

PAGE Grants
Promoting Active Global Education

The Northern Ohio Returned Volunteer Association (NORVA) offers PAGE Grants up to $300 (or more depending on project) in support of the Peace Corps' Third Goal of promoting a better understanding of other peoples on the part of all Americans. Any individual or organization can apply for PAGE Grants to support local projects that promote cross cultural understanding, international education, and/or global citizenship. The PAGE Grants are especially appropriate for educators, youth development workers, or active community organizers.

PAGE Grant Applicants

Any individual or organization can submit a proposal for a PAGE Grant to support a project within Northern Ohio that promotes cross cultural understanding, international education, and/or global citizenship. NORVA will consider all grant proposals that address one or more of the following goals related to global education:

- Promote awareness of world cultures and peoples
- Increase knowledge and deepen understanding of a particular region or country
- Compare and contrast cultures, history, peoples, and geography
- Promote the principles of global citizenship including cultural competency, non-English language skills, and commitment to the global community.

NORVA requests a picture or write up/presentation of the project, in some form, after its completion.

About NORVA

NORVA members include returned Peace Corps Volunteers (RPCV's), family and friends of current Peace Corps Volunteers, VISTA volunteers and any other interested community members. NORVA incorporated in 1979 for the purpose of helping RPCV's fulfill the third goal of Peace Corps service which is "to bring the world back home." Throughout the years, NORVA has been involved in a variety of activities that provide assistance in the local community, raise awareness of international issues, and maintain connections with current Peace Corps projects throughout the world.
