HARD NEWS

R: distractions from main stream media are over the top!

- Last Tuesday [Sept 6], talked to Natasha [N] and Sweet Angelique [SA] the Cat –
- SA is one of Mother's people, a Paschat, a ground crew member, part of Ashtar Command - working as a high class lady of the night, working for Madam Palfrey, part of Faction 3 & alive and well in a safe place:
- Sweet Angelique talks of having sex with Trump: he's hung like a gnat; he likes to wear a mask that looks like Lucifer, and plays German violin music of a composer called Zebattendorf [?] - a favourite of Hitler and SS,
- there's a court case scheduled: 25 women who were between 10-13 years when Clinton, Blair, Cameron, Kerry, Bush, Kissenger, Cheney - the whole Bohemian grove group, went to Jeffrey Epstein's island in the Bahamas
 - 1st case Sept 9; 2nd on Sept 15th; 3rd one in Oct 15th
 - 13 girls + Angelique will be testifying; 3 were on the radio show discussed below [SEE PICTURE BELOW]
- SA said if he does not show, the Hammer of Thor will be his to pay!
 - there is a $300 million bounty on his head!
 - Behind the scenes, he is making deals with Poreschenko of Ukraine [a Nazi backed by US black Ops and Netanyahu]: they want more fighting there so they have an excuse to bring in more NATO troops and have them attack Russia directly –
- BOTH CLINTON AND TRUMP WORK TOGETHER in the human child trafficking ring for the last 20 years minimum; behind the scenes, THEY ARE OPERATORS, working out how they are going to present things to the public

N: VERY SOON archeologists and scientists who have studied the geomancy [SEE BELOW] of the pyramids will find the seed pods in the pyramids around the world, starting with the capstone at Giza; even the flat pyramids have these seeds too – lots of beings are present who are have the knowledge of this, and are being guided to go to the various pyramids and bring this technology forward

- THESE seed pods can grow long, long vines, miles and miles in days across the land – can cover all areas that have been desertified or where the soil is so terribly polluted or damaged & deforested; there are masses of places where nothing will grow
- these vines in 2 days produce gourds, which then open up and xenon gas comes out at ground level and lifts every being in the vegetable, animal and human kingdoms into higher vibrations
- Xenon gas was lost when the great crystal was destroyed and blew a hole in the atmosphere at the higher levels and the xenon gas drained off into space ; hole has been mended with assistance of our galactic brothers and sisters
- As a result, the total renewal of body, mind spirt is initiated; our siddhas, our gifts that we had from the time of Atlantis and before, are awakened: clair sentience, clair audience: clair voyance, seein auras, angels, fairies, walking with divas – this includes animals and vegetable kingdom

N; SA • MEDITATE EACH AND EVERY DAY WITHOUT FAIL; REQUIREMENT TO ABSORB THE

ENERGIES SO WE CAN BE of service to all life and the return of the new golden age

- So now we are watching the threads of the great unravelling

- Rama found a new program that replaced the Leslie Marshall show

The Michelle Tuwando Show: Michelle is a good friend of Cornell West – they are Moabites, so she is Moabites Michelle Tuwando

- her guests were 3 of the ladies who will be involved in the court case on Friday – one was violently raped on a campus & carried her mattress with her every day for a year on campus
- the other 2 [ages 10 – 13] were part of those who were raped on Jeffery Epstein's island and who got away, thanks to the help of the indigenous people on the island – they were put in a witness protection program and will testify now.
- SA said – on the air - she was a high class call girl; he had violent sex with her and she slapped him hard so he threw money on the bed and left, angry –
 - then she said that the real story is that we are being visited by folk who are not from here, from the stars, many space-time continuums
 - SA asked if anyone had noticed the incident of Space X rocket exploding and that they were blown up by our galactic friends

R: the satellite and the rocket which blew up – yes, they were destroyed by those from the stars: 2 fully declassified ships were visible just as it was getting ready to up up

2016-09-02 SpaceX Rocket Explosion Linked to Secret Space War

[SEE BELOW]

