4. After you got the approval go to "My Page" to add a photo and more. Just look for the little Edit icon.

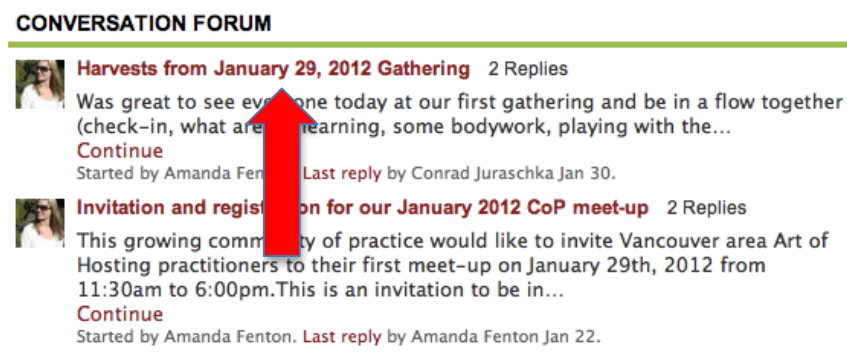

5. To join a Group (example: the Vancouver area AoH practitioners group), click on Groups, then search for the Group you are looking for. When the Group comes up just click on the red title.

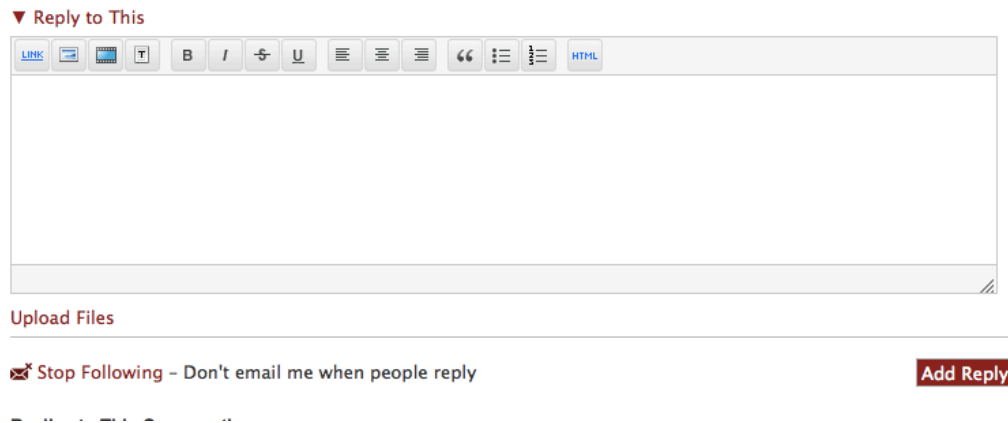

6. Look for the “+ Join” button and click it – it will be on the right hand side. Here is an example:

7. To read (and reply) to an existing conversation, just click on the red title.

8. A comment box will appear; just enter your comment in and click “Add Reply”

9. If you see a conversation that you want to follow, scroll down until you see the little mail icon with “Follow – email me when people reply”. You don’t have to comment to be able to follow, and you can unfollow the conversation at any time.

 Follow – Email me when people reply

10. To start a new conversation thread, click “+ Add a Conversation” from the main group page.
