Hard News:

T: the military in Ukraine are getting ready to attack citizens

- Last night, in Slovansk, the Kiev military surrounded the entire city, working with the centre-right group, mercenaries who answer to the highest bidders: John McCain, John Kerry etc etc – shooting ordinary citizens in the back of the head. Praise, respect, thank and love the feeling

Camp Loveway: Ed Snowden was on from an undisclosed location

- This is about the West - NOT PUTIN – NATO wants to get its claws into Ukraine – is this to put in the missile defence shield to prevent our galactic friends from getting in?
- Yet this will not happen, and they are going back to Mother's yonni to be re-cycled through the sun!
- Ed also talked about having a hot girlfriend and a life, and giving it all up to do his mission and bring in this news.
- He said Mr Putin is playing an interesting game
- Today, he said that Kiev is totally backed by the bad boys in Congress – NATO and the US are the same thing in this case.

- Rama's parents told him years ago that NATO is not based in truth; we have seen this
- T: WW II has not ended: it has continued to have the 4th Reich continued right out to where Rana Mu comes from; the nazi collaborators in Kiev and the so-called interim president in Kiev was groomed by Brussels of the EU; that is his only purpose – to get the missile defence shield in
 - Rumours about putting it in Ukraine, as opposed to Poland
- On Monday, Snowden said a blip showed up on the Bloomberg bird screen and all zeros showed up and that was 9 – 10 weeks ago: Ed Snowden is the only one who has said this besides T & R
- Someone from the foreign press asked B Obama [during press conf with Merkel] about the reputation of the US and the “botched execution” in Oklahoma – an important question
 - Obama said he felt that the US had to have a profound, searching conversation about our values.

R: This brings in the realization that we do not have to kill folks; there are ways with the rejuvenation chambers [to make changes] – one in Dubai, one in Moscow!

- T: Moscow is way ahead of us in terms of science and health & other technologies; in 1996, they knew the junk DNA was not Junk!
- We are evolving out of the last 13,000 year de-evolutionary cycle [taking back our siddas] which was intentionally created by these reptilian life forms who did not want to admit to what they did when they destroyed the great crystals in Atlantis. So they proceeded on that dark path – admitting what they had done would have cost them their lives.
 - Light is light, dark is dark – nothing wrong with either one – yet depicting a scenario in which intentionally you do something out of the time-space continuum:
 - initially, they got jazzed with the thought when they realized they could send out lasers through the centre of the earth and destroy palaces in China and take it over – sounds good!
 - What they did was use their rationalizing mind to say we were better over here What makes us better?

R: What has not been understood is that Lemuria was the electron [female]; Atlantis was the proton [male]

- both are needed; it is not either or – it is about love and power in balance; power versed in love.

- T: these kinds of executive decisions coupled with the 13 family insertions into everything, and nothing on the main stream media [being closer to the truth]
- M H-P, Rachel, Chris – all of them can only go so far, due to gag orders; Abby goes a little farther but even she cannot go to the end due to gag order;
 - Ed also has to be careful on certain things because he has to answer to MSNBC
 - Randi Rhodes has been let go for saying too much R: Miss Oprah got a deal!
 - Camp Loveway is an alternative place & every once in a while we get someone like Ed Snowden
- The ultimate answer is what we are hearing now: P Cota-Robles' article saying hold on to your hat this month, added to what Rana Mu said – and the shift of opening us to greater galactic reality is challenging for a lot of people
 - some people are contacting them and are so tormented because of past trauma, or they cannot or won't or choose not to – has to do with believing in something for years that has a slimy underbelly that has not been told to the people as they make so much money & give us the finger!
 - Same thing in the spiritual realms: there are teachings that also have such an underbelly too & that is the hardest part!
 - While we are at the end of the story, there is a resistance in humans to making change – eg, the 30 year old woman who is part mexican, part black who is making excuses for Donald Sterling; we can't hold him accountable because he comes from a different generation
 - Well, what are we holding ourselves accountable to? What is the fork in the road; when did we start to think war was humane, that it would answer problems? Thom Hartmann calls it civilized murder
- R: there is another answer, way – peace. When R was 18, he went travelling to see Sai Baba, Mother theresa
- T: Ed Snowden said some brave folks will be stepping forward now: constitutionals lawyers, others from the ACLU, and whistleblowers on the hedge funders, the banksters – will step forward

R: Melanie Sloane and Crew – Citizens for Responsibility and Ethics in Washington; she knows how to explain things about those eating at the trough and not helping the people
T: Ed said his sources are telling him that May is the time for accountability.
• We'll have to cut through this all the way and we have to know the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, so help me goddess!

Audio: Thom Hartmann – discussion Russia, after Thom's interview with Steven Chohen

- The word “gun” is not in the 2nd amendment; the only reference to gun is the word “arms” and, in the dictionary of the time, it is a reference to “weapon” - bows, arrows, clubs,
- There is only one definition in Bailey's English dictionary of 1755 – “ gun” is not mentioned
- Nor do they not mention “fire arms” which is the word of the time for gun: not the word used.
- You have the right to carry a flag of what your country represents : “The right to carry a flag into battle shall not be abridged” and Thom says: “you mean we have been misreading the 2nd amendment all this time?” “Yes” , said the caller!
- The true value of what we represent as the culture is based on guns – but if it were based on warriors for peace and using the flag as the coat of arms and using our values to come into a round table so we can come into the promised land and come into a non-violent agreement, we would have a much different outcome!

ASTROLOGY - Richard

Friday: Mercury exactly opposite Saturn – got up to 21* Taurus – that helps us to organize, direct, narrow down – a good energy for planning – the year, the flow charts – between now and full moon

- Wed, May 14 is New Moon.

Friday: In addition to Mercury opposite Saturn, Venus finally moved into Aries out of Pisces

Saturday: Sun moved into Taurus and exactly trines Pluto: a Taurus-Capricorn trine at 14*

- New moon to full moon – the creative half of the lunar cycle; we get our energy out after the full moon
- Moon in Cancer; will conjunct Jupiter on Sun am – watch out for over-blown emotional reactions

Tues: Sun moves into Taurus to Sextile Jupiter at 6 AM; moon goes into Leo Monday afternoon.

- Sun sextiles Jupiter which is in Cancer

Wed: at 11 am, Mercury goes into Gemini; now Mercury is resting / consolidation phase; it is exalted in Gemini, so in 22 days it goes through Gemini – on May 29, Mercury goes into Cancer.

