Host: MariettaRobert

Meditation: Angelsu

Mayan Calendar: Rainbird Go to www.Spacestationplaza.com – to locate specific days

Nov 6th Thurs -

WE HAVE 10 DAYS OF PORTAL DAYS – WE ARE IN THE CORE OF THE MATRIX! - PLACES OF HIGHER DIMENSIONALITY AND INTER DIMENSIONALITY!

6th Nov Thurs – 8 EB

7th Nov Fri – 9 BEN – A portal/seasonal day; they are in the middle of the matrix, on either side of the core skywalker – a 9; 9 is about wakefulness, exploring; completion, expansion – it is 3 3s – a place where we can bend the grid as needs be

8th Nov Sat – 10 IX – a place of integrity; 10 is manifestation 9th Sun – 11 MEN – the eagle, the big picture; 11 letting go of what no longer serves.

10th Mon – 12 CIB – the warrior; 12 is crystal, complex stability

11th Tues – 13 CABAN – we complete the wave of Chiccan – working with our bodies and letting the transformation occur

12th Wed - 1 ETZNAB – this the new wave of Etnab, the mirror; about looking at ourselves and seeing ourselves in others, and cutting what no longer serves us. We have 20 days of core days
- we work in staying grounded, skrying the unseen is one of our gifts.

13th Thurs - 2 CAUAC

MR: meaning of letting go of what no longer serves – meaning on all levels?

We are still in the wave of the serpent and it is about letting go and transforming

MR: about of letting go of old belief systems; having 7 of the people closest to her pass and she is aware of not letting go of all the old “stuff”, asking about belief systems

CL: feels like a final purge – a lot of us are letting go of things: we are containers that have to let go so we can fill up with new vibrations.

RB: it is also about lightening the load!

T: in some of the astrologies it can very well mean letting go of family members, friends, who are not willing to let go – not about not loving them, but just a need to make more progress

RB: pretty much ready to present classes – has a much better connection:

MR: Skyping means there can be small class

Astrology: annie Rose

- looking at full moon in Dec – rest of the year is going to be full of action; time will fly by Nov 16, 7:30 am EST – full moon
- Minds will be more active, thinking outside the box – existing ideas likely to change, lots of push and pull – going to be about the armed forces, question will be re-addressed
- market may go up right now; will go up at the first of the year
- Last week of Nov, first week of Dec – people will take things to heart more than usual: be careful of what you say! Don't be pushy or “know-it-all”
  - Looks like some peoples egos will expand and expand: lots of hot air!

- Dreamed of Rama having new shoes – will be taking a trip somewhere

R: has to do with the bigger picture

- the election was a fraud: every single Republican stole the election:
- R was explaining to E T, his mechanic, about what happened
- R entered a contest a way back – e-mails from the Dems so he entered the contest: if he gets a call from the office, he will be prepared to go sit with The Man!
- The biggest story is not about the fraudulent election but solutions to the issue, has to do with Sananda and Captain Ashtar
- Yesterday, Dr Bassett send out 14 DVDs to each member of the Senate and Congress – 535 people many of them have sworn their allegiance to Lucifer / the dark ones
- Every single planet in our solar system has ships orbiting it – they are huge!

• Tom the Cat: Boehner pretty much threatened Obama

“ If you play with matches, you take the risk of burning yourself. Obama is going to burn himself if he continues down this path.”

“if you poison the well with Executive Orders, there will be h *** to pay”

- This is a threat, and the protection around all members of his famil has been upped exponentially by F3 white knights; there are many who would like him gone as he represents the thorn in the side of those who stole the elections.
- Photo of ET craft orbiting Saturn right now; could be up to 200 miles in diameter
  - Russia took a picture of it in May and holding on to it, and said they expect there are ships around all planets in the solar system

Guest: Clara Kemp

- an herbalist; her brother is the one who started a company, Advancing Eco Agriculture, having to do with farm nutrients, the one they hold the field day in the summer for at MR's farm

Name of company: Singing Cedars

Mission: to provide the most effective herbals medicines available; their extracts are not the usual tinctures

- will do whatever it takes to develop the most effective herbals they can

1. grow as many of their own herbs as possible

- uses a lot of her brother's fertiizers etc on what she grows
- grows plants with the intent of having highest medicinal compounds: 3-5 times more than the usual.
- has a great connection with her plants – the plants know what she wants to do: grows the plants with the intent of bringing love, health, and happiness into the world.

MR: using her herbs means we get more effective treatments because it is like having food that has real nutrition, not just empty calories!

CK: had a lot of health problems herself, wanted to treat herself naturally, went looking for products

- did not find any products that were really or with high medicinal compounds in them
- made her own for herself, for family and then for friends – have had good success with them

2. Created a process to extract the most medicinal compounds as possible from the herbs

- it's streamlined and better than most conventional processes used.

MR: How she works with people / what is a general thing for general good health / health maintenance?

Foundation Formula: a general foundation

- total body support for many of the body's organ systems; enhances immune function; stimulates, supports the endocrine cortex; supports and strengthens the muscular skeletal structure; helps build a strong central nervous system – an overall body support

- Originally created as a body structure system: to heal cuts, wounds, broken bones, improve muscle tone; found it had other good side-effects: energy level increased, feel much better over all

MR: How would a person use this? Economical? What about a 30 day plan using this? Packaging?

