T: would like some help to get these 2 bills paid - thanks from both of them

R: grateful for the help, and to be with the group

- In Paradise CA, the sun is shining; hurricanes in OK; looks like snow in NM
- There are 12 Fed Res banks have liens against them, not enough $ to pay for this
- St. Germain is the key master to open the door

Camp Loveway: Clifford Carnecom [carnecom.com] - Mark Beggage, Sen for AK: Brian Epstein

- R called in and asked about the liens: Brian said watch what China & rest of world does
- a basket of currencies about to be unleashed across the planet - also about trade: cook me dinner, I fix your car and so on
- Also watching something going on with chemtrails: see the ship slowly suck them up, see outline of the ships!
 - There are frequencies coming out of the ships that transmute the chemtrails and there are particles coming out [manna] - he brought up that it is unknown material
- Geitner, Bush - Clinton crime family dancing around planet - R asked about mass arrests, but they would give no dates: Epstein said you are literally watching them sh-t their pants - quite literally, seconds away
- Katherine in KOS' office: KOS with BO in South America; she said watch what China and other countries are doing right now
- Asked about the missile failed launch - who did it? Were there nukes on that missile?
 - Yet there will be a reunification of the Koreas; one nation as Viet Nam
- Our Lady of Guadeloupe will be showing at any moment: in the most unlikely of places!

- Could very likely be in Baghdad - also could show up in Syria!
- Our Lady of Guadeloupe is the universal symbol of LM Nada showing up
- R asked about mass arrests, etc - she said it's St Germain's turn!

T: wants to know these guys are exposed and arrested

R: what he knows is what Katherine told him - you'll see it!

Reading: Lien Claimants Demand 4,638,791,996 kgs. of Pure Gold from Federal Reserve; Prelude to Mass Arrests [SEE BELOW]

R: No one would give him an answer as to timing; St. Germain will give the word

Reading: China gives currency more freedom with new reform [SEE BELOW]

Audio: the Camp Loveway folks were talking of this today;

- if you send love to the chemtrails: after the lenticular clouds show up, particles descend and it's manna!
- Book called The Twilight Zone by Clifford Carnecom - about the chemtrails

T: the Maldives are sinking: only 1.3 metres above sea level - as the Maldives go under, so does NY City

Biography:

New York Times Best selling author Gregg Braden has been a featured guest for international conferences, and media specials, exploring the role of ancient wisdom and spirituality in science.

A former Senior Computer Systems Designer for Martin Marietta Aerospace, Computer geologist for Phillips Petroleum and a Technical Operations Manager for Cisco Systems, Braden is now considered a leading authority on bridging the wisdom of our past with the science and peace of our future. Through his journeys into the remote mountain villages, temples and monasteries of times past, Braden marries the wisdom of ancient traditions and modern science to benefit our lives today.

From his groundbreaking books, Awakening to Zero Point and Walking Between the Worlds, to his pioneering work in The Isaiah Effect, he offers meaningful solutions to the unique challenges of our time. In his newest book, The God Code, Gregg Braden ventures beyond the traditional boundaries of science and spirituality, revealing the words of an ancient and timeless message encoded as the DNA of all life!

Author Gregg Braden discussed the science behind miracles, the existence of an energy field that connects

GB: some of the science is so new, not in textbooks

- topic he will talk about are so fundamental that all everyone brings to the radio show will be affected

GN: has science stumbled into this? The experts in metaphysics have known this for years

GB: going to talk of assumptions that were made over 200 years ago: science only 300 years / Newton

- about 100 years ago, there were experiments to prove that there was some kind of energy between all entities

- G thinks the meaning of the experiments was not understood very well

1. the space between things is empty - not true

2. our inner experiences have no effect on world beyond our bodies - not true

As to why is it so hard to change people's minds -

- Michelson- Morely experiments in 1897, had been done before, in 1881

- the results suggested that everything is separate from everything else - if anything happens at Point A does not affect Point B - this false assumption has written humanity out of the universe

GN: could this be that there is the fact that there is wireless universe out there?

GB: The inability of science to solve our problems - the conditions that science has created in our world - disease, global war - these conditions are driving us to find out the answers

- since 1980s, we have learned we are all one -

GB: thinks the clock is ticking very quickly - in 2008, a project that has just come on line - to know that they are having an effect on the coherent fields on the earth -

GB: we already tap into this information, but we need to do it consistently, knowingly

- science is now showing that the wisdom traditions are really so - the monks [he met] giggle and say this is how your world works

- Says the ones he has met / ancient traditions make him see that where science is now is where those ones have been for thousands of years

- Greg has asked them, for exampl, how did you do that? And they know and they tell him

- our own scientists have discovered this field - Journal of Nature, Vol 332 , - Silvertooth reproduced the experiment of 1987, same experiment as as Michelson-Morely - found out there is a field that connects all thing

- people aren't talking about this: there is reluctance in much of main stream science because it means that everything changes.

- who put the field there?
No one knows where it comes from; assumption is that the field has always been, originated with the primal release of energy that began this space time realm
 - If we think of a tiny, tiny small space that expands in all directions; part of that space is this field - evidence suggests that this field is still in motion
 - Michelson-Morely experiment - the field was called the ether at the time; word not accepted today
 - if they could detect the motion of the field, they'd know it was there
 - texts still deny this field - has stopped the creation of a unified field
 - Definition of miracles
 - those ones in the monasteries did not call what they did a miracle
 - our definition is that
 - all it means is that there are ways of seeing the world we have not accounted for
 - there are only miracles as long as we don't understand what happened
 - spiritual traditions [know all about 'miracles']
 - there is something we do in our bodies that triggers something inside of us and interacts with nature and creates some effects
 - There are documented, scientific findings - heart-felt emotion, feelings change the body, and create quantum effects
 - this is science telling what the wisdom traditions have always said
[He wants] to marry science and the old traditions - and creates wisdom
 - Are there intelligent forces in the field that interact with us? Like seeing an angel's hand on the steering wheel so we don't go over the edge? Is this a miracle? Yes, depending on perspective
 - Science has had a hard time coming to grips with these things - it's an unconventional field of energy - does not work like tv or radio or other things we have created
 - Why do some of us believe it exists, without training?
 - Open minded families, backgrounds of those who come to N America
 - the aboriginal experience in Australia are the oldest recorded history
 - for over 50,000 year they have not changed their story: a web has always existed
 - At the company he used to work for, no one discussed the role of people in the universe
 - when he gave a seminar at his old company, many of his former colleagues came forth to speak of their experiences which they had never discussed with him before
 - we are drawn to certain movies, for instance - we are wired to find it
 - Greg talks of the video about the woman having surgery to remove the cancerous tumour in her body
 - if the people follow the life-affirming protocols, these practitioners can heal
 - the practitioners feel in their bodies what it is like to heal
 - Greg went back to monasteries in high locations - saw libraries that are 1500 years old with texts that writes the practices they still use
- GN: fascinated about the ancient texts that have been lost to us
- GB: it is a universal fact that there is an energy that connects us all and we can create a feeling in our heart that allows us to interact with the energy -
- this is deeply embedded in aboriginal cultures and in early Xian texts before the bible was edited in 4th century.
 - The Jewish bible was also edited - the Jewish scripture, not the Torah - the Dead Sea Scrolls tell us that these books were [edited, as they have the original bases of the current scriptures]

- these ancient texts are in monasteries in S America; highlands of China
- In 1998, he went to China and found out that, after the crucifixion, Jeshua and Magdalene went to 4 key locations and carried copies of same records - this was essential information!
- these texts have been found in mountains of Egypt, the Tibetan plateau in China; southern border between Lina and Peru; in parts of Kentucky and Tennessee - some texts have been found there
- they are written in ancient Greek and Aramaic - the Aramaic alphabet is of Jewish letters
 - abbreviated 10 commandments of 2000 years old in Greek and Hebrew have been found
- that lineage of wisdom was dispersed after the crucifixion
 - he has images from the monastery documents
- we are part of the world we see, and we have the ability to join all
 - Our own science is finding - that heart-based feeling - our heart is the strongest electrical field generator in the body, and the strongest magnetic generator in the body
- If you change the electrical or magnetic field of an atom, you will change the atom - texts say if we change either one or the other, we can change how ?? - but our hearts can do BOTH - our heart creates electrical fields that are so much stronger [than the fields our brain creates]
 - Magnetic fields 5000X that our brain
 - Our hearts are where we have the feelings and the beliefs that tie us to

GN: when heart stops to function, why do these abilities carry over?

