HARD NEWS

- Still need $250 for rest of rent
- DC Madam's Lawyer's request to release the gag order about releasing documents of the names is to be considered
[this was on the ticker tape at the bottom of the TV screen: not yet as an article]
 - Ted Cruz, Drumpf, George Bush, Dick Cheney, Kissenger, John Kerry, Uma – just some of the names on the list!
- 2016-04-27 Clinton Email Scandal: More Evidence State Department Was In On Cover-Up
[SEE BELOW]
- Another on Edward Snowden – he is still in Russia; Hillary wants him off the planet!
 - Snowden's pile of files on Bill & Hillary is so huge;
 - along with what Julian Assange has: why is he still in Equadorian embassy thanks to the oligarchs in the US
- Bernie: is always tweeting about why the 1/16th of the 1% are still getting way with things?
 - Here is part of the answer
 - 2016-03-08 Rothschild Bank in Switzerland is under Criminal Investigation after David de Rothschild Indictment
[SEE BELOW]
 - Not only David de Rothschild but the entire Swiss branch of the Rothschild banking empire is being investigated – they go from A-Z, every country in the world - there are pages of this!
 - The Rothschilds are the elder dragons with a direct line to the Dracos ones
 - We send them all kinds of unconditional love as they will and are to be held accountable now, and also to every heart – to 12th D and higher: this is not the time for anger or more war!
 - Bloomberg Report: Edmund De Rothschild is actively participating in the investigation -

T & R have been saying so many times, this is coming, and this is coming – HERE ARE 3 BIG ITEMS!!!

- Ashtar on the Road: an indication of what was going on, but no news items
- the judges to consider taking off the gag order on Madam Palfrey lists – she's still alive and well at this point!
- Hillary & her e-mail troubles – it's just not about e-mails but how deep the rabbit hole goes! JudicialWatch has access to the hidden email about Benghazi – had it been found earlier, this would have been dealt with 2 years ago
 - Also discussion about her “above the law” attitude – both she and Bill have the same attitude.
- ANOTHER BIG ITEM – there is proof now that the Boston Bomber was innocent – which means that the Navy Seal team 3 will be investigated – and Seal Team 6 who took out Osama bin Laden are also dead so they can't talk.
- We have no idea of the changes that are coming – ENORMOUS! – and Mother Earth is going to upchuck on us – all the way to the end of June, quakes around the Ring of Fire and other places -

T: Her take on it is that the galactics are here and we are going to take over the reins and stop what was started by the reptiles who had no right to be here right from the start

Audio: Thom Hartmann – Conversations with Great Minds

Ari Rabin-Havt, Lies, Incorporated: The World of Post-Truth Politics/The Agenda/SiriusXM Progress
Talking about a man called Richard Berman

Tonight's Rumble discusses Trump's strategy of trying to win over Bernie supporters, whether Trump's "Make America Great Again" slogan is anti-Semitic, and how the country should follow Vermont's lead and make voter registration automatic. And in tonight's Conversations with Great Minds, Thom discusses the world of post-truth politics with radio host Ari Rabin-Havt, co-author of the new book "Lies, Incorporated: The World of Post-Truth Politics."

CONFERENCE CALL

Caller: asking about his health – take time to rest every day!

R: gets tired; has to watch how he walks;

T: COR has been telling folks about the need for more funds on the go funding project has changed the wording on the website to reflect need for recovery support
Go fund Me site: $8,645 – still going up.

T: the F3 folks have told Rama: things are changing

- talking about the person being interviewed on Thom Hartmann – even bright people believe the lies; people in enmeshed in gov't too – could be those in a corporation to lobby those in gov't;
 - we've already heard of conversations with Richard Wolffe: there was no way out because Capitalism was designed to do what is happening now.
 - There are serious consequences to what we have done and will do
- Mother Earth is saying that there will be earthquakes around the Ring of Fire – and these are just disruptions of the regular way we have done things –
 - there are higher energies coming in and we are now more mature to handle what is coming: people unwilling to change will not be able to stay here: a serious consequence
 - and it is all for the highest good for all concerned – it is a challenge to love, praise respect
 - our own physicalities are receiving impacts too, thanks to the naughty ones
 - We must stand our ground in a good way so that what we are bringing forward cannot be knocked down – the issues are coming on
 - Will play a section of the interview with Jane Sanders on Rachel Maddow; JS was on RT with Ed Schultz too – she has the gift of using the language that brings in the higher vibrations and yet does not offend those who are not there
 - Talks of Rachel Maddow being a Faction 3er and a white knight in amongst the Faction 1s and 2s
 - the pressure of dealing with the reptiles is worth $4 M a year for Rachel; $2M for Chris Hayes
 - We who committed to come in to help with this are here to help

T: the energies have been so unbelievably high – she was not her usual perky self when talking to Penny; one of the ladies on the Aboriginal Moabite call could not continue on the call as she was just wiped, too.

Ross: brings up the ionosphere of the planet having something to do with it – Rama mentioned it a few days ago.

COR: something is shifting, not really negative – partly all the chemtrails as well – expose us to levels of solar EMF

T: putting extra tons of lithium in the chemtrails

COR: just that it knocks people out – asks Penny to tell her story about Chemtrails

P: tells the story of going outside two different days a couple of weeks ago, and seeing beautiful clear blue Alberta skies, the kind of day that makes one glad to be alive

- went outside later and saw chemtrails and suddenly, commanded and demanded that the chemtrails be removed for the benefit of P, her neighbours, the province, the country and the planet, and also commanded and demanded that anything in the air, the water, the soil, the entire atmosphere that would have a negative effect on the above listed also be removed and made harmless. This voice came from deep inside – was not speaking angrily, though mightily annoyed – went outside ½ hour later and they were gone!

