HARD NEWS

R: goes back to Tuesday and Ashtar on the Road report

- the MSM is playing a shell game with . . . [not completed]
- Keith Olberman is back, calling Trump the anti-christ

R: the lifeform in the Trump body is an archon and is on his way out; HRC is the Whore of Babylon

- have been switching the body doubles and the clowny clones!

• last weekend at 911 event

- the line of criminals was there: Guiliani, Bill Clinton, Bloomberg and the rest – whatever lifeform it was that showed up [HRC] couldn't handle the energies and it malfunctioned: "died"; they put her in the back seat, head first – went to Chelsea's apartment
- there was a You tube from Cobra about Hillary being "bagged and perp-walked" - meaning she was captured & arrested – NOT THE CASE!
 - And NO she did not fall because she was shackled; she just collapsed.
- The one brought out on Sunday made a speech tonight; looked 10 years younger.

• Trump has been taking amphetamines for years now: what happens is you start to get mini strokes; these causes cognitive dissonance – this info from a guest on Thom Hartmann show today

• since Tuesday, more stories about galactics being here: story from the Guardian that a ship was seen in the clouds over Peru [SEE BELOW]

- It looked like a rebel ship from Star Wars – does not think it's fake
- we are a hair's breadth from something taking up the fake news with a real story of substance!

• Yesterday, R heard a story on Radio Free Europe via short wave radio:

- a US soldier who escaped from Afghanistan went into the Himilayas; he was ultra black ops, fairly fit but exhausted and passed out –
 - said he needed help and right now – and he got it! Was rescued by the Big Fots who took him into the inner cities of the Agartha network and healed him.
 - couldn't take any more of what US, Britain and the coalition of the unwilling were doing to the people there – essentially, just killing them
 - The Black Operatives involved were NSA, CIA, DIA, X files, MI6 and Mossad:
 - The solder went to a series of counselling sessions to let go of his PTSD, shared with the Big Foot Elders what has been going on.
 - Then he went to find one of the mythical cities in the Himalayas
- R talked to LM Nada: yes, this soldier is here: name is Col Cyril Huskins, now part of the refugee camp of 4000 + who are living off grid, using plasma technology,
 - other galactic beings are helping them transform from a refugee camp to a Light City
 - Not being shared on MSM, only on fringe outlets : has to do with disclosure coming about! They [galactics] are just interacting with the people – no waiting for any government presentation!

- As the stories unfold, we will be told about the empire in the US that has been created unbeknownst to the people – the prophets and the heroes show up in The 4th Turning – happens about every 70 – 80 years, a revolution happens [not of blood and war]
 - Yet we are watching it in Aleppo, and Ferguson
 - Another 13 year old boy shot by the police as he had a pellet gun!
 - What is the idea of playing with guns: why is this done? Rama did this as a youngster and now is the time for peace.

Cynthia McKenney: right after 911, asking where did the $3 TRILLION go – it disappears into a black hole

- they have found $8.8 TRILLION from the Pentagon in the Clinton Foundation PLUS another $4.5 TRILLION – and this is buried somewhere –
- which is why the oligarchs have put their fingers on Clintons so they can have WW 3 – it's the ones behind the curtain pulling the strings – 87,000+ were killed that day!
- Wolfowitz is one of the architects of 911 . . .
- Keith Olberman is back on air: he quit MSNBC twice
 - the first time he apologized for what he had said. Somewhere in April, 2008. it was obvious that Obama was the nominee; KO said on air “are you waiting for someone to put a bullet in your opponent so you can be the nominee?” He eventually apologized for that, and the 2nd time something happened, he just left!
 - AND THROUGH THE ENTIRE CAMPAIGN, HRC WAS A CLONE. She had been arrested, put in solitary and was executed: she had murdered her lover in 1993 and there was proof.
 - Since June she has been a clone; what about the mind control?
 - Michael Morell, Paul Wolfowitz; Henry Kissinger; Richard Pearl – working towards a more assertive NATO to challenge Russia
 - they represent what the policy will be, should Hillary get in

- you and your ilk will be banned from the Universe of Nebadon forever!

GUEST: OMENA – on the 7 levels of soul consciousness
[In the background: Carolyn Oceana Ryan – COR]

[BE SURE AND LISTEN TO THE ENTIRE PODCAST!!!]