- 3 different sizes: 200 ml 100ml 50 ml – maintenance is 20 drops a day – the formulas are very potent!
  - a 50 ml bottle will last 6 weeks for $13

Other combinations with a systems approach

Stimulus – an immune enhancer - builds up the immune system to help fight off colds and flu

- Has used this one on people with full blown colds, not able to work; next day they are up & going!

CL: only took her 3 weeks to get over the cold she had! Would it be wise to take both foundation and Stimulus at the same time?

CK: yes – working together – they are made to work together: the sum is greater than the parts!

Voice Mail: 1-440-321-7815 – call and leave a message for questions, consultations, etc

MR: will help Clara by taking Paypal or credit card – not easy for her to do her consulting and do all this e-mail: stargatemarietta@gmail.com phone: 1-317- 773 - 0061

Harmony – to support and stabilize the endocrine cortex; designed to stabilize and balance the entire endocrine system; it stabilizes the hormone levels throughout the body;

- she does not do formulas for specific glands like the adrenal or the thyroid – such a focus can throw the whole body out of balance – she focusses on the system as a whole.
- this formula is to balance the hormones in your body and nourish it and support it for better energy levels and balance the hormones throughout the body

MR: we start out the Foundation and then add the stimulus and maybe the harmony: is this overload or like eating all the food groups?

CK: Foundation was designed to be the foundation of all the others

All of the formulas work well together

- If a person calls in with certain problems, she will take her individual formulas and combine them for a that person.

CL: live on a 25 acre farm in Ohio; 10 acres in herbs, the rest for food; they have a CSA market on the farm the soil is high in nutrients has always loved plants for as long as she can remember; talks to them

CL: probably came in as a plant shamaness!

CK: her brother who works on the farm; got finger caught between 2 gears; tore

- Had Clara look at it! Started him on foundation to build up his body, then put powdered herbs on it and bandaged him up – now cannot tell he had that accident.
- Had he gone to a doctor, would probably have lost the finger.

T: how did she learn how to improve on the medicinal value of the plants

CK: she reads extensively; lives in same house as her brother; the plants also told her

- Yes, she has run tests to experience the medicinal value of the plants

MR: she has gotten her experience through just doing it and from her family

Rainbird: asks what kind of herbs she grows; what she really enjoys growing

CK: not sure what varieties! Grows a lot! Rhymes off some of them

- Comfrey is one of her favourites; alfalfa; slippery elm tree

CL: what holds your attention about these plants.

CK: they are pretty, she has a strong connection with them; likes what they do in her formulas

- yes, she lives way out in the country. Middlefield is 3 miles from where she is; there is a chemical plant there;

- she has a formula that takes out chemical overloads from the fields and the body: called Clarity
- yes it would be good for Alzheimers – does take out some metals, but not all; more aimed at the pharmaceuticals & drugs we have in our body; chemicals like glysofates and the chemicals the mega farmers use. - not so much the heavy metals.

MR: looking at putting CL's catalogue on the New Age Technics website that MR has

CL: what if you wanted to take a number of formulas – can take them all together?

CK: TAKE THE CLARITY ALONE – it is like a detox; if you take it with the others, it magnifies the signatures of all the rest

- the other formulas can be taken with water in the morning; some people take them straight – however you want.
- Shelf Live ? They have a very long shelf life – up to 5 years! They are stable when they are done, and they hold their energy signature

MR: wise to keep them from electrical appliances, etc

CK: yes! She puts them in violet glass bodies which keeps positive energies in the body and the -ve ones out.

- Distance from a plug, a light etc - doesn't have to be that far away, not close to the microwave!
  - The glass bottles will help a lot – keep them in the kitchen cupboard.

T: asks about stuff for men in menopause – she is working on a formula called Prevail: not out there yet!

- Thinks it might be December – she has been working on it for a while.

Restore: designed to help re build tooth enamel and strengthen teeth and gums; has had success regrowing teeth cavities.

- If the diet is good, has had good success regrowing tooth enamel.
- Also stops pain from cavities and the teeth
- begin by making sure para thyroid is functioning well – not sure how to test for that
  - take something like Harmony to support the immune system in general
  - yet in certain situations, a particular gland will need a lot of support and she has formulas from others that would help: she would use the Harmony as well.

Other combinations

Pulse: strengthens the heart and supports cardio vascular system

- it heals the blood; allows the blood to vortex through the veins the way it was intended to so the heart does not have to work so hard
- If a diabetic: she has used Pulse with one person; helped – Pulse has lots of different herbs in it that increase amount of oxygen in the blood; strengthen the arteries and veins; helps get blood flowing in the body; DONOT USE IT IF USING BLOOD THINNING MEDS
- Balancing blood sugar? Has no formula for that.
- High blood pressure: Pulse will stabilize the blood pressure whether it is too high or low
  - Diet is always important! Will take at least an hour to discuss!

- Has no website: she is Amish so has no access to a computer, at least easily: MR is helping her with this via Marietta's New Technics website

T: this is awesome: she chose a life style that helped her tune into the plants and what they had to say!

Phone #: 440-321-7815 and leave a message.