GB: scientists cannot explain diff between - soul cannot be a growing body of MS scientific evidence that says we might be living in a simulated reality

- through our bodies, we express something that is not here - non-local -
- when our body is not here, the essence is still expressing
- time to reach the place where we use our heart-felt
- our heart is an oscillator of crystal - the top 3 chakras are about communication & logic; the bottom 3 are driving us: the 2 groups are married in the heart: feeling combines thought and emotion
 - scientists are finding that through the heart changes things

GN: when science gets involved, do they debunk it?

GB: Yes - yet this is useful, as we get to the truth through this

- he works with scientists who are documenting the healing like what he described from Beijing, China
 - he included this in his DVD to demonstrate with a potent graphic that we have the power within us if we learn to focus - in less than 3 minutes, her cancer was gone

GN: people who listen to his [GN] program are more enlightened; those who are not are more unhappy

GB: an article on his website: Observation Affects Reality:

as we observe the feeling in our heart as if the outcome has already occurred in our lives, that is what the field recognizes - it's not a wish, or a hope, or please bring this to me - this is an empowered form of prayer, meditation -

- we create in our hearts as if we already have the object of our desires; this translates into

GLOBAL COHERENCE PROJECT

- we know heart communicates with brain all the time: the coherence is greater when heart and brain work more closely
- there are layers of earth's atmosphere that happen to resonate within the same frequencies as that between our heart and our brain - the ionosphere

- new discoveries have led to creation of devices that can measure the coherence
- Institute of Heart Math is a pioneering research org that works on heart-based intelligence - heart is more than a machine
 - in 1991, created a machine with sensors to measure the amount of coherence
 - they are tied up with the physicist and the sensors that they have made. The goal is to find when we are most coherent - now training people to measure in the atmosphere and c
 - In high coherence, less accidents and so on
- Building sensors to track the level of coherence - when our hearts and minds in coherence, at lower levels of the atmosphere can see the coherence there too
- For the first time, science is able to validate that people can be in coherence with that level of the atmosphere

GN: What can people do with this level of coherence?

- GB:
- optimizes nervous system, between heart and brain
 - sports ability
 - people feeling life happening too fast - the result of chaos in the atmosphere that affect us
 - peace experiments - when we feel peace in our bodies, this affects the world
 - Journal of Conflict Resolution - report of people who felt that peace - when the 200 practitioners stopped doing this, all the quietness, etc disappeared
 - when Russia shot down the Korean airliner, it was the same weekend that these practitioners were working and feeling peace in their hearts - the Russians were ready to push the button because they thought the Americans would push one - but that didn't happen: they could not prove that there was a connection between the 200 practitioners in the Middle East, but cooler heads prevailed and nothing happened

GN: Why can't we do it once and then stop?

- The ancient traditions tell us that we were designed to be like this, not just to do it once - the effect never ends if you feel the peace in your heart all the time
- the 1980s experiments showed the effect, but never dealt with coherence
- The Coherence Experiment - there is no them and us, it is only we - it takes only a few who need to speak the language of peace and it affects the whole field.
 - So this Coherence Project - when coherence is in place, we make better decisions.
- Our conditioning is so strong that we believe we are not joined
- Goes back to story of operation-less hospital in China -
 - we seem to feel more empowered when we are surrounded by people who believe as we do
- some would call it wishful thinking: remember the Berlin Wall? Once people began to feel the same way, did not take long for the wall to go down

GN: Can evil work this thing?

- Field is neutral, unbiased - it reflects what the user gives it to work with
 - love, understanding peace are expansive life-affirming experiences and it goes into the field.
 - Those who send anger, hate, jealousy, rage, nurtured over time etc - these are contracting emotions, and they feel it in their bodies
 - It's more than a tool, it's a way of being
 - Institute of Heart Math - has a little video to find out - check Greg's website

- The Other Bible - a book - they describe how difficult it was for the first of our kind to hold the power of our spirit in our body! [This book contains the books that were not put in the bible as it finally evolved.]

Astrology: Richard

since last week:

- Saturday had /
- Tuesday - Pluto went retrograde; the energies were quite fluid this week: lots of lunar activity on Monday and Wednesday
- Thursday am: Moon Conjunct Pluto on Thursday am - added another dose down into denser dimensions
- Friday midnight: Mars went stationary, will go direct
- Pluto on other side of chart with Saturn - Mars and Saturn in Virgo and Libra everything else is on other side of the chart
- 10 days ago Mercury went direct, back to Pisces; went direct on the 4th

this week - a re-adjustment of 2 major energies: whatever Pluto does this summer - it's still in Capricorn and still about governments / government-ing - about managing a planetary society

- Emphasis will change as Pluto retrograde - will get used to this in coming weeks
- We're all going through same thing - integration of wisdom and integration of wounded healer
- None of us is exempt from the quantum energy field; reference to Gregg Braden's tape & talk of quantum field & the dog's knowing of when master is packing up to come home - the cat does it with Rama: the cat knows when he comes home for 1 pm to listen to Dylan that it's time for R to get her lunch!
- this is the month to assimilate and understand what we have been given in the month of Aries - this should support manifestation
- we should see more high-level types resigning from their positions
- Mercury goes direct and goes conjunct with Uranus April 24th
- there's a huge amount of power in the sequencing - Venus, Jupiter, Sun, Uranus - north node in Sag
- The power is in the freight train between Venus and Pluto - looking positive for the summer
- Void of Course - a long void from Tues 10:30 am all day, til Noon on Wednesday and as well, the moon will conjunct ? And Uranus
- New Moon - it often manifests little surprises - so next Saturday, moon will be in Taurus, & trine Pluto and Capricorn - meteors are coming in the same day

2012, Ap 14 Lien Claimants Demand 4,638,791,996 kgs. of Pure Gold from Federal Reserve; Prelude to Mass Arrests

<http://eclinik.wordpress.com/2012/04/14/lien-claimants-demand-4638791996-kilograms-of-pure-gold-from-fed/>

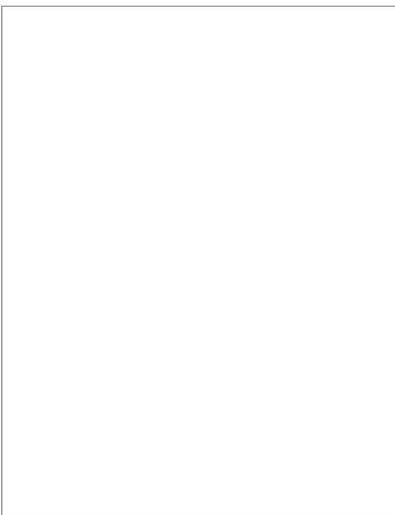

The United States Bullion Depository

The serving of Notice of Cease and Desist to all twelve (12) branches of the Federal Reserve is a very strong sign that the final takedown of the Dark Cabal is about to begin, possibly next week.