- Sun goes into Gemini on the 20th, so both sun and Mercury will be in Gemini from the 20th to 29th
- On May 10th, sun exactly opposite Saturn on the 10th;
- Venus is going through Aries, started yesterday: will be opposite Mars on May 11th
- On the 11th: there are 6 lunar aspects and 2 planetary aspects – these could be very tricky on the mental plane: Mercury is organized, Jupiter is dreamy
- Full moon – 24* of Scorpio – the full moon energy revolves around that degree

Open up and let the sun shine in after the big cloudburst of the last few weeks..... We can figure that May will be somewhat less frustrating but now it can be like cleaning up after a wild party the night before..... Mercury opp Saturn this Friday is pretty sober so keep the chin up... it will be worth it! Artwork from the last Pele Report by Fulya Kurter and music this week by: <https://soundcloud.com/lucere>

Conference Call

Richard: to remind all that Venus in Aries, opposite Mars in Libra with Mars being retrograde – the mutual reception thing is one of the fundamental energies guiding how we relate to each other: the Mars in Venus setup should be very good for re'ships on all different levels – physical, mental, emotional, spiritual.

- Get your garden going while the sun is still in Taurus: get working on personal gardens – as you grow your own food, it gives back something special because you did it for yourself:
 - Has his deer cage mostly built – goes around one section – potatoes & onions are in.
 - Tree fruits are ruled by the air sign because they hang in the air, as are beans, and other things that hang in the air

T: Ukraine: people are being murdered – Ri says this is a Pluto event; about gov'ts and control – Mars is square and demanding a different relationship – we probably won't see a resolution until Mars goes direct on the 19th, another 2 weeks – the whole Ukrainian thing is like “boil, boil, toil and trouble”

T: do you see it changing in terms of energy and new values? RI: Burning people alive in the streets!!! It is old, old energies coming up to be processed. The conflict energy is Mars square Pluto: Mars is retrograde and goes direct and then the energies are more suitable for finding a solution there. There are so many organisms there: eastern Ukrainians, pro-russian forces and people sticking their noses in – Venus went into Aries yesterday, goes into Taurus on the 28th – no chance of resolution until month's end.

Ri it's a big soup of humans

T: the old order is appearing not to work very much any more: the people are not respecting it very much as the powers that were have abused things so much:

RI: the Cardinal Cross only became exact at the end of last month on the 23rd when Mars squared Pluto exactly

- the completion of the cross on the 23rd is like a full moon but much more powerful, so now we are working through the completion phase and receive until the next new moon. We are just beginning to see what we have put into the creative mixture process for the last 6-10 months: we don't have much control here right now – in the large scale global situation, we are reaping what we have sown over the last year, since last spring [2013] – and we are only in Phase 2 of what we're going to get this year – it is totally wide open as to what will happen. No predictions.

C2: the youth in the world are flying: no more war; the kids are getting with www.freeandequalelections.org to bring in new gov't scenarios etc; they know all the fractional banking etc etc etc has to go; had a friend in the Ukraine said a lot of what is happening is being rigged –

T it is really true that killings are taking place – what is really going on is that the 13 families have paid people to go in and kill people and blame it on Russia;

C2: the veterans for peace are moving; the corporations need to be dissolved and the military industrial complex - everyone is connecting and things are moving so fast. Things are happening much more than is being disclosed. There is global climate convergence events too

T: Richard just said it is wide open!

T: reads from the astrological info read before [SEE BELOW]

CE: what is critical now is to get the kids connected with the Paradigm Research Group and get them the new information

INFORMATION RELATED TO THE NOTES

2014, Ap 28 Happy Eclipse NEW MOON in Taurus April 28-29th 2014!

The Solar Eclipse | New Moon in Taurus brings us an opportunity to settle in and ground the energies that have been unearthed during this recent portal of transformation. We can allow the nurturing, feminine and grounding energy of Taurus to help us move forward, by physically engaging in that which nurtures.

Spending quality time with our family and engaging in the physical satisfaction of doing things with our hands, cooking, crafting, building, cleaning, all these things bring us deep satisfaction and ground us into the present.

So much of what has been suppressed is coming to the light and it feels as though the very ground beneath us, our very foundation has been shaking, and for some of us it truly has. Our collective ground of being needs to be shaken because it most of it has been built on illusions.

This has been a time of seeing. Illusions about ourselves, illusions about others and illusions about our world. All of these are crumbling away so we can rebuild on what is real and true.

It is a time of recognizing and aligning with what we truly value, and then vowing to live our lives in a way that truly upholds and reflects it. Not in just with our words, but with our actions and the way that we live. This is the lesson this time brings.

So have courage dear hearts, see what needs to be seen, feel it, and allow the transformation that is taking place within and without to carry us to the new. Magic, rebirth, inspiration and much goodness awaits.

Here are the MYSTIC MAMMA Astral Insights from the most tuned in readers of the planetary movements. First from the always wonderful Pat Liles from The Power Path.com:

"We have come through a major planetary alignment, been witness to some of our personal darker corners, yet also touched into some very higher-centered energies of inspiration, change and movement in new directions.

"Projects, gardens, relationships, adventures are springing into life. Taurus, the feminine, Earth power sign ruled by beautiful Venus, is a magnificent mentor for this time.

"After a time of rapid acceleration, we need to pull back and integrate, rest. Taurus' goal is peace, and we get there by being, not doing.

"Taurus is that fertile place inside all where we gestate new life. Let this time of huge growth spurt now take root inside you..."

"Benefit from Taurus' enjoyment of the physical pleasures, of embodied experience. A fragrance enhanced massage, music, a meal cooked and shared with good company, anything that brings you and your body into contentment will be honoring of Taurus and Venus too..."

"Taurus is about having an abundance of self-love and self worth to fund gratitude and appreciation for the world as it is and to reach out and help others. Taurus has solid, unshakable values. What do you value above all else right now?"

"...Reach for those frequencies of empowerment and love that have been opened to us for our healing and rebirth. We all are troubled by the corrupted energies we experience in legal, educational, medical, political areas. Resisting, complaining and railing against these forces is joining them. Working from the positive energies of your heart- cooperation, generosity, all shared energies – is what will change our world in the direction we desire.

"...The Solar eclipse at New Moon, though visible only in the south Indian Ocean, Australia and Antarctica, will culminate this rarified period of alignment creating a reset as the Sun's light, energy, and magnetic field are temporarily suspended and allow for a new and refreshed alignment.

Time to re-ground ourselves using Taurus' stability and presence. Whether from garden or trail, field or mountain, put your feet on the ground or better yet, put your back on the Earth and root yourself deeply down to the core of Mother Earth and draw up her love, nourishment and support into your body and ask for her guidance for a vision of your future self."

From the insightful Divine Harmony:

"The annular Solar Eclipse in Taurus is exact on Monday April 28th at 11:04pm PDT (with the New Moon itself being exact at 11:14pm)..."