Cost: 200 ml: $40 – 6 months; 100 ml - $24 – 3 months ; 50 ml -$13 – 1.5 months

Other formulas

Breathe – support lungs and bronchial tubes; clears lungs of mucus

Surge – to help digestion

MR: has a catalogue Stargatemarietta@gmail.com

or call MR at 317-773-0061

Summary:

Foundation Formula: a general foundation

- total body support for many of the body's organ systems; enhances immune function; stimulates, supports the endocrine cortex; supports and strengthens the muscular skeletal structure; helps build a strong central nervous system – an overall body support

Pulse: strengthens the heart and supports cardio vascular system

- it heals the blood; allows the blood to vortex through the veins the way it was intended to so the heart does not have to work so hard
- If a diabetic: she has used Pulse with one person; helped – Pulse has lots of different herbs in it that increase amount of oxygen in the blood; strengthen the arteries and veins; really helps get blood flowing in the body – DO NOT USE IT WITH BLOOD THINNING MEDICATIONS.
- High blood pressure: Pulse will stabilize the blood pressure whether it is too high or low
  - Diet is always important! Will take at least an hour to discuss!

Harmony – to support and stabilize the endocrine cortex; designed to stabilize and balance the entire endocrine system; it stabilizes the hormone levels throughout the body;

- she does not do formulas for specific glands like the adrenal or the thyroid – such a focus can throw the whole body out of balance – she focusses on the system as a whole.
- this formula is to balance the hormones in your body and nourish it and support it for better energy levels and balance the hormones throughout the body

Clarity: a formula that takes out chemical overloads from the fields and the body

- yes it would be good for Alzheimers – does take out some metals, but not all;
- aimed mostly at the pharmaceuticals & drugs we have in our body; chemicals like glyphosphates and the chemicals the mega farmers use. - not so much the heavy metals.

Restore: designed to help re build tooth enamel and strengthen teeth and gums; has had success regrowing teeth cavities.

- If the diet is good, has had good success regrowing tooth enamel.
- Also stops pain from cavities and the teeth

Breathe – support lungs and bronchial tubes; clears lungs of mucus

Surge – to help digestion

She does NOT HAVE, at the moment:

- a formula for balancing blood sugar
- formula for men in menopause, currently working on a formula called Prevail:ready in December some time

Hard News:

T: Boehner threatening Pres of US is as if he did the crime – needs to be dealt with!

- has already committed treason on the Congress floor by handing out personal cheques from the profits of the tobacco business to other members

Mitch McConnell: reads an article about his father-in-law

[SEE BELOW]

"40kg Of Cocaine Found On Mitch McConnell's Father-In-Law's Boat"

- The Dutch Royal family is mentioned in the article: she reminds us they are Nazis; the royals and the Thyssens of Germany sponsored the Schirffs to come to the US; they changed their names at Ellis Island to BUSH!
  - They were supported to bring the 4th Reich to the US; followed The Protocols of the Elders of Zion
  - they are not from earth, but came through the Caucasus Mountains as Khazarians, and adopted the religion of the Jews – they were not Jews.
- Mitch married into super wealth: the article reveals McConnell's attitudes to using coal and who he is supporting!
  - The company's website is blank; info about it is hard to get – most of their vessels are flagged in Liberia

Tom the Cat: the Republicans are part & parcel of the story about a weaponized version of Ebola so it was delivered by Chow's ships to Liberia and handed over the US chemical company and handed out to the people

R: Liberia is a libertarian paradise: have no health care or facilities to handle serious health matters; gov't is small; lax regulation

T: Rana Mu confirmed that one portion of the Fulford report is true:

[SEE BELOW: THE TEXT IS HIGHLIGHTED]

- Last week, evidence has emerged that the corporation of the US has been shut down
  - Reminder to take money out of the big banks: they are doing genocide and gambling on the future of the children: this is why they have been shut down by the White Knights and others, and why those in the Congress and Senate will be going, going, gone!
- It means the big banks will be going down – all the way down!

Question of the European economy going down – there is a huge war going on between David Cameron of Great Britain, Hollande of France and Italy vs the EU – they are NOT making their budgets to include only 3% of deficit budgeting! And basically saying to the EU: go ahead, try and make us!

Nov 4: Ralph Nader completely bad-mouthed Nancy Pelosi and called her worthless!

Nader received over $2 Million from Shelly Adelson – this from Mr X, Katherine to Rama

Abby Martin: she is on RT tv & has some libertarian tendencies of Ron Paul and accepted $2 MILLION from him; it's dirty money from the Vatican, given to Ron Paul to go after Obama, etc etc

- Obama is called the deporter-in-chief AND IT IS NOT HIM AT ALL! It is incomprehensible to most citizens as to what is really going on
  - Annie said that the spiritual energy and what is coming in through the astrology is telling us things are getting better: we are letting go of the old because it is not useful any more; it's excess baggage.
- We are souls in bodies which are our vehicles to take our souls into this house-keeping process on the planet – this is our mandate! To take this knowledge and support to others. And we all volunteered to clear this up together.

George Galloway: accepted $1 million from Rand Paul!

- People in the Light community and connected with dinars and dongas are also compromised. Put this in the Circle of Support.

Nov 5: Nancy Pelosi called Rama!

2007 was the last time this happened. She told R then that St Germaine was in charge, and that this was a galactic operation. They were to let things happen so the scoundrels would expose themselves.

This time, she said Don't think this is the end – this sweeping steal [reference to the election!] is not the end; they have no power; they will be ground up for dog food!