- funded by Mark Zuckerberg and funded by Israel: had laser technology on board
 - the blue avians destroyed it as they will not tolerate weapons of war in the space around the planet.
- More to the story is that this should be front page news: it ties in with the larger story of different groups associated with the secret space command are working for various factions of the break-away groups who want to create the atmosphere of a fake alien invasion.
- the 13 families are in their last desperate nano seconds, trying to distract people with such things as Trump lying, HRC and e-mails: every time they come up with a new "hedge", something happens – the energies are too high – they cannot continue to play by making themselves richer and killing more people
- Even the ones in the secret space command and those who have broken away are saying they don't want to kill anymore

North Dakota: the governor has called in the national guard:

R: Tom the Cat told him that when Obama returns from the Far East, heads will roll at the top; a lady at the Laos summit stood up and asked him about things

- The fact that a private contract security firm like Blackwater are using dogs to hurt people – the parallels between nazi Germany and this situation are too creepy, and many in the media are bringing this up
- On Friday, 9th, a judge will rule on an injunction from the Standing Rock Sioux position which challenges the Army Corp of engineers
 - who have violated the injunction against ruining sacred burial sites and lands
 - unleashed an extremely potent kind of pepper spray on the native americans
- the week before, attorneys had submitted a map showing where the sacred places & the archeological sites were located; the bulldozers deliberately destroyed that piece when they had been told not to.
- The National Guard is to be deployed Saturday morning
- Put it all in the Circle of Support!

MR: Any fun stuff?

R: the things that are happening; more and more is coming out about the red star kachina, the blue star kachina, the visitors coming into the earth's atmosphere & neighbouring areas of the solar system: there are a couple of bodies to be getting closer to earth in the next few days

- Today is 50th anni of Star Trek - Gene Roddenberry based Star Trek on the Secret Space Command - there are leads to that which are possibly true
- Gary Johnson does not know where Aleppo is, or that it was a city: from Ed Schultz' RT show
 - these things need to be brought to the forefront - so many people have been asleep and we, the people, of earth really need to wake up - WE ARE THE ONES [who need to wake up], though they will protect and guide

Question: has R any info from Ashtar - what's happening? How can we connect with that information?

MR: any suggestions?

R: on a recent trip to RanaMu, she placed on his head the VR [virtual reality] googles - kinda like the google glasses - that put him in a reality world in which he was able to connect like Cerebrou, the computer in the Dr X shows which could connect with others of his own kind

- he connected with other indigo crystal people - he felt Abba from Germany, saw her
- RM said: as you focus on someong like Trump HRC etc etc - visualize them from the bottom of their feet to their crown chakra, getting filled up with the 3 fold flame, rising from their feet up to their crown chakra - this changes the physcial matter of their bodies

- It's a way to work with these life forms: All That Is has given direct permission to all on the planet to use this visualization; it raises the frequencies and they have to absorb the energies or go "poof"

T: what happened in china, the East from Natasha or S Angelique?

- Trudeau given the royal carpet by China: want him to be the head of the US, Canada, Mexico - Canada has been more pro-Israel than the US so want to have him in place
- what they did say is that what is happening between China and N Korea is a brinkmanship game; Obama knows how to handle this - a very delicate dance until he changes the tune!
- bottom line - all the super powers know that all the nukes have been neutralized yet they have been engaged in a dangerous game of chicken to get to the extreme edge
- just recently, a Russian jet was puttling circles around an air force jet - are they egging us on, or making a show - what's up with that? There is an unseen war by the 13 families taking each other out: they are out for blood and are taking each other out and would like to take the rest of us out, but they will not: it has been ordained by the Legions of Heaven which are here that they are getting exposed!

REMEMBER THAT OBAMA IS A DOUBLE AGENT: he will lead the world into thinking the TTP is the best thing, until he is no longer a double agent.

North Korea: indications of another nuclear test in North Korea - has to do with the fact that we are being visited by so many different beings, and the truth will come out sooner than later

V J Prashad, author of the Death of a Nation and the future of the Arab Revolution:
Interviewed by Amy Goodman, Democracy Now of last week.

