

LUCKY TRIMMER SEEKS ENTRIES!

LUCKY TRIMMER Special Edition "The Wall"
BERLIN / NEW YORK / NICOSIA / JERUSALEM / BUDAPEST
CALL OPEN till MAY 1st 2014

2014 is a year to remember! LUCKY TRIMMER will be celebrating its 10th birthday. This outstanding historical event coincides with yet another one: the 25th anniversary of the Fall of the Berlin Wall. To immortalise this conjuncture, LUCKY TRIMMER will curate a special program entitled "The Wall" focusing on the existence of walls, real or imaginary, old and new, as well as addressing the political, ideological, emotional, cultural consequences and impacts of division. We seek short, original and innovative pieces that address such topics. We are particularly interested in witnessing how artists can inject personal experiences and translate ideas on subjects such as separation, belonging, identity or integration into an artistic proposal.

Possible aspects we would like to address are: The Berlin Wall and its Fall; Still existing differences between East and West Germany; The European blockade against refugees; The ideological wall between North and South Korea; The Green Line in Nicosia; The effects of walls and settlement projects in Israel and Palestine, among others.

LUCKY TRIMMER showcases a selection of short performances in bite-sized chunks; no more than 10 minutes each. We spotlight both emerging and established performing artists who's work captures our hearts and minds; provoke and blaze new trails. LUCKY TRIMMER presents a multi-faceted vision of what contemporary dance is today combining artistic excellence with the lightness of entertainment.