[She was acting president from Oct 1 – Nov 4th when Obama was President-elect when McCain stepped down at 11:11]

- Said Ralph Nader has been bought and paid for by Shelly Adelson [R already knew this]
- Said Mitch McConnell is not long for this world

R: Cannot serve two masters: when you are the majority leader of the senate and have lobbyists who are in dark places: the very idea of lobbyists, bribes, murder, drug-running, arms deals is too much!

- This goes into story of ISIL: all CIA duh and 9/11 was an inside job
- Osama bin Laden is not dead, nor Saddam housein – this is all about clones; as the truth is revealed with the 14 DVDs the members of Congress have, and remember the word used by Chris Story: Obfuscation - which is what has been going on: how do you begin to explain a story that is aeons and aeons long about an invading & occupying culture that does not come from earth, and has been infiltrating and changing timelines since the beginning?

T: there will be enough members of Congress to get out and speak about the truth:

Dennis Kucinich, Mike Ravell, Barbara Lee, Nancy Pelosi and others

R: George Filer and others connected with Gene Roddenberry and those connected with Star Trek – they know, too

T: talks about going with Rainbird to see a presentation by Stephen Greer – beautiful pictures of ships as seen in all countries around the world

R: Every single planet in our solar system has space ships circling it

- It was a space ship, not a comet, that approached and circled Mars.
- Mr Putin, Pres XI, Pres Obama will be talking about disclosure
- a Chinese speaker at the Citizens Conference showed some jade carvings that are extremely old and that are of ET s – Chinese people are fully accepting of this reality

- China does not have democracy, given what happened in Hong Kong with the students' demands – at least there was no Tianimen Square!!!

- it is only an illusion that it is different in the US – we have just seen Nazi collaborator Republicans take over by stealing, by disenfranchising voters and, against the Constitution, suppressing the vote of all kinds of people

- Only 31% voted, the millenials did not vote as they see no choice

- Obama has said he is willing to work with both sides, but he is going to get something done!

- When we hear entitlement reform: it means complete elimination of pension benefits, social security, etc and we also hear the words: “tax cuts for the rich”

- Other countries in Europe, China, Russia are outraged and will not cooperate with the Republicans – the whole world is laughing at the US

- In Brussels, over 100,000 people in the streets saying shove it to austerity

R talks about a man on the Max Keiser report who wrote a book about Bit Coin and asked if it is the future of money? Yet NESARA will change that too.

Greg Palast: was on the Leslie Marshall show - said it was a complete fraud – entire election rigged!

- people walked in and there were no ballots where people of colour were to vote – or the machines were broken down for hours!
- Votes got switched [flipped by the machines] could see it even while they were in the voting

booths in New Mexico, Tennessee, Kentucky, Georgia, Florida,

R: this is not happy news

T: yes it is – they are exposed, and these last decisions will be reversed as they need to be

R: Carl Boudreau – the energies ARE lightening up – has to do with our visitors

Larry, Curly, Mo: these criminals swear allegiance to the Club of Rome & their illusionary satanic rituals

- Ruth Ginsberg knows about NESARA & wants to see NESARA enacted, but her hands are tied in the life-long position of a royal elitest club in which she sits [Supreme Court of the US]

Astrology status for Nov 3rd - by Carl Boudreau

INFORMATION RELATED TO THE NOTES

2014, Oct 31

"40kg Of Cocaine Found On Mitch McConnell's Father-In-Law's Boat"

by Man Oh Man

<http://www.dailykos.com/story/2014/10/31/1340696/-40kg-Of-Cocaine-Found-On-Mitch-McConnell-s-Father-In-Law-s-Boat?detail=email>

James Chao, father of Mitch McConnell's wife Elaine, has a lot of questions to answer after 40 kilograms of cocaine (about $6.7 million worth) was found on the Ping May, a ship owned by the Foremost Group, a company James Chao founded and led to a tidy fortune. But was that fortune built on honest movement of legitimate bulk trade goods, or has Mr. Chao been trading in less than legal goods?

The cocaine, found in 40 separate packages, was discovered during a routine inspection hidden among a load of coal bound for Europe from the port of Santa Marta, Columbia onboard the Ping May, one of 15 ships Foremost currently operates, with another 8 under construction. The final destination for the ship was to be the Netherlands, likely one of the port cities surrounding Amsterdam. It is known that the Ping May has been witnessed at the port of Zaanstad, one of these cities, in the past.

Foremost Group is the source of most of Senator McConnell's fortune through gifts and inheritance from his in-laws. It is a shadowy corporation, utilizing a complex scheme of shell companies to skip out on millions in taxes annually.

addictinginfo

There is some additional information at the link which may lead to other conversations but this part of the story may be the one that gets the most attention.

From The Nation:

Foremost acts as a shipping agent, purchasing vessels made primarily in China and coordinating shipment of commodities. Records reviewed by The Nation reveal that Foremost transports corn, chemicals and other goods to cities throughout the world. The company has offices in New York and Hong Kong.

Some of the goods shipped by Foremost echo themes of the McConnell campaign. At a Young Professionals Association of Louisville event this month, McConnell stressed his opposition to carbon dioxide limits imposed by the federal government that would impact the domestic coal market. He argued that such efforts would be fruitless given the role of coal in developing countries and the rising coal trade. Foremost ships routinely transport coal from ports in Australia and Colombia, countries with cheap coal, for export to Asia and Europe.

