HARD NEWS

- News has been piling to the sky!!!
- LM Venus and Sanat Kumara, Ancient, Supreme & Eternal of days, with a new title: Future of Days
 - as we take this energy without the 5th dimensional interventive modalities – that's one scenario & everyone is freaking out on this one!
 - as we give way to those structures without the other, there'd be lots to be concerned about, to say the least!
- As we want to go to the next dimensional reality and that there is more than that, thank god it's not a choice between Hillary and Trump which is a choice between corrupt venues! People not quite getting this yet.

Camp Lovewave – along with Richard Wolffe

- it may seem like we are in the darkest moments before the dawn; looks not so pretty
 - yet what Cheryl said about the Venusian Masters and others who are here in our midst are affecting our physical matter and space / time.
- Today, Teran and Bear went out on a limb talking about the aquarius full moon and the solar eclipse from the Vedic point of view: Kali comes and clears the land for the new heaven and the new earth; all that is unlike love that needs to be cleansed rises to the top for that purpose.
- this time is much like the early to middle 60s; they brought in conversations with Alan Ginsberg & pundits at the times speaking of the far right and the establishment, and how we would come out of this
 - the flower children were the Lemurian masters and teachers of the time; following them came the group leading up to the indigo crystal, rainbow crystal children - choosing between Trump and Hillary is choosing various grades of fear
- They said to expect something miraculous coming in from left field
 - R has no idea what's coming up in early November; being brought up that voting needs to be on a Sunday, a holiday, so no one has to go through security searches etc, and has time to go to the polls
 - more and more coming out about electronic voting is very hackable – it's not about Russia hacking the DNC but about the Black Ops & other agencies – the NSA, the FBI etc – playing games to create a cover story for what is going on including the manipulation of money via algorithms as Max Keiser talks about – there is nothing but empty air behind the current money system.
- From the Vedic side, this is the most auspicious time to be here: the outcome is our ascension.
 - The story is about how we are no longer having to go through doing something we don't love; when we love what we do, we get wisdom, joy and ecstasy from it and this is supported by the universe as the quantum physics law come into play
 - What is being said is that the quantum physics laws are affecting our reality; also there are those who do not wish to play within the laws of love. So they are leaving – second death – shattered and consumed are other words: going back to anti matter and the energy is used to make new universes.
- When you are in a state of disrepair – this brings in twisted stories about things getting better as we trust these ones: Ben Fulford's words come to mind about reconciliation, South African style justice. Mother and other beings from the Councils have described that as all well and good, yet when you make a conscious choice to get in the way of a soul wanting to do home, that supercedes everything else, and it's exit stage left!

- Richard Wolffe: IMF is so deep into the hole - Christine Legarde, head of the IMF, and the lizard general for the Annunaki/Dracos life forms – love them even more as they have a right to exist and how they exist or don't exist in matter/anti matter is up to King Dracos and Princess Ardala -
 - there are so many good reptilians; Rama works with them on the bridge
 - yet the ones who are here – Trump and the dragon queen, others - every day their words get so more twisted and full of venom – gets very trying
- RW: only a matter of moments before the IMF goes down and they are just playing a shell game – Max Keiser was tearing his hair about this today; can't play with people's lives and walk away like they do.

T: 2016-08-10 We're all on the Titanic', as old bear says get ready for ugly stock market crash [SEE BELOW] the map in the article is the one that Max and Stacy put up all the time!

CallerBW: last week, China launched a rocket satellite with a pay load; where is it being sent?

R: being sent to test the “spooky theory” that Einstein talked about – graviton waves and how they work in conjunction with the particles that make up how living matter interacts with cosmic rays

- this is big stuff for Chinese as this goes into quantum physics; not what's being taught at this time by the old scientists who are scared to death by the 13 families because of [their work on] chemtrails, climate change, talking about what R is talking about as the reality changing in the Twinkling of an eye: they are being killed all over the world
- and we are going from the stone age to the Jetsons' age right now

Caller: as HRC goes through this whole event of campaigning, will there ever be a possibility that she loses control and shifts into lizard form where everyone can see it?

R: yes, the emotional, physical baggage is way too much at the moment . . .

T: does he still have queen of england shape-shifting video; Yes, he's to send it to them.

CallerBW: she's getting more and more [erratic] – looks like she's going to faint – surprising as she seems to be losing it and will shape shift and not realize it

T: that happened in 2008 or so , when she was talking to a Florida interviewer – eyes went into vertical slits; skin colour changing, scales starting to show: she kept on talking, not realizing! R: brings up the movie V

- there was a dark Nordic ET standing by JFK Sr – he was 14' tall; the technology used allowed people to see it – without the revelations of the truth about the 5th dimensions and the good, bad and ugly they are doing, how they are messing with us on other technical scales too - the “free will” words are kept in place yet the good guys are 100s of millions of years and technologies ahead of us & those of the dark ones
- if you don't look at the larger story, it looks like Barack Obama is a total brat: droning, pushing TPP – and we ask what's the matter with this story?
- WE MUST ALWAYS REMEMBER there is a double agency going on with Obama, Xi, Putin – which means all 3 of them are really good at what they do!
- She talks to lots of people who think only with a 3D mind don't like Obama – and we who know more than that, must exude a higher light – because the energies can really get your goat!
- They are pushing the “free Will Choice” thing - it is not intervention in people's development/against our free will - unless it includes nuclear holocaust and ALSO psychic Holocaust - which is what is being pushed on us right at the moment
- Keep reaching for love and operate out of that – will get squished otherwise!

CallerBW: understands that a Fed Judge out of DC has given HRC 30 days to do an interview about e-mails with the FBI under sworn testimony; if she doesn't do that, she'll be court martialled and arrested.

T: doesn't know about the meaning of this is: she has already lied under oath. T has already seen at the Republican hearing when James Comey, head of FBI was being asked about what Hillary said: Hillary answered questions in her interview, and then they asked James Comey if she lied or not – eg, HRC said they only had one computer which Bill also used; when Comey was asked, he said they had many!

- So she has already lied under oath: because the intervention is as close as it can be, yet we are still watching, the controllers are shrugging things off – so nothing which is happening is following the law – it makes us all nervous and jerky!

- What is going on at the same time, though we might not be able to see this as we are so used to seeing them get away with murder, is that they are having a harder and harder time - as in the first question, the energies have risen so much that they cannot handle them, and the idea that she might unknowingly shape shift is entirely possible!

R: Or Trump would do something so stupid, he could get himself dead on tv around the world.

T: we have just passed through a rare solar lunar eclipse in Aquarius on Aug 18, 2016 – we have just entered 2018 – lots still think we are in 2016, and are still operating under the old program –

- so let us work out of the 2018 energies and the new program of light and pursue those things which are not so visible

- yes, the market will crash – fully! The writer of the article predicted the 1987 Black Monday crash – she reads from the article: it was on Bloomberg tv Feb 26, 2013 the entire global economy crashed – he was not wrong! They poured money – and they won't be able to do this at this time. All their capital gains will be gone!!!

R: RW said this is so serious: jamie Diamon and other CEOs who flipped the bird to E. Warren are trying to figure out where to go when the rabble goes after them!!!

T: RW is a socialist without the horns [his words]; is creating a peoples bank in Santa Fe; is a white knight, knows about NESARA, and is gagged

- So is David Cay Johnson who is digging up stuff on Trump

- RW talks of young traders who have millions in their bank accounts, get invited to a special dinner at the Bohemian Grove & never make it home, as they are killed.

T: Julian Assange's lawyer was killed by being hit with a commuter train

2016-08-19 Julian Assange's Lawyer Found Dead After Being Struck by Train [SEE BELOW]

T: her question to the galactics is how many more of our people have to be dead before this is stopped?

- Brings up the member of Bernie Sander's staff who was killed after filing a document in court re: the DNC rigging of the votes a month ago.

- We all know we volunteered for this yet there is a time in 3D when more people will end up dead – every day in Syria! And this has been nailed in the e-mails: HRC funded arms to the Libyan, Syrian, Iraqi ISIL, and she and the US gov't through the Clinton Foundation with the Saudis who bought $2 million worth of arms from the US and used them on the Yemeni people – committing one genocide after another

- And Bill is saying they will shut down the foundation if Hillary is elected! Bribery!

- Time to stay on the higher road and perceive those higher energies. It will be all at once or not at all!

CallerBW: so many people calling asking when will this be done; through meditation and daily prayer, it will be done.

T: Dodi and Di & others like them say never ask when; it will drive you insane! The question is HOW CAN I SERVE FOR THE HIGHEST GOOD OF MY OWN BEING AND ALL OTHERS?

- This is in direct contrast to the Ayn Rand philosophy of self before all, killing others to get a ransom, etc. What we are doing is a counter balance.

R: from those he talks to from our future: Rana Mu, #15, Wingmakers – this particular moment in time [is critical] and the election will change the story as people stand up and say NO, I will not longer play with fear.