From VJ: voters should undertand that both Hillary and Trump will be very, very harmful for all the other countries of the world, as the US is to be the super power that leads the world - someone as crazy as Trump or as dangerous as Hillary leave little room for hope for the rest of the world.

GUEST: Dr. Mary VanHoy
Indianapolis Optometrist | Eyes For Wellness | 317-818-0541

Indianapolis, IN 46260

HER CONTACT INFORMATION [FOLLOWS THESE NOTES]

Optometric Care: what she does has been around since the 1930s= behavioural functional optometrists

- Optometry is the science of vision care, much more than just seeing the chart clearly at 20' there are such questions as
 - are you an efficient reader?
 - Are you slow and lose your place when taking a test?
 - Do you get headaches from reading?
 - detecting optical diseases
- Who can benefit? all ages – babies to seniors
there is such a thing a neural stimulus: so they have set out new procedures to help create new pathways so they can see, read better her largest # of patients are students or in the work field who use computers a lot

Post Trauma vision symptoms –

- these can follow concussion will be sensitive to light, too much sunlight fatigue easily often have headaches often have brain fogs – and these
- can be the result of a dental procedure which can “insult the brain”
- they look at the symptoms that people come with [in response to MR asking how do they detect what is going on?]
 - the questions asked are weighted; have to do with functional information eg can you shift your eyes easily tracking focussing teaming [eyes working together]
how well does the brain integrate and process that information?
- the Optomological definition of Vision is the deriving of meaning and the direction of action – ie, vision is motor, not just passive which is just seeing the letters, words, etc - reading
 - How does vision play a role in an autistic child -

Optometric therapy is something they do, same as physical therapy or occupational therapy – a set of skills that are developed like learning how to shift focus, follow a ball, how to use eyes more efficiently, and other kinds of things – not always about eye disease but getting eyes to work together more effectively

- Have a program Infant See: to check out babies: early detection/ intervention to make sure the eyes are working well together: 6 mos to 12 mos – lazy eye can be detected this way
- Have various instruments that can help with near sightedness using bio feedback rather than surgery or going through lasiks – an instrument to help relax focus
- Syntonic photo therapy – using specific wave lengths of light that helps bring balance in the nervous system - enables eyes to see further & for longer so they don't get so tired - used with those who've had brain injuries [like concussion?]

- students wanting to be athletes - can learn how to use eyes better so they see the ball
- when a child is intelligent enough to do the work, yet they might be guessing when they are supposed to be reading - not always dyslexia or is it a visual motor problem?
- ADHD - often times these kids are seeing double - can't keep the print clear - they are not inattentive, but bothered by their own eyes. This is an invisible problem
- colour therapy? the syntonics photo therapy or light therapy helps expand the vision field some people have non-pathological tunnel vision - light therapy will help them balance their nervous systems

GO TO: covd.org - college of optometrists in vision developmental

- type in zip code to find a developmental optometrist in your area
- website has lots of information

Listener Question: about brown cataracts

Dr Mary: if they have had this condition for a while, may have to be one surgically if it's in the beginning stages possible improvement by removal of toxins in the body

- Other equipment she uses:
 - she has a beamer: German instrument - to enhance the circulation in our bodies
 - the circulation enhances the flow of blood in the body to nourish our cells and get rid of toxins that clog us up - leads to aging, less vibrant
 - Also has a coMra - uses 4 different energy modalities: she uses it for the head and the eyes - low level laser, ultra sound, magnetic and colored lights to restore healing to various tissues; as an optometrist, deals with the head and the eyes - no dis-robing!

She describes a typical examination: can expect to be there for 90 minutes also ask about digestive problems: the gut is the second brain: brain fog, fatigue could also be the result from this kind of problems

Why is there not more information out there about finding this kind of help?