T: just noticing a maturation process in the people who come to Thom Hartmann's show

- the first thing Jane Sanders said to Rachel when she was introduced as Mrs Sanders: "Call me Jane, Rachel – OK?"

COR: loved her whole presence! And seeing that on a news program was great!

- Rachel is well protected, too.

T: did hundreds of different work tasks – T has a strong feeling that the energies are backing us up, and people are feeling it and exhibiting their power -

R: from Sam Seder, Thom the Cat,

- all the things going on are about how the media has not told the truth & people are set up: something is about to shift – the energies pouring in affects space/time and physical matter
- Behind the scenes, Tom the Cat said the blue avians and the sphere alliance are turning up the heat all the way and the ancient families are revealing themselves
- We might see hillary start shapeshifting in front of us because she is not able to wield the power as she's been used to doing, and she has no control over that

T: the appearance of things is just that: appearance!

- the galactics have done what they needed to do and provided us with the opportunities
- all kinds of responses to the astrology: all kinds of serious issues coming up and at the same time, there is more physical energy coming up – using the prana yogic breath
- We are not just waiting for money: the emphasis on ethics, morality, waking people up –
 - Bernie brought up that poor people, others being suppressed, usually don't vote and this has to end – we become more equal as we pay attention to the issues
- Amy had on the same story twice : the former Finance Minister of Greece talking to Noam Chomsky about the austerity process across the whole of Europe, and how the money went only to the top levels -
- Samana has updated the 2013 website – first thing people see is a photo of T & R, taken at Rainbird's farm in North Carolina: RB lives off the land and trades with others for other items

T: We're having even more advanced conversations on the calls; energies rising

- 5,000 soldiers in the Middle East – a temporary peace agreement in Syria, except for Aleppo; it's not Russia behind what is going on: this is paid for by US Black Ops; Erdowan is in bed with the US Black Ops

T: now that accountability has started, we will have something to work with: shess feeling a lot better

- Also, Keith Olberman supposed to be coming back at the end of April – where is he?
 - The station he was on is gone – RT tv – so where will Keith show up?
- The NBC announcer who was taken off for a while, Brian Williams, knows a lot about 9/11

MOTHER SEKHMET [M / A]

Greetings in the Light of the Most Radiant One; in the Office of the Christ and only in the Office of the Christ, we invoke the loving energies of St Germain and the Violet Flame!

We ask at this time for the greater acceptance of Self and fir greater wisdom in how to recognized more of ourselves, to actively engage with the new energies and be fearless warriors, and have the bright destiny coming to us!

Greetings, Children of Ra

Indeed, the times we are in: as the song says, "The answer, my friends, is blowing in the wind!"

- That wind is the frequencies, the solar clouds, particles flowing in lifting everything, everybody up to higher and higher levels of awareness & bliss, yet we say "and yet": for some it still feels like hell, loca, the depths of Mordor's dungeons. For some, that is so; it is choices – the sun shines on everyone: it doesn't make choices.
- The best advice she can give at this time is "ride that tiger"! We can sit on her back, allow her to take us on that path through the jungle or the mountains; Lady Master Dirga will follow to make sure the coast is clear.
- So much coming to pass in nano seconds; it is about how we: as Stephanie Miller puts it, it is time for meet and greet, yet a few things are in the wings.
 - It is how we see accountability rolling out, and her wayward children have very much to be concerned about as of late, because it is about this very ancient story that is not so ancient, and how we fit into the picture as we are brothers and sisters from a long, long ways away.
- At this time, so much is coming about to get them in our faces. They [M/A] can say with great certainty: Ms Clinton will not get you what you are expecting.

T: what do you think we are expecting, Mother?

M/A: Let us just say: don't expect Hillary to open up the X files for the people

T: Nobody believes THAT! She's got money from the Arabs, the banksters, criminal enterprizes – doesn't know how people can think otherwise.

- George Takai is leaning towards Hillary – they are using the idea of 'we don't want Trump'

M: so hold your nose and vote for Missy! Nobody is going to hold their nose and vote for Trump.

M/A: bear in mind there is a whole other group of indigo children who come on board next week, and as California comes into the picture, can turn the tide for Mr Bernie

T: the word is about a 10% chance; they have to bring up the fraud that has already happened

M: the fraud is already boiling to the surface. It is this story that is first and foremost - the least of us among us, as Bernie has gotten to the place where he is because people have been giving wee little bits, while the multi-national inter-planetary death merchants are supporting the Clintons.

- This story that has never really been concluded here about Mr Mein Kampf and the issues at hand: trying to get hold of the Tesseract, the space stone, so he could open up portals and bring in contingency forces to rule this sector of the galaxy. It's a dead horse
- Yet what she can say is that Leon Panetta and the folks around the Clintons have to do with the ancient story of the 3rd, 4th Reichs – it is a story that concludes in on itself. It is a timeline that has already been changed to the timeline where we are already in Sat Yuga – they are playing with the old one in consciousness games and hope we don't wake up and dangling carrots and celery in front of us: Area 51 will be revealed and other empty stories
- The real story coming to pass here is that everyone and everything is moving at such quantum light speeds - it is such a joyous thing to behold because the particles within us are screaming with that ecstasy saying "We are finally getting yugalized and being able to advance this whole story, this whole picture – if any one of us is the missing link, it causes ripples in the field that get corrected with the energies.

