

REGISTER NOW!

Pre-Service & First-Year Teachers - $65
All Other Attendees - $95
*Rates will increase by $25 after October 1

To register, visit <http://bit.ly/2avhRNR>

Small group sessions include blending the canon; building a culture of reading in schools; teaching effective listening; infusing popular music, brain-based strategies, and informational text into the classroom; teaching Jimmy Santiago Baca's poetry; supporting new teachers; teaching from a place of love and empathy; and fostering intercultural sensitivity in the classroom.

Reclaiming the Classroom

Share the love and join us in honoring Dr. William McBride, former Colorado State University professor, and inaugural winner of the Legacy Award.

Featured Speakers

Colorado Language Arts Society Regional Fall Conference

October 15, 2016
Tivoli Union, Auraria Campus
Denver, Colorado

Jimmy Santiago Baca

“I am learning to look at myself differently, to see the scattered remnants of hope and dreams and collect them again.”

Sarah Brown Wessling

“Creating a community for learning means creating more than a classroom; it means constantly intertwining our stories in a way that reveals our potential.”

Taylor Mali

“Teachers today are breaking down obstacles, finding innovative ways to instill old lessons, proving that greatness can be found in everyday places.”