother, Miriay /Mary] - as she shows up, she will take her role as the Admiral's wife and there will be no war!
- She can show up as a giant toad, or as a giant cat woman and should you get involved with her, she will mate with you and then eat you!

For over 30 years, Santos Bonacci has been researching the ancient works, compiling and translating them into more accessible terms in his study of Astrotheology. Santos lives in Melbourne, Australia. He is a producer of video lectures and special DVDs and presents regular seminars on demand. He returns to discuss "the holy science." In the first hour, he'll explain how astrotheology is the basis and origin for all of our myths, legends, fairytales, nursery rhymes and folk lore. He also talks about how it is the pure science developed by the very enlightened, wise and ancient priesthood that give us the holy books of all religions. This language eventually became heavily veiled in allegory and symbolism and much of it was deliberately done to keep the higher truths from the masses. In the member's hour, Santos details the aspects of each sign in the zodiac and their correspondences to seasons, numbers, yuga cycles, personality, the body and all creation. Santos explains in more detail how the macrocosm (the heavens) affects its counterpart on Earth, the microcosm. He says a wise man knows his stars.

<http://business.financialpost.com/2012/10/01/ny-files-suit-against-jpmorgan-over-bear-stearns-mortgage-securities/>

Karen Freifeld, Reuters | Oct 1, 2012 7:23 PM ET

Eduardo Munoz/Reuters files JPMorgan noted in a statement that the allegations concern actions by Bear Stearns before it was acquired by JPMorgan.

NEW YORK — New York Attorney General Eric Schneiderman filed a lawsuit against JPMorgan Chase & Co on Monday for fraud over faulty mortgage-backed securities packaged and sold by the former Bear Stearns.

It was the first action to come out of a working group created by President Barack Obama to go after alleged wrongdoing in the financial crisis.

JPMorgan, which bought one-time rival Bear Stearns for US$2 a share in March 2008, said in a statement it intended to contest the allegations.

The lawsuit alleged a “systematic abandonment of underwriting guidelines” in the selling of home loans that went into securities peddled by Bear Stearns.

In its statement, JPMorgan noted that the allegations concern actions by Bear Stearns before it was acquired by JPMorgan.

“The NYAG civil action relates to Bear Stearns, which we acquired over the course of a weekend at the behest of the U.S. Government. This complaint is entirely about historic conduct by that entity,” the statement said.

Schneiderman, a co-chair of the task force, told Reuters on September 20 his office would take action shortly and that he expected his federal counterparts on the task force to do so as well.

The Residential Mortgage-Backed Securities Working Group was formed to probe the pooling and sale of risky mortgages in the run-up to the 2008 financial crisis.

Obama, who is scheduled to debate his Republican rival Mitt Romney on Wednesday night, said in January he was creating the group to “hold accountable those who broke the law” and “help turn the page on an era of recklessness.”

The task force includes the Justice Department, the Securities and Exchange Commission, the Department of Housing and Urban Development and the Internal Revenue Service.

MT Keshe: Start of the transfer of technology to the world scientists - from October 10-17, 2012 in Sierra Leone!!

Posted on September 14, 2012

I wonder how the West will receive this piece of information – with their intention to control most of Africa . . . ~J

Following the success of the 21.4.2012 and 6.9.2012 ambassadorial presentations of the technology at the Keshe Foundation centre in Belgium, the Keshe Foundation is proud to announce the presentation of the first series of its international lectures for transfer of technology to the world scientists.

To this effect we have been invited and we have accepted to give the first series of lectures in spaceship technology and its application and implications in the university of Freetown in Sierra Leone starting from 12.10.2012 to 17.10.2012.

If you are near to this location and other countries in Africa, please contact the embassy of Sierra Leone in your country for you to be present in these first lectures and transfer of technology to the world scientists.

As we promised, we take our technology to people of the world through the support of their governments and through our ambassadorial invitations program and we are fulfilling our promise and we are implementing the goal of the Keshe Foundation to unite the scientists of the world in knowledge and peace in harmony through our spaceship program.

We would like to thank the ambassador of the Sierra Leone in Belgium Dr. C. S. Kargbo and the officials of the government of the Sierra Leone for inviting the Keshe Foundation for the presentation of the Keshe technologies in their universities and for their openness in accepting and organising the first international teaching conference in the continent of Africa.

As we promised, the continent of Africa will have its own spaceship program as it is planed for by the Foundation and now we are here to deliver our promise.