The firm, however, leaves a faint online trace. Foremost's website FMCNY.com is blank. Records and court documents obtained by The Nation show that the ownership of the company's vessels—with names such as Ping May, Soya May, Fu May and Grain May—is obscured through a byzantine structure of tax entities. Most of Foremost's vessels are flagged in Liberia, which ensures that crew members of Foremost's ships work under Liberia's maritime labor laws, which critics note allow for intimidation in the workplace and few protections for labor unions. In addition, a Liberian "flag of convenience" allows ship owners to pay lower tonnage taxes than ships that fly the US flag. Maritime companies have increasingly used the Marshall Islands to register their vessels. The jurisdiction boasts of "no taxation, lax regulation, and no requirements for disclosure of many corporate details—even to the United States government," according to a report in World Policy Journal.

2014, Oct 28 Ben Fulford ~ The Battle For The Planet Earth Is Reaching A Climax

“The goal is to have a multi-polar world along with reformed international institutions capable of ending poverty and stopping environmental destruction. It is not to replace the dictatorship of the US secret government with the dictatorship of the Chinese communist party.” – B Fulford

The battle over the psychological process of deciding what humanity does in the future is reaching a climax. The most dramatic development is probably the fact that the so-called ISIS campaign is now becoming a civil war within the military industrial complex of the sort seen during the last years of the Roman republic.

Also, the old cabal is ramping up its ebola fear campaign in the US even as it is being damped down elsewhere. The 188 nation BRICS alliance, for its part, continues to seek new friends for peaceful development and is succeeding in drawing England, France, Germany and Japan into its orbit.

The BRICS alliance members will make sure the world does not trade US unipolar hegemony for Chinese hegemony. Last week Japanese military forces staged simultaneous military drills with Russia and the United States. The United States military in Japan welcomed this move.

<http://www.bloomberg.com/news/2014-10-26/just-500-miles-apart-japan-forces-hold-drills-with-russia-u-s-.html>

Russia has also staged drills with India, even as the US stages repeated drills with many countries in Asia. This is all aimed at China, multiple sources agree.

According to Marco Di Mauro of the Italian P2 Freemason lodge, in 2008, the last time he went to Asia to negotiate a new financial system with the Chinese, they demanded 80% control of the world's assets. More recently, he says he was forced to cancel a trip to Asia because he was warned by the Italian secret service the Chinese were planning to have him killed in Manila.

Di Mauro also says that a “Vatican congregation manager” by the name of Rienzi Franco met with Chinese secret service agents in Hong Kong in 2011 and offered China $13 trillion.

If this above is all true, it goes against the deal the White Dragon Society made with the Asians which was that there would be a 50/50 split between East and West with each retaining veto power over their own region.

The point being made by all the drills is that if China tries to take sole control of the planet, there will be war because India, Russia, Japan, Europe, the United States and many other countries will not let that happen.

The goal is to have a multi-polar world along with reformed international institutions capable of ending poverty and stopping environmental destruction. It is not to replace the dictatorship of the US secret government with the dictatorship of the Chinese communist party.

In any case, the brinkmanship is on the rise these days because the governments of the US, the EU and the UN are all showing visible signs of insolvency.

Last week, for example, evidence emerged the United States of America Corporation has been shut down. The corporation has been removed from the Dun & Bradstreet corporate data base. In addition, the Puerto Rican government's site lists the:

“Supreme Council Of The United States States Of America Atlantic Jurisdiction Grand Orient”
<https://prcorpiling.f1hst.com/CorpInfo/CorporationInfo.aspx?c=73-122&m=oce> as “cancelled” (cancelado).

According to British MI5 intelligence, this is the entity that presided over the East Coast of the United States of America, including Washington D.C., Yale University and Skull and Bones. Its' mandate was cancelled by the French Freemason Grand Orient Lodge, the source said.

This is almost certainly connected to the many suspicious deaths of J.P. Morgan bankers since J.P. Morgan is controlled by the Skull and Bones Bush clan. One aim of the attacks on J.P. Morgan insiders is to gain access to a database of over 119,000 people, including President Barack Obama, who are receiving bribes from the Bushes, according to a CIA source in Asia.

The same source also says there are daily shouting matches in the White House these days, often between Michelle Obama and top presidential adviser Valerie Jarrett. Michelle Obama appears to be getting the best of these encounters, he notes.

A further indication of insolvency in the US is that the Internal Revenue Service has started arbitrarily seizing bank accounts owned by individuals with no criminal or tax evasion record. In the past we have received reports from people who claimed the US government raided safety deposit boxes and also arbitrarily stole millions and in one case hundreds of millions from them. What is different this time is that they are going after accounts with less than $10,000 in them.

<http://rt.com/usa/199883-irs-structuring-civil-asset-forfeiture/>

There was also another sign that it is not business as usual for the Federal Reserve Board to be seen on the Chinese government's Xinhua News site. It is a series of eight photographs showing a meeting at the Federal Reserve Board with the subtitle "Fed Board Governors held an open meeting to discuss a final rulemaking requiring sponsors of securitization transactions to retain risk in those transactions."

http://news.xinhuanet.com/english/photo/2014-10/23/c\_133735725\_2.htm

What this means is that the derivatives worth in theory hundreds of trillions (according to the BIS), and even quadrillions and quintillions according to intelligence agency sources, that are keeping many megabanks afloat will have to be taken off the books. The banks cannot retain risk in transactions that are worth far more than world GDP because there is no reality to back them. Chinese sources are saying that allowable leverage from now on will be returned to the 10 times maximum historical experience shows to be sustainable. Right now in the US, thanks to President Bill Clinton, it is 100 times.