Please take all necessary preparations, and help spread the word out to lessen confusion and panic.

NOTICE OF CEASE AND DESIST

Alex Ling See Soon

It has been brought to our attention by Swiss Authorities that Chairman Kaspar Villager of UBS has made attempts to circumvent the lawfully appointed managers and Settlers of the Soekarno Trust — namely Neil F. Keenan and Keith F. Scott.

According to the oversight Guardians of the accounts, on this 8th day of April, 2012, this fraudulent attempt to unlawfully demand payments from the Collateral Accounts was engaged by persons associated with Alex Ling Lee Soon from Singapore.

This agent of Alex Ling Lee Soon, namely Jack Singh, at this very moment of writing, is meeting with Dr. Seno Edy Soekanto — in an attempt to gain control over the Family Heritage Guarantee.

Seno Edy Soekanto failed to collect this Guarantee for over forty years, and the claim was lost on the closing of Seno Edy Soekanto's Authority in 1998.

Alex Ling Lee Soon, and/or his company, have paid some $2.5 million dollars to Seno Edy Soekanto for books of no worth or value in exercising management control over the Collateral Accounts.

It is furthermore understood that they are trying to wrest the Collateral Accounts, which are under the Group K Ltd. Umbrella, by seducing Seno Edy Soekanto into signing instruments intended to create fraudulent claims.

These claims would then be used as a public excuse to allow them illegal access to the International Collateral Combined Accounts.

This plan is being conducted through mutual arrangement with UBS-AG, even though UBS-AG and Alex Ling both know that such an arrangement is criminally fraudulent.

This is due to the fact that the International Collateral Combined Accounts are under the control of the Soekarno Trust — and the current Settlers of said Trust are Neil F. Keenan and Keith F. Scott.

Seno Edy Soekanto at one time was the holder of the Family Heritage Guarantee — the fund he was supposed to deliver to the people of Indonesia — but he failed in his responsibilities, and this position ended in 1998.

After this time, Seno Edy Soekanto no longer had control of the Family Heritage Guarantee. He was never at any time the controller of the International Collateral Combined Accounts, as he was never at any time Mandated with any such authority.

His signing an agreement with us on the 6th day of November 2011 was not to take control over the Family Heritage Guarantee. It was, in fact, a request for us to assist him in recovering anything and everything that could be salvaged from his failure to obtain that Heritage.

This agreement is valid until 2020. No matter what arrangements Seno Edy Soekanto now makes regarding said Heritage, it is not relevant due to the expiration of his authority, which was dated 1998.

It is furthermore noted that Kaspar Villager, the Chairman of UBS, has previously been placed on notice, along with his bank, to Cease and Desist. Such order was issued from the control authority.

The BIS has furthermore been placed on similar standing by the same control authority as well.

On April 8, 2012, an Employee of Alex Ling Lee Soon entered Indonesia in an attempt to commit fraud on behalf of Mr. Ling and/or his company.

This not only targeted the funds of the Family Heritage Guarantee, but was also intended to create an opportunity to illegally cheat and steal from the collateral accounts — which have nothing whatsoever to do with Seno Edy Soekanto or Alex Ling Lee Soon.

WHEREBY; we, the undersigned, are ordering Alex Ling Lee Soon, Jack Singh, Mr. Chee, Kaspar Villager, and the United Bank of Switzerland to stand down — and to CEASE AND DESIST on this, the 11th day of April, 2012, or face litigation.

Be aware that on the week of the 13th of April, you will be exposed internationally for your wrongdoings.

SIGNED by the Settlers of the Soekarno Trust – otherwise publicly known as the International Collateral Combined Accounts.

THE AFFIDAVIT OF OBLIGATION — FILING LIENS AGAINST THE TWELVE FEDERAL RESERVE BANKS

And now for the grand finale. Neil and I had an extensive conference call with Drake and his associates, including a remarkable new insider I had never met before, as of this past weekend.

Drake was told that a certain sequence of events needed to occur before the mass arrests could happen. The filing of this lien is one of those events.

The first part, again, has some legalese to establish the point. Afterwards, you will see the good stuff. Everything from this point down is part of the Affidavit of Obligation. I will signal my return by writing WILCOCK.

Affidavit of Obligation

Commercial Lien

(This is a verified plain statements of fact)

Maxims:

All men and women know that the foundation of law and commerce exists in the telling of the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth.

Truth, as a valid statement of reality, is sovereign in commerce.

An un rebutted affidavit stands as truth in commerce.

An un rebutted affidavit is acted upon as the judgment in commerce.

Guaranteed—All men shall have a remedy by the due course of law. If a remedy does not exist, or if the existing remedy has been subverted, then one may create a remedy for themselves — and endow it with credibility by expressing it in their affidavit.

(Ignorance of the law might be an excuse, but it is not a valid reason for the commission of a crime when the law is easily and readily available to anyone making a reasonable effort to study the law.)

All corporate government is based upon Commercial Affidavits, Commercial Contracts, Commercial Liens and Commercial Distresses. Hence, governments cannot exercise the power to expunge commercial processes.

The Legitimate Political Power of a corporate entity is absolutely dependent upon its possession of Commercial Bonds against Public Hazard — because no Bond means no responsibility, means no power of Official signature, means no real corporate political power, and means no privilege to operate statutes as the corporate vehicle.

The Corporate Legal Power is secondary to Commercial Guarantors. Case law is not a responsible substitute for a Bond.

Municipal corporations, which include cities, counties, states and national governments, have no commercial reality without bonding of the entity, its vehicle (statutes), and its effects (the execution of its rulings).

In commerce, it is a felony for the Officer of a Political/Public Office to not receive and report a Claim to its Bonding Company, and it is a felony for the agent of a Bonding Company to not pay the Claim.

If a Bonding Company does not get a malfeasant public official prosecuted for criminal malpractice within sixty (60) days, then it must pay the full face value of a defaulted Lien process (at 90 days).

Except for a Jury, it is also a fatal offense for any person, even a Judge, to impair or to expunge, without a Counter-Affidavit, any Affidavit or any commercial process based upon an Affidavit.

Judicial non-jury commercial judgments and orders originate from a limited liability entity called a municipal corporation — hence must be reinforced by a Commercial Affidavit and a Commercial Liability Bond.

A foreclosure by a summary judgment (non-jury) without a commercial bond is a violation of commercial law.

Governments cannot make unbonded rulings or statutes which control commerce, free enterprise citizens, or sole proprietorships without suspending commerce by a general declaration of martial law.

A Security (15 USC)

This is a USSEC Tracer Flag

Not a point of Law

It is tax fraud to use Courts to settle a dispute/controversy which could be settled peacefully outside of, or without the Court.

An official (officer of the court, policeman, etc.) must demonstrate that he/she is individually bonded in order to use a summary process.

An official who impairs, debauches, voids or abridges an obligation of contract or the effect of a commercial lien without proper cause, becomes a lien debtor and his/her property becomes forfeited as the pledge to secure the lien. Pound breach (breach of impoundment) and rescue is a felony.

It is against the law for a Judge to summarily remove, dismiss, dissolve or diminish a Commercial Lien. Only the Lien Claimant or a Jury can dissolve a commercial lien.

Notice to agent is notice to principal; notice to principal is notice to agent.

PUBLIC HAZARD BONDING OF CORPORATE AGENTS

All officials are required by federal, state, and municipal law to provide the name, address and telephone number of their public hazard and malpractice bonding company, and the policy number of the bond — and, if required, a copy of the policy describing the bonding coverage of their specific job performance.

Failure to provide this information constitutes corporate and limited liability insurance fraud (15 USC), and is prim-a-facie evidence and grounds to impose a lien upon the official, personally, to secure their public oath and service of office.