Luckily they are all over the world

- An International organization called: optometric extension program foundation.org lots of info; books, brochures
- COVD website
- NORA.cc - another international organization - deals with symptoms of brain injured patients
 - Visiontherapyparentsunite: a very good support group for parents with kids and vision issues [part of NORA]

In the old days there were two camps: Ophthalmology and Optometry

- ophthalmology - the medically trained - like to operate on eyes - yet forgot to teach the two eyes to work as a team!
- Optometry - two different camps; optometry uses vision therapy/therapies, a functional approach, not a "medical model" - using more natural ways of healing, among other things.
- The Functional Vision Checklist can be printed off from her website so people can get help determining what is going on with them:
 - covd.org - college of optometrists in vision developmental - has a checklist
 - NORA also has a checklist for those with brain injuries -

- this provides guidance for your eye doctor – and if the doctor cannot help with the specific problem, you can look up finding a optometrist by using your zip code [covid.org]

T: finds out that Dr Sam Berne is in Santa Fe – does many of same things Dr Vanhoy does!

MR: any initiatives in the schools to talk to teachers and administrators – schools are the places where such problems are evident?

- Dr Mary does in service training for teachers if they want to have it – really need a parent organization to push this idea

My Perfect Vision – a simple, well-illustrated book that Dr Jennifer Simonsen wrote herself to help parents and teacher pinpoint what is happening with the children – from www.bouldervisiontherapy.com [SEE INFO INCLUDED AFTER THE INFO ABOUT Dr Vanhoy]

Welcome to Eyes For Wellness
Your Optometrist in Indianapolis, IN.

Mission Statement

We strive to serve the visual needs of our patients from infancy to the senior years such that they can perform at their highest level of efficiency and comfort for all acts of daily living. We endeavor to think "outside the box" utilizing a wide variety of treatments that are state of the art yet non-invasive and drug-free. We coordinate services with other professionals to tailor a customized treatment plan for our patients' individual needs rather than simply treating diagnostic labels.

Welcome to Eyes For Wellness in Indianapolis. Dr. Mary VanHoy and the Eyes For Wellness team strive to provide the finest in neuro-optometric services. We invite you to browse our website to learn more about our optometric services, and invite you to join our patient family by scheduling a specialized neuro-optometric evaluation which typically require two separate visits at our Indianapolis office.

Eyes For Wellness is a specialty second tier optometric practice that welcome referrals from her optometric colleagues as well as other health care professionals and educators. However, a patient does not need to be referred by another doctor to receive specialty visual evaluations. Patients throughout the Indianapolis area come to Eyes For Wellness because they know they will receive the personal attention and professional care that is our foundation. Dr. VanHoy and our team are dedicated to keeping our patients comfortable and well-informed at all times. At Eyes For Wellness, we will explain every exam and procedure and answer all of our patient's questions. Additionally, while Eyes For Wellness, does not participate in any third party vision insurance plans, we do offer vision financing options such as Care Credit. We also offer an insurance letter of medical necessity and help guide you in submitting your receipts to your major medical health insurance carrier for direct reimbursement from your carrier.

Our Approach to Optometry

Our one-on-one approach to optometry makes Dr. VanHoy and the Eyes For Wellness staff the neuro-ptometric practice of choice in the Indianapolis area. Our Indianapolis optometrist offers the unique neuro-optometric evaluations and rehabilitation programs that are customized to each patient's specific visual needs. My Perfect Vision

Dr. Jen Simonson is excited to announce the publishing of My Perfect Vision. This illustrated storybook for children explains the common symptoms and best treatment for focusing problems.

Focusing activities include using plus and minus lenses. Often, we place these lens in a “flipper” to make them easy to hold and use therapeutically. We also complete activities where you look near to far and back again. When you add the near letters f- and d- you can make the words “fish” “dish” “fad” and “dad”. This works not only on discriminating the detail, but also visual memory and visual-verbal integration.

My Perfect Vision Book Order Form

My Perfect Vision is a story that explains what it is like to experience blurred vision and tired eyes – even when you have “perfect” 20/20 eyesight. Learn more about reading glasses and Vision Therapy through the colorful illustrations. This is a great book for children starting their Vision Therapy Journey. This illustrated storybook for children explains the common symptoms of focusing problems. Medically called Accommodation Dysfunctions, these disorders include difficulty with accurate clarity of focus, speed of switching focus from near to far, and the ability to sustain focus for long periods.