The EU, for its part, has suddenly, out of the blue, asked the British to fork over two billion Euros by November 1st and is trying to hit up several other countries as well. This sudden request for cash is for an amount that is suspiciously similar to what Russia is asking for in payment of Ukraine's unpaid gas bills.

The EU has also suddenly added black market drugs and prostitution to their GDP figures in order to make their economies appear healthier and bigger than previously reported.

The UN, for its part, last week out of the blue asked Japan to fork over $1 billion for "climate change."

The desperate cabalists are also trying to stir up trouble in new regions. Last week people connected to former US president Bill Clinton contacted the White Dragon Society to make threats to start a nuclear war between Pakistan and India. Sure enough the threats were followed by artillery barrages between Indian and Pakistani forces in the disputed region of Kashmir.

India and Pakistan have acted badly over Kashmir ever since independence. It is as if in the story of two women asking King Solomon to decide who is the mother of a disputed baby, they both agreed with Solomon's decision to cut it in half. Both India and Pakistan are parents of Kashmir and they should give birth to an independent Kingdom of Kashmir that can become a free trade and friendship zone between the two giant neighbours. Then cabal troublemakers will no longer be able to stir up trouble in that region.

The ISIS situation is also now an obvious cabal civil war by proxy. American and Israeli agents are using American weapons to shoot down American air-force planes for reasons that have nothing to do with the US.

Meanwhile there is lots going on this week in the X-files category. First of all, Vincenzo Mazzara of the P2 freemason lodge wrote to say the black sun they worship is the Zoroastrian god. He went on to say “the dark energy is everywhere in this dimension...my mission is to erect a temple to the Black Hole, the real lord of the universe.” He adds that the dark matter has “recently entered the solar wind and the earth’s atmosphere is transforming into X-rays.”

His evidence was the recent appearance of a pumpkin face on the sun.

<http://fox6now.com/2014/10/11/pumpkin-sun-picture-snapped-by-scientists-shows-jack-o-lantern-face/>

This appearance was followed by major solar flares and, likely as a result, US, Japanese and European weather satellites went offline last week.

Furthermore, we can confirm through MI5 British Intelligence that last week NASA abruptly terminated live coverage of a comet approaching Mars after a planet sized explosion suddenly appeared there. Here is a link to an independently filmed video of that explosion:

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Sx3WdyOihH8>

A US based source who correctly predicted the trouble in the Ukraine and the disappearance of the Malaysian airliner, says the “the US Mars base was destroyed.” British intelligence confirmed that contrary to what the world public has been told, the US did in indeed have people on Mars.

A spokesperson for Japan’s national observatory said “if NASA is not going to comment on that, then certainly we won’t either.”

This writer was also contacted over the phone recently by people claiming to be part of the group that seized the US underground bases. They say they found people in cages and signs of gruesome genetic experiments. The bases remain closed to prevent the Western cabal elite from fleeing to them, the sources say.

In any case, the X-files stuff will matter when we actually see it affecting our daily lives. For now, if the White Dragon Society and their allies win the battle here on the surface of the planet earth, there will be major visible changes. First of all, all US and allied armed forces will be redeployed to put an immediate stop to world environmental destruction. They will also act to stop all ongoing conflicts on the planet immediately.

The UN and other international institutions will be fundamentally reformed, poverty will be ended and an era of unimaginable prosperity will begin here on earth. Then, hopefully, the quarantine this planet is obviously under will end and we can visit the rest of the universe.

2014, Nov 3 Carl Boudreau~ Astrology Status for November 3, 2014, A Scary November If You Want It to Be

'Scary' November

November is a very, very cleverly disguised version of the pattern we've been seeing now for several months. We have a few clusters of hard, pointy – i.e., scary – aspects scattered among a mix of soft, twinkly aspects.

Some scary things will happen, though not as many or as scary as a lot of people fear. Other scary things will seem like they're going to happen, but they won't.

The hard pointy aspects will doubtless knock a few big chunks of hard karma loose. But things will not slip into chaos. Soon after, things will return to what seems to be the new normal.

A New Mood

The new normal is a new, mixed mood. This mood blends optimism, uncertainty, and doubt. It is lace with fear and the occasional feeling of panic. The fear arises partly from memories of recent hardship. It arises partly from the release into consciousness – the purging – of deeply ingrained negative patterns.

The harsh energetic conditions of recent years are too close behind. New, improved energetic conditions have yet to take hold. They are arriving toward the end of December, still a few weeks away. This current, transitional period, then, will bring continuing bouts of anxiety and emotional instability, individually and collectively.

The Worst That Can Be Said

The cumulative effects of our collective unease, coupled with the effects of the aspects themselves, could push any number of the political and economic crises currently simmering in the world into the red, at least momentarily.

Military tensions and military activity could flare. Perhaps we will see more temporary stock market gyrations.