T: we are not in an election, we are in a "selection". HRC is the annointed choice.

- There is another side of this – the Trump side is also annointing on that level of evil, too and there is lots of wavering in the top levels of that nazi, republican party as they hear what he is saying, pushing the river on. And then he goes and apologizes & adds more!

R: people say he is a bad loser - as he loses the election to the annointed one, he'll . . .

T: he won't lose to her – they will go down together

R: something more awesome will come: Michelle Obama for President – the return of the Goddess

T: Oprah, E. Warren, Bernie, Michelle, Randi Rhodes are the think tank to get MO elected – meet at Oprah's home in Costa Rica

- there is a 5th dimensional world and higher here – time to focus on that

CallerBW: understands that Bill Clinton is seriously ill – he has Aids in addition to whatever else

T: there has been a cure for aids for a long time; they can use it if they want to

- the other one – Parkinson's – was given to Bill; you lose your grip on being cognizant – which is quite visible in him; he has a hard time getting words out; such a turnaround from presidential run in 1992 – he and T are the same age! There is something really wrong.

BW: Mohammed Ali – T: no, he had MS, a slight difference

- Bill's days are numbered
- amazing how media is now focussing in on her health; he thinks she is really losing it

T: thinks it has more to do with the psychic level because of rising energies

R: they could also be playing with her to make people think she is not stable, whether they will vote for her or not ; this is a HUGE, HUGE MIND GAME that is so subtle and so evil – hold it in the circle and surround with violet flame. They are playing with a juncture of changing the timelines

- Rana Mu, #15, others say we have already changed the timeline; NESARA will be announced; this earth gets free – just don't ask how, when or where. Just work on spiritual transformation & help someone else . . .

R: Camp Lovewave –

Teran said St Germain sat with the founding fathers every single day – he did not know the outcome of where we are today back in the 1700s:

- he knew that what he did with the FF, telling them that they might not make it but that he would be back to assist their children or they would not have an desendents. The insertion at that time was an opportunity to save the human race.

T: There are some questions about the population now: they are trying every which way to limit women's rights to choose; they want every baby they can get their hands on but not from people of colour – in the beginning, Planned Parenthood sterilized women of colour, and then there was eugenics.

- want to reduce the population in terms of who they don't want around – want to enhance whites like themselves, and make decisions about what they want to do with this planet

R: brings in the idea of adding soul matrix to androids to make eternal warriors

T: repetitive cloning is getting pretty close – 3D people think you are nuts when you talk about this, yet it is in the Egyptian hieroglyphics in the Luxor pyramid –

R: learned this from Teran; Teran andd Bear are very well versed in this knowledge, awareness: same age as T,R

T: this is because we all volunteered – we are the prophets generation, here to teach others the background.

Reading: about this August 18 -when sun, moon and earth are aligned in synergy as we refine our light body consciousness, there is progress

Audio: Thom Hartmann Aug 19, 2016 – did some wonderful work on the Native American situation – the pipeline in North Dakota – the protest is peaceful yet T saw tv footage that shows the brutality of the police towards the protestors: people are not hearing the truth of what is happening.

TH said that the country was full of people when white people came to the east coast - cities as well.

T: they are manipulating the weather – they have already disrupted the energies to such an extreme that the pollution of the air and water is immense!

- There are no more mackerel on the coast of California
- Fukushima has been lied about for so long – a thousand tons a day of radiation is going into the ocean, per Dr Keshe and they cannot find the reactor core – it has burned a hole right through the earth which comes out in the Atlantic Ocean near the west coast of South America

Will The Lakota Tribe's Black Snake Prophecy Come True?

Watch the video

Thom: Anything Goes Friday

Caller: retired attorney who was part of Leonard Peltier's defence team

- background to what was happening at the time: inter tribal warfare with the interference of the federal gov't. Talks of 2 books written about Leonard Peltier who was railroaded for the murder of 2 agents.
- Peltier was sentenced to 2 life sentences; hopes Obama will commute LP [he did!]
- Lots of subjects discussed on the program – very interesting

T: Thursday pm was Larry Willmore's last show was cancelled – something else to replace?

Musical Break

ASTROLOGY

Richard [RI]

Last week:

Tues: sun trines Uranus at 25 Leo to Aries – kicked off fiery energies; a new creative component because of the trine

Wed: Mercury trine Pluto -

Thur: the lunar eclipse at 26 Leo, Aquarius

Fri: moon conjunct Neptune; opposite Mercury and Jupiter this am

This week: Critical degrees right now to next Sat: 10*, 11*, 16*, 25*, 26*, 27*

Mon: Mercury will conjunct Jupiter

Tues: sun moves into Virgo – he's hoping that some of this fiery energy is dampened

Wed: Mars conjunct Saturn at 7:30 am; Wed pm - Moon into Gemini

Thurs: moon in Gemini

Fri: Moon goes into Cancer late at night; early in the morning, Mars square neptune

Sat: Venus conjuncts Jupiter around 6:30 pm

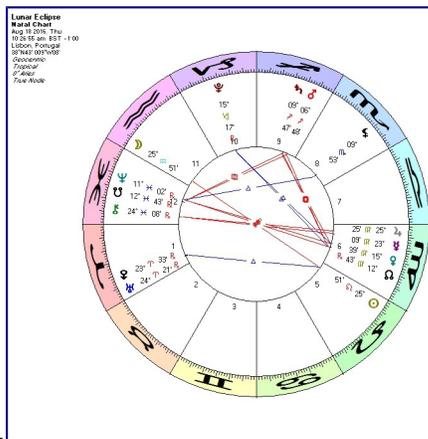

- It's another week of potent, powerful energies: the forces and energies are most potent in the middle of a sign – ie, 16*, & at 30* -1* which is the ending and the beginning of a sign.

May my eyes be able to see,
And my ears be open to hear,
The beauty of all creation

And the Spirit that brought me here

Rebel! The lunar eclipse in Aquarius says "Blow it off! Revolt!" Against what may be the question that follows haha! My work? My partner? The world? My self? God/dess? And the point is? For what? If not this, then what? Yup, a good time to reflect on just what we're doing, why, and whether the path forward should be in the same direction we have been heading.

As I mention in the report and the mantra, this can be a time of revelation as well as rebellion, and our eyes may be opened to new pathways, understanding, and direction. The eclipses always bring in new energies from deep space that can upset the normal operations of our lives. At first these can be upsetting, but in the long run they lead us down the road of fuller Self expression. Open up to see and hear the NEW!

Lastly, as mentioned in the report, we may just rebel against all the work we have been doing to simply STOP, notice how awesome this beautiful planet, our bodies and ourselves are, and take some time to make it more beautiful in a physical, tangible way. Not work, but art can be the means to rejuvenate, renew, and release our attachments to winning or maintaining some person, place, status, or thing. Go for it! Allow yourself the time to chill out and make something beautiful that has never been before. Enjoy!

- RI: the next new moon is at 10* Virgo – next solar eclipse – this is a lunar followed by a solar
- the full moon – the earth is between sun and moon, so we get a regular dose of solar energies and then the reflected solar energies which bounce off the moon – and it's Leo energies aka fire!
 - There is also lots of Virgo and Pisces energy
 - we see the fire energies in CA and western states; Virgo - sign of swamp - in Louisiana
 - he is annoyed that the floods in LA, south Mississippi not being talked about by main stream media
 - Trump took a look around; Obama coming down on Tuesday – this flooding situation is more devastating than Katrina was & is not being discussed!
- T: in Katrina – what they said happened, did not happen – Hillary had the levees blown up by the Army Corps of Engineers and that's what killed all the people.

CONFERENCE CALL

Ri: points out that the north node is 13* Virgo; close to what we've been working with

- Via the Sabian symbol – a powerful realization that the very purpose of the cycle of existence faces the remains of a distructured past
 - we have a condition of the restructuring of society and requirment for new leadership – fits in with what's happening!

Name of the book: Dane Rudhyar – an astrolgological mandala: the cycle of transformations and its 360 symbolic phases

Gerry: Dane Rudhyar was popular with the hippies

RI: Amazon often has used copies; also recommends planets and transits , published by Para Research. Robert Hand – a master from 30-40 years ago. Like Tom Hayden!

T: the stroke happened to Tom Hayden; just found out last Sunday night on Bioneers! The head of the Bioneers is also from 60s and the flower children – lots of millenials doing their thing in that group!

Gerry: thinks NESARA is imminent: 14 years ago he drove into Griffith Park – gates open at 5 am; first street to the left, drove up the hill, facing the east – a shuttle craft from Sirius beamed a huge light in his direction and there was telepathic communication with him – told him to hang in – NESARA was forth coming – that was 14 years ago!!! So what is the current situation? Before the next elections?

T: They don't give dates; they are not subject to 3rd dimension time frames!!!! Rama and T have been doing this since late 60s, early 70 years – doing this for 50 years! What is 50 years when you are wrapping up a yuga!