MR: call up with any questions!!! 888-429-5471

O: her mission is about the soul – on the journey of the soul, there are 7 levels

- there are 3 levels that stay in the spiritual realms
- the 4 lower levels are developed when souls descend into matter
- energy vibrations adapt to evolution: mental, emotional, etheric, physical
 - mental body is the brain – to hold programs of thought, concrete in nature; we create with this body – things begin with a thought
 - emotional - a feeling body created for the purpose of experiencing feeling
 - etheric body – seat of memory created to record all that happens in the soul's journey
 - physical body – the vehicle by which the soul moves in this dimension
- we might have to live many times before we realize the higher existence

Caller, GA: what can she do to regain normal strength so can continue to serve?

O: Need to let down some of the guards so O can see

- She's away too hard on her self; also suppressing lots of energy in her being
- how to undo it? Begin with self-appreciation – appreciate and acknowledge what HAS been done in your life
- also some health issues: thinks should be doing more, yet now is the time to go into a mindful meditation
 - call in the guardian angel – ask for some help to raise the vibrations
 - O is helping to clear away the dusty cloud, and they will help clear it away with permission
- Do some deep breathing: not taking in enough of the breath of life into the body

Caller: Is writing right now; is this what she should be doing

O: writing right now would be therapeutic: don't censor it – write as much as you can, don't read it – put it away, then go back and read it; let it flow even if it doesn't make sense; call on Higher Self, Twin Flame to help and they will – will help clear out the fog around her; Deep breathing with help to clear the heavy energy in the body

COR: agrees – just write everything, every story you need to do; don't censor – get it all out! Writing is the way to use her voice!

Caller: did know about the cloud: sometimes she's listening and she doesn't know what they say

O: ask them to lift the cloud and repeat what they are saying

Caller: didn't know it was a cloud – just didn't know what was happening.

- ask for selective hearing to be cleared up!

Question via Skype: name of Twin Flame? All she does is smile at him, says nothing!

O: she's not going to tell you her name – you will just have to trust!

- You can give her a name! Any name with a loving vibration – she'll respond to it.

O: what happens to the soul, we experience even if we are not totally aware of this: when you talk to the soul, and bring things to you, not in the material sense

- sense of being whole and being happy with who you are
- there are 3 levels of the soul above you – they are in residence with the god/goddess & they are there for our call and command
- each soul created with the spiritual vibrations of the god/goddess: we are extensions of this and so we have the same qualities: love, peace, and harmony; these qualities will be more and more important as we move closer to the Ascension process
- the Higher Self consciousness is a flame of power, love and wisdom that resides in the physical heart – the flames grow as we grow – self power, not about power over others.
- Sacred spiritual archives: where our positive deeds are recorded that our soul has created

Caller, California: asking to know what is soul history - what type of soul?

O: A Server Soul – more altruistic in the world, helping people which is soul's mission and not expecting anything back.

- the other side is the Caretaker with expectation of getting something back for it
- a caretaker soul means can get exhausted and feel unappreciated
- turn into the caregiver: only do for others what they can't do for themselves
- ask am I doing this out of need or want? This pattern takes time to change – can tell when someone can do things for self; just keep practicing the caregiver aspect!
- It's about her standing in her own power, making own decisions; taking care of self first.

Q: Any message from her team, either The Collective or the Higher Self?

- HS will do whatever you want: Have to ask. When you can't decide, just say OK HS, I need help with this decision and sit with the question -
- has 2 guardian angels – put them to work!

O: Higher Self consciousness bring a flame of power, love, wisdom – trying to keep things simple!

MR: asks about the books

O: not yet time to talk about it yet!

O: Our human soul is responsible for all that we create! It's great when things are positive; when they are negative, we blame god!

- If we find ourselves in a quandry, just ask if this is for your higher good, or the higher good of the others involved
- This raising up is coming to everybody – not just for special people – just have to ask!!!

MR: 317 - 773 -0061; Call MR and can ask about sessions

O: will be funny, and fun, and loving

- please ask anything you want: she does no negative readings!!! She gives information that opens up eyes and hearts

COR: the hallmark of a good reading is that no one is taking your power away -

O: about people discovering their own power

Caller, Georgia: feels the 9 energies pretty intensely; wants to make sure is on right track & catching the right messages: all directions pointing to Michigan – is this right?