Problematic natural conditions, like the drought in California or the lava flows in Hawaii, could turn critical, temporarily.

Nationally and internationally, I am expecting transient peaks of political and economic turbulence. However, it is highly unlikely that November's astrological waves will capsize the big ships of state or tip the world into depression and war.

That simply is not what these vibes are about. I cannot stress this strongly enough. These astrological conditions will not support major, long-term adverse events. The worst we need fear are panic and ugly moods and their unfortunate effects on events.

On the individual level, we will almost certainly know or hear of individuals who suffer adversity. In most cases, though, despite the dark moods and scattered panic, November will most likely just rock our boats a bit without actually sinking any of them. In the end, November will confirm our hopes and validate our optimism, not our fears.

I don't want to minimize the seriousness of the violence or adversity that will strike in November. November's aspects, like those of previous months, will probe for economic, political and physical weakness. And it will find some.

November's energies will test us emotionally and materially. But, when all is said and done, things will be nowhere near as bad as they might at first appear to us. And options will continue to develop.

November's Worst Moment

Consider November 9-13. The worst of November's aspects occur over this time period. (All times are UT, Universal Time.)

Nov. 9th – Moon SEXTILE Uranus retrograde

Nov. 9th – Moon SEXTILE Jupiter

Nov. 9th – Venus square Jupiter

Nov. 10th – Moon TRINE Mercury

Nov. 10th – Moon TRINE Neptune retrograde

Nov. 10th – Mars conjunct Pluto

Nov. 11th – Moon opposite Pluto

Nov. 11th – Moon opposite Mars

Nov. 11th – Moon square Uranus retrograde

Nov. 11th – Moon TRINE Sun

Nov. 12th – Mercury TRINE Neptune retrograde

Nov. 12th – Moon TRINE Venus

Nov. 12th – Moon TRINE Saturn

Nov. 13th – Venus conjunct Saturn

Nov. 13th – Mars square Uranus retrograde

Nov. 13th – Moon square Mercury

Nov. 13th – Moon TRINE Uranus retrograde

The 'Bad' News

There are 17 aspects over this five day period. Nine of these are positive (upper case), 8 are negative, broadly defined. Of the 8 negative aspects, four or possibly five (underlined>, are likely to cause concrete negative events.

But notice that Uranus is retrograde, weakening its ability to cause concrete events in the outer world. While retrograde, Uranus is more likely to cause inner, subjective events or, perhaps, just heated discussion.

November's negative aspects might trigger a short cascade of negative events related to October's eclipses. They might be a few shades darker because of the coming Uranus/Pluto aspect, but not much.

The long-standing Uranus/Pluto square will be exact for the 6th time on December 15, about a week before Saturn enters Sagittarius. This Uranus/Pluto square was exact for the first time in June 2012. The last will be in March 2015.

The Uranus/Pluto square is really old news. This recurrence in December will be a faint echo of its first occurrence. It is highly unlikely to cause any lasting issues. We might not even notice its effects as anything out of the ordinary. It is unlikely to intensify the effects of November's difficult aspects, much. Our darkish moo, however, could either intensify or exaggerate their ill effects.

The Good News

So, many factors will soften the effects of the bad aspects occurring around November 10th and 11th. Other influences strengthen the good aspects.

The 9 positive aspects are strengthened by the ongoing positive energy shift, and the retreat of the long series of admittedly harsh, disruptive aspects of recent years.

The long and the short of it is, as already noted, there will very likely be some negative events to mark the passing of these difficult aspects. However, we must understand them for what they are.

They are a small cluster of hard, pointy aspects floating in a generous mix of moody but soft and twinkly aspects. Also, they occur as the hard energies of recent years fade and the more supportive energies are about to come into effect.

Pick Your Mood

In recent months, it seemed that we could choose to see the positive or the negative potentials in our lives. In that way, we could choose success or failure, or temporary failure anyway.

What seems to me to be different about November is that both negative and positive interpretations of events will bring a positive outcome. There will be a positive outcome no matter how dark our mood or how pessimistic our mindset.

The hold of pessimism and negativity over our minds will weaken as the Saturn Sagittarius ingress approaches. It will be replaced by a more realistic, matter-of-fact approach to challenges. The harsh aspects are losing their grip on the course of events.

2014, Nov 2 I Ching For The Week of November 3, 2014

#49 Ge Skinning/Revolution

Above: Dui Open, responsive, free

Below: Li Radiant, articulate

The Wisdom: Change!
Stripping away the old skin.
Making way for Revolution

One thing is a constant in our universe, that is change, and now as there is a great shifting of energies on planet earth, so it will reflect for sure in your personal life.

Necessity and opportunity are now combined, making this a rarified time where your power to make positive change is at its most dynamic. It is a time that can carry you to heights you have not before imagined. Don't rush or panic, there will be time to do what must be done. And have no doubts the changes you have thought and dreamed are active as never before.

When you read or hear this message from the ancient oracle, avoid the temptation to make changes purely for the sake of change. Be present. Seek wise council when necessary. Don't let your ego keep you from asking for assistance from a wise person in your tribe when you feel you are missing something in the process. This will be of benefit to family, tribe and relationships as all moves toward the benefit of the greater good.