- What she can say is that already as this unravelling of the 26, 826 years since her beloved Nibiru was in our neighbourhood, and they are back once again – it creates a bit of chaos and without that chaos, folks tend to get a little lax and now what has happened is that the energies in and of themselves – the mitacholarians: we know it as the female side of the story called mitachondria – Rev Polk was talking about it – the Force, the Mitacholorians can create out of themselves: In our legends and stories, we call it immaculate conception – it is only about goddess manifesting herself in whatever form she chooses to to get the job done
- now Goddess is back and she is back; she is black and she is in the form of LM Michelle Obama – she is doing all she can to get her face in every kitchen corner so that it is not about ..

T: has read an article that most countries in the world would love to see the Obamas in the leadership role – just sayin this is what is being said!

- M: in the 8 years, this man has done what he has done; it is about the issues that were brought before the people when Dr King said I may not get to that mountain top, yet here we are ON the mountain top and he is already part of the scene
- As of 9/11 & its events, those who want to return in their bodies – they can, and they will get the chance to appear before the people and share their stories of what it was like to hang out in Krishna's little village called Brindaven where you get to walk with goats, llamas and yaks and get to experience ecstasy.
 - yet at the same time, in the midst of all of this, the reality is that this planet, the entire solar system, have crossed light years and light years in the short few nano seconds since 9/11. And things are a little different in the galactic neighbourhood, solar system neighbourhood

T: Meaning what, Mother?

- M/A: Meaning that her contingency forces with Lord Michael and Sananda Kumara, Captain Ashtar and the rest who maintain the safe highways and biways through this sector of the galaxy: the planet and the solar system are on lockdown – can't get in or out, yet they are still and yet so desperate to open a portal and bring in their forces of Sauron that have no power in this space/time continuum
- Say Yuga is about the joy of sharing the wisdom of what it is in that moment: the ecstasy of the One Hand Clapping. Dark energies cannot co-exist with light energies, as love has already built the foundation of this mansion. The rooms in the many mansions are about the story of love in the cells, ecstasy, and even though we are about to go through a bit of a rough road – 5 planets going retrograde, including beloved Mercury – it is time to go way deep inside the heart cave, work with the high heart.
 - What is being brought forth for all to see is the most unlikely of healings taking place as we are witnessing such radical shifts in awareness, consciousness, space/time
 - Our doctors without borders and the issues of civilians, rebels – who's who in the zoo here?
 - Brings it back to front and centre: why was Joe Biden in Iraq this week? It is about the stargates, the one & only story that began long ago about her wayward children and the stargates and the issues at hand: when you have someone who is a little bigger, taller than you – say, like 50' taller – like some of the fellow brothers and sisters from Nibiru, some others from around the galaxy who are a lot larger than we are accustomed to – as they get introduced back into the realm of consciousness where, yes, we did walk your planet and we still do
 - some of the etheric physical archangels who guide the flora and fauna of this beloved planet's matrix of consciousness; some of the archangels who look after the land masses are ½ mile high – hard to conceive
 - Yet it does not matter how big we are: it is focus of the heart centred energy that is changing this whole story right no

T: the full moon this month is in Sagittarius and is dedicated to the goddess Diana, goddess of the hunt; it means for us dedicated to the hunt for wisdom. [May 21st] T reads a paragraph

M/A: there is another legend about her known as The Golden Hind – she shapeshifts into a female deer

- Mr 19.5* knows very well how to deal with all the different subjects and topics in the mix here. The first and foremost is how they get introduced to us – not saying he will talk about them, yet he may – many way to get the message across with humour.
- Everything that has to do with the instability in the Middle East, Ukraine – all has to do with the criminals in the US that did 9/11. Mr Putin is not sitting on his laurels – he knows fully well how to get everything back on track & have the 13 families cowering in a corner.
- It is already happening: Mr Putin is being backed up by many of the galactics who have said now is the time to step into the affairs – Mr 19.5* also knows, along with President Xi
- they have a plan and she cannot say a word about it, except it is about the revealing of their presence, already happening and it is all good – not about invasion or extinction level events, even though this is what is on the minds of the 13 families who are so desperate to distract us from doing our spiritual homework which is: taking care of this temple of the living goddess.

- This one [Rama] is fully getting it as it is about taking each step: cannot walk on air or on water when you have to spread yourself too thin; yet he is getting it very deeply about what it is like to be in a body.

T: a good thing – hasn't happened this time as he has always had the other access

M: now it is about the joy of being in the body, not trying to escape from it. It is part of a whild story about humanity waiting for ascension and now the only way for ascension to happen is to descend into the body - now we take our temple with us, not put it in a box!

- Our rituals and ceremonies about how folks come and go are a bit convoluted, and first and foremost: she says again: there is no death – it's about taking off a pair of pants or a coat, putting others on - and it's as easy as that!
- Yes still have to put on the pants or the coat, but it is about the ecstasy of being in the body and feeling everything to the nth^o; it is so awesome, magical, to being in the body, not wanting to escape from it

- there is something going on on the planet right now deep within the bowels of Raetheon and Darpa and a few other bastions of Darkness: playing with AI, trying to give androids emotions, and what it feels like to feel pain, sorrow, love, ecstasy

T: If they think they can use it for malfeasance, it will back fire

M/A: Even to this day they cannot perfect an android body that can experience ecstasy coming from the place of the sound of one hand clapping – cannot be created in a lab

- it is about the ecstasy of who and what we are: these temples of the living goddess going from carbon to silica and, at this moment, at this time, the force, the particles have said we are moving you upward and onward to the higher dimensions, from 12 and all the way up: for those not doing their homework, it feels like you are being ripped asunder from the inside out – not pleasant!
- Yet the energies are as such as things increase in magnitude and frequency, we are already seeing the effects of how the energies are moving the weather patterns around, and at the same time there is a tug of war going on between the 3D beings who want to play with ancient war machines, and the scalar technologies, and at the same time, they are having to deal with goddess in all her magnificence: how she is the wind, the water, the air, the fire, the earth – cannot control the 5 elements with the ancient war weapons – they are in conjunction with the 5 infinity stones that have a consciousness of their own and they work only with love – that is the highest order of business here.