SHAMAN ARISING

Part 1 - FIRE AND ICE, A POSSIBLE SOURCE CULTURE AND TIME OF ORIGINS MOST ANCIENT

SNORRI STURLUSON OF EXTREME MYTHOLOGICAL GEOGRAPHY

If it hadn't been for Snorri Sturluson (1179-1241) we would not have known anything about the ancient Myths of the Norse to thereby have an insight into the interconnected similarity of beliefs that the Northern peoples shared; for much has been lost, let alone virtually forgotten such as the Mythic paradigm of the Saxons for example. Snorri lived in Iceland and the Norse Creation Myths, which he had saved do reflect the geography of extremes that Iceland possesses betwixt that of Fire and Ice, but due to the most obvious 'North Central Asian Shamanic' attributes that the principle deity of 'Odin' has one can perhaps find another geography of extremes to discover within the Norse myths to reveal!

THE TIME OF FIRE AND ICE

“Burning Ice, Biting Flame; that is how life began. In the South is a realm called MUSPELL. That region flickers with dancing flames. It seethes and it shines. No one can endure it except those born into it. Black SURT is there; he sits on the furthest reach of that land, brandishing a flaming sword; he is already waiting for the end when he will rise and savage the gods and whelm the whole world with fire. In the North is the realm called NIFLHEIM. It is packed with Ice and covered with vast sweeps of snow.”(The Norse Myths: Kevin Crossley-Holland)

VOLCANIC NUCLEAR WINTER OF A RAGNAROCK

Siberia and Mongolia are environments of contradictory extremes, where one has hot arid deserts, vast steppe, rugged tundra of penetrating permafrost to that of snow fields of merciless unceasing ice as well as to also find ancient volcanoes, which although now non-active are still bubbling and simmering under the surface. Most of the volcanic activity is focused in the "Southern" edges of Siberia in present day South-Eastern Russia around the Baikal region, which spill into Mongolia, whose volcanoes are clustered about in the North near Lake Baikal, whereby one could conjecture that Black SURT brandishing a flaming sword is actually a reference to a once very active volcano or volcanic field. To the North of Baikal one has no volcanism as such when going into Siberia. One could thereby theorise that the Norse myth of RAGNAROK, when applied to the area in question is a possible reference to a volcanic eruption hearkened in by earthquakes and by other geophysical phenomena, which very likely happened in the far distant past that gave birth to the story of RAGNAROK or to be foreseen as a future event due to the observable cyclic nature of earthquakes and volcanic eruptions in the area.

ELEVEN OF RIVERS AND ELEVEN OF ICE-AGE RUNE HYPERBOREAN

“In the Northern heart of NIFLHEIM lies the Spring HVERGELMIR and that is the source of eleven rivers named the ELIVAGAR; between the realms of MUSPELLHEIM and NIFLHEIM there once stretched a huge and seeming emptiness; this was the GINNUNGAGAP. The Rivers that sprang from HVERGELMIR streamed into its deep void.”(The Norse Myths: K.C. Holland)

GINNUNGAGAP LAKE BAIKAL FED BY ELEVEN RIVERS ANCIENT OF CHANGING GEOGRAPHY

Now here is where it gets tricky... The ELIVAGAR may refer to the River SELENGA and that of its tributaries, which flow from off the KHANGAI NURUU mountain range situated in DHZAVAN to surge into the deepest and oldest freshwater lake in the world called Lake BAIKAL, whose depths are almost unfathomable like that of the GINNUNGAGAP. However, if one was to take the Norse Creation myth literally then the SELENGA just does not fit the mythic description since the river SELENGA flows from the Southern source of the KHANGAI NURUU mountain range where one may possibly find a HVERGELMIR spring that feeds into BAIKAL'S yawning abyss of freshwater via the Northern flow of the SELENGA.

ODQAN FIRE KING KAM OF AN ODIN ECSTASY MASTER SHAMAN

To be covered more in depth in a following article, most of the Name variants of ODQAN, which is known in the Norse as ODIN and Saxon as WODEN (Wotan/Votan) can be found in the area of DHYZAVAN. There is however a spring to be found in the area of the GOVI-ALTAI province called ODHON BULAG (long: 96.46 Lat: 44.38333) which is of interest concerning the importance of the Altai in regards to this material. As for the reference of the number 'Eleven' there is the possibility that it is alluding to a 'Runic' riddle.