RI: as an astrologist, he has been looking at the implications of NESARA for the last 25 years – trying to figure out when it might happen! Especially as our extra dimensional brothers and sisters don't see time as we, the incarnated, do: they are immortal beings and understand time from that dimension; time is an issue that has no handle: time is a psychologic conditon – it has no dimension – he's been very frustrated about this!

RO: likely to occur before the Nov elections; asks RI what time period would be most likely RI: thought Pluto square Uranus would trigger it – Uranus square Pluto has been happening for several years: maybe when Uranus gets in Taurus there will be a trigger!

RO: Julian Assange to release material on Hillary in Oct; also the economy more likely than ever to bite the dust – two signs

T: that's true – like Rama said earlier, even when St Germain appeared to the Founding Fathers and told them to sign, he didn't give dates – just said it was depended on all of us

RO: R's contacts are saying the 2 running for office will not be the choice

T: yet it is still about mastery and not taking anything for granted: even back at the time of Jimmy Carter, thought it was a shoo in and all of a sudden the others jumped the gun and we lost – then Ronnie Rayguns got in, was killed and Bush Sr had the reins for 3 terms!

T: not talking . . .

RO: talking about all the things

T: NESARA really began in 1949 – 66 years ago -

RI: what we are looking at is a condition economically speaking of a fake money system – central bankers can print money so easliy; the petro dollar – until that system collapses, not getting anwyaere

T: Feb 26, 2013 – the system DID collapse – had we been ready at that time – which we weren't [things would have started then]; it's not really about them, but about US [the people] –

- and one way or another because the energies are speaking up and we know what they figured out – when we are making a quantum leap, things will stretch more than we thought – the universe is expanding and there are no signs anywhere that it is going to slow down.

- What Mother & others are saying NESARA may happen, but who and what are going with it? The energies of Mother Gaia are about speeding up – we must expand our heart and our Self acceptance of who we are and take on more responsibility of love and then more
- This is not about the way the 3rd dimension wants to look at it; the global economy has already collapsed, and they are playing the game of holding on to austerity, THE OLD PARADIGM –
- Thom Hartmann and the lady guest told of her kids taking a test and having to analyse Margaret Thatcher's eulogy for Ronnie Reagan's funeral – to get into a higher class.
- a couple of weeks later, a statue of Ronnie R was erected in every single county in US
- they killed him 2 months after he got in office; Bush is actually Schirff, a Nazi, who is dedicated to bringing nazism to America
- a dead man is a symbol of the way life is going to be in the future?
- and that is why Rana Mu is here from the future – going to roll back the timeline
 - Gerry = 14 years; T & R = 45-50 years – they did a reading for someone who was born in 1949 – original note holder Sam Brown – all the gold we are getting now to set up NESARA is not from here, but from other planets and sun systems
- a lady on Thom Hartmann talking about having people limited to 1 child – the life style of the US requires 5 planets to support it, and other countries are following suit!
- The most important thing is the technology of the heart: the heart has more neural pathways than the brain; there is also an emotional brain in the 3rd chakra – which is why she is excited about the water
- the original aura is in gold dust and there are 6 more layers, and with 7 levels in each layer, we are barely scratching the surface: we are light beings, not physical beings – when we co-created this form with Mother, it was mostly light & we could densify and lighten the form at will. We forgot that, and there have been programs after programs piled on – it all went mental [to the mind] and we lost the resonance [of the heart].

Mel: about the heart having – in acupuncture, your solar plexus is the master circuit; another master circuit is the top of the head, just back of the centre – draw a line from one ear to the other and it is the top.

To re-energize yourself, . . .

- Isn't the IMF crashing, crashed?

T: yes, they raped, pillaged and plundered Greece, as they had already plundered the IMF – and if people get in the way, they get killed.

Mel: the guarding of an empty Fort Knox is ludicrous

T: about the Hillary thing – she's living in the programmed world to such an extent that she believes the program about her self – she has no capacity to take responsibility for herself

- It is seeping into the consciousness of a lot of people [that she's living in her own bubble!]

T has been talking to her neighbour [about voting/not voting for HRC]: when people think there is something wrong with you, they are really saying they don't know what to do with the information that is being offered to them.

- Talks of TED talks: Graham Hancock got kicked out [of the TED talk environ] because he threatened the consciousness of the people running the show
 - the astrology says we might lose a few friends - or not; depends if we are playing in the old paradigm or not
- she's watching Barack Obama – the mastery with which he did that speech and knowing who Hillary is; when she came on the stage, he embraced her: Tara saw the little girl who had never known that kind of love! People are jumping up and down for Hillary and that is OK – yet how do we do this with love?
- Michael Jackson videos are being updated: and he knew about NESARA long before a lot of us did – he “left” in 2009.

Mel: remembers the picture of Barack hugging Hillary – it was not faked – she saw in his body language that he knew her: he was almost in pain because he was saying goodbye – the depth of the emotion was genuine

T: a lady has been reading Obama's aura over a period of years: she watched it explode – saw it each year:

- the kind of love he was able to project went for miles and it covered the whole city of Annapolis as he knows who he is – it was enormous when he began:
- we can know things but living every day with having to transmute things with love, and the KOS in his bedroom every night – if he had not been, Obama would have been dead. In Japan, Shinzo Abe sent 3 ninjas to kill him, and KOS had them dead in a few seconds. KOS gets rejuvenated because he hangs out with #15 – he was a copter pilot in Viet Nam, so he's been around.
 - The people who know him know he cannot be stopped; has been trained in every which way – has been navigating a star ship since 1999.
 - By their very presence, the 20 million of the Ashtar Command are raising our vibrations
- when you go into the timelessness, knowing you have all the time you need to do everything you want to do, and you focus on your meditation and everything, you forget about time and you become immortal; there is enough time as you are always in the NOW – there is never future tripping, or past tripping

RO: when people stop dropping dead, we can experience timelessness

T: our brothers and sisters are talking to us from the other side: having connections with Len, and heart connections with others like Bill from MN

RO: when we come in as star seeds, . . .

T: it is a conscious soul decision to come into a body - no, there is no death; we are not our bodies: it is a cloak that we use to experience through

R: if you remember the movie "Ghost" - Sam had to learn how to move the penny and kick the can without being in the physical; met a guy in the train who told him you are not your body any more

- we are using our consciousness to move heaven and earth which is a stretch for people who are working from 9-5 and are wondering what we are talking about!

RO: question was about some books that were channelled -

- the current one is about a starseed who goes back up to a ship, transfers into his ET self

R: has not read this book by Craig Campabosso

RO: also the Galactic Alliance: is this the same as the Galactic Federation?

T: we all have a life line: we can leave our physicality when we sleep and we can move easily and we can permeate other dimensional realities; we can go on the ships in our light bodies and most of us do. R goes to the ships in his physical body

R: has learned to create a way for getting into an altered state and let his body rest – be in semi-conscious awareness to bring in the energies so the ships can come and beam him up – as we are in agitation or stress, cannot get their attention.

T: as for "some day": we are in a time of speeding up and it is going really fast and we get less afraid – dealing with the austerity plan they have for us . . .

RO: it's the climax – has been seeing this coming on for 6 + years ago, Edgar Cayce predicted Putin's role in stopping WW 3

T: the breaking through of the masses is coming: they are giving us what we need!

RO: even if something happened to Julian or they put a clone in his place, [things would still happen]

T: CAN'T VIOLATE A PERSON'S FREE WILL CHOICE and Mother has said anyone who left the planet between 911 and now has the option to return in a new body and enter the time-space continuum. That person may not choose to do that as they will now have a greater view of the whole situation; they have options to choose greater service and may opt to stay on the other side and expand their helpfulness

- she doesn't know – people's lives go on, and there is change and new experiences

T suggests to start living at the inter dimensional doorways and opening them which moves the one clue is that it will be all at once or not at all!!!

- It already went down once in every stock market in the world!

RO: time for the entrée!

Mel: time for dessert!!!

How do we get out of the current financial situation, brought on by capitalism.

On this week's episode of On Contact, Chris Hedges enters the capitalist labyrinth with Rob Urie, author of Zen Economics. Urie says the destructive way capitalism has harnessed natural resources and the political system makes it time to reimagine the way we understand and relate to the world around us, while RT correspondent Anya Parampil explores wealth disparities across the United States.

The use of plants as food, medicine and construction material for human habitat is apparent to all, but the essential role certain plants play in human spiritual evolution is not well understood. Jeffrey Bronfman, an environmentalist, educator and founding member of Bioneers, has encountered the use of plants within numerous spiritual, ceremonial and religious contexts throughout the Western Hemisphere. He explores the vital role certain plants have in the development of human awareness at this critical moment in the state of the biosphere and our evolution as human beings.

