Hard News:

- T: blessed because someone wants a reading which gave them a boost; need people to come forward now – have $221 – sending cheques to BBS radio assures that all the money gets to BBS and none goes to Paypal.
- This is blood sweat and tears time: 895,000 people have lost $90 / month: tells of a gal with 2 jobs and 3 kids: works 15 hours a day, 7 days a week.
 - those running the country are sociopaths
- R: as Randi Rhodes puts it: they are both sociopaths and psychopaths: have no shame and no empathy – we have to love them even more.
- We are at the end of the story: there is a craft - not sure whose craft is at the ISS but it is docked there, and no one wants to discuss it. It has inter-galactic implications.
 - R Rhodes says they watch you in the bathroom in Sochi!
 - And Blessed Annubis got to show up in the opening ceremony – as a stray dog.
 - 50 years ago today, Beatles started career in London; John will be back, how he does it is up to him.
 - R Rhodes talked about multi billionaire, Zeller ?? who was talking about how the media is picking on the job creators who need to be protected!
 - R talks about what is happening: the Al Jazeera story about the gal and 2 jobs; unarmed black boys being killed for walking the streets, being black – where is the justice?
- T: UN got down on the Vatican: Code of Silence imposed by the church on stories about the children.

- Kirsten Sandburg head of right of the child org: estimates number of children in tens of thousands; church has done nothing for the kids;
 - the Holy See has consistently placed the reputation of the church and the protection of the perpetrators above the best interests of the children; calling for an overhaul of Church policy
 - Vatican says it will review – the reporter says the most important accusation has to do with the conspiracy of silence; the tragedy is that the children were twice abused, first by the priests, and then betrayed by the higher ups in the church who did not help the children
 - on the shoulders of Francis: he has no intention of dealing with this – he says he will do his best to see this does not happen again. A systematic cover-up of child abuse – blunt criticism
 - Magdalene Laundries: forced labour of girls in Ireland; slavery of women and girls for hundreds of years; got pregnant by pedophile priests
 - Vatican still thinks they are above all laws.
- On Randi Rhodes, Mayor Dawn Zimmer: made it clear that Christie was guilty as sin and it is about 9/11, but she could say nothing about it
 - Greg Palast said it was also related to the Opus Die bunch in the Supreme Court: Scalia, Alito, Roberts do genocide of the masses for the church; last week, it was a journalist, the 5 bankers who died & did not commit suicide. Rama sent the article to KOS and has not heard back
 - The bankers in BIS – Nazis – are saying they are not in a deflation: arguments going back and forth and all can see that Europe is.
 - Aaron Rousseau 1999 produced the movie about Jekyll Island; Nicholas Rockefeller offered him lots of money and he said no. Now Aaron is no longer here.
 - Looks like Barack is not doing this or doing that or would have vetoed the Farm Bill: there is not cooperation intentionally - what is happening is a letting go

Audio: play the Pussy Riot group – they went to New York and addressed all kinds of activists – this Pussy Riot on the radio with Randi Rhodes.

2014, Feb 5 Pussy Riot members talk Putin and Sochi on Colbert

2/5/2014 10:25:15 AM by Eleni Stephen Colbert has received an official invitation to join Pussy Riot.

On last night's Report, Colbert conducted a two-part interview with Pussy Riot members Nadya Tolokonnikova and Masha Alyokhin, who were released from prison on December 23 after being incarcerated for almost two years. (They maintain their release was a PR stunt, not a true pardon.) In the clip below, Colbert questions the women on they hate Vladimir Putin so much, Russia's anti-gay laws, and whether or not they're afraid of going back to jail. And in turn, Tolokonnikova and Alyokhin suggest Colbert can join Pussy Riot—if he agrees to call Putin first.

Clooney talks Monuments Men (and Bieber) on The Daily Show
<http://www.thecomedynetwork.ca/blogs/2014/02/dailyshow-feb5>

2/6/2014 11:05:38 AM by Eleni

George Clooney is offended by Justin Bieber. During his interview on last night's Daily Show, Clooney seized the opportunity to publicly express his distaste over a recent photo in which the egg-vaulting pop star licks \(or maybe bites?\) a stripper's nipple (NSFW). "I was offended," Clooney said, pulling out his best prim-old-aunt voice.

But enough about Bieber. Clooney was appearing on the show to promote his new film, The Monuments Men, about a group of Allied soldiers who tried to rescue priceless art in the final stages of the Second World War. And in the interview below, Stewart and Clooney throw around some "what ifs" for how the war could have been avoided altogether.