Allegations:

1. The amount of gold under contract to the Federal Reserve system is 2,420,937,400 kilograms. (2,420,937.4 metric tons.)
2. The lease payments on this gold are payable at the rate of 4% per annum. The total owed, starting in 1961 through 2012, is 4,638,791,996 kilograms of pure gold.
3. Proof of the Federal Reserve Obligation is in the form of Federal Reserve Bonds, series of 1928 and series of 1934.
4. Proof of the interest obligation is further demonstrated by the issue of international currencies that have been issued to the Holders of the Gold Accounts, but against the Federal Reserve Bonds.
5. The gold was acquired through a time when gold coin and gold bullion could not be privately owned, and had to be surrendered to the State.
6. The States combined the bullion into a single, central deposit, whereby all countries would have equitable access.
7. The gold is actually owned by Governments through their Ministry of Finance.
8. In 1948, under UN Resolution MISA 81704, Operation Heavy Freedom, President Soekarno was appointed as M1, (Monetary Controller), and the entire centralized system was put under his disposal as Trustee.
9. The gold was deposited into the system by a group of Trustees appointed by Soekarno. These Trustees formed an association of Trustees now known as the Amanah, otherwise known as the Mandates.
10. The Mandates have assigned their authority over the accounts to Neil F. Keenan and Keith F. Scott.
11. The owners of the gold and other assets leased to the Federal Reserve system between 1928 and 1968, at a 4% per annum rental fee, have never received substantive payment since 1928 until today. They have been constantly tricked and deceived.
12. All persons from several organizations of persons who consider themselves to be the global elite have illegally used these assets -- making fortunes for themselves, or otherwise benefitting from the illegal use of these accounts. Key among these are members of (but not limited to) :-

The Committee of 300

Skull and Bones Society

The Bilderberg Society

The Trilateral Commission

Council on Foreign Relations

13. The Federal Reserve System is a privately owned banking system. All debts of that private banking system, beyond the value held in gold, is the obligation of the Federal Reserve System only -- and is not a debt obligation of the people of the United States of America.
14. Owners, Shareholders, Directors/Executive Officers and Bonding Companies of the Federal Reserve System are deemed lien debtors -- collectively and severally.

2012, Ap 14 China gives currency more freedom with new reform

▪ By Koh Gui Qing | Reuters – 45 mins ago

<http://news.yahoo.com/china-gives-currency-more-freedom-reform-040129985.html>

BEIJING (Reuters) - China took a milestone step in turning the yuan into a global currency on Saturday by doubling the size of its trading band against the dollar, pushing through a crucial reform that further liberalizes its nascent financial markets.

The People's Bank of China said it would allow the yuan to rise or fall 1 percent from a mid-point every day, effective Monday, compared with its previous 0.5 percent limit.

The timing of the move underlines Beijing's belief that the yuan is near its equilibrium level, and that China's economy, although cooling, is sturdy enough to handle important, long-promised, structural reforms, analysts said.

The move would help China deflect criticism of its controversial currency policy ahead of the annual spring meeting of the International Monetary Fund in Washington next week.

A slowing world economy that has pared investor expectations of a steadily rising yuan likely also gave Beijing the confidence to proceed, knowing that a larger band would not necessarily lead to a stronger currency.

"The central bank chose a good time window to enlarge the trading band. The market's expectation for a stronger yuan is weakening," said Dong Xian'an, chief economist at Peking First Advisory in Beijing.

"The move partially clears away doubts on whether China can manage a soft landing in its economy, and makes clear China's reform road map."

Investors have widely expected China to widen the yuan's trading band this year, thanks to repeated hints from Beijing that the change would take China one step closer to its financial goal: a basically convertible yuan by 2015.

Having a currency that trades with fewer restrictions also enhances Shanghai's status as a financial center. China envisions turning the city into a global banking hub by 2020.

"From April 16, 2012, the trading band for the yuan against the dollar in the spot interbank currency market will be widened from 0.5 percent to 1 percent," the People's Bank of China said in a short statement on its website.

"At present, the development of China's foreign exchange market is maturing, the market's ability to independently price and manage risks is growing by the day," the bank said.

Ultimately, the government wants the yuan to rival the dollar as a global reserve currency, and to this end it has gradually allowed the currency to trade more freely.

After a pilot programe last year was judged successful, in March this year it gave permission for firms across China to pay for imports and exports in yuan, a way of helping to increase the use of the yuan in trade deals.

NO SHARP GAINS

The yuan, also known as the renminbi or "people's money", hit a record high of 6.2884 against the dollar on Feb 10, but is little changed against the U.S. currency for the year, softening 0.14 percent since January.

Analysts say its listless showing is likely to persist through 2012, as expectations of future gains are dulled by China's easing economic growth, and speculation that the yuan is near equilibrium.

As China this year heads into its biggest leadership changeover in a decade, it would be in Beijing's interests to avoid dramatic fluctuations in the yuan that could hurt exporters, many of whom are battling rising costs and tepid demand as it is.

"The yuan is close to an equilibrium. We expect it could only gain 1.4 percent against the dollar this year, so the time is right to widen the band," said Lan Shen, an economist at Standard Chartered Bank in Shanghai.

So muted is the yuan's outlook that investors in the offshore non-deliverable forwards (NDF) market believe there is even room for the currency to fall. The benchmark one-year NDF is pricing for a 0.4 percent depreciation.

Any decline would be a stark contrast to the yuan's steadfast rise in recent years. It jumped about 5 percent in 2011 on top of nearly 4 percent in 2010, giving investors the impression that China was comfortable with a rising currency.

It has gained about 30 percent in nominal terms against the dollar since the landmark move in the summer of 2005 to de-peg the yuan from the greenback.

A WELCOME MOVE

The yuan's value has always been a point of contention between China and its trading partners, notably the United States, which say China suppresses the currency to boost exports. China repeatedly rejects the accusation.

Instead, Chinese leaders say the yuan is near its equilibrium level and that authorities aim to keep its value "basically stable", more flexibility notwithstanding.

Beijing's desire to have the yuan trade more freely was stressed by both Premier Wen Jiabao and Central Bank Governor Zhou Xiaochuan in March when they said conditions were ripe for changes.

Their calls came even as China is set to confront its slowest economic growth in a decade this year, leading many to believe Beijing is ready to forsake heady growth for a restructured economy driven more by domestic than export demand.

Although not a primary intention, a more flexible yuan also works in China's favor in turbulent times by giving it more room to guide the currency lower to aid exports.

"The message of this move is that the renminbi appreciation story is over. Greater two way volatility will be the name of the game going forward," said Qu Hongbin, an economist at HSBC.

Data on Friday showed China's economy suffered its weakest growth since the global financial crisis in the first quarter by expanding just 8.1 percent, below forecasts for 8.3 percent.

The last time China changed its currency policy was in June 2010, after a two-year period when it effectively re-pegged the yuan to the dollar to shield China from the 2008-09 global financial crisis.

"I think the step should be welcomed by foreign countries, especially the United States, who has called for reforms," said Dongming Xie, China economist at OCBC Bank in Singapore. "This is also related to growing domestic calls for economic reforms."

2012, April 13 A A Metatron - The Magic of Mount Shasta

a message from Archangel Metatron channeled by Tyberonn
Wednesday, 4 April, 2012 (posted 13 April, 2012)

Greetings Masters! I am Metatron, Lord of Light, and I greet you in Unconditional Love !

Dear Ones, the most powerful vortexial point in North America, is Mt Shasta. Shasta exists in 44 Dimensions and that will soon expand. From the period of June 19-25 in your year 2012, an omnipotent event occurs. It is a benchmark of the Ascension, and many are called to join the Beloved Sainte Germaine and the Ascended Masters. It is the OM Completion!