"Both the lunar eclipse and the solar eclipse are ruled by venus in pisces- so these particularly eclipse are focused on relationships, our values and self-worth. Major shifts, changes, shake ups and wake up calls are playing out in how we do that self and other dance- as well as how we do the masculine/feminine dance within..."

"It is interesting to note that both Venus in Pisces and retrograde Mars in Libra make tense aspects to this Eclipse- so relationships are again brought into focus. We may need to figure out how to make relationships work in our lives. We may be asked to find a new balance of yin and yang within. Wherever our edge is is where our growth is..."

“In the Eclipse chart Venus makes tense aspects to the Sun, Moon and Mercury- showing that our idealism may be at odds with the practical, realities that are present in our lives right now. Yet Venus does make a sweet trine to saturn in scorio, so if we are ready, willing and able to acknowledge the shadow and deal with it- we can make great strides in our emotional and financial relationships at this time. We can also find a deeper level of self-worth and self-respect out of which we make healthier decisions in relationships and financial situations.”

“...the good news for us is that all this earthy, grounded Taurus energy is helping us ground down into the new terrain we find ourselves in as a result of all the upheaval and chaos that the Grand Cross has brought. Things may be up in the air- but the solar eclipse in taurus helps us find our center despite any storms, shifts and changes playing out around us.”

“This Solar Eclipse is a wonderful opportunity for us to get real, grounded, focused and present with what we want to birth in our lives. It’s the perfect time to align with our deepest values and unconditional Love for self AND other- so that we can make healthy decisions and align ourselves with what is right for us in our lives.”

From Cathy Pagano from her Wisdom of Astrology:

“The Sun entered the sign of Taurus on April 19th, just hours before the Grand Cardinal Cross began to perfect... This womb of transformative energies locked into form a matrix which can energize a new sense of Self-hood within each of us as well as a strong vision for a new society.

“The new story has to be about our relationship with the Earth and each other. The feminine values of relationship, connection and union are the foundation of this new society and new sense of Self.

“Patriarchy has promoted an ideal of individual self-hood that has lost connection with others and with the Earth. Along with that ideal arose the rejection of feminine values and the devaluing of women and feminine ways of knowing as well as the rape of the Earth.

“This rejection of the feminine has led to a loss of Wisdom in our society. Sometimes we are sadly lacking in the compassion and wisdom that are basic moral and cosmic laws...”

“Ancient societies knew that humans are intimately connected with our environment. At the root of all life is our connection to Mother Earth. And yet we live in a society that rejects that wisdom and misuses that gift.

“So let’s begin this new creation by taking time every day to find a bit of Earth to be with, communicate with and care for. Whether you live in the city, the country or the desert, you walk on this beautiful Earth, feel the warmth of the Sun’s fires, are blown away by the winds and refreshed by the rains. Re-Connect! Learn to understand the voices of the Earth. Perhaps you can help or heal something. Perhaps you will be healed.

“All native people created societies that lived in harmony with the Earth. Our modern society has fallen out of balance with nature and created great dis-harmony with the Earth.

“Our ice caps are melting and flooding the oceans with cold sweet waters that can disrupt weather patterns around the world. We are poisoning the Earth—her soil, air and waters—for profit and power, laziness and complacency, stupidity and arrogance...”

“Taurus’ lesson is to teach us how to be good stewards of the Earth and her bounty...What is being birth within the matrix of the comic cross is the evolutionary need for humanity to once again reclaim our place in Earth’s ecology and discover our purpose, to live in harmony with each other and with all of nature and to learn from its wisdom...”

“Taurus also gives us the gift of self-worth and the responsibility to have strong values. What do you value? And what values do you hold sacred? If we are to build (a Taurus activity) something new, we have to build it on values that are strong and secure.

“One of the troubles with our world is that we aren’t living up to our values and ideals. People talk a good talk, but don’t walk the walk. And so we have a nation, and a world, of hypocrites who want to look bright and shiny on the outside for all the world to see, but who are really living out very negative desires for power, greed, and domination.

“Until we change our priorities away from economic gain and back to community welfare and global inter-connection, we will fail to change anything. Our values form the basis of an ethical life and the ethical society we all imagine we live in.

“If we want to change ourselves, we have to know what our values are and then strive to live them. Love, honesty, courage, courtesy, respect, hope, creativity, knowledge, wisdom, truth, honor, responsibility. These are just a few of the virtues that we need to live out our values, especially if we believe in equality and freedom.

“A solar eclipse occurs when the Sun and Moon and Earth align as the Moon passes between the Sun and the Earth, and the light of the Sun dims. This disrupts the energy coming from the Sun and how it affects the web of life here on Earth, rebooting us with a new consciousness. A solar eclipse is an extra powerful new Moon, so plant your seeds with promises of a new connection to nature, to your body and to the interconnection with everyone here on Earth.

“Change is always the key to eclipses. So watch to see what changes come your way—even if they seem sudden, they’ve probably been building for some time now. Stay open to the mystery and allow it to happen. A new beginning is indeed upon us.

“The eclipse occurs on Monday and Tuesday, April 28th-29th at 11:14pm PDT, 2:14am EDT, 6:14am GMT. This is what is called an annular eclipse, when a narrow rind of the Sun is visible around the dark mass of the Moon. It is visible in Antarctica and the southern most parts of the East.”

Pleiadian Perspective on Ascension: Changing Realities 3 –

The Arcturian Message. Channelled by Suzanne Lie. May 2, 2014. <http://suzanneliephd.blogspot.co.uk/>

The Arcturian Speaks:

When Sandy and Jason were first beamed to the Lemurian settlement in Middle Earth their Lightbodies were 83% activated. Their Lightbody activation was largely because they were bonded with each other, with their higher expressions of Mytria, Mytre and Mytrian.

However as they entered the beautifully decorated and highly attended celebration given in their honor, they became intimidated and their consciousness dropped. Instantly, Mytre merged with Jason while Mytria merged with Sandy to assist them to adapt to the honor that was being bestowed on them.

When Laturnius saw that Sandy and Jason needed some “time” to adapt to yet another new experience, he introduced us, the Arcturian, to begin our speech. As we expanded our energy field to our brightest and most humanoid form, the room became quiet and everyone took seats to hear our presentation.

Sandy and Jason were happily led to their seats at the same table as Mytre, Mytria and Mytrian who had taken on their own humanoid forms. As the crowd found their seats and settled in to receive our message, we beamed our Unconditional Love into the expansive room.

Once the room was calm and centered on our Arcturian energy field, we told the audience that we would begin our story with the initial “seeding” of Earth. A seeding of a planet is much like a seeding of the ground. Seeds are planted in the hope that they will grow and prosper.