Conference Call:

T: on Al Jazeera tonight, a woman was interviewed who lived in the town where the children were poisoned and killed; she went through the story and watched members of her family die and she made it through; before the incident, during it, and after it we were dying and what do we know about this? Caller: another banker suicided!

T: did someone help him out?

Caller: Killed himself with a nail gun, with 8 nails in his body – found in workshop.

- Curious that this is happening in the same week that we got the news that the Dow went to 0
 - posted a graphic on webside showing Dow Jones falling
- Next day went up 188 points – it was hedge fund roll. There are multiples of hedge funds going and every 2 weeks, they make $400 million out of $100 million. And they get the money through quantitative easing: just give themselves more money.

Caller: whose side will Janet Yellin be on?

T: she is a place holder, and the fraud all around her goes on.

- Why did Christie create a job for Wildstein?
- Years ago, Christie created a job for Wildstein at the Port Authority. Now Team Christie is attacking Wildstein's character.

Lawrence O'Donnell talks to Brian Murphy & Andrea Bernstein.

- One of the main points is that the Port Authority is a bi-state operation [NJ and NY] and that it controls the airports as well as the bridges; it also controls the area on which the Twin Towers stood and which is now being prepared as a memorial site. The PA was also responsible for the morgue and disposing of the bodies!!!

Mother Sekhmet

Greetings in the Light of the Most Radiant One. In the Office of the Christ and only in the office of the Christ, we invoke the loving energies of St Germain and the Violet Flame.

- Mr 19.5* has this one! It is about the next evolutionayr leap for humanity, what we are waiting for, that only gets discussed on Art Bell and George Noory – having the presence of our neighbours relegated to 2-5 in the morning.
 - It is an issue that needs to be in the light of the noon day sun!All the things that are unravelling in the midst of the divine dance of chaos with Pele, Dirga, Sekhmet, Kali – returning
 - as the energies increase in dimension – respect what is going on in your bodies because the energies are being met with – gotta drink lots of water, working with the energies that are coming in – they are coming from the centre of Milky Way Galaxy – straight from the Void, unfiltered.
 - The scientists only share one side of the story the other side is the hyperdimensional story about how the universes overlap each other; we interact with each other in the 'hood.
 - At this time we bring up again the craft at the space station: interesting view point from our perspective – it is about the next step which needs more attention at the moment than Chris Christie
- What we are looking for is already here: the River Dance has begun along the shores of the mighty river, It is about the ancient story of Don and Dannin; how we all came here and now we are here and we have gone full circle: we would say in the moment of one hand clapping at this time is what humanity is waking up to: divinity in motion, in spite of the horror stories about the whores of Wall Street.
- Our economies are in the crapper; time to flush it. The next leap on evolution: mutant and proud of it - what is happening within our celss - for the first time in so many eons, for so many of us: we are finding out what it is to be creator gods. Don't blow it! With great abilties comes great responsibility.
 - we have already turned the tide: Maharishi said humanity has already tipped the scales, let the next thing be about love.
- The test is watching our world economy dissolve, and another is made manifest for those who have the ears and eyes to hear and see: they overlap each other, and the sound we hear is the universe calling us to duty,.. and the cells hear it . The cells are challenging us to walk through the valley which has no path; we make the path as we go which is the ultimate test.

T: Watching al Jazeera: a young boy washes cars for 12 hours a day in Yemen, there are 12 in his family and his father is either an invalid or dead: he is the breadwinner – it is hard to watch.

MO: It is about the choices souls have made in a moment of intense awakening. It is about the crisis of conscience: we are watching the 1%, the filthy rich who are at the place where they care not of what we speak but only about the acquisition of more – like the Ferengi – we come to the end of a cycle, where she balances things out: the great equalizer, equalizing the playing field.

- How long can they continue to lie before the people wake up. Come March 2nd, 3rd, something is shaking – not saying anything except that the people are moving: in this moment, speak truth to power as you can: call your senator, congressman, let them know: as they wish to continue holding that seat – voice your grievances with politeness; you'll get more with flowers than rocks.
- They have a veneer of elegance, yet you can smell the stench of Mordor; they can go no longer; the violet flame is removing their essence as we speak.

