FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Triangle TRACKS Kicks Off Spring Membership Drive April 6-27

Apex, N.C. (March 27, 2009) Triangle TRACKS, a resource directory and social network for Triangle parents located at <http://www.triangletracks.com> will hold its spring membership drive April 6-27.

For three weeks, Triangle TRACKS members will be able to invite friends to join the website, which simply requires that they register for a login. The member who yields the highest number of joined, invited members will win $365 worth of prizes provided by local businesses. Second and third place prizes will also be awarded. Visit http://www.triangletracks.com/notes/Membership_Drive_Prizes to see a list of the prizes.

Members can post blogs, forum discussions, photos and calendar events. They also receive emails twice a month containing links to other members' blogs and forum posts. Owner and Editor Elizabeth Shugg, explains how the website works to NBC 17 at this link: <http://www.triangletracks.com/page/triangle-tracks-press>.

The Triangle TRACKS April newsletter, which is free, just went out to subscribers yesterday and offers additional details on the Spring Membership Drive. To subscribe, email epshugg@triangletracks.com.

Triangle TRACKS' content focuses on education, museum exhibits, parks, youth sports, camps, music lessons, art lessons, performing arts studios, birthday party venues, amusement centers, restaurants, childcare facilities, healthcare resources, children's trends and much more. The Triangle TRACKS calendar is updated daily and offers the Triangle's most comprehensive accumulation of children's events in the region. A team of Triangle TRACKers blog regularly about education, sports, trends, health, food and travel trends and news. You can learn more about them at http://www.triangletracks.com/notes/Triangle_TRACKers.