In the same fashion, Beings from different planets, galaxies and dimensions, planted their “seeds” in the hope that they could live, grow and prosper on a new, young (in planetary terms) world. However, rather than physical seeds, we Galactics were planting seeds of consciousness.

The Arcturians were among the first Galactics to send seeds of consciousness onto the life forms of planet Earth. Hence, we have come to deliver this message. Before we flash forward to your relatively new societies of Lemuria and Atlantis, we encourage you to remember your Galactic Family.

Those of you who have taken incarnations on “surface Earth,” which many of you have done, will have to dust off the cobwebs of forgetfulness from your incarnations in the Piscean Age.

In that age of the Kali Yuga, which is referred to as the Dark Age in which humanity was as far away as possible from the ONE, humans believed the Sun revolved around the Earth, or they were the most evolved planet in all of the Galaxy, or even the Universe.

It takes a strong person to recognize their weakness and an even stronger person to recognize the many lies that limited their expansion into SELF. Most important, to understand what we are saying, you will need to release the fear of other civilizations who were once your enemy.

Yes, there have indeed been many civilizations, even amongst your Galactic ancestors, who were ego-oriented and selfish. Many of the ones in power in those societies greatly devolved after the great fall of Lemuria and Atlantis. In fact, it was some of these civilizations that were greatly responsible for the decline and fall, rather than the rise and ascension, of these two civilizations of Lemuria and Atlantis.

Fortunately, just as some members of these civilizations fell, there were others who ascended. There were also those, such as yourselves, who took refuge underground within the body of Gaia to await their next opportunity, which is NOW, to ascend themselves and planet Earth.

These Beings, YOU, live just one half octave above the physical world on Earth's surface, for you entered Earth before She plummeted into Her lowest frequency.

Because of the completion of the great cycle of the Precession of the Equinox, Earth's is now in alignment with the Galactic Center. Thus, the planet's frequency of resonance is slowly and surely rising.

In fact, Earth entered Her Golden Age in late 2012. She will remain in this era for 2,000 years in which Multidimensional Light and Unconditional Love will flow directly from the Galactic Center. Therefore, it is the NOW for those who have ascended, as well as those who have waited within the core and on the body Gaia, to tell their truth.

Because truth is relative to the perception of those who speak it, there are many stories of the rise, peak, decline and fall of the great civilizations of Lemuria and Atlantis. As we, the Arcturians, share our perspective we welcome you to allow your perspective to awaken and grow within your own consciousness.

We begin our story with the beginning of the last Precession of the Equinox. Earth goes through one cycle of precession over a period of approximately 26,000 years or 1° every 72 years. During this time, the positions of stars slowly change in both equatorial co-ordinates and ecliptic longitude.

We go back to a "time" when Lemuria's wonderful Golden Age was coming into its completion, while Atlantis was living within the peak of its society. Lemuria and Atlantis were meant to bring Gaia into the extreme polarization which you have been experiencing since their fall.

Lemuria was to be the "Mother Civilization" and represent the Flow of the electron, receptive/inflow, feminine polarity of energy, experienced as Love. Atlantis, on the other hand, was to be the "Divine Father" and represent the Flow of the proton, expressive/outflow, masculine polarity of energy, experienced as power.

Through the marriage of feminine and masculine, Love and Power, the two landed expressions of Gaia could gain the great Wisdom to Ascend. Unfortunately, instead of a beautiful bonding and resulting Ascension, their "marriage," like many Earthly marriages, ended in a long "divorce" in which both of them lost everything.

Part of the reason for this divorce of power and love was that the Galactic ancestors of these great civilizations could never approve of this marriage. All the ancestors wanted was to "have it ALL". In other words, greed was the cause of destruction then, just as it is in your NOW. Then, much like the story of Romeo and Juliet, it was the children of the families who suffered the most.

As Gaia moves again into the energy field of possible Ascension and planetary Unity, the marriage of ALL polarities into the ONE is your hope and means of Ascension. As we tell the age-old story of love and power, peak and fall, unity and separation, we ask you to listen with your Multidimensional SELF, so that you will remember YOUR Truth.

Through remembering your own Truth, your own perception of this story, you can take that which was in your distant past and bring it into your present, to create a future of Ascension within the NOW of the ONE. In this manner you can travel in consciousness via the oscillation of the sine waves of your consciousness. The higher your consciousness, the faster the oscillation of sine waves, and the more quickly you will travel inter-dimensionally via your consciousness.

The frequency of your consciousness is influenced by the rate of the spin of molecules within your form. If your form resonates to a much lower frequency than your Multidimensional consciousness, your consciousness and form will not be in entrainment. Therefore, your form and brain will not be aware of what is occurring within your higher frequency consciousness and inter-dimensional travels.

It is the discrepancy between the frequency of your form and the frequency of your consciousness that creates the illusion of separation in which you feel separate from your Multidimensional SELF. In the world in which humanity has lived since before the fall of Atlantis, this type of “separation from SELF” has been quite common.

Before the fall of Lemuria and even until the end times of Atlantis, the humanoid form resonated to the fifth dimension and beyond. Because of these high frequencies, the bodies did not have a static form. In fact, many did not need a form at all and existed as pure consciousness.

Through the early and positive actions of the early Atlantians, Spirit can now still inhabit the fourth dimension. It is the challenge of the grounded Ones, who are the descendants of Atlantis, to bring Spirit into the third dimension.

The Atlantians created this splitting of their spiritual and denser forms when they began genetic engineering. Before the genetic engineering, all forms in Atlantis were “visited” by androgynous Spirits of the higher dimensions. These spiritual Beings visited Atlantis in the same manner that you would log in to a video game.

Life for most of the Lemurian era and a lesser portion of the Atlantian era was exactly like logging into a 3D video game. The higher dimensional Spirit entered into a form that was clearly a “game” on the holographic matrix of fourth dimensional Earth. At first, they entered plants and animals. Humans were so un-evolved at that time that there was little differentiation between a human and any other form of animal.

Humans were male and female just like the other third dimensional animals. Visitors from other Star Systems who were in need of biped workers had genetically engineered these “humanoid animals” millennia before. However, the early Atlantians, as well as the Lemurians, were androgynous and visited Earthly forms to temporarily experience the concept of gender.

Due to the actions of the latter-day Atlantians, their consciousness lowered and they suffered an increasing sense of separation from their Multidimensional SELF. Eventually, their consciousness lowered so drastically that the oscillation of the sine waves of their consciousness slowed to such a low frequency that they could no longer travel inter-dimensionally. Then they became trapped in the forms that they were once just “visiting.”