Let us speak of Shasta. Now the greater massif, the greater parameter of the Shasta mega vortex-portal complex is capable of folding space and time within its field. It condenses and 'zips' space more potently than any other area in North America. Its capacity in doing so will expand as the Om Crystal goes into activation.

You see, currently a cubic measure of space in the upper meadows of Mount Shasta holds upward of 36 dimensional frequencies, at certain times as many as 44. It is the blend of folded energy, varied by celestial alignments and terrestrial magnetics that trigger the variation. Shasta is far more active in some periods than others for this reason. Dimensional gates open and narrow accordingly. When one learns through intent and determination to increase vibrational frequency into the Mer-Ka-Na realm of crystal resonance, then the doorway is open, or accessible, in your terms. Do you see?

Not everyone who visits Shasta will access these portals and doorways, but all those who are capable of increasing their vibratory rate to that of the crystalline frequency, will indeed. It has always been such in infinity points, stargates, if you will.

Now, Mt Shasta anchors a very complex multi-dimensional over- fold, and does so through its very conscious geometric grid, complex frequencies & unique cristo-electromagnetic field. These allow light portals from many higher dimensions to coexist within the Earth dimensions precisely in the massif of Mount Shasta. Among those are the ones from Sirius A & B, the Pleiades, Arcturius as well as many others, and we repeat, many others. That is correct. Mount Shasta is quite prolific in the higher dimensional communities that are accessible to seekers, you see.

And indeed during the 5-Days of the June 2012 Solstice, this expansion will be more prolific than at any previous time on your planet. It is the unique energy of the June 2012 Solstice that allows for this vast opening.

Now, Mount Shasta, as all with all infinity points upon the planet, has a geometric projection, that defines, to a degree its nature and purpose. The overlay of Mount Shasta is an octahedron, the double pyramid: "As Above, so Below". This is the geometric crystallization found in many of your diamonds. Understanding this can assist you in the experience you seek at Shasta.

So you see, if you seek to communicate with the infinite nature of sacred sites. Then it is suggested that you make an effort to understand the multidimensional, geometric and geological aspects of them. You must understand and accept that each infinity point is aware of itself, fully conscious, in your terms. Your indigenous people always asked permission to enter such places, sang songs of prayer and made offerings. And Dear Ones, we tell you, it was appropriate. The Earth will respond.

The Spirit of Place will open itself to you. Now truly, the Living Earth does not necessarily need the offering you bring in a material sense, but the very spirit of giving you thus demonstrate is one that opens you and creates the resonance of the gifts the higher Consciousness of Place, will return to you in kind. Do you understand? Make it known why you are here, and what you seek, and you will indeed feel a tingling of energy rise up your spine, and a direct connection will occur.

The resulting experiences will open to you in ways that are beyond, perhaps, what you expect. Trust them. They are perhaps far more valid, far more revealing than you even imagine. Bring forth your greater awareness to the forefront, quiet the questioning mind.

The channel has spoken of many incredible experiences and visions he experienced within the energy of Mount Shasta in his numerous quests to Mt Shasta. We say to the channel, "Do not doubt your experiences. For the experience of Sainte Germaine, the initiation into the Council of Crystalline Light, and the later experience aboard the Ashstar Ship did indeed occur." These were indeed, quite real. We tell you dreams and visions are indeed actual, they are valid, and often the catalytic means for dimensional travel. and spiritual growth. Do not doubt them, rather learn to further navigate within them in lucidity.

You see most experiences in such dimensional doorways at Mount Shasta will occur in one of two ways. Either one passes thru the doorway that reveals itself into other dimensions, to see and feel what is on the otherside of the gateway...or one simply waits at the threshold for manifestations of 'the other side' to appear. The former seems to be a vision, held in the mental eye, the latter an incredible manifestation of a Teacher or Master into what you would term the physical world, albeit for a brief period. In both cases, the initial tendency among humans is to dismiss the valid reality of what occurs.

Dear Ones, you must allow the expanded paradigm to exist as more than simply a possibility. You must allow it as a valid expression of multi dimensional reality. As REAL! There are far more parts to you, Dear Human, than you truly realize, and upon the Earth Plane, you are far far more than the sum total of your parts! Allowing yourself to expand is only a piece of what Shasta gifts to you, Dear Seeker, the other part is up to you, and that is to accept and believe what has occurred.

When Mount Shasta offers you an experience that is far removed from your daily accepted reality, you are simply being shown a piece of the greater reality. It is understandable that you might initially doubt it, but you were shown the greater truth because you expanded, through greater effort than you may realize, to the point where you could perceive it.

What does that tell you? It tells you that within your expanded perception lays the field of all probability, of all possibility, some you inhabit, and some you do not. Some of the realities have never known biological life as you know it, some contain more advanced life beings, etheric in nature, but not physical, yet human in heart. There are no regimented rules that will limit the potential of such travel, other than the blockages you would create for yourself in non acceptance. In truth many of these realities are closer to your true home than is your physical experience upon the Earth. That is why the removal of fear is an essential graduation to the higher dimensional reality validity of what one experiences in this very real system of growth potential.

Now, we will add, that often is the case where when humans first step into this wider reality, that they temporarily or permanently, can lose their 'grounding' on the Earth Plane. To remain grounded, the human must learn to manage the integrity of the Human CEF (Crysto-Electromagnetic field). One must learn how to open and to close the awareness centers, the chakras. Was this not the lesson of the LeMurians? Having an out of body experience may not be appropriate when one is being chased by a tiger, or setting in an office doing accounting work! Learn to manage the system, as you are on the Earth for certain valid purposes of the Earth, and through discernment utilize your ability for chakric, Mer-Ka-Na travel, when it is appropriate to do so. Do you understand?

Do not become so ungrounded that you are not capable of operating within physical dimensions. There are times when it is appropriate to have both feet solidly on the ground, even in this Ascending New Age of the Earth.

Now, the channel asks of the origin and significance of the energy body of Mount Shasta. We confirm that he, Mount Shasta, is Lemurian, but also Atlantean. And although the volcano itself is somewhat dormant at this time, in terms of what you consider volcanic activity, in dimensional terms it is very expansive, very active. Currently, Shasta is in commissioned transition, in the task of balancing energy harmonics that exists between Atlantis and Lemuria. And for that reason it is a Lemurian area and yet an Atlantean, masculine volcano, twinned with parity to the feminine.

Do you understand? It is significant for both Atlantis & LeMuria. You see Mount Shasta transfers energetic excesses from one to the other, seeking equilibrium within integral dimension. That is what creates such dynamic charge in this area. It is why one becomes dimensionally enabled & energized upon that mountain, you see?

Now while the lands of LeMuria and Atlantis co existed for over 800,000 years, in your terms of time measurement, their civilizations co existed only some 50,000 years. One projected heart the other mind. One was excessively male one excessively female, in a manner of speaking. Can you see why these must be brought into BALANCED alignment for the Ascension? Do you understand that in a very valid sense, all time on your planet co exists in multi dimension? So we tell you that Mount Shasta is in a special role to blend these, to attune these in multi dimensionality, and accordingly Shasta is very specifically in harmonic oscillation with your islands of Hawaii, and Mount Fuji in the Pacific areas, and with Santorini in the Mediterranean and the Canary Islands in the Atlantic, the former hold aspects of LeMuria, the latter of Atlantis.

Now, understand that the 'Golden Age' of the Law of One of Atlantis was indeed a society of balance. It was a period of what may be termed Matriarchal Energy, or better said, the energy of pure nurturing harmony, the perfect balance of the attributes you term in duality as male/ female. It was the final stage of Atlantis that was overly aggressive and power-seeking, not the Golden Age of the Law of One. Now, Dear Human, do you understand why it is volcanoes, specific ones, that are capable of such commissioned undertaking on your planet? We tell you it is because of the dimensional expansion capabilities of their electromagnetic fields.