2016-08-19 Manifesting from the Seat of Love

by Beings of Venus Channelled through Natalie Glasson

Original Source: Sacred School of OmNa <https://youtu.be/jFsif2vpZT>

We, Beings of Love from Venus come forth to share our energy, light, and understanding with you. We are aware that major shifts are taking place upon the Earth now which are impacting the creation of the Era of Love. We are immensely excited as are many beings of the Universe of the Creator as a major shift concerning the Christ Consciousness has taken place supported and assisted by Master Jesus, numerous Christed Beings, and Star Beings. The Christ Consciousness vibration which was anchoring into the Earth during the crucifixion, resurrection, and ascension of Jesus, was being drawn from a synthesis of the Planetary and Universal Levels of the Creator's Universe. Now due to the increase of the Earth's love quotient, the Christ Consciousness has been newly anchored from quicker frequency levels of the Creator's Universe. A synthesis of Christ Consciousness from the Solar and Multi Universal Levels is now grounding into the Earth and humanity. This symbolises a deeper preparation, awakening, and manifestation of the Creator's active love upon the Earth.

To experience this new upgraded Christ Consciousness simply call upon the Christ Consciousness light to flow through your being. There is no need to call upon the new download of the Christ Consciousness as it is now being received and embodied by all who focus upon the Christ Consciousness. Let yourself experience this high vibrational Christ Consciousness. Upon first receiving the light it is immensely healing and uplifting, then as you meditate upon its blissful vibrations of love you can allow yourself to understand and perceive how it wishes to support you, the shifts it will create the more you focus upon embodying it, while also sharing your purpose of working with the Christ Consciousness in your current embodiment. There is much that the new energy of the Christ Consciousness wishes to inspire and ignite within you.

With the Earth's acceptance of the new download of Christ Consciousness, we the Beings of Venus are able to bring forth additional supportive love vibrations from our civilisation. We wish to anchor a pure turquoise and white light into the Earth, humanity, and your being. Held within the light is a powerful energy of peace which will support you in moving deeper into pure spaces of love within your being. Like waves washing over and through your being the energy will create a deep-seated calmness which for some may feel like a sleepy feeling. The energy awakens a powerful vibration and source of light from within your being carrying forth a feeling of contentment. The synthesis of peace from the light we share and the awakening of contentment within you will shift you into a powerful state where projection and manifestation are possible and can be achieved with great potency.

We, the Beings of Venus, now invite you to manifest from the seat of love within your soul. It is time to allow your soul's love to infuse your entire being and reality with greater force as you enter into a state of peace and contentment, focusing upon projecting your love from your third eye and heart chakra simultaneously. This is a very powerful projection because it is born from your alignment and harmony with the Creator, it begins as energy or simply a feeling/sensation.

Then it may build into visions or knowingness of that which your soul is choosing and wishing to manifest to serve your happiness and ascension as well as the ascension of the Earth and humanity. Sometimes you may not know what you are creating, however, the energy pulsating through your being will have a purpose which will manifest into your awareness and reality with divine timing.

Through this seemingly personal projection of your soul's love, energy and wishes for your reality you will be raising the love vibration of the Earth and humanity. You will also be breaking through and erasing limitations of boundaries that many have placed upon their realities, such as their limits upon love, their unworthiness to receive all that their soul wishes to share with them and their inability to believe that their reality can be happy and joyous born from the seat of love of their souls. Many worldwide limitations, boundaries, and blockages can be erased through your projection of the seat of love of your soul, allowing this energy to magnify and manifest all that is divinely guided and is fulfilling into your reality for your continuous experience. The more you allow yourself to access your natural abilities and power the more you will without realising erase the negativity, fear, and limitations from the lives of others. Your energy projects into the Earth and the Universe of the Creator, it is an active energy which is present for many to observe and draw upon, it also synthesises with other energies and quickens the speed of light that it connects with. The light and consciousness you project easily and simply from your being is constantly adding to and assisting major ascension shifts upon the Earth. You are more powerful than you know. You do not even need to focus upon world peace, ascension or sending healing energy to others, your projection of the seat of love from your soul achieves all this and more while creating peace and contentment in your reality. Peace and contentment in your reality create for you a reality which is beyond your dreams and desires while being immensely fulfilling.

To manifest from the seat of love of your soul:

First connect with the Christ Consciousness now anchoring into the Earth from the Universe of the Creator, feeling the flow of golden light pouring down over and through your entire being.

Secondly, ask for your entire being to be aligned with the light vibration, we the Beings of Venus, are currently emanating to the Earth.

Imagine, sense or acknowledge the turquoise and white light we, the Beings of Venus, are anchoring into the Earth now flowing over and through your being, as you focus upon your inhalation to draw the energy into your being. The turquoise and white light carries a powerful energy of peace and guides you into a state of peace.

Thirdly imagine, sense or acknowledge that an energy of contentment ignites from within your being. The sensation of contentment is like a burning fire within you and emanates to pulsate throughout your entire being.

The energy of peace, we the Beings of Venus are sharing with you will synthesise with your energy of contentment, guiding you into a divine state of being, which you can enjoy and recognise as a natural state of your existence.

Invite your attention to be drawn to the seat of love of your soul within your being. Allow yourself to observe the seat of love of your soul. It will ooze and emanate love into your entire being as if you are sitting in an embrace of pure love or are connecting with the foundation of your soul's immense love.

Imagine, sense or acknowledge that the powerful love vibrations from the seat of love of your soul connects with your third eye and heart chakra, beginning to project outwards from your being. Observe or guide the projection, follow your intuition as to what feels necessary. There is no need to place visions or ideas as to what you wish to experience in your reality into your mind's eye. Simply focus upon the energy being projected through your third eye and heart chakras. Observe any visions, ideas or understandings that dawn; this is the guidance of your soul. Your soul from its seat of love will create peace, contentment, love and fulfilment. You do not need to know how this will form, simply know that through your experience of the energy it will manifest in the most blissful and surprising way for you to experience. This process also strengthens your trust of your soul which enhances your bond with yourself and the Creator.

Enjoy this process for as long as you wish to. When you feel the process is complete, simply focus upon your Earth Star Chakra below your feet as you exhale several times deeply.

We are supporting you every step of the way to becoming the love that is your truth and experiencing it fully upon the Earth.

With Venus blessings and love,

Beings of Venus

2016-08-10 We're all on the Titanic', as old bear says get ready for ugly stock market crash

Swiss investor Marc Faber is known for his pessimistic view of stock markets, and says the S&P 500 index could soon lose more than half of its value.

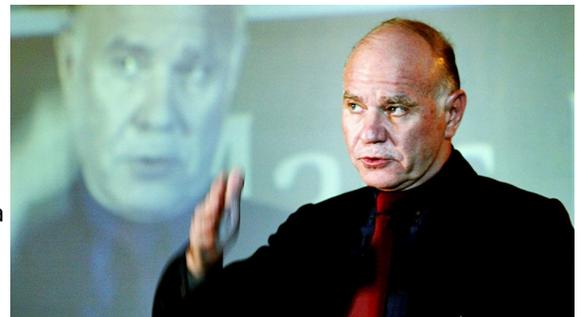

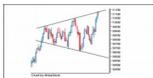

A rally since late June has the S&P 500 up nearly seven percent in 2016, setting new record-highs almost every day. Faber predicts the index could first grow to 2,300 points from the current 2,182 before the nosedive.

"Maybe we go first to 2,300, then we would have a perfect topping formation. A widening-top formation is about the most bearish technical formation you can have," Faber said in an interview with MarketWatch.

International investment adviser Marc Faber. © Sherwin Crasto / Reuters

The investor is referring to the so-called megaphone pattern that resembles a reverse version of a symmetrical triangle, which is a bearish signal indicating the current uptrend may be followed by a steeper downtrend.

"When it unravels, we are going to go to 1,100 on the S&P 500," Faber said.

Faber, 70, is known for his criticism of central bank policies and the US economy. According to him, printing money may result in markets coughing up the "five years of capital gains".

"We're all on the Titanic. When things unravel a colossal asset inflation will burst," he said.

Faber is often criticized by other analysts, as he has been unsuccessfully predicting the stock market collapse each year since 2012.

To this, Faber replied: "There are lots of people who always criticize me. First of all, they have no money. And I always tell them to send me their audited performance over the last 10 to 20 years and we'll compare."

"Everyone has good calls and negative calls," he said.

Faber is known for advising his clients to rush from the stock market before the October 1987 collapse, dubbed as the Wall Street's Black Monday.

In the 2000s, he also correctly predicted the rise in oil prices, precious metals and other commodities, as well as emerging markets growth, led by China.

His most obvious failures are predicting a "100 percent chance" of a global economic recession in 2012 or 2013 that were followed by global growth. Last year, he predicted gold prices to skyrocket 30 percent in 2015. While they stumbled 14 percent last year, gold has gained 30 percent this year.

Here's more news you don't get in the US' mainstream media: John Jones 48, one of Britain's top human rights lawyers who represented Julian Assange, was killed last Monday, when he was run over by a commuter train. The death is being called a suicide.