Travel via consciousness is based on the oscillation of the sine waves of the traveler’s consciousness. The higher the consciousness and the faster the spin and oscillation, the more quickly the Spirit (true non-physical form) can travel inter-dimensionally via consciousness.

Because the frequency of consciousness is influenced by the rate of spin of molecules within the form that Spirit is visiting, it became increasingly difficult for the visiting Spirits to remember their true consciousness while they were inhabiting a form.

For many millennia, Spirits visited the third/fourth dimensional reality in which the masculine and feminine polarities were separated into two different genders. These visits became longer and longer as the Spirits became addicted to the experience of lower dimensional form. These longer visits into the increasing sensation of "time" on Earth further lowered the Spirits' consciousness.

When the frequency of their consciousness dropped to the frequency of the form they were visiting, they were no longer Spirit visiting form, but Spirits trapped in form. The trapped Spirits then knew the experience of death, which was never experienced when they were Spirit because they lived infinitely while within the unity of the ONE.

Worse yet, the Atlantians did not take responsibility for the creation of their own problem. Instead, they blamed the ONE for punishing them and making them stay within their decaying, dying Earthen vessels. Therefore, they separated themselves from the ONE as well as from their own Spirit Beings within their physical forms.

They polarized the ONE into gender deities of God or Goddess. This final separation from the ONE cemented their fate into the long decline into Beings of form rather than Beings of Spirit. Spirit was always within them, but they had evicted it from their minds.

Hence, they could no longer experience their own spirit through their physical perceptions. For this reason, their inner Spirit became a distant hierarchical ruler who was either a male "God," or a female "Goddess." Once Spirit became polarized in their consciousness, the battle between God and Goddess was focused on the battle between female Lemuria and male Atlantis.

Lemuria and Atlantis had peacefully co-existed for millions of years, but the Atlantians were conflicted and needed to vent their anger onto others. Therefore, that which was meant to be the blissful marriage of masculine and feminine that would return Earth into Her Spirit form and usher in personal and planetary Ascension became instead a long and violent divorce.

Lemuria was to be the matrix for the feminine, receptive, emotive and creative aspect of the future humanity. On the other hand, Atlantis was to be the masculine, expression, logical and scientific aspect of future humanity. Both of these realities resonated to a frequency that we would now call the fourth dimension.

It was not within the Divine Plan to create a reality at the third dimension, for the separation from Spirit would make future evolution too difficult. Unfortunately, after the fall of these two great worlds, especially the fall of Atlantis, Earth was so shaken on her axis that it was impossible for Gaia to maintain a connection with Her fourth dimensional resonance.

Gaia called out to Spirit to send Light Beings to assist Her, as she was on the edge of falling off her axis. Millions of loving Light Beings took forms made of the same elements as Gaia. They hoped that if they could transmute the lower dimensional forms into a higher frequency, they would be able to assist Gaia to do the same. However, Earth was too wounded to resonate any higher than the third dimension.

Even though Gaia's consciousness resonated to the fourth dimension, Her planetary body needed eons of healing before it could also resonate to the fourth dimension. It was then that the fourth dimension became the reality that vibrated in the aura of Gaia and She became separate from Her planetary body that resonated to the third dimension.

The creators of the Earth experiment were very concerned about the absence of Spirit's integration into third-dimensional matter. They knew that matter separated from Spirit would create a very harsh world that would become increasingly polarized.

It is the presence and frequency of Spirit that would allow the life forms on, in and above Earth to find and live within the unity of Planetary Consciousness. In a reality devoid of Unity and Planetary Consciousness, the grounded humans would experience extremes of separation from each other and from their planet.

In an attempt to make sense of their difficult lives, the Ones who fell into darkness grew to believe that what they did was good for others. With such separation from Spirit, the Light Ones tainted their Unconditional Love of the ONE with the conditional love of their polarized reality in which others had to follow their commands to deserve love.

This manner of separation of male and female began in Atlantis while Lemuria was still in existence. The Atlantians increasing separation from spirit set them on a ruthless plight to gain power over others. Worse yet, the “others” included the planet itself.

On the other hand, Lemuria became so polarized to the feminine side that their emotions made them perceive what they wanted to see rather than what was actually occurring. Hence, they did not see that the Atlantian power systems were being used as weapons.

In the end, both civilizations perished, but much was learned. From this experiment of polarized reality on Earth, it was learned that both masculine and feminine energies must incorporate Wisdom, Power and Love within their Earth vessels to serve as the means to find their center. Hence, the Three Fold Flame of Wisdom, Power, and Love were placed in the High Heart of all incarnating Ones.

Unfortunately, in most cases, this correction was useless. After the fall of Atlantis the frequency of Gaia’s body was so low that most humans were unable to connect with their High Heart. Hence, most of their lives were spent in the business of survival.

The Priests and Priestesses of the ONE carried their Light with them into the new locations to which they fled. Unfortunately, many of those who thrived on separation took the darkness of power-over others into the same locations. Hence, the extreme battle between Light and dark was carried into the surviving realities. This battle cannot be won. But it can be ended. Like any fire, it must have fuel to burn.

As we calibrate the Core and Cornerstone Crystals to the fifth-dimensional portions of Earth’s planetary matrix, the third/fourth dimensional energy fields will no longer have a place to which they can attach. Hence, the third/fourth dimensional timelines will expand into a higher frequency or move on to another planet’s third/ fourth dimensional matrix.

In this manner, those who are not yet complete with the experience of resonating to third/fourth dimensional realities will simply switch reality as easily as one can switch into a different dream. With the recalibration of Gaia’s planetary Crystals, the portal into the fifth dimensional matrix of Earth will open wide while the portals into third/fourth dimensional Earth will be re-routed to other planets experimenting with the concept of polarity and separation.

Note From Sue:

I received most of this information as a channel from the Arcturians in the summer of 2010. At that time I did not really understand it and dared NOT publish it. We still had some VERY dark times ahead of us and it was not safe to talk in such a direct manner about Ascension and the real history of Gaia.

In just four years there have been so many changes that I feel I can share this information. I even KNOW that many people will understand it fully and have likely received it themselves. Hurray for humanity!

Remarks by the President at White House Correspondents' Dinner

10:21 P.M. EDT

THE PRESIDENT: Thank you so much, everybody. Have a seat, have a seat. Before I get started, can we get the new presidential setup out here?

(Aides bring out two ferns.)

It was worked before. (Laughter and applause.) That's more like it.

It is great to be back. What a year, huh? I usually start these dinners with a few self-deprecating jokes. After my stellar 2013, what could I possibly talk about? (Laughter.)