- This is a day in the life of the spinning of the universe, in the eye of Creator; all of what we have in this moment is Hope, and this planet has already come full circle; how it plays with the people is the Dance; with more and more speaking what is in the heartspace. The people have the power.

T: something positive in Hawaii, have the HOPE Program: Hawaii Opportunity Probation Enforcement to do with Hawaii's drug programs. There are still real problems there.

Mo: time to call the corruption on Wall Street!

T: Weather is gorgeous; people so poor there

Mo: grow the hemp and it takes the radiation out of the soil! What Mr Abe needs to do in Japan

T: If you plant hemp in your garden, it pulls the radiation out of the soil.

- The HOPE program is so successful that other states have versions of their plan – gotten rid of mandated, long-term sentences for non-violent crimes with drugs. There are counselling appointments; have to be tested and if they fail, they go in for a short period of time, then come out and go back into the program.
- Each time they go back, the time in jail increases; there are counselling sessions both inside and outside of the prison. 55% of these ones less likely to be charged with a new crime; 72% are less likely to use new drugs; 61% less likely to skip an appointment with their supervisory officers.

T: positive things going on and it is grass roots stuff

Mo: Power to the people. The people have the power to take things back with love, and this is the answer to setting up divine government & set up things with peace, et et the Mahdi brought this to the planet; this is the Sufi way.

- The mitochondria kick in when there is peace and love: use the force.

T: Obama urges religious Freedom in China, urging leaders to respect religious rights for ethnic minorities.

- Also, some Chinese are getting lessons in manners to prepare them for travel abroad.
- the 1936 Olympic Games were used as a propaganda tool by Germany

Mo: when Jimmy Carter got out, and Reagan got in, Mr Slime Scherff got in, things changed on the world stage; when Reagan and Bush were there, it was about Gorbachov and Yeltsen; 1989 the wall came down

T: all through the '80s, the Leo Wanta, Mitterand, Reagan, Bush funds were in process: voodoo economics came into play; destroying Mother Russia

- Brings up the leaked conversation between 2 members of the State Dep't talking about the fing EU - they were bugged!

MO: love them as they leave, as more and more of them are leaving!

Kadoish! Kadoish! Kadoish!

- Tunisia is celebrating now: France 24 am News. The VP president asked the EU to forgive the debt of the country, a debt jubilee, which has a new constitution.

R: has been in a briefing room on LM Athena's ship. All kinds of people looking at frequency charts; things only increasing in magnitude for joy! That's what it feels like!

- They were looking at something that looked like charts, but in mid air – were little squares that you could touch. Hadn't seen anything like that

T: MR talking of Solfeggio tones: now have DNA tweaking tones!

 - that capitalism systematically creates more and more inequality; that the people at the top learned that you have to stop the ability of the people to use politics to make things more equal – the last 30-40 years have been about not letting politics play the role
 - The diff between Picketty and Karl Marx is that Marx did not separate politics and economics: he integrated them; Marx would show that the economics shapes the politics, not politics coming in now and then to have something to say.
 - Wolffe says now the system has to completely collapse because politics is completely wrecking society

Obama stresses religious freedom at prayer breakfast

While it isn't always easy, the president says pushing foreign leaders to respect human rights of religious minorities is the right thing to do.

By Bob Allen

Promoting religious freedom abroad is a key objective of U.S. foreign policy, President Obama told a crowd of about 3,500 at the 62nd National Prayer Breakfast at the Washington Hilton Feb. 6.

"There are times when we work with governments that don't always meet our highest standards, but they're working with us on core interests such as the security of the American people," the president said. "At the same time, we also deeply believe that it's in our interest, even with our partners, sometimes with our friends, to stand up for universal human rights."

So promoting religious freedom is a key objective of U.S. foreign policy, he continued. "And I'm proud that no nation on Earth does more to stand up for the freedom of religion around the world than the United States of America."

Obama said it isn't always comfortable to do so, but in meetings with Chinese leaders he has been clear that the country's potential "rests on upholding universal rights, including for Christians, and Tibetan Buddhists and Uighur Muslims."

Meeting with the president of Myanmar, also known as Burma, Obama said that "Burma's return to the international community depends on respecting basic freedoms, including for Christians and Muslims."

He also pledged support to people in Nigeria, home of sectarian violence between Christians and Muslims. And he highlighted efforts to protect religious minorities in Sudan and South Sudan, suffering in a humanitarian disaster stemming from civil war.