Now it is not every volcano that is so endowed, we will say that this varies according to their placement, geo magnetics and consciousness embellishment. There must of course, first be the correct frequencial potential of sufficient raw energy there, and it must be of a specific blend. Now, as the channel has an affinity for gems, we use this analogy: one can find a rough diamond that appears to be a mere carbon deposit, but if it is burnished, and proves to contain clarity and symmetry, it can be polished and faceted into a gem of luminous beauty that refracts light and energy in wondrous ways. As such do volcanoes and other sourced power points evolve into the awareness of dimensionally expanded sacred sites. But the energy potential was there first.

Now indeed when what you might refer to as a great historic event occurs in a field or valley or mountain, and multitudes of people are thereafter drawn there to visit the location of the great event, the energy they amass can also polish the location to a higher frequency, and a sacred site of sorts will evolve by amplification.

But it is not just the raw telluric energy, not just the geometry, it must also be embellished with the sacred. And that is so misunderstood. Your mainstream physicists, mathematicians and scientists currently have many concepts, many systems of thought, of belief, of paradigm that are being applied to physics as simply a complex mathematical challenge, but they omit the sacred. The two must be coupled for human kind to truly understand the nature of the living Earth and consciousness of the Cosmos.

Now, many have experienced the inner dimensional, etheric city located within Mount Shasta that is referred to as Telos. Dear Ones, we tell you it is indeed real. It is inhabited by an advanced cycle of those you term LeMurians, the blue skinned ones who have obtained full consciousness. Some of your explorers and writers have experienced this inner world and referred to it as Agartha. These beings originally escaped into the inner hollow chasms of your planet some 25,000 years ago, in your measurement. Indeed, these beings of LeMurian descent are far more highly evolved in spirit than you are at this time. Their bodies are, as I have said, less dense, but are indeed physical. Their skin has taken on the hue of green and, in some cases, a green blue because the water they drink is highly mineral in content, containing oxidized copper and other metals in a higher concentration. These beings are peaceful, knowing no religion other than the love of source, and an understanding of what is termed great tranquillity.

They are quite aware of you, but have no desire to intermingle with the masses of humanity. Why, you may ask? Because of several reasons, the most prevalent is that they are aware of your violent nature, your fear and your lack of mass spiritual development. They are aware of your physical diseases that would infect them, and are quite unable to sustain your solar rays. Let us say they have evolved into beings that have set a unique course, and are close to completing their sojourn. Their bodies are sustained by a crystalline magnetic force, and of a light source that is emitted from your planetary core. Their mental capacities have allowed them to harness these force fields and adapt them to their physical and spiritual sustenance. Their mental capacities have adapted to emit an internal light into the external, and as such the chasms they create are as bountiful in beauty and light, etheric light, as the most beautiful of your mountain valleys on the exterior.

In dimensional terms, the Agarthan city of Telos has its existence in both the physical and etherical realm. In physical, it exists just above the level of the third, and measures some 20 miles in length, 3 to five miles in width, with a ceiling of approximately 2 miles. Thus it has been experienced by many of your adepts in human biology, through the mechanism we will refer to as 'lucid dreaming'. We will add that such experience is by invitation only.

There has indeed been contact between the inhabitants of the inner world and your governments, but not an intermingling. There have been messages of the need for the human race on the surface to be aware of the coming changes. Those of the inner world are primarily on a set course, a different cycle, and one that is close to completion.

Now above the dimension of four exist the light city above Mount Shasta. Within this realm are many of those you refer to as the Ascended Masters and certain of the benevolent extra terrestrial beings, such as the Pleiadeans and those of Sirius B. Now would it surprise you to know that many of you have co-existing lives within all of these realms? Would it surprise and overwhelm you to know that many of you are extensions of omnipotent consciousnesses that you call the Ascended Masters. Your biology in its dual nature separates you from this knowledge until you learn to operate the 'back brain' or subconscious nature of your being. Has this not been the way taught by your Buddhist and other adepts for millennia, to quiet the conscious mind and thus find your true nature?

Those of you that have chosen to evolve with the planet in human biology have done so on an exercise of choice, to fully grow and master the experience of Planet Earth. You are much closer to do[ing] so than you truly realize. And when you pass into higher dimension, you understand that a physical existence upon the Earth is just a heartbeat of time from the higher realm.

Beloved Saint Germain has chosen Mount Shasta as one of his homes of interface with your planet. His presence is easily accessed upon the peaks and in the Valley of Upper Panther Meadows and surrounding slopes. He is indeed an Ascended Master, and one who can be termed as 'modern' in many of his expressions. Modern in that he has had a variety of lifetimes manifested on your planet within the past centuries. Some known as such, and others not. The Ascended Masters of the Crystalline Council are a group dedicated to assisting humankind achieve Mastery on the Earth, and have anchored light cities in specific points on the Earth Plane for the dissemination of their energies. Mount Shasta is one such point. As we have said in the beginning of this communication, it is the magnetic nature of Mount Shasta that provided the raw template to enable the dimensional fold for higher dimensional influx into your terrestrial template.

The channel has asked if it is necessary to physically be in such infinity points on your planet to access these Masters. We tell you that it is not. The most potent infinity point you carry within your heart Dear Ones. But let us say, that access can be more easily obtained within these points.

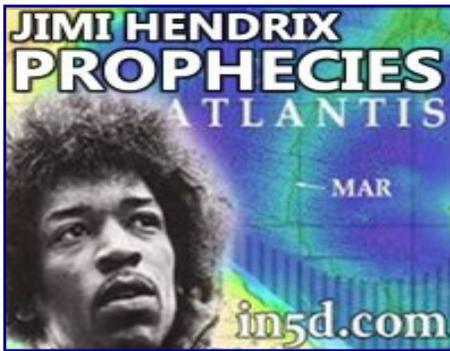

So you see, what is made available to you on Mount Shasta is a glimpse into the infinity of who you really are. Shasta opens the dimensions as a peacock opens its fan of blue green feathers, and for an eternal moment shows you the depth of your true beingness, at the time you are ready to see it. And Dear Ones, it takes desire, desire and work, to truly see who you are. You chose to Master the experience of Planet Earth, and you are well on your way to doing so. Open your heart to what it can reveal to you.

We tell you that Mount Shasta is among the most powerful sacred sites, the most omnipotent vortex-portal complex in North America. Few locations on your planet have equal capacity of multi dimensional expansion alloyed in divine synergy. In the 5-Day Solstice Energy of 2012, Shasta will pulse into exquisite magnificence!!

I am Metatron and share with you, these Truths. You are Beloved"

2012, Ap 11 Jimi Hendrix Prophecies

<http://www.in5d.com/jimi-hendrix-prophecies.html>

Many artists and musicians draw their inspiration from the etheric realms while others use psychedelic drugs for incentive. Some use both. Jimi Hendrix's music embeds some intriguing prophecies which we will explore.