- weather patterns and how things move about with ease and grace and perfection is not a product of Area 51, but of the High Heart. There is so much transpiring right now to bring everything into balance, and it IS happening – yet at the same moment, all the dark ones want us to do is to focus on the chaos
- She [M] and the astrology are saying don't go there; do your homework, the due diligence of one foot in front of the other. May feel like we are going nowhere, yet it is so awesome what is transpiring – yet it is so vast, so awesome what is transpiring right now - - just to experience the joy with what is moving us into place here

T: It is happening isn't it Mother? They can try but they haven't been able to do it

M/A: It is very very large! She is saying this in the Light of the Most Radiant One: they are still very, very dangerous and lashing out at anything that comes in their path – blindly lashing out – because they hurt: the pain is inevitable; the suffering is optional. And that is what they have created with their own lifestreams, of their own choosing, within the Laws of the One . Can choose the Laws of the One or with free will choice and see where it getscha!

- The golden throne may be the electric chair that fries you into another kind of consciousness where you don't want to go
- and they continue to this day with the horror stories of Aleppo and other places; looks like midnight – the light of the noonday sun has already risen over these places.
- The only criminals are the ones who are controlling the standing armies that are not working for the whole; it is that little fragment of self that is caught in ego that has to be let go as it will take you out.
- it is in our best interests as the astrology says: do the homework of inner cleansing, the spring cleaning inside the temple of the living goddess. And it reflects outwards, and as that transforms, transfigures from the inside out and, as that happens, it transforms all of life. They want us to give in to the gut feelings of thinking we have to hold our nose and vote for Miss Hillie – the jury is not out on Bernie at all

T: thinks it will have to do with all of us

M: We are the force that can make a difference at this time

T: Remembers who Thomas Frank is – one of the members of Bill Maher's panel, and the CEO of the humane society - lists the rest

T: Thank you Mother! We delved deeper tonight: there's a freeing up energy: the trade off is taking a risk and letting go of the old ways of handling things

M: Have to let go of the old ways because when you are in the vastness of space and you are a particle surrounded by joy, how can you be in despair? So full of joy – focus on that and the eye of the needle which is as large as the centre of the Milky Way Galaxy!

- Kadoish, kadoish, kadoish; adonai sabbaoth,
- Remember: we are in a time of magic and miracles that we have asked to create; therefore, it is done.

T: we are ready for all things to change and let us thank all those who have helped / are helping us whether human or animal

R: has been on Mother's ship helping Simba get integrated into galactic life: LM Dyanna's companion of 22 years – a firepoint Siamese

T: Beautiful colour, such a beautiful boy! He's got his Cheshire cat seat now!

R: Integrating with life back on the Mother ship!

T: NESARA NOW!

2016-04-27 Clinton Email Scandal: More Evidence State Department Was In On Cover-Up

Hillary Clinton appears to have called on the State Department to help her hide her emails. (Bloomberg)

Corruption: Last week it looked as if the State Department worked with Hillary Clinton to cover up her email trouble. This week it isn't a question of involvement but rather how deeply the department was entangled.

During the Watergate scandal, one of the relevant questions asked by Tennessee Sen. Howard Baker was what did President Nixon know about the break-in at the Democratic National Committee headquarters and when did he know it? Today a similar question should be asked of the State Department officials who allowed Clinton to use her personal email handled by a private server in her home:

When did the State Department realize her email was a problem and how far did it go to try to hide it?

A week ago we covered the State Department's attempt to obscure the scandal by filing a secret court brief asking a federal judge to hide tens of thousands of Clinton's emails. At issue, we said, were the 30,000 emails that Clinton generated while she was secretary of state — and then deleted because she decided they were too personal for public consumption. Those emails have never been released.

They might have been, though, had the State Department not withheld a Benghazi email that was part of a Judicial Watch Freedom of Information Act lawsuit asking for "records related to the drafting and use of the Benghazi talking points." Now that email, says Judicial Watch, has been located.

That "found" email is germane because if it had been released when it was supposedly first discovered, "Clinton's email server and her hidden emails would have been disclosed nearly two years ago, before Clinton authorized the alleged deletion of tens of thousands of emails," Judicial Watch explains.

In other words, the State Department bought Clinton time to delete the emails she didn't want released, the ones that are surely the most revealing as to what she was up to as secretary of state, the ones she desperately wanted to hide. Those emails are almost certainly the reason she chose to use her personal account rather than a secure State Department setup.

U.S. District Court Judge Royce Lamberth, who is presiding over one of Judicial Watch's FOIA lawsuits, has said that the State Department has acted in bad faith in this case. Indeed, it appears to be acting as a hindrance whenever it can, in much the same way the IRS has done its best to obstruct any inquiries looking into its targeting of the Tea Party and conservative groups that were seeking nonprofit status. Officials at these government bureaus seem to think they are above the law.