- Looks like he needs to go there

O: going to northern MI

COR: support team saying next year

O: will make that decision in about 6 months time, make move next year

Caller: Move now is what he picks up

O: they are getting from his guides when he is going to move; he might be anxious to go

Caller: his mother is showing signs of difficulty in managing on her own; his living arrangements in GA are not stable enough to bring her there; seems he should go there.

O: if mother is elderly, lots of help available for her – can be checked on

• wants to move when ready to move vs move because of his Mum – has to work this out

COR: it's about the motivation

Caller: has been talking with medicare people a lot; what keeps him in GA have moved out of a need for him to be there – ties have been broken; a tug in MI is about the duty of a son

O: to connect with his mother: she's beginning to think about transitioning which is why she wants him there, and thinks he's feeling that too

Caller: has a 91 year old grandfather there too; mother has one sister; father is gone

COR: maybe support team is saying get ready to go? She's not going quite yet but is definitely thinking of it

Caller: his rental location in GA is full of mould – can't stay there

O: what have you got to lose if you move to MI? Look at it this way!

• We're all giving you permission to move to MI!!!

Caller: it's all part of submitting, surrendering

O: either way – will end up in MI for your higher good

Caller: any feeling about career? A job in GA that there's been a lot of dialogue about – never quite comes through; sales and communication in telecom are his strong suit

O: go into heart chakra; ask for advice – won't lead you wrong – sometimes for a career to take off, have to do things so you are ready to take up the new

COR: will be lots of new jobs – work in the community will be available: lots will be new –

• don't think in terms of the old categories!

O: sometimes before your career can take off, have to take care of other things first; when that mission is done, career opens up as now you have time to give to it !

Caller: gets it loud and clear: thanks them for their help, and to those who make call possible!

T: a lot of us are feeling like something up in the zoo; big, big change happening soon

O: thinks the big change has already happened: vibrations are just pouring in – she's asking what planet she is on – feels herself floating up and has to bring herself down –

• knows it's started; have to trust and ask for help with the adjustments. The adjustments can be pretty harsh – if you don't want to grow, you go!

• Have to be careful what we put in our bodies! Her body feels like it's swelling up – it's the energy!

MR: feeling like a part of her has expanded out in so many places: should I bring things together or let things expand?

O: the physical body has so much energy coming in, it expands

COR: TC saying a lot of our consciousness is out of our body and working – as lots has been happening; the 9-9-9 if we have moments of being over-whelmed: just stay quiet and concentrate on breathing; chants if you know them; just say to body, it's safe to move up to the higher vibration; it's safe – don't stress over it

O: one of the side effects of moving this way is exhaustion

COR: "tired and wired is the norm at the moment" - said by someone else!

O: too exhausted to sleep, but not enough to run around like a nut, either - laughter is one of the best things to ground self with; look at life as funny – it's tragically funny what we do to selves and each other!

Just remember the Higher Self will work with our souls to discover a deeper capacity to love and experience happiness, joy, and have the ability to stretch beyond the mortal of pain of our own personal truth

- whether it's our own pain or the pain of people and their pain, ask our Higher Self to move us beyond that mortal pain, and ask the Higher Selves of the others to also move beyond their pain too – we can do this! We are really very super powerful beings

T: as each one of us is experiencing this, it makes it possible for others to move forward

- it's called good vibrations

COR: It also lets people know what's possible

O: an eye contact, a good day, a smile, that colour looks good on you – small things have a good influence on others.

Caller, OR: keeps seeing the new mind, body, spirit healing centres open in every community 24/7 – who is going to come in and help her get the legislation in place for these places to be open 24/7, set them up?

O: she has to put her thought into creating it

- ask her spiritual team to link her up with others who are on the same vibration

Caller: knows the VA, vets for peace groups will help

O: it will come but need to keep the visions going

- she can channel that energy and that vision out into the universe and eventually she will end up with similar-minded folks; she is getting a visual of the future

MR: it's like a transformer that brings in the energy

COR: it has to do with anchoring the energies that are coming – we get up caught in the forms; begin by having the highest form – can send some guided meditations to help:

O: start writing up a model as she would like to see it from the visions she is seeing

Caller: has done this – problem is getting people to understand

O: remember: you're dealing with dense matter and old belief systems – it takes time to get this changed; the caller is getting the visions of the future: ask for help and you'll get it – will meet up with people of the same vibration