INFORMATION RELATED TO THE NOTES

2016-09-02 SpaceX Rocket Explosion Linked to Secret Space War

Written by Dr Michael Salla Posted in science and technology, Secret Space Programs

A series of video frames taken of the SpaceX Falcon 9 rocket explosion on September 1 show two UFOs in the vicinity, just before and during the failed pre-launch test. The video frames are hard evidence linking the SpaceX explosion to an alleged space war being fought between rival secret space programs according to whistleblower Corey Goode.

The SpaceX rocket was carrying a $150 million satellite belonging to Facebook's Mark Zuckerberg who was quick to tweet his disappointment:

Elon Musk tweeted an initial analysis that only identified where the explosion took place:

According to investigative reporter, Jim Stone, the way in which one of the UFOs interacted with the rocket just as it exploded suggests it was an attack, and not a case of a fuel tank breach in the upper stage:

This explosion started at the top of the rocket, right where the UFO was, and not near the bottom, where virtually all rocket explosions start. No malfunction caused this, if this started at the top of the rocket only a fuel tank breach in an upper stage that was not being tested could have caused this, and that means the rocket was most likely shot with something.

The attack was intended to prevent the satellite reaching Earth orbit to perform a nefarious purpose, Stone stated:

Before it blew up, a UFO showed up, fired something at the rocket, and then quickly flew away. The image here shows the UFO quite clearly. If SpaceX can't explain what this UFO is, then I am going to say that either off world help arrived to keep Facebook grounded or white hats in American intelligence destroyed this rocket to keep something evil from being launched.

An analysis of 10 frames from the video of the explosion (see BBC video below) show two UFOs appearing just before the rocket test, and one flying just above the rocket as it explodes.

<https://youtu.be/ceC-7dWHaPM>

The author, who conducted the frame by frame analysis, concludes:

You will see a small looking ufo/object buzz by the rocket as it explodes! The ufo buzzes by the head of the rocket coming from the right side and moving to the left side of the screen at incredible speed. This is definitely some type of secret space program weapon technology being used. The secret space program war is in full affect and this time in full view.

The alleged attack follows earlier claims by Secret Space Program whistleblower, Corey Goode, that space battles have recently intensified between rival secret space programs. Goode provided an artist's depiction of one of these battles fought over Antarctic skies space in early 2016.

Circumstantial support for Goode's claims emerged with President Barack Obama delivering a report to the U.S. Congress on May 26 proposing an "integrated policy" to deter potential enemies in space. In a letter released through the White House Press Secretary discussing the report along with a classified Annex, Obama said:

The report is the result of an interagency process with the objectives to reduce risks to the United States and our allies in space; and to protect and preserve the rights, access, capabilities, use, and freedom of action of the United States in space. Success will require a multi-year effort and commitment across all departments and agencies, and I look forward to your continued support.

Obama's "multi-year effort and commitment across all departments and agencies" was clearly intended to create and fight space wars as soon as possible.

It appears that Obama's proposed interagency space defense policy was really intended to help what Goode describes as a lower level secret space program comprising the USAF Space Command, the National Reconnaissance Office (NRO) and Defense Intelligence Agency (DIA).

Goode claims that in February this year, he was abducted by operatives from this lower level space program who wanted to find out where he was getting his information from, because he has been accurately revealing details of highly classified space activities.

Apparently, the USAF/NRO/DIA is wanting to beef up its own space assets during a time of increasing military hostilities between spacecraft that are of unknown origin to them. Goode, however, identified these the warring spacecraft as belonging to differing factions of secret space programs allied with rival alliances comprising humans and extraterrestrials.

What adds significant support to Goode's incredible claims of warring space alliances is a recently published paper by an astrophysicist, Duncan H. Forgan, in the prepublication science website, arXiv.org. Forgan claims that rival alliances, what he describes as 'cliques', may disagree over the extent to which contact is allowed to happen on more primitive planets such as Earth:

One clique attempting to place an interdict on contacting 'primitive' civilizations is likely to encounter significant problems if another clique disagrees ... It may well still be the case that the Earth resides in a region of space occupied by a conservative clique bent on non-contact.