That mindset was likely accelerated at the State Department with Clinton at the top. She and Bill have a history of behaving as if the law and rules were made for everyone but them. She and her aides could have chosen to use protected government email accounts but decided that the expectations that they would weren't for them.

The Clintons have carried this attitude since at least the couple's Arkansas years. Hillary's above-the-law mentality has helped her maintain her ability to brush off questions about her email and brazenly claim that she's never going to be indicted for being caught with classified material — some of it top-secret — in her accessible-to-the-world email. It's why she and Bill have never feared scandal. They've considered themselves too big and too important to pay the consequences.

No one should have that luxury, because it generates abuse. The hope is the FBI will make sure that Hillary isn't above the law and treat her acts as if they were committed by a low-level bureaucrat.

At the same time, it cannot forget those at the State Department who appear to have obstructed justice in covering up for Clinton. Former Speaker Dennis Hastert wasn't above the law and they aren't either.

2016-03-08 Rothschild Bank in Switzerland is under Criminal Investigation after David de Rothschild Indictment

by Amando Flavio <http://anonhq.com/rothschild-bank-switzerland-now-criminal-investigation-david-de-rothschild-indictment/>

In 2015, the French government indicted David de Rothschild on account of fraud and alleged embezzlement of mass sums of money belonging to British pensioners.

The French investigators went through a long and arduous task of gathering evidence against the billionaire. Investigators discovered that between 2005 and 2008, Rothschild Financial Services Group, managed by the billionaire, trapped pensioners in a fraudulent scheme and locking them into bogus loans, losing them their retirement portfolios. The billionaire then diverted all these monies into his bank, leaving the pensioners with minimal savings. Victims of this fraud took the matter up, prompting an intense investigation by the French government.

In June 2015, Paris-based liaison judge Javier Gómez Bermudez, ruled that Rothschild and his bank must face a trial for his crimes. Judge Bermudez ordered local police to search for the missing millionaire in his various mansions spread throughout France, with a warrant to arrest him.

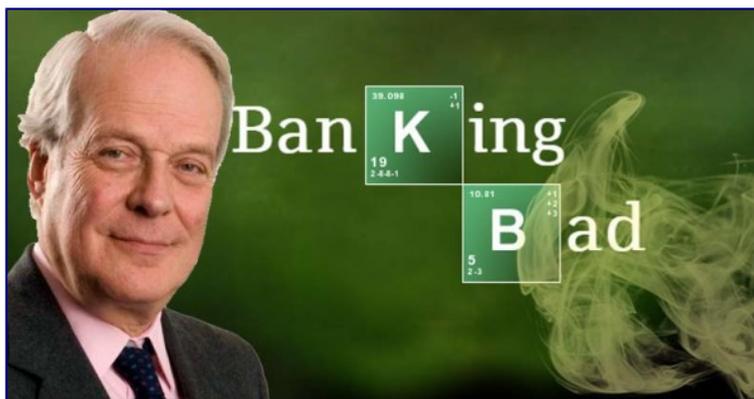

After the ruling, the pensioners' legal representation, lawyer Antonio Flores of Lawbird said to Olive Press "It is a good step in the right direction. The courts are now in agreement with us that there is enough evidence to interrogate Baron Rothschild. The first thing they will have to do is find him. Once they have done that they can begin to question him. It is a real breakthrough moment for everyone involved. In short, independently of what happened to the investment, Rothschild advertised a loan aimed at reducing inheritance tax, which is a breach of tax law."

However, the indictment of David de Rothschild is taking a new trend. The French government announced that it has launched an investigation into the entire Swiss branch of the Rothschild's banking empire. The Swiss branch of the Rothschild banking empire was founded by Edmond Adolphe de Rothschild.

Investigators have started their work on Edmond de Rothschild. Originally established in Paris as a private banking and asset management firm, Edmond de Rothschild currently oversees around 150 billion Euros ($164 billion). In 1965, it acquired Banque Privee of Geneva, and is currently led by Baron Benjamin de Rothschild and his wife Ariane.

Bloomberg News reports that the Rothschild bank in Switzerland confirmed that French investigators are at the back of the bank regarding a former business relationship managed by a former employee. The media is reluctant to report on the issue, but from what we gathered, the allegations brought against the bank are serious. Observers predict that Benjamin could face a similar fate to that of David. However, the Geneva-based bank said in an e-mailed statement to Bloomberg "Edmond de Rothschild (Suisse) SA is actively participating in the criminal investigation under way. The bank denies all the allegations that have been made against it."

According to social commentators, this is not the first time the banking dynasty of Rothschild has been accused of wrong doing. The Rothschild family have been accused of pulling economic and political strings of vast governments for years, with ample evidence of insider trading. Going as far back as the Napoleonic wars, the family was reported to have succeeded in turning into one of the richest clans in the world through the manipulation of the stock exchange.

The Rothschild family has also been accused of playing a lead role in helping move the global elite's wealth from traditional tax havens like the Bahamas, Switzerland and the British Virgin Islands, to the United States of America.

2016-03-06 At this moment The Rothschild Bank Is In Criminal Investigation Following Baron David De Rothschild Indictment

In 2015, Baron David de Rothschild had been indicted by the French government after he was arrested of fraud in a scheme that allegedly embezzled large sums of money from British pensioners.

It has consumed several years to bring this case against Rothschild and his company the Rothschild Financial Services Group, that trapped 100s of pensioners in a phony loan scheme involving the years of 2005 and 2008.