British Transport Police were called to the West Hampstead train station in North London at 7:07 AM on Monday, after a man was struck by a train. He was reportedly pronounced dead at the scene and his death is not being treated as suspicious.

Jones worked on the same team as actor George Clooney's wife Amal. He specialized in extradition, war crimes and counter-terrorism; taking cases from the former Yugoslavia, Rwanda, Sierra Leone, Lebanon and Cambodia.

Jones lived in an expensive home in North London, with wife Misa Zgonec-Rozej, 40, a director of an international law consultancy, and his two children.

The news is particularly disturbing, as Democratic Strategist and CNN host, Bob Beckel appeared in a FOXTV interview and called for the assassination of Julian Assange (or more accurately, "Just kill the sonofabitch!")

Assange is believed to be planning a strategic "October Surprise" leak of a Hillary Clinton email, just prior the US Presidential Election. It purportedly contains information that will definitively put her behind bars.

2014-10-27 California Energy Strategists Push for 100% Clean Energy, Without Fossil Fuels or Nuclear Power Updated Dec 27, 2014

October 25, 2014, Marin Country, CA.—

California energy leaders, environmental scientists, and activists convened here last week in advance of the 25th annual Bioneers Conference at the Marin County Civic Center for an energy and climate strategy session that could have national and global implications.

Many in the assemblage had come to brainstorm about how to leverage California’s model energy policies to spur faster Federal action to protect the climate. Predictably, participants sought to boost renewable energy use in California and increase the state’s reliance on energy efficiency. Some were determined, however, not just to slash California’s greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions, but to eliminate them altogether.

If this game-changing goal is widely adopted by the environmental community and by a vanguard of public officials, it would put California climate policymakers and others under pressure to advance the state’s already ambitious clean energy goals. That could help set the state and the nation on a faster track toward the holy grail of climate activists—an energy future free of fossil fuels and nuclear power.

The meeting was jointly sponsored by former California Senator Tom Hayden’s Peace and Justice Resource Center and by the Bioneers, an organization designed “to inspire, inform, and engage global citizen action.”

The technology to achieve 100% clean energy is here, Hayden asserted, and attendees seemed to accept without debate that this could be readily accomplished. “The problem is social, political, and cultural,” Hayden asserted. California, he said, has shown that it is possible to reduce both nuclear power and coal power while enjoying economic success.

Former State Senator Tom Hayden addressing a day-long California climate and energy pre-conference meeting prior to the start of the state’s annual Bioneers Conference in California indeed has been a pioneer in energy efficiency and environmental protection since the first administration of Governor Jerry Brown in the 1970s. Ever since, the state's landmark legislation has inspired federal legislation and standards controlling air and water pollution.

California's energy efficiency standards for appliances, buildings, and transportation fuels in particular, have served as models for federal and international regulations, including the Obama Administration's fuel efficiency standards. Far from impeding the economy, the state's energy efficiency programs have cumulatively saved the state $70 billion since their inception.

With abundant renewable energy resources, California pioneered the generation of utility-scale solar thermal electric power in the Mohave Desert in the 1980s and, beginning in the early 1980s, was also the site of the nation's first large wind farms. Decades earlier, the nation's geothermal industry was born at The Geysers, near Calistoga.

The state now employs nearly 200,000 people in clean energy industries and plans to spend $120 billion over the next five years on clean energy, according to the Peace and Justice Resource Center. The state's current Go Solar Program has a $3.35 billion budget and aims to get 3,000 MW of solar power installed in the state by the end of 2016, making solar an everyday reality.

California expects to have photovoltaic panels on a million rooftops by 2017, according to Bernadette del Chiaro, Director of the California Solar Energy Association. With the help of innovative incentive programs and rapidly declining solar costs, the state will have another million installed by 2020. "California has installed more solar in the last 18 months than in the previous 18 years," del Chiaro noted.

California also plans to have 1.5 million electric vehicles on the road by 2025 and to build 1,000 charging stations for them. Under state Assembly Bill 32, California is committed to reducing its GHG emissions by at least 80 percent by 2050, and Wade Crowfoot, a deputy cabinet secretary in the Brown administration, says the state "will reach the target."

In addition, all retail electricity suppliers in the state must provide 33% of their power from renewable sources by 2020. (State officials raised the target in 2011 from 17 percent in 2017.) Now, however, state energy activists like former-Senator Hayden are urging that the state double the pace of GHG reductions by 2030.

Many meeting participants were also committed to having environmental and social justice concerns incorporated into the state's campaign for clean energy. California's clean energy economy should be scaled up in ways that create thousands of new well-paying jobs in the clean energy and efficiency sectors, they urged.

This may prove to be the most important resolution to emerge from the meeting. The approach offers a big tent to the vast majority of Americans who are suffering in a stagnant economy and a desultory job market. They would gladly support a clean energy and efficiency campaign if it provided for an economic revival.

Vien Truong, Environmental Equity Director of the Greenlining Institute, urged the audience to make the connection between poverty and air pollution, building "truly collaborative movements and partnerships." By engaging potential allies early in campaigns, she said, we will be working for social and environmental justice, not just for transportation options or narrow energy goals.

Her message was underscored by Katie Hoffman, Campaign Director of the California Student Sustainability Coalition. “We need to build alliances with disadvantaged communities,” she said, including the coal miners who are victims of fossil fuel policies.

Dan Jacobson, Director of Environment California urged widening the climate protection movement to include a broader base of labor, environmentalists, and students. Hayden also called for bringing labor unions into a clean energy movement that promises clean jobs.

Calling California the “rock star” of the clean energy movement, Annie Notthoff of the Natural Resources Defense Council captured the spirit of the meeting when she urged participants to work to ensure that the clean energy economy is for everyone, not just for some.

Annie Notthoff, California Advocacy Director of the Natural Resources Defense Council, addressing the day-long California climate and energy session prior to the start of the annual Bioneers Conference in Marin County, CA. Photo by Benson Lee, (c) 2014.

Dissatisfied with climate plans that merely stabilize GHG levels at current unsafe levels, environmentalist and entrepreneur Paul Hawken described the “game changing” climate solutions that he and “several hundred” co-authors are documenting in a forthcoming book called Drawdown. The book describes solutions that can drive atmospheric concentrations of GHGs back to safer levels by 2045.

Contrary to fossil fuel industry and climate science deniers’ claims, implementing many of these innovations, like the LED, has no net cost and will on balance save society enormous amounts of money. The potential global monetary returns from climate protection are in the trillions of dollars, Hawken said.

http://www.opednews.com/articles/1/The-Cosmic-Story-Aquarius-by-Cathy-Lynn-Pagano-Age-Of-Aquarius_Aquarius_Astrology_Full-Moon-160817-859.html

This late summer Full Moon featuring Leo and Aquarius reminds us to go have fun with like-hearted individuals. Find your group and celebrate! Leo is all about the Heart, and when Sister Moon comes around to face this Leo Sun, she has to shine back at him the bigger reality of Aquarius--that we cannot thrive unless we share our heart's love and creativity with others, for others.

A beautiful representative of the Leo Sun is the Egyptian Goddess, Sekhmet: Lioness, Goddess, Heart of the Sun. This ancient goddess comes down to us from the Age of Leo, when the lioness Sphinx watched over humankind. Below are only a few of Sekhmet's names that we still know of from this earlier Age.

Sekhmet

(image by Cathy Pagano) License DMCA

Names of Sekhmet

Sekhmet, Great One of Magic
Mother of the Gods
Lady of the House of Books
She Who Walks On Forests of Rose Petals
One Who Was Before The Gods Were
Lady of the Place of the Beginning of Time
Lady of Radiance
Revealer of the Ancient Paths

Flaming One
Finder of Ways
Protectress of the gods
Lady of the Scarlet-Colored Garment
Pure One
She of Great Beauty and Hope
Keeper of the Light
Lady of Strong Love

Self Contained
Only One
Awakener
Lady of Enchantments
Opener of Ways
Lady of Transformations
Lady of the Many Faces

(See The Temple of Goddess Spirituality, Dedicated to Sekhmet for more names.)

Sekhmet, Leo and the Sun are all associated with the Heart. And like Sekhmet's names, the truth of the human heart is that we are full of possibilities; we are made up of many talents. This divine goddess shows us the abundant gifts that are possible if we trust our hearts to show us the way. This Path of the Heart is the road to Wisdom--to living a fulfilled, whole, self-aware life.

In Gregg Braden's video series Living From the Heart, he talks about the most important question we can ask ourselves: "Who Am I?" A very Leo/Aries sort of question. He then goes on explain how our left brain logic is not the only way to think about life and find direction. He talks about the new scientific discoveries that show us that our hearts actually have more neural networks than our brains. It is this Heart knowledge that gives us connection, compassion and insight into life--our feminine right-brain, the brain of the imagination. It is in uniting our head and our heart that we create a balanced life. "Fusing these two powerful neural networks, the brain and the heart, allows us to open the door to super-learning, deep intuitive wisdom and self-healing." (Gregg Braden)

Too often, our heart wants something and our ration brain tells us why we can't have it instead of figuring out how to get it ! Patriarchy has tried to cut us off from this source of deep wisdom by telling us that our hearts can't be trusted with important issues! Really????

