Hard News:

T: moving so well these days, very exciting

R: Ed Show on radio: Mike Papantonio, John Nichols were in Wisconsin, also Bill Clinton showed up

- Bill came out and said that Scott Walker needs to go to The Hague; he is a failure as a governor and has done nothing for the people
- John asked Bill what about your wife? And Bill said I don't speak for my wife.
- All day today, folks are starting to tell the stories that need to be told - as if something in the media has changed; possibly the Lavender Lad has said something
- It's about the story what will crack soon - every time he asks, he gets told: if we tell you, you might not be here!
- The feelings that are coming up with all unfolding is the bigger stories that have to do with the lunar eclipse and the Venus transit - it moves us to the call of the Wild Woman, the Naqual where you walk with death on your shoulder and each moment you learn about the other side of life that you won't hear on the MSM, but you might hear it in your heart - following Mother, and when she's on the hunt, it's about the movement and the sounds of the forest, the jungle
- In terms of the big picture: he has been in Syria with the Paschats and the others doing night work [we all do it whether we remember it or not]
- so much going on - it's been moved up a notch as the dark ones want to play with the big, bad toys: Mother has said they have nowhere to go: their toys are neutralized - have a few of conventional technologies; others being pulled from DARPA and other black agencies - but no nukes
- Obama's next step is to talk about the ships: he will just take a moment out of time and call a press briefing - it's being moved at levels above the ankle biters
- He is of the Council of 9 from Sirius

T: Ed from the Ed Show said it's like the pot calling the kettle black & John Nichols talking to Bill Clinton about his wife: he is trying to save his neck

R: many pieces of this falling right in to place with the lunar eclipse and Venus Transit

- Council of 144 [gave no description]
- Council of 144,000 [tag we're it!] tribunal of ascended masters administering the programs of the Ancient of Days: Sanat Kumara and his consort Lady Master Venus; the Infinite Mind working through Jevahoh [Javaw] as creator god/goddess/all that is
- Hierarchy of the Higher Heavens - the hierarchy that governs the hierarchy of mid heavens and lower heavens, judging the final soul programs of mankind and master alike Daniel 7:9,10; Rev 14: 3
- Councils of Light - [the ones coming to learn more about these things] Governing this universe and other regions of distant universes - the Kuchavim. The councils of light not to be confused with solar and planetary councils which are ephemeral
- Covenant of Light - a covenant is an agreement between God/Goddess/All that is/ Great Spirit and his/her people Gen 3: 15; 9: 9, 15; 18; 2 Cor3: 6

The Covenant of Light is the master covenant which re-capitulates all covenants bestowing on the Sons of God unveiled, eternal co-participation in the Father's celestial kingdom

Radioactive bluefin tuna crossed the Pacific to US Source: AP/SF Gate

May 28, 2012

Across the vast Pacific, the mighty bluefin tuna carried radioactive contamination that leaked from Japan's crippled nuclear plant to the shores of the United States 6,000 miles away — the first time a huge migrating fish has been shown to carry radioactivity such a distance.

"We were frankly kind of startled," said Nicholas Fisher, one of the researchers reporting the findings online Monday in the Proceedings of the National Academy of Sciences. <http://www.democraticunderground.com/1014130080>

The levels of radioactive cesium were 10 times higher than the amount measured in tuna off the California coast in previous years. But even so, that's still far below safe-to-eat limits set by the U.S. and Japanese governments.

Previously, smaller fish and plankton were found with elevated levels of radiation in Japanese waters after a magnitude-9 earthquake in March 2011 triggered a tsunami that badly damaged the Fukushima Dai-ichi reactors.

Audio: hour # 2 of Richard Merrick

May 24, 2012 Richard Merrick - Hour 2 - Psychoacoustical Temples & Entheogenic Communion

In the second hour with Richard Merrick, we go into specifics about how the pentagonal pattern created by Venus was seen or known by the ancient peoples of earth. We discuss the purpose of the temples and the connection to the entheogenic component. Richard says that the goal of ancient religion was to liberate the mind and spirit by consuming psychedelic plants in wine and manna - then supercharge the effects by raising brain frequency inside temple chambers especially tuned to certain natural frequencies. The amazing thing is this was done using the pentagonal star or "rose line" orbital pattern of Venus as a blueprint to design these chambers. This "Venus blueprint" literally contains within it the ability to elevate human consciousness, triggering an increased perception of reality and even euphoria.

12, June 1 Social downer - Anonymous crash Facebook, lock out thousands

<http://www.rt.com/news/facebook-down-anonymous-hack-772/>

Published: 01 June, 2012, 18:45

Screenshot of Twitter user @YourAnonOps

An attack orchestrated by the infamous hacktivist group Anonymous forced Facebook offline, with many of its 900 million users unable to log onto the social network for hours.

Anonymous took to Twitter, using their @YourAnonNews handle to say “looks like good old Facebook is having packet problems,” and sprinkled it with some no-nonsense hashtags like #FuckFacebook and #FuckYourIPO.

They followed with “RIP Facebook a new sound of tango down bitches”, which resulted in “RIP Facebook” trending on Twitter both in the United States and worldwide.

Facebook admitted they experienced problems in a statement.

“Earlier today, some users briefly experienced issues loading the site. The issues have since been resolved and everyone should now have access to Facebook. We apologize for any inconvenience,” the company’s announcement said.

Facebook did not deny Anonymous’ claims that they were behind the network problems.

Anonymous usually times its attacks for Fridays, but has previously focused mainly on law enforcement-alphabet agencies like the FBI, CIA and DHS. This is the first time the hacktivist group has targeted the world’s most popular social network.