"As we support Israelis and Palestinians as they engage in direct talks, we've made clear that lasting peace will require freedom of worship and access to holy sites for all faiths," Obama said. He repeated calls for the release of Americans held in foreign countries like Pastor Saeed Abedini in Iran and missionary Kenneth Bae in North Korea.

Obama said he looks forward to nominating the next ambassador-at-large for international religious freedom, a position vacated by the October resignation of Suzan Johnson Cook, a former American Baptist pastor, author and motivational speaker who took the oath of office in May 2011.

He thanked Shaun Casey, a professor of Christian ethics at Wesley Theological Seminary in Washington, for his work leading the State Department's new Office of Faith-Based Community Initiatives since last August.

He recognized religious leaders' contributions to issues like poverty, immigration and human trafficking coordinated with the Office of Faith-Based and Neighborhood Partnerships, led by Melissa Rogers, a Baptist who previously worked at Wake Forest Divinity School, The Brookings Institution and the Baptist Joint Committee for Religious Liberty.

Obama encouraged faith leaders to join in a new initiative announced in his State of the Union address Jan. 28, "an effort to help more young men of color overcome the odds, because so many boys in this country need that mentor to help them become a man and a good father."

2014, Feb 5 MUST-SEE~Jon Stewart BLASTS Fox News for distracting the American people
by BruinKid

Last night, Jon Stewart had an epic opening segment on how Fox News accuses Obama of distracting from what they want to talk about, when it's actually them who want to distract the American people from what's really important.

I don't know if you saw it on Fox on Sunday there, but before the Seahawks scrimmaged with the... (audience whooping and cheering) team of stoned Colorado teenagers, Fox aired another world class matchup, as the most powerful man in the free world sat down with Obama (audience laughter) to cover topics like loose nukes, Middle East peace, trade regulations, and the environment. Dah, I'm just fuckin' with you!

BILL O'REILLY (2/2/2014): Libya. ... Your detractors believe that you did not tell the world it was a terror attack because your campaign didn't want that out. ... I gotta get to the IRS. ... But you're saying no corruption. None. ... Health care. ... When did you know there were going to be problems with those computers?

Look at that! O'Reilly, dipping whole scale into the full Fox scandal grab bag. And while many of those issues have been thoroughly investigated on multiple occasions, it's a big show, it's the Super Bowl pre-show, you gotta play the hits! You think the Chili Peppers are going to come out at halftime of the Super Bowl and not go full nipple? No! They're going to go full nipple! (audience laughter) It's the Super Bowl.

2/2/2014:

BILL O'REILLY: You think I've been unfair to you? You think I've been giving you...?

BARACK OBAMA: Absolutely! Of course you are, Bill.

(massive audience cheering)

Pass the nachos, mama!

BARACK OBAMA (2/2/2014): We just went through an interview in which you asked about the health care not working, IRS was: "were we wholly corrupt?", Benghazi. ... These kinds of things keep on surfacing, in part, because you and your TV station will promote them.

(Jon starts doing the sprinkler as audience cheers and applauds)

Holy mo...! That is quite an accusation. That Fox News unfairly promotes — and in some cases creates — scandals for the sole purpose of undermining this President. Although, in Obama's defense, it is true. (audience laughter) That is exactly what Fox does every day, with the exception of the one hour every two weeks where John Stossel exposes how homeless people are scamming the system.

So how did Fox News respond to this outrageous yet completely accurate charge?

2/3/2014:

SEAN HANNITY: Our Commander-in-Chief, well, he did what he does best, and he tried to, well, change the subject.

MEGYN KELLY GUEST: Picking a fight with Fox News is a great way to distract them.

BRENT BOZELL: He tried to turn it around into an attack on Fox.

Brilliant move! Deflect the spotlight from your many scandals by doing an interview with Fox about them right before the most-watched event in the history of television. That Obama! Keepin' it on the DL. (audience laughter)

You know, this isn't the first time that Fox has caught Obama hiding his scandals by doing the old — SQUIRREL!! — look over there. Take the Obamacare rollout.

STEVE DOOCY (11/26/2013): He's trying to change the subject away from Obamacare to immigration.

SEAN HANNITY (1/12/2014): Quote, "income inequality". ... Let's distract the American people, have you chase rabbits, don't focus on Obamacare.

HEATHER CHILDERS (11/25/2013): News of the nuke deal has dominated political talk, which means focus has shifted away from Obamacare. ... It is yet another attempt to distract from the disastrous rollout.