UFOs captured on camera just as the Space X experienced an upper stage explosion while conducting its pre-flight rocket testing is further evidence that a secret space war is indeed occurring between rival space programs and alliances.

COSMIC RAYS OPEN the HEART CHAKRA
The hard way or the easy way

There are profound and intense energies happening at this time. Do not ask for any upgradment for your biological unit or your emotional unit. The energies that come forth moving at Millions of miles a second come forth from deep space, from a supernova that turned into a white hole. The white hole pours itself forward into the center of our Earth-heart. These energies have no consciousness; they only have a mission to move throughout the cosmos and deposit their truth in living beings.

Because man is a hybrid and stardust runs in his veins, anything that comes forth from deep space brings an SOS, a memo, a deep remembrance and activation. The energies that come forth pouring into the human heart do so at the request of the Divine Creator. For even though his presence is not seen as much as in days of old, the rhetoric we still hold with divinity always reaches its Source and Source always answers.

As Earth moves into more tidal waves of light, they will penetrate the cell membranes, working forward like a worm in an apple towards the DNA, bringing forth Revival in a biological tent. We will all come to a point of saying stop.... 'uncle'! The penetration of these energies are so deep - they are living photons of light, they are living Stardust. They come forth as cosmic rays with no barricades of any kind, dispersing their molecular intent into all areas of our human life from moods to weather to health. Their entrance point has always been at the heart of a solar low. They are aggressive and demanding and they make you look at what you do not want to see, inwardly and outwardly. Like a Personal trainer, they demand more of you than you think you are capable of giving

We all come to a conjunction within ourselves. Each human being has a point of weakness, an Achilles heel of sorts. These living photons of light supercharged on every level, penetrate like an Immaculate Conception cosmic sperm, without one's written permission.

Change has been forced on us in the last 2 years; everything we knew has now been turned upside and gives way to virtual. The internet is a living Library, a category of thoughts, a volunteer akashic record. Everyone wants to be remembered; they want to be seen; they want to be felt; they want to be known. Most human beings in a room full of people feel like a five-year-old at their first birthday party dressed to the nines but completely out of their comfort zone.

These incoming Cosmic bursts will take you out of your comfort zone, making you look at all categories and genres that you never thought you would address. They will bring forth deep cellular memories of what has to be completed, as we get closer and closer to the 999. Humans waste so much time being afraid and mad at everything and everyone around them, pointing fingers at parents, presidents, and past lives, not taking the fullness of responsibility for any type of creation.

The effects of what comes forth before this 999 will dive deep into our soul and cells; I have no idea in truth what they bring. However, I do know as I prep for these energies; that change is a simple word compared to what we're about to go through. We flippantly ask for adventure; we asked for true love; we ask for more of whatever else we think we need and deserve. At this point of energy, the universe is pointing its Cosmic finger at our human destiny and asking us to receive a truth that's deeper than we have ever received. A truth that is not earthly or human of nature. Contracts will be fulfilled; businesses will be changed; families will be separated, and joined together simultaneously.

Like one that enters a transporter where the molecules and the atoms are discombobulated in order to be transported to another location, we are dimensionally strung about. As 999 comes forth, we come to a point of concise gathering within self. At this point of energy, we can put our fingers in our ears but I guarantee the soul knows how to read lips

Most people are at the breaking point emotionally, financially, energetically, as life around us changes everything. People and animals that we love, leave us with a big empty hole. We look for things to fill that hole, people, food, chocolate, sex, rock and roll. But nothing seems to work as a great wind blows thru the emptiness in the heart.

When the universe looks at us, it sees all of our fractured parts, secrets, regrets and sadness, the universe sees our personal black hole and still loves us. It sees the holes in our hearts, in our hopes, and yearns to fill them with what is good. The healing has begun, dear ones; it started early in 2016. As we enter the ninth month of all that is, unto the ninth day, in the year of 9, we complete; no matter who we are, what we do, what we have or what we believe, we will complete!