One after the other the pensioners lost their money and pressed charges against the infamous banker, commencing a case that would take many years to get even an indictment.

In June, Paris-based liaison judge Javier Gómez Bermudez ruled that Rothschild has to face a trial for his crimes, and required local police to seek him out in his variety of mansions that are distributed throughout the country.

Lawyer Antonio Flores of Lawbird told the Olive Press after the ruling, "It is a good step in the right direction. The courts are now in agreement with us that there is enough evidence to interrogate Baron Rothschild. The first thing they will have to do is find him. Once they have done that they can begin to question him. It is a real breakthrough moment for everyone involved". He included, "In short, independently of what happened to the investment, Rothschild advertised a loan aimed at reducing inheritance tax, which is a breach of tax law," he added.

Whereas news of a single Rothschild being indicted is undoubtedly significant, a particularly important announcement was made this Friday.

The French government publicised that it has launched an investigation into the entire Swiss branch of the Rothschild's banking empire.

According to Bloomberg, the Swiss Unit of Edmond de Rothschild stated it is the subject of a French probe concerning a former business relationship managed by a former employee.

"Edmond de Rothschild (Suisse) SA is actively participating in the criminal investigation under way," the Geneva-based bank said in an e-mailed statement on Friday. "The bank denies all the allegations that have been made against it."

Edmond de Rothschild, a private banking and asset operations firm established in Paris in 1953, oversees about 150 billion euros ($164 billion) and is led today by Baron Benjamin de Rothschild and his wife Ariane. The Swiss Unit records its roots to the acquisition of Banque Privee in Geneva in 1965.

The company has no additional comment at this time, based to the statement. Officials in Geneva were not immediately available to act in response to a telephone call from Bloomberg News on Friday.

The Rothschild empire has been a key component in helping move the Global Elite's wealth from traditional tax havens like the Bahamas, Switzerland, and the British Virgin Islands to the U.nited States.

In January, the Free Thought Project reported on the previously mentioned the law tax haven established inside the U.S. by the Rothschilds.

Soon after starting a trust company in Reno, Nev., Rothschild & Co. started ushering the enormous fortunes of the world's a large number of wealthy individuals out of typical tax havens and in to the Rothschild managed United States trusts, which are exempt from the international canceling requirements.

The Rothschild banking empire is a family line that has long been accused of pulling the political strings of many different governments through their control of various economic systems throughout the world.

Historically, there is sufficient evidence to display that the family has utilized insider trading to bilk money from both private and public funds.

In the course of the Battle of Waterloo in the Napoleonic wars, Nathan Rothschild was accountable for one of the oldest cases of "insider trading," which in turn led to the Rothschild family taking a whole nation blind.

In 1815 when the battle of Waterloo took place, truth be told there were no effective methods of communication like we have today. So messengers were utilized for communication in times of war.

The Rothschilds procured advantage of this by having spies on the frontlines of the battle, who would return information and facts to the family more rapidly than the messengers used by the military.

When the British won the war, Nathan Rothschild, was of course, the very first to know, and he without delay went to the Stock Exchange and started selling stocks while setting out the rumor that the French had won the war.

This particularly established a panic on the floor of the Stock Exchange and investors throughout England began frantically selling their stocks.

By using the price of all stocks plummeting, Rothschild was basically able to buy out the entire English market for a fraction of its cost.

When the word arrived that the English had literally been victorious, the value of the market soared, and immediately Nathan Rothschild broadened his family's wealth, and cemented their position as one of the richest families in the world.

2016-04-28 DEADPOOL~Paul Ryan essentially tells cancer patients to Die Quickly

By Brainwrap

No, No...not Ryan REYNOLDS; PAUL Ryan..

Sorry, that's really the only headline which came to mind when I read this story:

Ryan wants to end Obamacare cost protections for sick consumers

U.S. House of Representatives Speaker Paul Ryan called on Wednesday for an end to Obamacare's financial protections for people with serious medical conditions, saying these consumers should be placed in state high-risk pools.

In election-year remarks that could shed light on an expected Republican healthcare alternative, Ryan said existing federal policy that prevents insurers from charging sick people higher rates for health coverage has raised costs for healthy consumers while undermining choice and competition.

The rule, a cornerstone of President Barack Obama's Affordable Care Act, has been praised by patient advocates for providing access to medical care for people who previously could not afford private health insurance. The Affordable Care Act also bars insurers from excluding coverage for pre-existing conditions.

The magic solution to the problem, according to Ryan and the GOP, is "high risk pools", which simply means separating out the sickest, most expensive people in the country and dumping them into a separate program.

With the "bad apples" (ie, human beings with terrible medical problems) safely tucked out of the way, the average cost of treating everyone else supposedly suddenly becomes less pricey.

This is the exact opposite of the entire point of health insurance in the first place...spreading the risk. In addition, as Jean P. Hall notes in this Commonwealth Fund analysis, it doesn't actually save anyone a dime, because:

In fact, the risk pools are suggested as a viable alternative to the ACA's ban on preexisting condition exclusions in the individual market and the marketplaces. My recent analysis of high-risk pools, however, explains why these entities simply are not a realistic alternative to coverage requirements under the ACA. In a nutshell, high-risk pools:

- are prohibitively expensive to administer,
- are prohibitively expensive for consumers to purchase, and
- offer much less than optimal coverage, often with annual and lifetime limits, coverage gaps, and very high premiums and deductibles.