The attack added insult to Facebook’s IPO injuries, with share prices falling 22 per cent since going public two weeks ago. Mark Zuckerberg’s company, along with the banks that led the float, is also the subject of two shareholder lawsuits.

Many have also noted the irony of the crash, remembering the Oscar-winning movie The Social Network, in which Zuckerberg’s character claims the difference between Facebook and everyone else is “we don’t crash – ever.”

Currently in Italy on his honeymoon, the young billionaire may see his fortunes take an even bigger hit as analysts warn shares could fall even further.

2012, June 1 Zimmerman Back to Jail - Judge Says he Lied

By KYLE HIGHTOWER, MIKE SCHNEIDER / Associated Press Friday, June 01, 2012

<http://www.time.com/time/nation/article/0,8599,2116310,00.html>

(SANFORD, Fla.) — Trayvon Martin's shooter must return to jail, a judge ordered Friday in a strongly worded ruling that said George Zimmerman and his wife lied to the court about their finances to obtain bond in a case that hinges on jurors believing his account of what happened the night the teen was killed.

Zimmerman has pleaded not guilty to second-degree murder for the February shooting. The neighborhood watch volunteer says he shot Martin in self-defense because the unarmed 17-year-old was beating him up after confronting Zimmerman about following him in a gated community outside Orlando.

Zimmerman was arrested 44 days after the killing, and during a bond hearing in April, his wife, Shellie, testified that the couple had limited funds available. The hearing also was notable because Zimmerman took the stand and apologized to Martin's parents.

Prosecutors pointed out in their motion that Zimmerman had $135,000 available then. It had been raised from donations through a website he set up and they suggested more has been collected since and deposited in a bank account.

Shellie Zimmerman was asked about the website at the hearing, but she said she didn't know how much money had been raised. Circuit Judge Kenneth Lester set bail at $150,000. The 28-year-old was freed a few days later after posting $15,000 in cash — which is typical — and has since been in hiding.

Prosecutor Bernie De la Rionda complained Friday, "This court was led to believe they didn't have a single penny. It was misleading and I don't know what words to use other than it was a blatant lie." The judge agreed and ordered Zimmerman returned to jail by Sunday afternoon.

"Does your client get to sit there like a potted plant and lead the court down the primrose path? That's the issue," Lester said. "He can't sit back and obtain the benefit of a lower bond based upon those material falsehoods."

The judge questioning Zimmerman's truthfulness could undermine the defendant's credibility if it is brought up at trial, which could happen, and may complicate how his defense presents him as a witness, said Orlando-area attorney Randy McClean, who is a former prosecutor.

Witness accounts of the rainy night Martin was shot are spotty. There is no video of the fight, though photos prosecutors have released showed Zimmerman with wounds to his face and the back of his head. His recollection of what happened is key.

\(Read "Judge Revokes Bond for George Zimmerman, Orders Him Back to Jail."\)

"The other key witness, unfortunately is deceased," McClean said. "Basically, Zimmerman is going to be asking the jury to believe his version of the facts...As the case stands now, his credibility is absolutely critical to the case."

The defense countered that Zimmerman and his wife never used the money for anything, which indicated "there was no deceit." O'Mara said it wouldn't be a problem to bring Zimmerman back into custody by the deadline.

The judge said he would schedule a hearing after Zimmerman is back in custody so he could explain himself.

Police in Sanford did not immediately arrest Zimmerman, citing Florida's "stand your ground" law that gives wide latitude to use deadly force rather than retreat in a fight if people believe they are in danger of being killed or seriously injured.

Zimmerman's credibility with the judge would be important if O'Mara tries to get a judge without the jury to dismiss the charges based on the law, said Orlando defense attorney David Hill.

"If he was in on something that was not truthfully revealed to the judge, when there is a 'stand your ground' hearing, of course you're going to second-guess him," Hill said.

Both McClean and Hill said O'Mara would be able to challenge the admissibility of the bond revocation at trial by questioning its relevance.

Benjamin Crump, an attorney for Trayvon Martin's parents, Tracy Martin and Sybrina Fulton, said his clients have always said Zimmerman should remain in jail until trial, which O'Mara said he believed wouldn't be until next year.

Crump was asked if he thought that if Zimmerman would be willing to lie about his finances that he would be willing to lie about what happen the night Martin was killed.

"We fully expect that the special prosecutor will make George Zimmerman's credibility be front and center in this entire case," Crump said. "And whatever dishonesty that comes forth by George Zimmerman that they can prove, you can best believe it will become the issue of this case."

Prosecutors also said although Zimmerman surrendered a passport at the bond hearing, he had a second one he didn't report that he and his wife during jail conversations spoke about keeping in a safety deposit box.

However, Lester dismissed that concern as the equivalent of someone who has lost a driver's license, applies for a new one and then finds the old one.

Also at Friday's hearing, De la Rionda and O'Mara asked a judge to stop the public release of witness names and statements made by Zimmerman to police officers. Those documents normally are part of the public record under Florida law, and the judge agreed.

Lester said he would order the release of the documents once he has reviewed them and redacted items that aren't subject to disclosure under the state's public records law.

A consortium of more than a dozen media groups, including The Associated Press, asked the judge to ignore the request, saying such records are presumed to be publicly available under Florida law.

The revocation of Zimmerman's bond also puts pressure on O'Mara to not delay the trial, McClean said.

"When your client is out on bond, the pressure is much lighter to rush to trial...because your client is sitting at home," he said. "When your client is sitting at the Seminole County Jail, your client is going to want this resolved."