People are tired and heavy with emotion. They are sad and they just do not know what to do anymore. They look at their world and they wonder how they got to this point. Many think about the world they would create. The world they would create, a world filled with the best and highest goodness of people. A world where everyone would just love. A world that would be laced with forgiveness and filled to the rim with hope for a shiny future, blue skies and a clean ocean. It would be a place filled with happy endings to every story, with true love, miracles, laughter and undiluted joy.

We are at a starting point and a finishing point simultaneously. The gates haven't opened, and yet the gates are about to close. It is important that we run our very best race. It is important that we walk forward each day with goodness in our hearts.

Yes, we are filled with The Good, the Bad, and the Ugly DNA from all time. Yes we are filled with primordial ooze. Yes, some of our ancestors were Flintstone like. Yes, some of our ancestors came from deep space. We are the great experiment. The universe took everything good about itself and placed it within us. However, it also scooped up DNA that would help us survive the cosmic flush, help us to become comfortable in our animal nature if necessary to survive, to embrace all of our faces then look for the common denominator. We are survivors from the future, and we are survivors of the past.

Yes, we hold the codes for the future. If the world's gone to hell in a hand basket and everything's upside down like a four-year-old looking at the ceiling, what can we do as a species? What you can do, dear ones, is dig deep into your soul, your heart, your memory and scoop up the very best of humans. Hold it in your cupped heart and never let it go.

We as people can try a little harder to be kind to strangers for, believe it or not, most of them are angels in guise taking a day off from their Heavenly chores. We can be compassionate to those in need instead of looking away because our pocketbooks are empty. Our earth-heart wants to give but we have so much trauma, drama and burdens heaped upon us each day, we dare not enter that place. We cannot allow ourselves to feel that deep and still hold together the skeleton of our holographic creation.

As humans we are often stingy with our love, time, and our money. We sometimes give in ways that don't matter. People do not need any more stuff: they need to clean the Ley lines and grids of their home, of their heart, of their past, and to prepare a sacred place, a clean place for the future.

As we begin our journey into the 999 of completeness, the doorways through all time will be shown, what doorway you choose to walk through will be your Soul's choice. For your humanness in the upcoming energy current, is just along for the ride. Like a new pilot in training, you have no true control of the situation.

The universe looks down upon its creation and sighs. Not a sigh of relief, but a sign of sadness. Like any parent, the universe looks at its children and wonders where it went wrong. How did these beautiful beings lose their compassion, their inherent goodness, their love for each other?

How did the common denominator of good disappear from the bloodline of so many?

The cosmic rays from deep space and the white hole from the ancient supernova, will Propel forward Into the Heart of every living thing. It is this heart connection that will install a trait, that Humanity that has somehow dissolved in the evolution of the species. As the heart is penetrated with these cosmic rays, electrical pulses will activate parts of the brain and memory that have been hidden or closeted away. It is a Time of cleansing and cleaning the house of your soul. It is a time to forgive yourself for past transgressions in actions and thoughts and deeds.

You are a biological unit of light; you are a holy ambassador of love in human form. Don't try so hard, dear ones, but allow the softness of the incoming light to penetrate your heart opening the door to a planetary healing. Allow this energy to transform you into a place of peace, not outside yourself, but within yourself.

Then as a Candle of light join others, Heart-light to heart-light to become a Candelabra of Hope for planet Earth.

 from Gillian: I fully experienced this energy and thought for sure I was out of here. Several people I love dearly did leave. During this energy event, many will have the symptoms of a heart problems, seizures, strokes (cancel clear); it will affect the electrical system in the body. If there are any blocks, it will address them. Keep your water intake high; eat more small fresh meals, not heavy; get enough sleep. Tell your body it will all be ok, show it love, and ask it to release all fears.

The realms have begun to shift

I am he that is known as Michael. I am he that has stood behind you, who has backed you, who has separated you from your grief, from your angers, from your limitations. I am he that walks with you on this day. I ask that you beckon and call upon me to stand to the front, to the back, to the left, to the right, above and below of your energies. I ask you to call to me on a daily basis and ask me to cover you with my protection.