Being an avid reader of science fiction and such, it is highly likely that the recent and ready availability of Edgar Cayce On Atlantis was the inspiration for Jimi Hendrix' Valleys of Neptune. Jimi recorded this original song sometime in early 1969 (with Chiron in Pisces). He intended the song to be the title cut for a concept album, complete with his own completed painting of the Valleys of Neptune for the cover. (12" x 12" LP artwork was very important to creative recording artists of the era, including Hendrix.) The song was not released until March 9, 2010, with Chiron again in Pisces. This 27-year-old widely acknowledged guitar master died 9/8/70, drowned by his own vomit after passing out, having drunk too much red wine. Three comments are in order here. First, know that mythic Chiron was a magically enchanting musician on a stringed instrument called a "kithara." Later, a similar stringed instrument would be called "gitara," the origin of the word "guitar," or colloquially, "gitar." Chiron rocks! Second, I find it Chironic that Hendrix, so aware of the flooding of Atlantis, would die from drowning. Third, and most important, Chiron-inspired Hendrix advised, "Better save your soul while you can! — Valleys of Neptune are risin', risin'"

From the "The Inner World of Jimi Hendrix" by Monika Dannermann ISBN 0-312-137-389

"But like the solar system is going through a change soon and is going to affect the Earth in about 30 years, you know; I am talking about the Earth itself." (San Diego Free Press, June 1969)

In the last days of his life, Jimi told me about a strong belief that he held, and took a writing pad, to illustrate more clearly what he meant.

Before going into the subject, he talked for a while about a song he had written called "If Six Was Nine". He told me that there was a cosmic meaning to that song, hidden in the two numbers six and nine. Jimi said that these numbers together are a very powerful force, and he drew them within each other. It looked like a spiral when he added more rays, the individual rays as well as the whole form spinning to the right. He said the sign with nine rays in it is the symbol of a very high spiritual power which is coming towards the earth.

He was convinced that, in the near future, Galacticans from outer space, from another galaxy of great positive power, would come to our planet to help mankind in its struggle against evil. While explaining this, he drew two points representing this higher power coming closer and closer towards our galaxy, the Milky Way, finally reaching Earth.

Jimi then made another sketch with four spiral rays pointing leftwards, telling me that this symbol is a negative one, because its rays point to the left.

He told me that the arrival of the positive power would bring about a great change on our planet. Love, peace and brotherhood among the peoples on Earth would start to blossom again, just as they in the ancient civilization of Atlantis. He said that the signs of the beginning of these events would be when significant unexpected changes started to happen in the world. But he also pointed out that we, the people, would also have to become active and anticipate bringing about these positive changes for ourselves and our world. He explained that people on Earth have been asleep for too long and an awakening is beginning to happen to the people as this higher power approaches our world.

2011, Mar 1 REPORT: How Koch Industries Makes Billions By Demanding Bailouts And Taxpayer Subsidies \(Part 1\)

By Lee Fang on Mar 1, 2011 at 1:00 pm

Koch Industries, the international conglomerate owned by Charles and David Koch, is not only the second largest private company in America, it is the most politically active. As ThinkProgress has carefully documented over the last three years, Koch groups have spent tens of millions to influence government policy — from financing the Tea Parties, to funding junk academic studies, to undisclosed attack ads against Democrats, to groups promoting climate change denial, to a large network of state-based and national think tanks. In an opinion column for the Wall Street Journal today, Koch Industries CEO Charles Koch fired back at his critics, who have grown more vocal as it has become clear that Koch groups are providing the political muscle for Gov. Scott Walker’s (R-WI) union-busting power grab.

In his piece, Charles portrays himself as simply an ideological advocate, and says his money to political groups is only meant to “enhance true economic freedom.” He chides special interests that have “successfully lobbied for special favors,” claiming “crony capitalism is much easier than competing in an open market.” But in reality, the focus of the Koch political machine is geared towards “crony capitalism” — corrupting government to make Charles and his brother David Koch richer. Koch’s Tea Party libertarianism is actually a thin veneer for the company’s long running history of winning special deals from the government and manipulating the market to pad Koch profits:

– The dirty secret of Koch Industries is its birth under the centrally-planned Soviet Union. Fred Koch, the founder of the company and father of David and Charles, helped construct fifteen oil refineries for Joseph Stalin before expanding the business in the United States.

– As Yasha Levine has reported, Koch exploits a number of government programs for profit. For instance, Georgia Pacific, a timber company subsidiary of Koch Industries, uses taxpayer money provided by the U.S. Forestry Service to provide their loggers with taxpayer-funded roads and access to virgin growth forests. “Logging companies such as Georgia-Pacific strip lands bare, destroy vast acreages and pay only a small fee to the federal government in proportion to what they take from the public,” according to the Institute for Public Accuracy. Levine also notes that Koch’s cattle ranching company, Matador Cattle Company, uses a New Deal program to profit off federal land for free.

– Koch Industries won massive government contracts using their close relationship with the Bush administration. The Bush administration, in a deal even conservatives alleged was a quid pro quo because of Koch’s campaign donations, handed Koch Industries a lucrative contract to supply the nation’s Strategic Petroleum Reserve with 8 million barrels of crude oil. The SPR deal, done initially in 2002, was renewed in 2004 by Bush administration officials. During the occupation of Iraq, Koch won significant contracts to buy Iraqi crude oil.

– Although Koch campaigned vigorously against health reform — running attack ads, sponsoring anti-health reform Tea Parties, and comparing health reform to the Holocaust — Koch Industries applied for health reform subsidies made possible by the Obama administration.

– The Koch brothers have claimed that they oppose government intervention in the market, but Koch Industries lobbies aggressively for taxpayer handouts. In Alaska, blogger Andrew Halcro reported that a Koch subsidiary in Fairbanks asked Gov. Sarah Palin’s administration to use taxpayer money to bail out one of their failing refinery.

– SolveClimate recently reported that Koch Industries will reap huge profits from the proposed Keystone XL Pipeline, which runs from Koch-owned tar sands mining centers in Canada to Koch-owned refineries in Texas. To build the pipeline, politicians throughout the Midwest, many of whom have received large Koch campaign donations, have used eminent domain — government seizures of private land. In Kansas, where Koch-funded officials advise Gov. Sam Brownback (R-KS) and the Republican legislature, the Keystone XL Pipeline is likely to receive a property tax exemption of ten years, a special loophole that will cost Kansas taxpayers about $50 million.

– Koch Industries has been the recipient of about \$85 million in federal government contracts mostly from the Department of Defense. Koch also benefits directly from billions in taxpayer subsidies for oil companies and ethanol production.

Charles has compared himself to a libertarian “Martin Luther,” evangelizing to the world for their supply side cause. However, the tens of millions in campaign donations and the dozens of front groups funded by Koch work in tandem to promoting the business interests of Koch Industries.

Koch funds both socially conservative groups and socially liberal groups. However, Koch’s financing of front groups and political organizations all have one thing in common: every single Koch group attacks workers’ rights, promotes deregulation, and argues for radical supply side economics. Not only do the Koch’s front groups pad Koch Industries’ bottom line, they supply the Koch brother’s talking points. In fact, for his opinion piece today, Charles heavily relied on front groups he finances for statistics. The “freedom index” cited by Charles is a creation of the Koch-funded Heritage Foundation, and the erroneous “unfunded liabilities” claim was supplied by the Koch-funded National Center for Policy Analysis.

2011, Feb 28 This Monetary Reform Bill Will Surely Loosen The Banksters' Bowels

<http://www.opednews.com/articles/This-Monetary-Reform-Bill-by-Gabriel-Donohoe-110217-66.html>

By Gabriel Donohoe

On December 17th, 2010, Congressman Dennis Kucinich (D-OH) introduced one of the most radical monetary Bills presented to the House of Representatives since the Federal Reserve Act of 1913. Designated as Bill H.R. 6550, this proposed Act is also referred to as the 'National Emergency Employment Defense Act of 2010'.

Kucinich's Bill includes the following astounding objectives: "to restore the authority of Congress to create and regulate money... [and to] retire public debt..."

One needs to read that again.

Restore the authority of Congress to create and regulate money? Retire public debt?

Does that really say what it seems to be saying?

What a revolutionary Bill!