Carefully consider each move you deem necessary, consider all aspects and ramifications of your action; then make that move the focal point of your meditation. In stillness you will be shown the proper time to take action or to discard a particular action. Moving in this way, you can build a solid foundation from which to launch your revolution, your re-evolution, and the change that will allow you to achieve supreme success.

Prepare yourself for change. To be ready and confident that you will receive the bounty of change that is coming, you must be steady, healthy, and have a calm and quiet mind. To be a successful revolutionary you must be strategic and have a definite plan.

This time in your cycle is a time of abundance, but abundance without a strong vessel to contain it can slip away quickly and send you into a descent that could take many cycles from which to recover. Don't risk it. Know that what has taken you to this point, no matter how beautiful and loving, or disappointing and frustrating, it has given you the ability to have a very clear vision of what needs to be done and how to behave. Trust this vision now and act accordingly.

Be fully in your body when you feel the pain of internal revolution, this is suffering, and suffering paves the way for you to live in freedom with dignity and compassion. As this destined change, this revolution, is happening, be and speak your truth.

Remember, you cannot hurt anyone with words or actions that are of truth; it is the choice of the other to take truth and attempt to subvert it by calling it hurt, hoping to be relieved of taking responsibility for their own contribution to the situation and their selfish efforts to be in control.

The world you once knew is no longer. The image of this hexagram is that of metal over fire. The metal is molten and represents the cycle that is in transformation, waiting to take a new form, to become a new, creative, beneficial force.

The symbolism of this hexagram, Ge, tells us in no uncertain terms that we have entered a new era—not by choice, but as a result of our destiny.

If your timing is off and you jump too soon or miss the time of action, you will not go gently into that good night—you will be metaphorically skinned. And that will be unpleasant, dramatic, time-consuming, and surely emotionally and psychologically painful. Now you are being given a choice: you can kick your addiction to pain, suffering, and drama with the understanding that you have set it up this way, in order to feed the bottomless pit of frozen needs of old patterns and knee-jerk responses. The choice you are given is one we don't get very often. Either be conscious and attentive to details and with this awareness use your intuition and/or the advice of a sage, the wise person in your tribe of fellows, as to when you will take this action or jump in carelessly feigning bravery and sink back to old ways, behaviors and beliefs.

Timing is of the essence. You will know the right time to creatively make the necessary changes by trusting your inner voice of wisdom and awareness that arises in stillness. Trust that you will be guided well by intuition, which will illuminate the right time and place to shed your skin.

Place becomes as important as time in this case. Choose a sacred space for this dance of transformation. It may be an actual place where you can feel the trust to go into your depths. Invite the one, or ones, who are sacred to you to be present, as you do not have to do this alone, not anymore, because what you are going through is happening all around you. Speak up, speak your truth, speak of where you are in the inner dance, and take partners. You will be surprised at how many in your milieu are in the same dance, so join together and do the dance. It will be a new seriousness, and it will be joyful.

When a skin is shed or cut away, what is revealed are new ways of being. You are left raw, delicate, and vulnerable. You will enter one of the most vulnerable times in this personal cycle and of Earth herself. It is of great benefit to be the fierce warrior goddess or hero as you use truth to complete and support your process. As you are shedding, you will clearly see what has been disharmonious or dysfunctional in your life. As previously ignored or denied issues and attitudes reveal themselves—and they assuredly will—shed them along with the metaphorical skin that is being cast aside.

Be strategic now. Look to your old habits. See the ones generated by , shame, fear and doubt, and with intent do process to let them go. Literally change your thought process. Words and language are codes that reach the sanctum sanctorum of your heart and soul and manifest as realities. Hear the inner words that are negative or are of no use, and literally correct your self-talk.

Prepare yourself for change. To be ready and confident that you will receive the bounty of change that is coming. You must be steady, healthy, and have a calm and quiet mind.

Just knowing that the time of radical revolution is here is not enough. For a revolution to be successful, it must start within. To be believed, you must first believe in yourself. The human condition is a mystery. It often brings us to ask the unanswerable question: Why me? So the first action is to get that weak plea out of the way; then the road to revolution, radical change, will become clear—you will manifest it. In fact, you have already manifested it but, as you walk through this gauntlet of fear, shame and doubt, you will find you have been wearing blinders, seeing only the old ways. You will not make it through if you are worried about what others in your tribe, family, company, or relationship think. It doesn't matter. This journey is yours, not theirs.

Abundance referred to in this text has many parts. It may be money, love, place, happiness, recognition, health, or any combination of these things. Prepare yourself to receive by making the conscious decision to be conscious of change and to ignite revolution. In this way you make ready the vessel to receive. This is, in part, the alchemical formula that begets revolution—learning to receive, with humility and dignity. The other components are trust and confidence in your inner knowing; clear your mind and trust the messages from within.

There is a grand opportunity now to change your old ways of thinking and being. By doing so, you can and will change your world and our world. This is our responsibility as we awaken as aware and conscious beings.

Don't give up your ideals and don't compromise. Be firm, compassionate, and kind as you grow a new and beautiful, luminescent skin to take the place of that which you shed on your journey.

As you are losing that old skin of stale and useless modes of thinking and behavior, it will benefit you to move with the rhythm of the earth.....dance, sing and be joyous. This is the signal to spirit that you are present and willing to receive what you have worked so hard to achieve and acquire.

With feet planted firmly on the ground say again, and again, and loudly...I AM HERE...