The realms have begun to shift like two tectonic plates that slide side by side. In this sliding, there is a surface difference. There is a crack in-between the worlds, between the dimensions and between known realities. The energies of this tectonic tilting comes forth in the form of earth shifts, personal shifts, heavenly shifts. This tectonic energy and tectonic flux will affect your biological body. There will be separation within body, mind, and thought process. What this means is that the body will react differently as though a time shift has occurred, separating action and human thought. You will have a thought; there will be a pause, and the body will then react. There is a time-lapse between thought and biological function. You will do something but you will not have memory of doing it in this realm.

This time space definition in-between thought and biological action is deliberate. There will be delayed reactions on everything on earth, for you are going through a time shift that will affect everything and all actions, and re-actions. This gives your mind an opportunity to change, and shift slowly. In that one celestial pause, the Light is hoping that you will embrace change and stop fighting your divinity.

Time will feel sufficiently slowed down enough so that you can almost see the flower bloom. You can see the seed begin to sprout. You can see the hummingbird's wings motionless. You have already begun to notice this as your sun rises and sets. There is a difference that is noticeable, and felt on the subtle levels of your being. Everything and everyone knows something has changed.

You are given a slowing of time so that you can expand-- not contract. You are given in between time to move away from the contractions of your world, of your money, of your health, of your thoughts, into the expansions of the divinity that needs to be more involved in life, in money, in the future of earth.

In this time-slowness event, in this methodical plodding of energies, see it as God breathing healing light into what pains you, into what limits you, into what holds you captive and a victim of circumstance. Allow the energies of the universe to breathe through you. In God's eyes - expansion and contraction are but one.

Time and energy will slow down enough to allow you to heal the tears in time.

BOOKS ON AUTISM

Whether you are new to the world of autism, are familiar with treatment options, or are a veteran who has "been there, done that," this book is for you! Discoveries about possible etiologies and promising therapies are emerging so quickly that you are sure to learn something new. Outsmarting Autism guides you step-by-step with practical information from a variety of fields that families, specialists, and educators can put to use immediately.

STEP 1: Take Away the Bad Stuff, and Add Back the Good Stuff
Clean up the environment • Eat, sleep, and drink smarter
Boost the immune system • Balance hormones • Detoxify

STEP 2: Correct Foundational Issues
Remove structural impediments • Integrate reflexes

STEP 3: Address Sensory Problems
Improve sensory processing • Develop vision

STEP 4: Focus on Communicating, Interacting, and Learning
Build language • Concentrate on social-emotional skills
Learn to read, write, and calculate • Use technology

STEP 5: Plan for the Future
Transition to independence • Prevent autism from conception

Maria Rickert Hong, CHHC, AADP has recovered her two sons from Sensory Processing Disorder (SPD), what she calls "almost autism". One of the problems with SPD is that it's not an official diagnosis. As a parent or practitioner, you're left on your own to get help for a child whose issues you can't quite put your finger on. This child doesn't have autism, but they almost have autism, and they fall through the cracks. Knowing the confusion and lack of information that parents and practitioners have about the disorder, she sets out a clear roadmap in this book for recovering a child from increased sensory sensitivities.

In this book you will learn, in layman's terms:

- What the common symptoms of SPD are.
- What causes SPD: toxicity, gut dysbiosis, immune dysregulation, nutritional deficiencies, adrenal imbalances, thyroid imbalances, inflammation and other factors.
- How these factors cause neurodevelopmental damage, which may initially show up as retained primitive reflexes.
- What an MTHFR mutation is and how it affects an SPD child.
- What are the roles of genetics and epigenetics.
- What mitochondrial dysfunction is and what to do about it.
- How to recover a child, step by step, from SPD.
- How to get a child to sleep better.
- How to choose and cook foods that will lower stress.
- How to lower inflammation, a key component of sensory dysfunction.
- How to control blood-sugar swings that are hidden causes of sensory sensitivities.
- How to prioritize therapies for sensory integration.
- Why healing the gut is so important for lowering sensory symptoms and for preparing the body for detoxification.
- How to detoxify a child safely and gently.

As you read through this one-of-a-kind book, you'll realize that the world isn't what it seems. You'll learn how to think for yourself and, ultimately, how to empower yourself.
