

MY QOUTE ABOUT LOVING GOD

Love requires the existence of a material partnership based on communication, and other important factors. The fact that God does not communicate in any way proves of "it's" non-existence. Being in Love with God would be like being in Love with a fictional character in a book, or story. That is clearly not Love!

BY DUG