What is a Unit Commissioner?

A Unit Commissioner is a volunteer Scouter who works directly with Scout units and leaders to help them provide the highest quality Scouting program possible. As friends, teachers and counselors to unit leaders, Commissioners represent the ideals, principles and policies of the Boy Scout program while providing the resources of the district and council to the units they serve. The primary purpose of the Unit Commissioner is to help units succeed.

How can my Unit Commissioner help me?

Operating quietly and in the background, Commissioners serve as a liaison between the units they serve and the local council and district. With unit visits, generally once a month or more as the need determines, they support units and their leaders in a number of ways:

- ❖ Interpret district and council programs for the unit.
- ❖ Promote the latest training, literature and resources.
- ❖ Get to know the adults and the boys.
- ❖ Listen to concerns, problems, and challenges and help leaders "think out loud" about solutions.
- ❖ Notice opportunities for units to better serve their youth members

How do I locate my Unit Commissioner?

Your District Commissioner will be able to put you in touch with your Unit Commissioner. A list of District Commissioners and their contact information can be found on the Sam Houston Area Council website at:

www.samhoustonbsa.org/Home/AboutSHAC/CommissionerContactInf

Who can become a Commissioner?

Commissioners are adults with a passion for Scouting who are willing to help one or more units provide a quality Scouting program for their youth members. Prior experience in Scouting is helpful but not necessary. A friendly personality, a desire to help others succeed, the ability to listen, and a willingness to learn are "musts." Former Scout unit leaders, local business and community leaders, retired adults and others desiring to help support Scouting are great candidates for this position. These volunteers may be just what some pack, troop, team, crew, or ship needs! Those interested should contact the District Commissioner in their area.