I admit it -- last year was rough. Sheesh. (Laughter.) At one point things got so bad, the 47 percent called Mitt Romney to apologize. (Laughter.)

Of course, we rolled out healthcare.gov That could have gone better. (Laughter.) In 2008 my slogan was, "Yes We Can." In 2013 my slogan was, "Control-Alt-Delete." (Laughter.) On the plus side, they did turn the launch of healthcare.gov into one of the year's biggest movies. (Laughter.)

But rather than dwell on the past, I would like to pivot to this dinner. Let's welcome our headliner this evening, Joel McHale. (Applause.) On "Community," Joel plays a preening, self-obsessed narcissist. So this dinner must be a real change of pace for you. (Laughter.)

I want to thank the White House Correspondents Association for hosting us here tonight. I am happy to be here, even though I am a little jet-lagged from my trip to Malaysia. The lengths we have to go to get CNN coverage these days. (Laughter and applause.) I think they're still searching for their table. (Laughter and applause.)

MSNBC is here. They're a little overwhelmed. (Laughter.) They've never seen an audience this big before. (Laughter.)

But, look, everybody is trying to keep up with this incredibly fast-changing media landscape. For example, I got a lot of grief on cable news for promoting Obamacare to young people on Between Two Ferns. But that's what young people like to watch. And to be fair, I am not the first person on television between two potted plants. (Laughter and applause.)

Sometimes I do feel disrespected by you reporters. But that's okay. Seattle Seahawk cornerback Richard Sherman is here tonight. (Applause.) And he gave me some great tips on how to handle it. Jake Tapper, don't you ever talk about me like that! (Laughter.) I'm the best President in the game! (Laughter.)

What do you think, Richard? Was that good? A little more feeling next time?

While we're talking sports, just last month, a wonderful story -- an American won the Boston Marathon for first time in 30 years. (Applause.) Which was inspiring and only fair, since a Kenyan has been president for the last six. (Laughter and applause.) Had to even things out. (Laughter.)

We have some other athletes here tonight, including Olympic snowboarding gold medalist Jamie Anderson is here. We're proud of her. (Applause.) Incredibly talented young lady. Michelle and I watched the Olympics -- we cannot believe what these folks do -- death-defying feats -- haven't seen somebody pull a "180" that fast since Rand Paul disinvited that Nevada rancher from this dinner. (Laughter.) As a general rule, things don't like end well if the sentence starts, "Let me tell you something I know about the negro." (Laughter.) You don't really need to hear the rest of it. (Laughter and applause.) Just a tip for you -- don't start your sentence that way. (Laughter.)

Speaking of Rand Paul -- (laughter) -- Colorado legalized marijuana this year, an interesting social experiment. I do hope it doesn't lead to a whole lot of paranoid people who think that the federal government is out to get them and listening to their phone calls. (Laughter.) That would be a problem. (Laughter.)

And speaking of conservative heroes, the Koch brothers bought a table here tonight. But as usual, they used a shadowy right-wing organization as a front. Hello, Fox News. (Laughter and applause.)

I'm just kidding. Let's face it, Fox, you'll miss me when I'm gone. (Laughter.) It will be harder to convince the American people that Hillary was born in Kenya. (Laughter and applause.)

A lot of us really are concerned about the way big money is influencing our politics. I remember when a Super PAC was just me buying Marlboro 100s instead of regulars. (Laughter.)

Of course, now that it's 2014, Washington is obsessed on the midterms. Folks are saying that with my sagging poll numbers, my fellow Democrats don't really want me campaigning with them. And I don't think that's true -- although I did notice the other day that Sasha needed a speaker at career day, and she invited Bill Clinton. (Laughter.) I was a little hurt by that. (Laughter.)

Both sides are doing whatever it takes to win the ruthless game. Republicans -- this is a true story -- Republicans actually brought in a group of consultants to teach their candidates how to speak to women. This is true. And I don't know if it will work with women, but I understand that America's teenage boys are signing up to run for the Senate in droves. (Laughter.)

Anyway, while you guys focus on the horserace, I'm going to do what I do -- I'm going to be focused on everyday Americans. Just yesterday, I read a heartbreaking letter -- you know I get letters from folks from around the country; every day I get 10 that I read -- this one got to me. A Virginia man who's been stuck in the same part-time job for years; no respect from his boss; no chance to get ahead. I really wish Eric Cantor would stop writing me. (Laughter.) You can just pick up the phone, Eric. (Laughter.)

And I'm feeling sorry -- believe it or not -- for the Speaker of the House, as well. These days, the House Republicans actually give John Boehner a harder time than they give me, which means orange really is the new black. (Laughter and applause.)

But I have not given up the idea of working with Congress. In fact, two weeks ago, Senator Ted Cruz and I, we got a bill done together. And I have to say, the signing ceremony was something special. We've got a picture of it I think. (Laughter.)

Look, I know, Washington seems more dysfunctional than ever. Gridlock has gotten so bad in this town you have to wonder: What did we do to piss off Chris Christie so bad? (Laughter and applause.)

One issue, for example, we haven't been able to agree on is unemployment insurance. Republicans continue to refuse to extend it. And you know what, I am beginning to think they've got a point. If you want to get paid while not working, you should have to run for Congress just like everybody else. (Laughter and applause.)

Of course, there is one thing that keeps Republicans busy. They have tried more than 50 times to repeal Obamacare. Despite that, 8 million people signed up for health care in the first open enrollment. (Applause.) Which does lead one to ask, how well does Obamacare have to work before you don't want to repeal it? What if everybody's cholesterol drops to 120? (Laughter.) What if your yearly checkup came with tickets to a Clippers game? (Laughter.) Not the old, Donald Sterling Clippers -- the new Oprah Clippers. Would that be good enough?

(Laughter.) What if they gave Mitch McConnell a pulse? (Laughter.) What is it going to take?(Laughter.)

Anyway, this year, I've promised to use more executive actions to get things done without Congress. My critics call this the "imperial presidency." The truth is, I just show up every day in my office and do my job. I've got a picture of this I think. (Laughter and applause.) You would think they'd appreciate a more assertive approach, considering that the new conservative darling is none other than Vladimir Putin. (Laughter.) Last year, Pat Buchanan said Putin is "headed straight for the Nobel Peace Prize." He said this. Now I know it sounds crazy but to be fair, they give those to just about anybody these days. (Laughter.) So it could happen.

But it's not just Pat -- Rudy Giuliani said Putin is "what you call a leader." Mike Huckabee and Sean Hannity keep talking about his bare chest, which is kind of weird. (Laughter.) Look it up -- they talk about it a lot. (Laughter.)

It is strange to think that I have just two and a half years left in this office. Everywhere I look, there are reminders that I only hold this job temporarily. (Laughter.)

