Dear Mr James Diamond

Answer:

Please find below the data as requested:

N.B. We are not able to provide the data requested for waste disposal kg/person because this is no longer an indicator used internally or by the Environment Agency.

N.B. 2012/13 data for waste disposal per household is subject to change when the household figures are retrospectively updated, as taken from council tax base at the close of March 2013. Due to an increase in number of households this figure will reduce. The household data has not yet fed through to the Waste Data Flow system and therefore has not been finalised.