The Norse Runes have corresponding numbers associated with them, which is not that of a modern practice of a numerological application but quite ancient of use. The Eleventh Rune of the Elder FUTHARK of Twenty-Four Runes is 'ISA,' which means 'Ice', but more so to do with the Northern realm of NIFLHEIM wherefore ELIVAGAR could possibly be seen as that of a River of Ice, if one should take such a perspective that one is dealing with a poetic allusion to use a Runic code. There is another way of looking at the ELIVAGAR; for there are 'Thermal Springs' to be found in the 'Northern' end of Lake Baikal, which would be applicable to the spring of HVERGELMIR due to their underground issue; NIFLHEIM in Norse myth is usually seen as being that of the underworld realm of the ancestral dead whereby its waters would be possibly seen as being infused by the spirits of those who had passed over into the land of the ancestors and via such a spring one could communicate with them. ELIVAGAR in regards to an Eleventh Rune of ISA could then be seen as the river of the Dead or even that of an underground river of the ancestral spirits, which flows into the GINNUNGAGAP.

THE BIRTH OF THE CANNIBAL KING YIMIR

“The yeasty venom of the ELIVAGAR thickened and congealed like slag, and the rivers turned to 'Ice'. That venom also spat out drizzle-an unending dismal hagger that, as soon as it settled, turned into rime. So it went on until all the Northern part of GINNUNGAGAP was heavy with layers of Ice and hoar frost, a desolate place haunted by gusts and skuthers of wind. Just as the Northern part was frozen, the southern was molten and glowing, but the middle of GINNUNGAGAP was mild as hanging air on a summer evening. There, the warm breath drifting north from MUSPELL met the rime from NIFLHEIM; it touched it played over it, and the Ice began to thaw and drip. Life quickened in those drops, and they took the form of a giant. He was called YMIR.”(The Norse Myths: K.C. Holland)

OLKHON ISLAND OF A MIDDLE-EARTH MIDGHARD

At the geographic centre of Lake BAIKAL one has OLKHON Island (Midghard), which one could construe as being mythologized as YMIR or that of being ruled over by some ancient King that the Hindus remember as YAMA, the first man to die whom the Tibetan Buddhists also know of to make as their Judge of the Dead while the ancient Iranians called him YIMA.

TOYON SHAMAN LEADERS AND AN ODIN OF THE AESIR PEOPLES OF THE BLUE WOLF

The originators of the Yakut and the Buryats were known as the Kurykans who once lived upon Olkhon Island, which was also later frequented by the Hunnic and Scythian tribes (The Celts had strong ties with the Scythians) whom also considered the island to be sacred. The KURYKANS herded cattle as well as rearing horses just as the later Yakut did who were also adept metal workers, which made them stand out amidst the other Siberian tribes. They were a warlike people and their militaristic aristocracy was made up of ‘Toyons’, which one could also see as being possibly associated with the word WODEN/ODIN whereby one has WODENS/ODINS, to thereby be not so much a name but that of a title. Their principle deity was AI TOYON, which means Creator of Light. (AI to mean Creator and similar to that of the Teleut/Altaian BAI ULGAN, while 'Toyon' means 'Light' of similar etymology to that of Odqan.) Fire was sacred to them, which they perceived as being the protector of the family, which was placed at the centre of their Yurts. Their Shamans were called OYUNA who once practiced divination by using the skulls of their ancestors, which is reminiscent of ODIN divining by using the Skull of MIMIR.

THE ULFHEDNAR CHILDREN OF BERSERKER BOR WARRING WITH YIMIR

“YMIR was a frost Giant; he was evil from the first. While he slept, he began to sweat. A Man and a Woman grew out of the ooze under his left armpit, and one of his legs fathered a son on the other leg. YMIR was the forefather of all the ‘Frost Giants’, and they called him AURGELMIR. As more of the Ice in GINNUNGAGAP melted, the fluid took the form of a Cow. She was called AUDHUMLA. YMIR fed off the four rivers of milk that coursed from her teats and AUDHUMLA fed off the Ice itself. She licked the salty blocks and by evening of the first day a man’s hair had come out of the Ice. AUDHUMLA licked more and by evening of the second day man’s head had come. AUDHUMLA licked again and by evening of the third day the whole man had come. His name was BURI. BURI was tall and strong and good-looking. In time he had a son called BOR and BOR married a daughter of BOLTHOR, one of the Frost Giants. Her name was BESTLA and she mothered three children, all of them Sons. The first was ODIN, the second was VILI, and the third was VE.”(The Norse Myths: K.C. Holland)