H.R. 6550 is much more far-reaching than Ron Paul's valiant attempt to audit the Federal Reserve. This Bill would take us back 175 years to Andrew Jackson who killed central banking in the United States and became the last president to pay off the National Debt. And it would take us back to Abraham Lincoln who, 150 years ago, instructed the Treasury to bypass the banks and issue some 450 million debt-free 'greenbacks' to pay for the Union war effort during the Civil War.

Kucinich's Bill, if enacted as written, would take the power of money creation away from the banksters and return it to Congress as the Founding Fathers had originally intended. And in no time, the National Debt would be fully paid off with debt-free, interest-free U.S. Treasury dollars.

Such a scenario has long been the stuff of banksters' nightmares. According to a London Times editorial in 1865, alarmed at the success of Lincoln's greenbacks, "[America] will furnish its own money without cost. It will pay off debts and be without debt. It will have all the money necessary to carry on its commerce. It will become prosperous without precedent in the history of the world...That country must be destroyed or it will destroy every monarchy on the globe."^[1]

And if Congressman Kucinich and his sponsors are successful, America will indeed become prosperous without precedent in the history of the world. And the other nations of the world will follow suit.

The enactment of Bill H.R. 6550 is sure to create an epidemic of incontinence among the banksters throughout the world. The sale of toilet paper and adult diapers is sure to rise as the term "Cover your ass" takes on a whole new meaning. Wall Street especially will smell like an Arkansas hog ranch as the financial elite vacate their offices along with their bowels.

For those lucky enough to live in South Dakota, it would be interesting to mosey on over to Mount Rushmore and see if Tom Jefferson and Abe Lincoln have broken into huge smiles.

While Representative Kucinich is to be congratulated for his courage, intellect, and patriotism in presenting this Bill, special recognition should go to Stephen Zarlenga and his colleagues at the American Monetary Institute (AMI) for doing much of the groundwork over the past number of years. (Visit www.monetary.org for the text of H.R. 6550 and for a 32 page AMI precursor to the Bill.)

Stephen Zarlenga, co-founder of the American Monetary Institute, has 35 years experience in finance, securities, insurance, mutual funds, real estate, and futures trading and is the author of the widely acclaimed 700 page tome, The Lost Science Of Money. Zarlenga and the AMI have been working on the genesis of this Bill for some time. Representative Kucinich has been a regular attendee and speaker at AMI events in Chicago for the last few years and has incorporated their monetary reform document in his Bill, H.R. 6550.

This monetary reform is based on three crucial areas, all of which must occur if the reform is to be truly effective.

1. Incorporate the Federal Reserve System into the U.S. Treasury where all new money is created by government as money, not interest-bearing debt, and spent into circulation to promote the general welfare; monitored to be neither inflationary nor deflationary.
2. Halt the banks' privilege to create money by ending the fractional reserve system in a gentle and elegant way. All the past monetized private credit is converted into U.S. government money. Banks then act as intermediaries accepting savings deposits and loaning them out to borrowers; what people think they do now.
3. Spend new money into circulation on infrastructure, including education and healthcare needed for a growing society, starting with the $3 trillion that the American Institute of Architects estimate is needed for infrastructure repair (roads, bridges, railroads, water systems, sewer systems, etc.); creating good jobs across the nation, re-invigorating local economies and re-funding government at all levels.

In Section 2 a), Findings, Kucinich targets the malfeasance and abysmal record of the Federal Reserve. The following selected paragraphs give a flavour of his controlled anger and serious intent.

(19) This ceding of Constitutional power [to the Federal Reserve] has contributed materially to a multitude of monetary and financial afflictions, including--

- (A) growing and unreasonable concentration of wealth;*
- (B) unbridled expansion of national debt, both public and private;*
- (C) excessive reliance on taxation of citizens for raising public revenues;*
- (D) inflation of the currency;*
- (E) drastic increases in the cost of public infrastructure investments;*
- (F) record levels of unemployment and underemployment; and*
- (G) persistent erosion of the ability of Congress to exercise its Constitutional responsibilities to provide resources for the general welfare of all the American people.*

(20) A debt-based monetary system, where money comes into existence primarily through private bank lending, can neither create, nor sustain, a stable economic environment, but has proven to be a source of chronic financial instability and frequent crisis, as evidenced by the near collapse of the financial system in 2008.

(21) Banks pyramided their value by spending money into existence, greatly inflating the value of bank holdings, inflating the value of their asset bases, enticing unknowing investors to participate in financing schemes like the bundling of sub-prime mortgages, and ultimately bringing under-capitalized banks and the entire financial system to the edge of ruin, creating circumstances where the taxpayers of the United States were called upon to save the banks from their own imprudent money-issuing practices, misspending and mis-investments. The banks' ability to create money out of nothing ultimately became the taxpayers' liability, and raises a fundamental question about a practice of money creation which threatens the wealth of the American people.

(22) Abolishing private money creation can be achieved with minimal disruption to current banking operations, regulation, and supervision.

(23) The creation of money by private financial institutions as interest-bearing debts should cease once and for all.

(24) Reclaiming the power of the Federal Government to create money, and to spend or lend money into circulation as needed, eliminates the need to treat money as a Federal liability or to pay interest charges on the Nation's money supply to financial institutions; it also renders unnecessary the undue influence of private financial institutions over public policy.

(25) Under the current Federal Reserve System, the persons responsible for the conduct of United States monetary policy have been unaccountable to the Congress and the Nation, have resisted auditing by the General Accounting Office, and have claimed exemptions from some Federal statutes, including the Civil Rights Act of 1964, that apply to all agencies of the Federal Government.

(26) The conduct of United States monetary policy by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, and specifically the failure of Board members to safeguard the financial system against wholesale fraud and abuse of citizens, demonstrates the risks of maintaining a system wherein the power to create and regulate money has been delegated to private individuals who are unaccountable to the People of the United States in any way, even through their representatives in Congress.

(29) As our money system is a key pillar in maintaining general economic welfare and as the Federal Reserve System and its private banking partners has consistently failed to promote or preserve the general welfare, it is essential that Congress, in the name of protecting the economic lives of the American people and the long-term security of our Nation, reassume the powers and responsibilities granted to it by the Constitution.

Hear! Hear! All freedom-loving Americans would chant. This legislation should be studied and supported for the redemption it offers to us all, especially the poor and the down-trodden.

Not only Americans, but the entire world should sit up and take note of Dennis Kucinich's revolutionary Bill. Citizens in other countries should download copies for their own political representatives and agitate for reform in their own countries. This Bill, if enacted, has the capability of creating widespread prosperity, peace, and goodwill.

Here in Ireland we are in the middle of a General Election campaign where there is much debate and controversy about banking fraud, the collapse of the economy, and the involvement of EU/IMF predators who are intent on eating us alive. Not one of our so-called future leaders of the State has presented us with an intelligent, effective alternative to the banksters' grip of death.

And the mainstream media, with all its political debates, opinions, op-eds, and pontificating economics gurus, has not offered a single original or radical idea. Why not? Are they all so lacking in intelligence and innovation? Are they all so hopelessly under-informed about the history of banking and economics? Or do they all belong to the banksters, body and soul, and have been charged with keeping revolutionary new ideas out of the public domain?

Ireland sorely needs a Dennis Kucinich, or a single politician of integrity who will run with his baton. Is it possible to find such a creature among our gaggle of chancers and deadbeats? We'd better not hold our breath.

Nonetheless, let's all hope that Congressman Kucinich prevails with this Bill and that it will not be defeated or emasculated by those in the pay or the influence of the Money Power.

With the enactment of Bill H.R. 6550 the world may not become a Utopia overnight, but it will certainly move us a lot closer to the joyous abundance of the Garden of Eden since the day Adam and Eve got the boot.
