"Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it."
Prov. 22:6

Haven of Hope Parenting Classes will empower Christian and non-Christian parents with Biblical principles and skills, training children "in the way they should go!" So as children age and mature, they will not depart from the principles they have learned from their parents; thereby making better parents for future generations. Forgetting the past, leading in the present, while striving towards the future step by step in excellence...