YIMIR THE CANNIBAL KING OF THE VAMPIRE PEOPLES OF FROST

There is the distinct possibility that the practice of Cannibalism started 73,000yrs ago when the Indonesian Super-Volcano of Mt Toba, situated in present day Sumatra, erupted, which brought about a mass extinction event. Geneticists have discovered when investigating the Mitochondrial DNA that prior to 73, 000yrs ago there was a wide diversity of human genetic material; just after the Mt Toba Super-Volcano eruption there was a bottleneck in human genetic evolution, which indicates that the human race nearly went extinct; for only a few thousand individuals survived in a world totally devastated by the catastrophe. Many of the animal species as well as plant life were also severely affected, both on land and the sea; whereupon one can hazard a guess as to how ones ancestors survived such harsh conditions amidst a Northerly geographic locale of developing heirarchical class structures to have at the bottom rung of the ladder those of the weak who were to breed as mere fodder for an aristocratic (Frost Giants) Cannibal (Vampire) class; such would have thence birthed the later Nosferatu legends. The Northerly locale as well as Africa would have been furthest away from the epicentre of the Sumatra Super-Volcano eruption where those who had survived may have possibly indulged in Cannibalism; it is from those few survivors that we all derive our shared DNA. Curiously enough, it is also around the same time of the catastrophe that human Art started to appear out of virtually nowhere to hence flourish, which explored the Spiritual impulse that made us all truly human.

YMIR OF GEOGRAPHIC LOCALE OLKHON

One could also conjecture that YMIR'S bodily references offer poetic clues as to possible geographic locations in regards to OLKHON Island, which is made up of differing environments from that of a desert, steppe, tundra and forests in relation to the compass points of AUDHUMLA'S teats whereby BURI'S birth place is perhaps to be found at OLKHON'S central point. The name of BURI and BOR are also known of to the peoples of the ALTAI as that of a totemic ancestor who going by Norse myth also sired (ODQAN) ODIN/WODEN. (Note: Odin, Vili and Ve could be a reference to the Three Stars of Orion's Belt whereby Orion is Ymir. The Highest peak of the Altai mountain range is Mt Beluha, which is known as a Cosmic Centre of a Three Horned Mountain and 'Orion Dwelling of the Gods!' The Ziggurat and Pyramid can be seen as a Representative Model of the Shaman's Cosmic Central Mountain whereby one to find Russian Archaeologists discovering such in the Altai region that are of stepped form similar to those found in the Americas back in 1990 while other Pyramids have been discovered in Mongolia and are also well known of in (Shaanxi) China let alone Egypt that point to Orion's belt!)

BERSERKER BORI OF ANCIENT TOTEMIC ANCESTOR

"The term BORI, BURI, PUR is an ancient term referring to a totemic ancestor of many Ural-Altai nations. Seen on petroglyphs of the Altai and Sayan; Now due to its animal-totemic nature, the animal may be different even though its totemic name is the same, for it represents the 'Ancestor Spirit'. Among some, the 'Horned' deer is the ancestor like that of the Hungarians and some Scythians. In time some of the characteristics of the stag totem were transferred over to the horse, which was on ceremonial occasions decorated with antlers". (Fred Hamori – Scythian Religious Terms.)

"BUR-Kan=God in Teleut, Sor, Sagaj, Kachinco, Koibal, Kara-gas, Soyot. Pur=the Son of the Chief god ULGEN, among the Teleut." (Fred Hamori – Scythian Religious Terms.)

The three Sons born of BESTLA fathered by BOR (BORI), has an interesting parallel with that of the Scythian:

"Herodotus mentioned more than one myth of the origin of the Scythians. One of these claimed the mating of Papaois (Zeus) and the daughter of 'BOR-ISTEN', as the father of Targi-taur-us the father of the Scythian nations. His sons were supposedly Leip-ox-ais, Arp-ox-ais, and Col-ax-ais.” (Fred Hamori – Scythian Religious Terms.)