Recent proposals to replace ACA reforms with high-risk pools focus on using state-based programs, but historical experience with 35 state-based high-risk pools and more recent experience with the national Pre-Existing Condition Insurance Plan (PCIP) illustrate the problems with this approach. Even though state-based high-risk pools charged premiums of up to 250 percent of those charged to healthy beneficiaries in the individual insurance market, premium revenues paid just 53 percent, on average, of program costs. In addition to these high premiums, enrollees in state-based high-risk pools faced annual deductibles as high as $25,000 and annual coverage limits as low as $75,000. Past research indicated that high costs and limited benefits associated with high-risk pool coverage resulted in delayed or forgone care and adverse outcomes for enrollees. Many also accrued medical debt despite having insurance.

For these reasons, use of high-risk pools in lieu of marketplace and Medicaid expansion coverage would result in greater state and federal costs, fewer people with preexisting conditions able to obtain coverage, and coverage that fails to meet the often greater needs of people with chronic conditions.

The math behind this isn't really that complicated when you think about it. Here's a simplified version of what a false "solution" this is:

Let's suppose you currently have a risk pool of exactly 1,000 people, all of whom are covered via ACA exchange policies, paying an average of $300/month in premiums and $200/month in deductibles/co-pays/etc. That's $500,000 per month. Let's further suppose that the insurance carrier is precisely breaking even on this arrangement, paying out exactly $500K/month in claims.

However, let's say that just 50 of those people (5%) are accounting for 50% of the expenses (pre-existing conditions...cancer, diabetes, whatever). That's $250K/month in claims for just 50 people.

If you separate those folks out, the other 950 people now only have to come up with $250K/month for the carrier to break even, or just $263/month for premiums + deductibles combined...their costs just got slashed nearly in half!! HOORAY!!

Except...that the other 50 people have been shunted over to a High Risk Pool. Their total cost of treatment is around $5,000 per month apiece, or $60,000/year.

Now, the government presumably is heavily subsidizing these folks, but assuming the numbers in Ms. Hall's analysis are accurate, those 50 people would still be paying around $660/month in premiums while also having to pay an average of $2,000/month in deductibles. The government subsidies apparently only cover around 48% of their cost, leaving them with a $2,600/month bill to pay, for crappy coverage with minimal caps. In other words, they've been very much thrown under the bus and are now screwed.

But wait, there's more! Remember, the other $2,400/month hasn't magically disappeared; that's being picked up by "the government"...aka, "the taxpayers"...aka, those same 950 people who are now saving $237/month are still paying at least some of that in the form of higher taxes.

In addition, the High Risk Pool program itself is a whole new agency which requires operational expenses/other overhead, so that increases the costs more. On top of that, repealing the ACA also means removing the 80/20 MLR cap on the carriers, which means they can go back to jacking up their premiums pretty much however much they like in many states, completely negating the whole point of the "High Risk Pool" program in the first place. Those 950 people would be back to paying $500/month or more in no time flat.

To his "credit", Ryan is actually taking a cue from Democrat Alan Grayson's description of the Republican healthcare plan from back in 2009:

<https://youtu.be/-usmvYOPfco>

Harold Pollack put it far more succinctly for the Twitter age:

@charlesornstein@LenMNichols@Reuters_Health high risk pools are among the very worst ideas in health policy.

2016-02-25 Psychic Edgar Cayce Predicted Putin Would Save Us From World War III

by Sean Adl-Tabatabai in Conspiracies

<http://yournewswire.com/psychic-edgar-cayce-predicted-putin-would-save-world-from-ww3/>

One of the world's most famous psychics, Edgar Cayce, predicted that Russian President Vladimir Putin would be a "force of light" in preventing World War III from occurring amid the global turmoil we see today.

His predictions were made over 80 years ago in a series of "World Affairs Readings" about the future of world finance, world leadership, collective spirituality, and the important role Russia would play on the world's stage.

Cayce referred to Russia as being "the thorn in the side of the financial powers" who would try to organise themselves against the good of humanity in a post WWII world.

Wakingtimes.com reports:

When asked in 1932 about political and economic trends in Europe Cayce zeroed in on Russia:

Europe is as a house broken up. Some years ago there was the experience of a mighty peoples being overridden for the gratification and satisfaction of a few, irrespective of any other man's right. That peoples are going through the experience of being born again, and is the thorn in the flesh to many a political and financial nation in Europe, in the world... Q. What is the name of that nation referred to? A. Russia! (3976-8)" [Source]

70 years after the defeat of the Axis powers, Russia has been reborn, but the rest of the world is now largely under the thumb of the Western globalist banking cartel. This cartel is organized as the IMF, the World Bank, the Bank for International Settlements, and the global network of central banks, reserve banks, development banks, and investment banks that hold the world's elected governments in perpetual receivership and the world's people in bondage to mathematically impossible to pay debt.

Present Day on the Edge of the Knife

In 2013 the US was attempting to invade Syria under obviously false pretenses. Putin prevented US involvement by threatening to intervene militarily in a conflict that at that time had not yet devolved into the horrid conditions we see today.

With the deliberate destruction of Ukraine by the George Soros funded color-revolution destabilization team then the advances of the IMF to debt-conquer Ukraine with tens of billions of dollars in forced development loans, Putin's Russia emerged as the singular force capable of checking the banking cabal's global advance, and is refusing to allow Ukraine and Crimea to fall into the hands of Western backed forces.

The grand chessboard that is the Middle East is ablaze, and the world is on a razor's edge, caught between the very real possibility of escalation to third world war and the seemingly distant hope of world leaders suddenly finding sanity and de-escalating the situation.