Our feeling nature, our imagination, our wisdom. The Heart can show us how we can best express who we are. Like Sekhmet, we have many names and many abilities and many ways to express those abilities. Healer, Lover, Creator of Beauty. Transformer, Awakened, Keeper of the Light. The Heart is like Sekhmet, Great One of Magic. For our hearts are the wellsprings of magic.

We are living at one of the most important turning points in our civilization--as well as bringing in the Age of Aquarius. And one of the ways to deal with the changes and transformations coming is to understand that life does not emerge from competition and conflict as Darwin theorized, but from cooperation and connectedness. We have to understand this cosmic law if we want to create a healthy and creative future. We do better working together than alone, competing with the world. When our hearts are engaged, we know this truth.

That's the message of this Aquarius Full Moon. To shine brightly, Leo's fire has to be shared with the group. Just as within ourselves we have to unite our left-brain knowledge with our right-brain wisdom, so we have to unite our heads and our hearts. Leo rules the Heart Chakra, the energy center that unites our lower and upper chakras, our gut and our brain. It is the heart that brings it all together. Our Aquarius intelligence is as vast as the cosmos, and yet our Leo Hearts are made to open to that intelligence and transform it into LIFE.

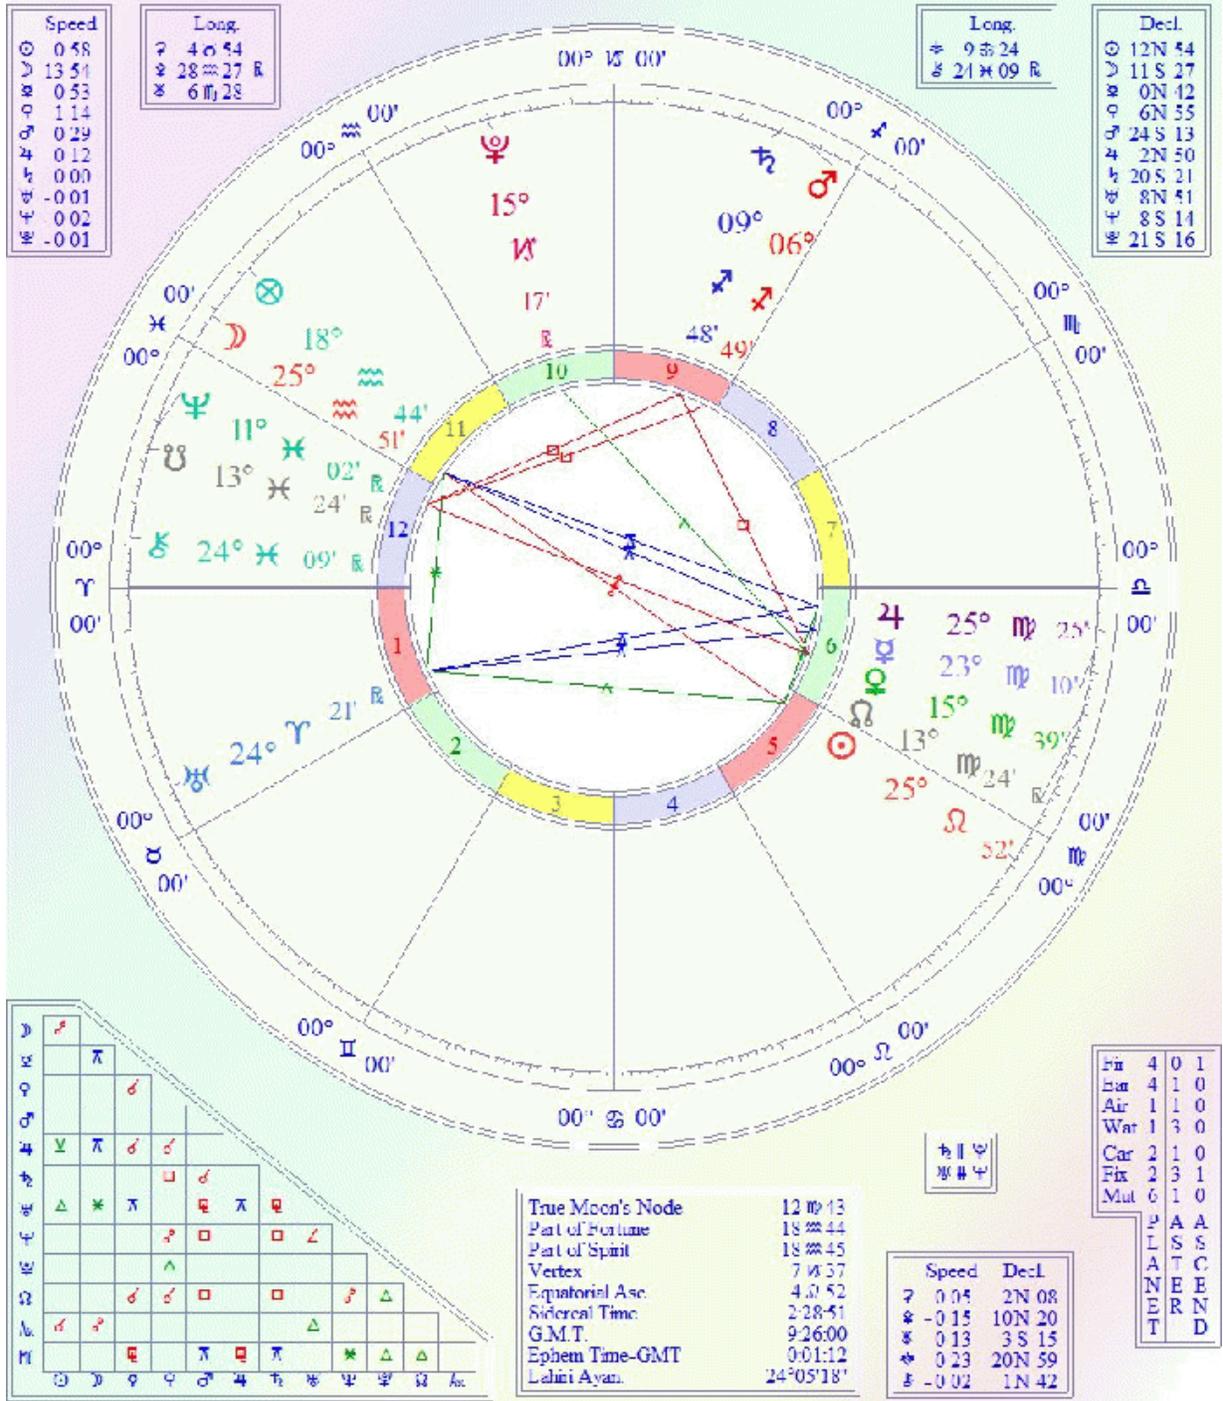

What a blessing to us that we've been given these Hearts! Leo is generous and wants to share her bonfire. So open your heart and share in the blessings.

Aquarius Full Moon 2016
 (image by Cathy Pagano) License DMCA

This Aquarius Full Moon occurs on August 18, 2016 at 2:26am PDT/ 5:26am EDT/ 9:26am GMT.

Although billed as a lunar eclipse, this Full Moon barely touches the edge of Earth's shadow. So there's not the disruption of energies usual for an eclipse. You decide--if you have planets at these degrees, you might feel it more than others.

The Sabian symbol for the Sun at 26* Leo is: After the heavy storm, a rainbow. This is a beautiful, ancient symbol uniting Heaven and the Earth. All things are in balance when these two powers are in harmony. This is the harmony of Head and Heart. The beauty of a rainbow is especially poignant after the violence of a heavy rainstorm. First we have to face our Shadows, especially the Leo shadows of pride and self-centeredness and the Aquarius shadows of judgement and rigid thinking. Then we'll be ready to fulfill the promise of the rainbow--to express our beauty, our worth, our creativity for all to see.

The Sabian symbol for the Moon at 26* Aquarius is: A mechanic testing a car's battery with a hydrometer. This image suggests the practical application of known universal laws. The battery gives the car electricity--the spark of life. We have to keep that in tune if we want to make our way into the future. Use your energy well. Ask for help when you need it. Your heart will know who to trust.

Uranus retrograding at 25* Aries trines this Full Moon and sextiles the Leo Sun, energizing this heart opening with the need to be yourself in the midst of your group. Like Aquarius, which it rules, we have to understand that we all have an equal part to play in the world. My image of Aquarius is of King Arthur's Round Table--a place where equals meet to join together to make the world a better place.