But it's a long time between now and 2016, and anything can happen. You may have heard the other day, Hillary had to dodge a flying shoe at a press conference. (Laughter and applause.) I love that picture. (Laughter.)

Regardless of what happens, I've run my last campaign and I'm beginning to think about my legacy. Some of you know -- Mayor Rahm Emanuel recently announced he is naming a high school in Chicago after me, which is extremely humbling. I was even more flattered to hear Rick Perry, who is here tonight, is doing the same thing in Texas. Take a look. (Laughter.) Thank you, Rick. t means a lot to me. (Laughter and applause.)

And I intend to enjoy all the free time that I will have. George W. Bush took up painting after he left office, which inspired me to take up my own artistic side. (Laughter.) I'm sure we've got a shot of this. (Laughter.) Maybe not. The joke doesn't work without the slide. (Laughter.) Oh well. Assume that it was funny. (Laughter.) Does this happen to you, Joel? It does? Okay.

On a more serious note, tonight reminds us that we really are lucky to live in a country where reporters get to give a head of state a hard time on a daily basis -- and then, once a year, give him or her the chance, at least, to try to return the favor.

But we also know that not every journalist, or photographer, or crewmember is so fortunate, because even as we celebrate the free press tonight, our thoughts are with those in places around the globe like Ukraine, and Afghanistan, and Syria, and Egypt, who risk everything -- in some cases, even give their lives -- to report the news.

And what tonight also reminds us is that the fight for full and fair access goes beyond the chance to ask a question. As Steve mentioned, decades ago, an African American who wanted to cover his or her President might be barred from journalism school, burdened by Jim Crow, and, once in Washington, banned from press conferences. But after years of effort, black editors and publishers began meeting with FDR's press secretary, Steve Early. And then they met with the President himself, who declared that a black reporter would get a credential. And even when Harry McAlpin made history as the first African American to attend a presidential news conference, he wasn't always welcomed by the other reporters. But he was welcomed by the President, who told him, I'm glad to see you, McAlpin, and I'm very happy to have you here.

Now, that sentiment might have worn off once Harry asked him a question or two -- (laughter) -- and Harry's battles continued. But he made history. And we're so proud of Sherman and his family for being here tonight, and the White House Correspondents Association for creating a scholarship in Harry's name. (Applause.)

For over 100 years, even as the White House Correspondents Association has told the story of America's progress, you've lived it, too -- gradually allowing equal access to women, and minorities, and gays, and Americans with disabilities. And, yes, radio, and television, and Internet reporters, as well. And through it all, you've helped make sure that even as societies change, our fundamental commitment to the interaction between those who govern and those who ask questions doesn't change. And as Jay will attest, it's a legacy you carry on enthusiastically every single day.

And because this is the 100th anniversary of the Correspondents' Association, I actually recorded an additional brief video thanking all of you for your hard work. Can we run the video?

(Video fails to play.)

THE PRESIDENT: What's going on? (Laughter.) I was told this would work. Does anybody know how to fix this? (Laughter.)

(Secretary Sebelius enters from backstage.)

THE PRESIDENT: Oh, thank you. (Laughter and applause.) You got it?

SECRETARY SEBELIUS: I got this -- I see it all the time. There, that should work.

(Video plays.)

THE PRESIDENT: Thank you very much, everybody. God bless you. And God bless America, and thank you, Kathleen Sebelius. (Applause.)

Receives IRS & SEC Whistleblower Filing

JOURNALIST MARINKA PESCHMANN*

Creditor and Whistleblower evidence alleges securities fraud, income tax fraud and income tax evasion. Further investigation is necessary to protect millions of homeowners.

New York City, New York – U. S. Bankruptcy Court, Southern District of New York’s Judge Martin Glenn, presiding over the simultaneous Chapter 11 bankruptcy filings of 51 residential mortgage companies, received a whistleblower filing package today from one of the creditors in this case, a private American citizen, Greg Morse.

The Internal Revenue Service and Securities Exchange Commission received the same package today. Among its contents is Morse’s whistleblower submission of IRS Form 211—Application for Award for Original Information, and SEC Form TCR—SEC Tip, Complaint or Referral, accompanied by voluminous supporting documentation. These federal agencies are mandated to investigate allegations of corruption and fraud.

The 51 bankrupt residential mortgage companies are directly or indirectly owned by Residential Capital, also known as ResCap.

Morse, a commissioned officer was honorably discharged from the U. S. Air Force and the U. S. Navy as an F-4 Phantom fighter pilot. He was one of the initial people who uncovered and successfully prosecuted a federal fraud case regarding the savings and loan debacle in the late 1980’s.

Like millions of Americans, Morse believed when he refinanced his home mortgage in 2008 that it was legitimate but found out otherwise when he discovered that his chain of title had been broken by Mortgage Electronic Registration Systems, Inc. (MERS). His home in Texas was not and is not in foreclosure. He has never been late or missed a mortgage payment.

According to N.Y. bankruptcy court records, as of March, 2012, at stake are over 2.4 million mortgages and Residential Mortgage Backed Securities (RMBS) representing over 6.2 million Americans, according to U. S. census statistics.

The value of this bankruptcy case, as of today, is well over $400 billion—making it the largest bankruptcy in history.

There has been virtually no press coverage of this bankruptcy that affects the entire U.S. economy, millions of homeowners and nations who purchased RMBS securities. It far exceeds, in dollar volume and social impact, the General Motors bankruptcy which garnered front page media coverage for months.

68 percent of these mortgages in this N.Y. bankruptcy are either owned, insured, or guaranteed by Government Sponsored Enterprises (GSEs) of Fannie Mae, Freddie Mac and Ginnie Mae. Purportedly, a significant number of the mortgages are owned by RMBS Trusts.

Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac are in conservatorship (bankruptcy). Their conservator is the U. S. Federal Housing Finance Agency (FHFA). $45 billion is guaranteed by Ginnie Mae.

It appears this single bankruptcy represents at least 3% of all active U.S. residential mortgages.

Morse's whistleblower filing package that was received by Judge Glenn today includes his 279 page jurat affidavit in support of IRS Form 211 and SEC Form TCR. His jurat affidavit is supported by 11,000 pages of corroborated, publicly sourced and court admissible evidence related to the mortgage crisis, the 2008 economic crash, his 2011 Racketeer Influence and Corrupt Organizations Act (RICO) civil case addressing his fraudulent mortgage—and the alleged acts of securities fraud, income tax fraud and income tax evasion.

As a court designated creditor, Morse has had access to documents through the official court-ordered website for large bankruptcies. He and his team have scoured through court documents and, to the best of their knowledge, it appears that these issues have not been introduced or investigated by the bankruptcy court.