Cayce spoke of Russia's role as being the 'hope of the world' in a coming time such as this:

"In Russia there comes the hope of the world, not as that sometimes termed of the communistic, or Bolshevik, no; but freedom, freedom! That each man will live for his fellow man! The principle has been born. It will take years for it to be crystallised, but out of Russia comes again the hope of the world."

(Edgar Cayce, 1944, No. 3976-29)

As events in Syria and Iraq have become more convoluted and devastating for people in the region, the Islamic State (ISIS) has been on a campaign of shock and awe, reigning bloody terror on Christians, Syrians, Kurds, moderate Muslims, Shia Muslims, and anyone in between. ISIS, as everyone apparently knows, is funded and supplied weaponry by the US and Israel as a means of indirectly toppling the Assad regime in Syria.

As the US and its allies pretend like they are not responsible for ISIS and act like they are powerless to stop ISIS, Putin has calmly told the world in no uncertain terms the truth about the West's support for ISIS and the other mercenary factions which have completely destroyed Syria, already killed hundreds of thousands of people, if not millions, and forcing the engineered refugee crisis on Europe, expanding the crisis now into Macedonia.

In this video Vladimir Putin cogently explains the Syria situation with striking clarity:

Who Created ISIS?

<https://youtu.be/VbZDyr2LkdI>

The Spiritual Development and Leadership of Russia

Even before WWII, Cayce appears to have foreseen the need for Russia to evolve spiritually in some manner so that it would be able to rise in opposition to the decaying moral values of the capitalist West and play its part as the great hope of the world.

Cayce was asked, "What should be the attitude of so called capitalist nations toward Russia?"

On Russia's religious development will come the greater hope of the world. Then that one, or group, that is the closer in its relationships, may fare the better in the gradual changes and final settlement of conditions as to the rule of the world. (3976-10)

Six months later, additional information was presented which helped to clarify this earlier prediction.

Out of Russia, you see, there may come that which may be the basis of a more world wide religious thought or trend... (3976-12)

When Hugh Lynn Cayce asked about the Russian situation in June 1938, he was told:

A new understanding has and will come to a troubled people. Here, because of the yoke of oppression, because of the self indulgences, has arisen another extreme. Only when there is freedom of speech, the right to worship according to the dictates of the conscience—until these come about, still turmoils will be within. (3976-19) [Source]

Essentially Cayce appears to be referring to Russia after the trials under Soviet rule and the collapse of the Soviet Union, as well as the need for the world to return to humanistic values in order to free itself from the oppression of the Zionist cartels which have been organizing against the human race for centuries.

Cayce is saying that some sort of much needed spiritual leadership will come from Russia in this time, some kind of attitude that will make it possible for a transition of this calibre to occur without having to experience the guaranteed destruction of any World War III.

Putin is at best no saint, and there is no underestimating the potential for deception by any nationalistic organization, but in a survey of the major players on the field at the moment, when the human race is teetering on a razor sharp knife's edge, Putin appears to be bringing something to the table that other world leaders aren't wielding... common sense.

And what would spiritual leadership look like in a world gone mad, anyhow? At first it would appear as common sense. Of course.

"Aristotle even goes as far as to say that common sense is where consciousness originates. So if a society is lacking in common sense, and there's little to no conscience, morality, empathy, consciousness, creativity, taste, discernment or love, how does one propose to govern such a population?" [Source]

Putin's actions in Syria makes the most common sense, among the available options. Already he has likely prevented the invasion of Syria by Turkey, checking President Erdogan at the border, and he has severely disrupted the operations of ISIS. Both are wins for the cause of common sense in an arena of treachery.

Did Edgar Cayce somehow know that Russia would take the common sense gap between spiritual leadership and the guaranteed destruction of World War III which is being engineered by the West?

Speaking on the current state of US and Russia relations at a recent summit, Putin said, regarding America:

"You must rise above the endless desire to dominate. You must stop acting out of imperialistic ambitions. Do not poison the minds of millions of people; like there can be no other way but imperialistic politics." –Vladimir Putin

Putin is directing our attention to the 800 pound gorilla in the room that no one else seems willing to talk about: America and the West no longer have any moral superiority in the world.

Cayce also made comments about America's future moral decay:

In the final World Affairs reading given on June 22, 1944, less than six months before Edgar's death, he addresses the spirit and "the sin of America."

What is the spirit of America? Most individuals proudly boast "freedom." Freedom of what? When ye bind men's hearts and minds through various ways and manners, does it give them freedom of speech? Freedom of worship? Freedom from want?...In the application of these principles...America may boast, but rather is that principle being forgotten... and that is the sin of America. (3976-29) Reading 3975-15, given on January

Conclusion

Did Edgar Cayce foresee Putin's interfering role in the Western cabals plan to overtake the world through financial domination, political destabilization, and all out world war, order out of chaos?

Cayce also predicted the possibility of a THIRD World War. He spoke of strifes arising..."in Libya, and in Egypt, in Ankara, and in Syria; through the straits around those areas above the Persian Gulf." [Source]

Whether or not you believe in the power of the human mind to connect with Source and withdraw information about the future, things are lining up in such a way that Cayce's prophecies regarding Russia are proving quite prescient now, giving us a clue that at least we shouldn't hold on too tightly to any preconceived notions about what will happen in coming years.

And in a vacuum of any common sense or humanistic leadership from the present powers that be, why not look to a revered psychic for direction? In the end, though, all we have from Cayce is really just the inspiration to action we get from looking into his past for clues and hope about our future. If you're concerned about the direction things are taking, let Cayce's words rouse you to action.