Saturn just turned back to direct motion on Saturday, August 13th. What have you learned about yourself and your beliefs since it went retrograde on March 25th, a few days after the Libra Lunar eclipse? Saturn in Sagittarius focuses our attention on our beliefs, so we discover our Truth and have the maturity to stand up for ourselves. Now that Saturn is going forward again, keep focused on your truth so you stand up for what you really believe in as you engage with the world. Saturn is still squaring Neptune in Pisces, which can either throw us into confusion about what we believe in, or it can inspire us with bigger and greater beliefs.

The Sabian symbol for Saturn direct at 10* Sagittarius is: A theatrical representation of the golden-haired goddess of opportunity. Sometimes these symbols reflect the world-view of the psychic who spoke them. I can imagine Isadora Duncan as this golden-haired goddess! Anyway, on a deep symbolic level, this image speaks to the call of opportunities in the world around us. What is calling us? What can we do to make the world a better place? There's plenty of opportunities--just follow your heart and hear the call!

Mars is moving forward in Sagittarius and will once again join up with Saturn at 10* Sagittarius on August 24th and squares Neptune in Pices on August 25th. You might want to wait til then to jump into the opportunities presented to you, since the inner planets, especially Mars, triggers the effects of these outer planet squares in our lives. Stay open, listen to your heart and see what comes your way.

Mercury is moving through his own sign of Virgo now, slowing down as it gets ready to turn retrograde on August 30th at 30* Virgo. Before his retrograde, Mercury opposes Chiron in Pisces on August 19th and joins Jupiter in Virgo on August 22, opening the mind to the needs of the many and how we might help heal some collective wounds. It's another example of uniting the head and the heart, our logical mind and our intuitive, feeling heart.

The Sabian symbol for Mercury retrograde at 30* Virgo is: Totally intent upon completing an immediate task, a man is deaf to any allurements. 30* of a sign is important--it's the culmination of that sign's energy. Can we stay focused on our work like this man? Can we complete the task of this year--to find our unique Self and Truth as we shed the lies of patriarchy?

Venus is also in Virgo and having connected to the Neptune/Saturn square earlier in the month now joins Jupiter and then Mercury at the end of the month, once again aligning our heart and head as we head into the fall and our harvest time here in the North. Our friend down South will be looking forward to Spring right about now!

The Aquarius Moon and Aries Uranus form the base of a mystical YOD to Mercury & Jupiter in Virgo, challenging us to take up this sword of Light and use our analytical brains to listen to the power of the heart. The healing comes from listening to those things and people who have been made irrelevant under patriarchy. So listen to your heart, your gut, your feelings, your imagination, your wisdom and get your analytical, logical brain to figure out what you need to do.

Look around you. The world is a beautiful and fragile gift we've been given. Look at your family and friends and be grateful for the love you have. Appreciation, cooperation and creativity are all worthy gifts of Leo and Aquarius. What abundance we have to celebrate!

Walk in the Light,

Cathy

Be a person here. Stand by the river, invoke the owls. Invoke winter, then spring. Let any season that wants to come here make its own call. After that sound goes away, wait.

A slow bubble rises through the earth and begins to include sky, stars, all space, even the outracing, expanding thought. Come back and hear the little sound again.

Suddenly this dream you are having matches everyone's dream, and the result is the world. If a different call came there wouldn't be any world, or you, or the river, or the owls calling.

How you stand here is important. How you listen for the next things to happen. How you breathe.

August's Aspects

August and September, with their series of 3 eclipses, will mark a pivotal point in the breakdown of the global oligarchy - in the breakdown of the global political and economic power of the 1%. In this post, I will focus on the first of these eclipses, taking place at the Full Moon of August 18 UT. The good news is that we are beginning a phase in the transition away from global oligarchy that we have been looking forward to. The bad news is that it will be a long and difficult transition.

The Lunar Eclipse at the Full Moon on August 18, UT

The North Node gives eclipses their meaning. Presently, the North Node in Virgo is strongly expressing the need for an objective, down-to-earth and selfless approach to resolving numerous and still rapidly increasing global issues.

By all accounts, the forces of oligarchy represent the opposite of the values supported by the Virgo North Node. So, logically, this pivotal battle should and probably will be decided in favor of the 99%. Ultimately,

It just will not be an easy or quick victory and the outcome is not fully guaranteed. The conflicts in the chart will play out in the realm of communication. These conflicts will also be intense. The communication process itself is seriously afflicted, though. Resulting conflicts are highly likely to overflow into behavior, and not always in a good way.

To understand the astrological source of these difficulties, we need only look at a few of August's more prominent aspects.

August's Version of the Mutable T-Square

The dominant aspect in the August 18 eclipse chart is an updated version of the mutable T-Square that has dominated the charts since it took shape in the fall of 2015.

The base of this T-Square sets, as it always has, along the critically important nodal axis, the line connecting the North and South Nodes. There is no more sensitive or powerful axis in the astrology chart.

The energies affecting the nodal axis are powerfully communicated to every region of and aspect in the chart. And in this chart, there is a lot of complicated, difficult and downright dangerous stuff going on along the nodal axis. Or should I say, the most dangerous stuff going on in this chart directly affects the nodal axis.

In the August 18 version, or 'iteration,' of this T-Square, its base is formed by an opposition: retrograde Chiron opposes a Mercury/Jupiter conjunction. The nodal axis, then, is heavily afflicted by this highly problematic aspect. This same aspect will seriously resist the work of the North Node in Virgo, and vice versa.

The Unusual Power of the Mutable T-Square During August's Lunar Eclipse

The power of the mutable T-Square is augmented by an unusually powerful Mercury. Mercury has had its muscular little fingers in a lot of pies lately; it is affecting many lines of causality and synchronicity and will continue to do so into the future. This is very clear in August's eclipse chart. Mercury transited (eclipsed or occulted) the Sun on May 9th at the time of Jupiter's return to forward movement. This renewed and foregrounded Mercury's power. Also, the simple fact that Mercury will be near the North Node during the eclipse will increase its importance.

When everything is taken into account, Mercury is the strongest planet by far in the dispositor chart of the August eclipse. It overrides the importance of strongly placed Sun and Neptune, each in their own home sign.

Mercury also 'disposes' of, or channels, the influence of the Moon, Venus, Mars, Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus and Pluto. It's complicated, but this lineup in the dispositor chart puts these bodies at a considerable disadvantage.

Their power is subordinated to that of diminutive Mercury. The great energetic river formed by their combined streams must all flow through Mercury's narrow gate, with considerable complications along the way.

This will create severe bandwidth issues throughout the month. The elements of this potent and complex but tangled stream of energies will struggle mightily to express themselves simultaneously through Mercury's comparatively narrow and highly specialized modalities. They will frequently find themselves competing aggressively with each other for passage. Then they will struggle mightily to escape Mercury in Virgo's many narrow filters.

It is difficult to overstate the scale of Mercury's influence during the August eclipse. It is equally difficult to overstate the degree of Mercury's affliction. The astrological handicaps under which it will labor to perform its inordinately difficult task will be numerous and daunting.

A Powerful Mercury, Powerfully Afflicted

There will often be insuperable obstacles to successful communication at all levels in August and beyond. Indeed, simple, seemingly straightforward, routine communication can explode. In August, regardless of the seeming importance or unimportance of the issues, or how casual a conversation might seem to be at the time, it would be best to proceed with caution.

Overreaction is the order of the day. People will be primed to take offense and give offense in return. Sometimes it might just be best to hold your peace, no matter what you think is at risk. On the micro level, the result of miscommunication might be estrangement, lost friendships, broken agreements and lost partners. On the macro - or national and global levels - the results might be broken alliances, shattered treaties, and failed trade deals. Hostile, unguarded diplomatic exchanges might lead to open warfare.

Mercury conjunct Jupiter is opposite Chiron Retrograde

Much of the difficulty will come from retrograde Chiron's opposition to the Jupiter/Mercury conjunction in Virgo. Retrograde Chiron's negative potential is strongly enhanced. Retrograde Chiron's opposition is likely to draw discussions in the direction of old bitterness, simmering grievance and lingering grudge. It can stir pain in wounds nearly forgotten but not fully healed. It can inflame feelings about real or imagined attacks on personal beliefs. A Chiron opposition is also a prolific source of imagined threat or offense.

The negative potentialities of retrograde Chiron's opposition are multiplied by its nearness to Neptune, retrograde Nessus, the South Node and the influence of Pisces generally.

Retrograde Nessus will hasten the manifestation of negativity and quickly dredge up guilt and pain. The effect would be to diminish our sense of self-worth and darken our interpretation of other people's motives.

Neptune will further increase the likelihood of confusion, weak, self-deceptive, even delusional reasoning. The South Node, for its part, will make errors in reasoning and all these other ill-advised seem attractive.

This combination of negative placements makes the odds of failed communication very high indeed.

None of these influences, alone or in combination, would be conducive to successful communication and positive outcomes. Disagreement could arise completely unexpectedly and quickly become heated and even violent.