GRETCHEN CARLSON (11/4/2013): He's talking also about equal rights for gays and lesbians in the workplace. ... Is this distraction, David, to not talking about Obamacare?

You know the President doesn't work for Fox, right? He can deviate from your script. It's like, "Equal rights for gay people? That's not your line! (audience laughter) Your line is, 'Yes, Obamacare is a rear-guard assault on the American values that we hold dear. Soon, I and my Muslim overlords will control the entire caliphate.' That's your line. SAY IT!!!" (wild audience cheering and applause)

Of course, Fox has been all over Obama's misdirection juju from the get-go.

ERIC BOLLING (5/23/2013): The President found time to make a speech highlighting his stances on drone strikes. ... This obvious attempt to distract the American people from what's really important, that being Benghazi cover-up.

MARC LAMONT HILL (5/23/2013): President Obama used today's speech to reassert a very dangerous foreign policy. ... He's doing this to distract us from the IRS!

(BruinKid ed: Oh Marc, have you too been brainwashed by Fox News to repeat their talking points? Sigh....)

7/12/2011:

ERIC BOLLING: All of a sudden, there's a push for higher levels of gun registration. ... This is just to divert attention away from the big Fast and Furious scandal.

ANDREA TANTAROS: Absolutely, it's a complete distraction.

MONICA CROWLEY (6/25/2013): These things are planted by Barack Obama on purpose, Laura, to distract us from what's really going on. ... IRS, DOJ, NSA, Benghazi.

(audience laughter)

I'm beginning to think that may be the Fox News Buddhist mantra.

"First, we light the candles, and then of course, we begin to pray. Ommmmmmmm. IRS, DOJ, NSA, Benghazi. IRS, DOJ, NSA, Benghazi. IRS, DOJ, NSA, Benghazi. (wild audience cheering and applause) Mmmmmmmmmmm."

If there is one thing that Obama's been trying to — SQUIRREL!! — us for his entire term, it's gotta be the economy.

KARL ROVE (10/10/2010): This is a desperate political ploy by the White House to distract attention from the failed economic policies.

STEVE DOOCY (10/11/2010): They're just trying to deflect attention from the economy.

AMY HOLMES (1/17/2014): Today, we're addressing the NSA. Why aren't we talking about the economy?

BRIAN KILMEADE (5/6/2011): Now we have definitive proof that it was Osama bin Laden. When do we start — do you think, with your strategy sessions — when do we start talking about the economy again?

Really?? Even killing bin Laden was a part of Obama's master distraction plan? Really?? What, do you think he went down and, "Hey look Osama, we boys. But have you seen my jobs numbers? 'm sorry, bro, I gotta take you out. There's only so many Portuguese water dogs I can adopt." (audience laughter)

At long last, President Obama, is there nothing you won't do to distract us from the economy?

ANDREA TANTAROS (7/24/2013): Another day, another so-called major address from President Obama. This was at Knox College in Gainesville (sic), Illinois, on the economy, hoping to distract attention away from his scandals.

WHAT THE FUCK?!? (audience laughter) I thought you just said he was using the scandals to distract us from the economy, now he's using the economy to distract us from the... AAAAAHHHHHHH!!!!!!! (flails arms about wildly) DAMNIT!!!

Hold on! (takes out math book)

What's going on here? I'm just going to get out my book of... mathematics. Holy shit! By the transitive properties of distraction, we find ourselves dangerously close to being caught in a Hawking-Oppenheimer Distraction Loop — creating a black hole of infinite distraction from which we can never divert our attention long enough to figure out — SQUIRREL!! — what's happening!

Wait a minute. What is Fox trying to accomplish here?

BARACK OBAMA (8/9/2013): They've allowed an endless parade of political posturing and phony scandals to distract from growing our economy and strengthening the middle class.

Oh no, it's begun!! (set starts shaking violently) The Distraction Loop!! But I had an IRS hearing scheduled for...

NNNNNOOOOOOOO!!!!!!!!!! (massive audience cheering and applause)

Wait. Hold on. Unless, of course, Fox News is attempting to distract us from noticing that rather being a news organization, they are a spite-driven anger machine rooted in a fear that any change in the status quo will inevitably erode our nation's traditional power structure, leading to internment camps for "real" Americans, powered by solar energy and tacos. (audience laughter) Wait! Hard shell gay tacos. (audience laughter and applause)

Eh. It's probably the black hole thing. We'll be right back.