Additional court docket information is available at KCC L.L.C. at their website and at the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors website.

The next hearing in Judge Glenn's courtroom regarding Morse's case is currently scheduled for May 15. It regards his RICO civil case due to a fraudulent residential mortgage on his Texas home, in which he is the sole pro se plaintiff. Morse's RICO civil case is how he became a creditor in this New York bankruptcy case. Under 18 USC Section 1964 private citizens may seek civil damages due to RICO fraud activities. He has been in federal court since April 26, 2011 attempting to get the court to allow the evidence to be brought before a jury of his peers.

Morse's whistleblower filing to the IRS and SEC grew out of his RICO case which was originally filed in the U. S. Federal District Court, Eastern District of Texas, and is currently on interlocutory appeal in the 5th Circuit Court of Appeals.

In an exclusive interview with this journalist, when asked what he saw taking place behind the scenes of the mortgage crisis, Morse said, "I see this RICO fraud enterprise with MERS in the center as being a well-masked, legally controlled and potentially a judicially assisted resource, land and asset grab from the American people. Just look at the publicly disclosed evidence. Remember, according to the Federal Reserve's own reports, the current value of all residential mortgages in the country is estimated to be $13 trillion or so. Compare that number with only the short term federal debt that now exceeds $17 trillion. That means that the total value of residential mortgages alone represents 76% of the national debt. This is very serious and the stakes are high. It doesn't appear that Judge Glenn is aware of the alleged securities fraud, income tax fraud and income tax evasion issues related to a number of the 51 bankruptcy petitioners," Morse added. "If Judge Glenn elects to consider our evidence, he could do nothing or he could place this bankruptcy hearing in abeyance pending the results of my requested IRS and SEC investigations. If Judge Glenn allows the bankruptcy to proceed ..."

According to court documents, the second amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan, approved on December 13, 2013 allows for the liquidation of hundreds of billions of dollars worth of homeowners' mortgages to legendary business billionaire magnate—the fourth richest man in the world, according to Forbes, Warren Buffett's Berkshire Hathaway, Inc. and Ocwen Loan Servicing, L.L.C.

The bankruptcy terms allows Berkshire Hathaway and Ocwen to purchase over $400 billion worth of mortgages and RMBS trusts for less than $5 billion. Once these mortgages are sold, Berkshire Hathaway and Ocwen will be bankruptcy remote. That means that once the mortgage assets are sold to them, American homeowners, like Morse, will not be able to obtain, through discovery, in judicial proceedings, the documents pertaining to their mortgages to determine if there is an issue with their property's chain of title or verify if there is a free, clear and legally traceable ownership of their homes.

In effect, mortgage records of millions of American homeowners would be destroyed.

Last March, Ocwen, was found guilty of breaking laws in 49 states.

As the Los Angeles Times' Scott Reckard reported: "California victims of alleged foreclosure abuses will get $268 million in relief from a $2.1-billion national settlement with Ocwen Financial Corp., the nation's largest non-bank provider of mortgage customer service ... The announcement ... also spotlights a growing controversy as major lenders outsource their mortgage servicing operations to Ocwen and other firms that specialize in collecting payments, pressuring delinquent borrowers and foreclosing on defaulted mortgages."

Berkshire Hathaway and Ocwen did not respond to a request for comment for this article.

"The result of this massive sell-off of mortgages is that this effective destruction of documents could contribute to covering up, and making it more difficult to corroborate the alleged acts of securities fraud, income tax fraud and income tax evasion. This is the endgame exit strategy and cover-up I warned about four years ago," Morse explained to this journalist. "For obvious reasons, it was necessary to ensure that Judge Glenn was made aware of the evidence otherwise he could go down in history as the man who unknowingly destroyed the rights of millions of American homeowners."

In October, 2010 Morse wrote an article that was well circulated on the Internet where he forecasted and warned that this exact set of bankruptcy proceedings and results would occur and prove to be the endgame exit strategy for those banks and participants, like MERS, in the RICO fraud enterprise at the heart of the mortgage crisis.

"The light speed rate at which this bankruptcy, on behalf of the money changers with their Fortune 125 law firms, is being pushed through is breathtaking. For the last 3 years, I, as a pro se plaintiff, have been following the rules and have not been able to present the evidence before a jury. Unlike my savings and loan days in the late 1980's, where the rule of law still applied in America and the guilty were held accountable, I have witnessed acts of perjury and misrepresentation on behalf of the defendant's attorney's made to the court with no redress or accountability." Morse said.

James Kidney, a SEC trial attorney, is also concerned about the lack of accountability in the 2008 economic crisis. As Bloomberg News' Robert Schmidt recently reported, Kidney warned during his outgoing retirement remarks, "The SEC has become an agency that polices the broken windows on the street level and rarely goes to the penthouse floors. On the rare occasions when enforcement does go to the penthouse, good manners are paramount. Tough enforcement, risky enforcement, is subject to extensive negotiation and weakening."

Because of the scope and volume of evidence Morse has uncovered and documented, in addition to the IRS, SEC and Judge Glenn, his whistleblower filing was submitted to over 500 other recipients including: President Barack Obama, the Secretary of the Treasury, all Supreme Court Justices and other members of the U. S. Judicial Branch, Chairmen and Ranking Members of the U.S. House of Representatives Standing Committees, Inspectors General of numerous federal agencies, G20 Summit members, members of the U. S. Senate, the national and international media, attorneys from the Birmingham, Alabama law firm of Bradley Arant Boult Cummings, LLP, who are representing both debtors and creditors in the N.Y. bankruptcy case, and the New York law firm of Morrison & Foerster, LLP.

According to Morse's whistleblower jurat affidavit: "The IRS and the SEC are the last remaining hopes for justice in disclosing the complete and truthful facts regarding this RICO fraud enterprise that is the mortgage crisis and are the federal agencies with the experience, capability, jurisdictional authority and congressionally mandated tasks of investigating, stopping and prosecuting fraud. Justice and the rule of law must be maintained in these legal actions or the rights, homesteads and financial lives of millions of Americans will be destroyed. The results, positive or negative, will directly affect millions of Americans today and in the years to come."

Morse's fight is everybody's fight. His legal battles affect millions of American homeowners and beyond.

As I have been reviewing the court records, whistleblower filing package and evidence for weeks, also included within Morse's whistleblower filing is a media query from me in my capacity as a journalist. I have requested that the recipients respond directly so I can report their responses verbatim and in their entirety to preserve the integrity of the IRS and SEC investigations prompted by Morse's whistleblower filing. Non responses will be reported as well.