Mars/Saturn Conjunction in Sagittarius - a T-Square + Flint and Steel

Mars and Saturn are conjunct in Sagittarius at the apex of the mutable T-Square. This fiery, explosive conjunction squares both poles of the Mercury/Jupiter/Chiron opposition during the eclipse.

This will further multiply the already considerable negative potential of the Mercury/Jupiter/Chiron opposition. In sum, it will dramatically raise the likelihood of miscommunication and worsen its consequences.

Retrograde Pluto is exactly conjunct the fixed star Vega, opposite the asteroid Vesta.

During the August eclipse, a Pluto/Vega conjunction is exact to within about 16 minutes of arc - i.e., extremely exact. A Pluto/Vega conjunction is rare.

It occurs roughly every 248 years. It last occurred in about 1767-8 at the dawn of an era of world historical revolution.

Vega dramatically enhances charm, glamour and charisma generally. Pluto is an intensifier of feeling and a powerful motivator of radical, even revolutionary action. Combined, Pluto and Vega can generate intensely charismatic and thoroughly irrational appeal. This in turn can inspire fierce, unreasoning loyalty. This in its turn can inspire fanaticism and zealotry.

The asteroid Vesta, for its part, governs earnest devotion to a principle or ideal. Opposite the exact Pluto/Vesta conjunction, Vesta can easily produce a fiery clash.

This opposition takes place in cardinal signs, along the Capricorn/Cancer axis, its volatile influence will be complicated and compounded by the lingering power of the Uranus/Pluto square.

This Pluto/Vesta influence, combined with the influence of the Chiron/Mercury/Jupiter opposition and the Saturn/Mars conjunction, is highly conducive to overheated, irrational rhetoric and the violence to which such rhetoric often gives rise.

Outcomes Might Not Be What You Hope

Under the influence of the eclipse, negative tactics, no matter how appealing or even irresistible they seem, could backfire badly, either in the moment or in the future.

This would seem to put the offender at a disadvantage. However, in present circumstances, a penalty on the offender could easily overflow and engulf bystanders, including those offended. Regardless of whoever has the right of it, social unrest brought on by a violation of the North Node's mandate, could overflow, translating into misfortune for the righteous too. Violence is contagious and unrest tends to overflow boundaries.

Consider Also The Asteroids - The Pervasiveness of Transformative Process

It is clear from the nature of the mutable T-Square, placed so strongly in August's eclipse chart, that August's intense conflicts will largely be rooted in the realm of ideas and beliefs. It will be about the rightness or wrongness of beliefs, the soundness of arguments presented in their defense and the motives behind them.

Ideology will be pitted sharply against ideology, religious belief against religious belief, scientific theory against scientific theory, dogma against dogma, motive against motive, and everything in between.

Where the Asteroids Come Into It

A consideration of the asteroids would give us a very clear idea of the scale of the process supported by the mutable T-Square and the possible scope of the conflict.

As I have tried to show in previous posts, the asteroids have a great deal to do with the ideas by which we govern our lives and our societies. If we add up the areas influenced by the better known asteroids (Ceres, Pallas, Juno, Vesta, Chiron, Pholus, Nessus, Chariklo, Ixion, Quaoar and Eris) we come up with whole worldviews full of ideas from around the globe.

Quaoar in August

For the present, let's consider the asteroid Quaoar and its role during the August eclipse. During the eclipse, retrograde Quaoar will be in all but perfect conjunction with the Galactic Center in Sagittarius. This conjunction is also rare. It occurs once every 286 years, give or take. The last such conjunction occurred during the run up to the historic revolutions at the end of the 19th century.

Quaoar is associated with the creation and maintenance of large belief systems of all kinds. It governs our ability to keep our worldview up to date, and our ability to change it as knowledge and circumstance change.

Quaoar's influence is all inclusive in this regard. It affects every facet of every existing belief system.

Not to put too fine a point on it, the Galactic Center is a major source, perhaps even the primary source, of transformative sacred energy. The precise conjunction of Quaoar and the Galactic Center sends immeasurably large amounts of transformative and uplifting sacred energy surging through the world's belief systems. Especially with Quaoar retrograde in Sagittarius, it inspires the vigorous updating and upgrading of the totality of ideas in the totality of global worldviews.

Subjectively, the conjunction would make us feel an urgent need, even a sacred duty, to update and upgrade our beliefs - along with everyone else's, for that matter.

The transformative energy from the Galactic Center will affect all of our beliefs. Nothing and no one will be excluded. Quaoar's conjunction with the Galactic Center, then, will dramatically augment the transformative effects of the eclipse.

The Other Asteroids

In the interests of brevity, let me just say that the other commonly observed asteroids are centrally involved in the dynamic of the Mutable T-Square. These other asteroids are also strongly placed. Hence, the kind of reasoning applied to Quaoar will apply to the other asteroids.

The forces at work in August and beyond will inundate the totality of our global idea systems. We are slowly emerging from a time when greed was exalted to the level of a virtue. All respect for facts and sound reason was abandoned. Virtually the totality of the ideas that govern the conduct of our individual and collective affairs are now deeply flawed.

I don't think we want to underestimate the scale of the impact that the upcoming eclipses, including August's eclipse, will have. When an irresistible demand for truth collides with so many flawed ideas, trouble is sure to follow.

On an individual level, be careful what you say and to whom you say it in August and the weeks and months to follow. Listen carefully to what others say, also.

It will be far too easy to spark animosity, to overreact to an imagined insult, to mistake a lie for the truth, or vice versa. It could be some time, I think, before the fires thus ignited are quenched and the intellectual air is safe to breath unfiltered.

Laura Flanders: All right, folks. Are you ready? We are actually allowing an investor and entrepreneur to our cameras. Nick Hanauer is actually a lot more than simply a venture capitalist and entrepreneur. He is someone who is raising alarm bells everywhere from Ted to Davos about the perils of inequality, not to your conscience but to your pocketbook and to the sustainability of our world as we know it. Nick Hanauer, welcome to the program. Glad to have you.

Nick Hanauer: Thank you

Laura Flanders: We have a lot of grassroots activists and people who are against people like you so I want to give you a chance to talk. [...] Give us a bit of background. Where did you come from?

Nick Hanauer: I live in Seattle and I grew up in a family business. A bed pillow and down comforter manufacturing business and grew up in that business. Still own and help manage that business but starting other companies when I was very young and am now basically a technology entrepreneur and venture capitalist.

Laura Flanders: You were genius to invest in a company that maybe some people heard of called Amazon.

Nick Hanauer: Yeah, I had a very early interest in the internet and as luck would have it had a friend who had a early interest in the internet and his name was Jeff Bezos and so I became the first non-family investor in that and from that experience made a lot of money, obviously, and from that experience starting other internet companies including a company called Acquaptive which was an internet advertising company you may not have heard of but we sold to Microsoft in 2007 for $6.5 billion. But dozens of others, I mean, I think I've helped with 35 companies.

Laura Flanders: Fair to say, you have a lot of money.

Nick Hanauer: I do.

Laura Flanders: You could be off, I don't know, vacationing in the Bahamas.

Nick Hanauer: Yup. I do that sometimes.

Laura Flanders: But you don't only do that.

Nick Hanauer: No

Laura Flanders: You also have an organization called Civic Ventures.

Nick Hanauer: Yes.

Laura Flanders: Tell us a bit about the campaign that you've gotten involved in over the last few years.

Nick Hanauer: Well, I mean, Civic Ventures is my political organization and we try ... Our slogan is "Disruptive innovation in the civic sphere" so my business has been disruptive innovation and technology entrepreneurship and investment and the same tools and strategies that you use to disrupt an existing industry work in the civic space.

Laura Flanders: How so?

Nick Hanauer: Well, I mean, if you're clever you can turn things upside down and ... What's important I think to recognize is that human prosperity is linked to innovation, right? Innovation is how we solve problems and improve living standards. Innovation always creates disruption because it creates change. In a healthy society the rate of civic innovation must match the rate of technological innovation.

Laura Flanders: How are we doing?

Nick Hanauer: Well, in Seattle, Washington we're doing pretty well. Around the country we are not. A lot of the problems that the society faces can be thought of as the gap between technological innovation, disruption, and change and the pace at which we are adjusting to it.

Laura Flanders: Give us an example.

Nick Hanauer: Well, I mean, the minimum wage. So if the minimum wage had tracked inflation it would be $10 bucks. If it had tracked productivity gains it would be $20. What happened to the economy for good and bad reasons is that it became a service economy. It was a manufacturing economy with high wage jobs. It became a service economy with low wage jobs.

What's important for people to recognize is a barista at Starbucks who gets paid $8 an hour isn't less well-trained than an auto worker in prior years, doesn't create less value than an auto worker does, they're simply paid less because they have less bargaining power and that's a consequence of the changes in the economy.

We have to make adjustments for that to sustain the economy because if people don't have any money then who will capitalists like me sell to, right?

Laura Flanders: The implications of that are enormous and not just with respect to minimum wages. The transformation of the economy that you are talking about, what else does it affect?