SURT OF VOLCANIC FIELDS MUSPELL FIRE WHERE LAVA FLOWS

As for the fiery MUSPELL realm of SURT an area of volcanic activity, which lies 250KM west of Ulaanbaatar is known as the Kangayn or Tariat volcanic field and is located in a broad region of the Miocene-to-Holocene lava flows of the BAIKAL rift system SSW of Lake Baikal. The lava flow from the volcanic cone KHOROG was radiocarbon dated to be around 4930 yrs ago, which dammed the Chtutu River to form Lake Terkhin-Tsagan-Nur. Other volcano's in the region were blowing their tops well into the late Pleistocene and that of the Holocene period at the far edges of human memory amidst the Northern 'Ice' bound glaciers of the Ice-Age to no doubt melt becoming as terrifying floods under the Southern heat of their unflinching 'Fire,' which then rapidly become as ice again when the lava cooled. One such flood was one of the biggest ever geologically recorded that happened 14000yrs BP in the region of the Altai, which may explain the demise of many a 'Giant Mammoth'.

THE SIBERIAN GREAT FLOOD CATASTROPHIC WHEN MAMMOTH TROD THE EARTH

“14000 BP. Deep in the Altai Mountains of Southern Siberia, about this date, a wall of water 1,500 feet high surged down the Chuja River Valley at 90 miles per hour. How does one deduce such a hydrological cataclysm? A. Rudoy, a Geologist at Tomsky State Pedagogical Institute, points to giant gravel bars along the Chuja River Valley. These are not the inch-sized ripples we see on the floors of today's rivers; these are giants measuring tens of yards from crest to crest. Only a catastrophic flood could have piled up these ridges of debris. Rudoy postulates that, during the Ice Ages, a huge Ice Dam upstream held back a lake 3,000 feet deep, containing 200 cubic metres of water. When the Ice Dam suddenly ruptured, all life and land downstream was devastated. (folger, tim, “The Biggest Flood”, Discover, 15:36, January 1994.) But other thoughts intrude: were the heaps of Mammoth Carcasses, the Siberian “IvoryIslands;” and those anomalous Stone tools mentioned earlier under Archaeology the consequences of similar Siberian Floods?” (Science Frontiers #92, March-April 1994. William R Corliss.)

A TIME OF ANCIENT WAR WHEN ULFHEDNAR ODIN KILLED YIMIR AND OF GREAT FLOOD

It has been noted by many that Flood myths are known of by many peoples (especially that of the Sumerian) and the Norse Creation myth is no exception to the rule, which tells of a 'Great Flood', whereby indicating some kind of primordial connection of memory, whose tale has been orally transmitted, and that of a primary source from whence the myth of a Great Flood originally derived from:

“All this was at the beginning, before there were waves of sand, the sea's cool waves, waving grass. There was no Earth and no Heaven above; only MUSPELL and NIFLHEIM and between them, GINNUNGAGAP. The three sons of BOR had no liking for YMIR and the growing gang of unruly, brutal frost giants; as time went on, they grew to hate them. At last they attacked YMIR and killed him. His wounds were like springs; so much blood streamed from them, and so fast, that the flood drowned all the frost giants except BERGELMIR and his wife. They embarked in their boat – it was made out of a hollowed tree trunk – and rode on a tide of gore.”(The Norse Myths: K.C. Holland)

If Ymir was the King of a society, which had practiced Cannibalism since the time of a prior world-wide catastrophe when the Super-Volcano of Mt Toba erupted, then the three sons of Bor and their forces of the Wolf rebelled against him and that of his aristocratic class of Vampire Frost Giants at a time when there were dramatic climate changes manifesting, which initiated a fragmentation of their civilisation; whereupon the three sons of Bor took their opportunity to rebel against Ymir. The climate changes invariably led to a Great Flood in the Altai region of Siberia.

In other words one has the possibility of a prior civilization, perhaps, somewhat akin to that of the militaristic Aztecs whom practised Cannibalism being inundated by a Great Flood like that of Plato's Atlantis where one has an island amidst waters like that of Olkhon at the "centre" of Lake Baikal.

ALTAI TO BAIKAL OF GENETIC CRADLE WHERE RUNIC BLOODLINES GATHER

For there to be a connection of disparate myths from one culture to another to communicate through the ages about a probable shared incident of a terrifying catastrophe, there has to be a place of origin from whence peoples had originally come from to then disperse after a cataclysmic event. Such a place would be somewhat of a well spring of various peoples whose genetic lineages can now be traced back to its original geographic source to thereby put the jigsaw puzzle pieces of fragmented myth back together again in order to remember.