T: was thinking during last presentation: Lyn definitely has the future vision: she has seen so many people destroy themselves so she also feels the state of urgency

- we need these healing centres yet people are not aware
- eg Thom Hartmann's conversation with great minds: the whales and dolphins are dying off at a greater rate than ever before; 90% of the Great Coral Reef is bleached beyond repair

O: ends with a message about the animals and the fish

- the more we evolve into our higher selves, the less need we have for them
- the suicides at a phenomenal rate – what is being created on the higher levels is a school for those who have committed suicide: learning about self love
- being told tonight – their loved ones are safe, they are loved; they are being taken care of, they are surrounded by guides who are looking after them – SPREAD THIS WORD

T: Dolphins, whales, octopus have human souls - will they come in as humans?

O: no, they have fulfilled their purpose, as the humans souls

COR: it's not a tragedy

O: the belief systems about suicide: caused by religions

- the whales, etc – are intelligent enough to know what's going on; same as animals in Arctic, Africa

COR: will be animals in 5th dimensional earth, but a different relationship – not for food!

MR: thanks to all – Omena coming to Indiana – call MR if they want to connect with Omena when she is there

COR: thanks to all

T: thanks to The Collective for coming through COR: they respond "It is our honour!"

O: and it is their honour!

2016-09-14 Leaked documents reveal secretive influence of corporate cash on politics

Sealed Wisconsin court documents from Scott Walker investigation expose extent of corporate influence on democratic process rarely seen by the public

The pervasive influence of corporate cash in the democratic process, and the extraordinary lengths to which politicians, lobbyists and even judges go to solicit money, are laid bare in sealed court documents leaked to the Guardian.

The John Doe files amount to 1,500 pages of largely unseen material gathered in evidence by prosecutors investigating alleged irregularities in political fundraising. Last year the Wisconsin supreme court ordered that all the documents should be destroyed, though a set survived that has now been obtained by the news organisation.

The files open a window on a world that is very rarely glimpsed by the public, in which millions of dollars are secretly donated by major corporations and super-wealthy individuals to third-party groups in an attempt to sway elections. They speak to a visceral theme of the 2016 presidential cycle: the distortion of American democracy by big business that has been slammed by both Donald Trump and Bernie Sanders.

In a case that is the subject of a petition currently in front of the US supreme court, five Wisconsin prosecutors carried out a deep investigation into what they suspected were criminal campaign-finance violations by the campaign committee of Scott Walker, Wisconsin governor and former Republican presidential candidate. Known as the "John Doe investigation", the inquiry has been a lightning rod for bitter disputes between conservatives and progressives for years.

In July 2015 the state's supreme court halted the investigation, saying the prosecutors had misunderstood campaign finance law and as a result had picked on people and groups "wholly innocent of any wrongdoing". Highly unusually, the court also ordered that all the evidence assembled by the prosecutors be destroyed and later held under seal.

Among the documents are several court filings from the case, as well as hundreds of pages of email exchanges obtained by the prosecutors under subpoena. The emails involve conversations concerning Walker, his top aides, conservative lobbyists, and leading Republican figures such as Karl Rove and the chair of the Republican National Committee, Reince Priebus.

Trump also appears in the files, making a donation of $15,000 following a personal visit from

Walker to the Republican nominee's Fifth Avenue headquarters.

In addition to Trump, many of the most powerful and wealthy rightwing figures in the nation crop up in the files: from Home Depot co-founder Ken Langone, hedge-fund manager Paul Singer and Las Vegas casino giant Sheldon Adelson, to magnate Carl Icahn. "I got $1m from John Menard today," Walker says in one email, referring to the billionaire owner of the home improvement chain Menards.

Among the new material contained in the documents are donations amounting to $750,000 to a third-party group closely aligned to Walker from the owner of NL Industries, a company that historically produced lead paint. Within the same timeframe as the donations, the Republican-controlled legislature passed new laws making it much more difficult for victims of lead paint poisoning to sue NL Industries and other former lead paint manufacturers (the laws were later overturned in the federal courts).

The John Doe files also provide new insight into the extensive efforts made by allies of Scott Walker to help a conservative member of the Wisconsin supreme court, David Prosser, hang onto his seat in a 2011 re-election. A network of like-minded groups and campaigners channeled $3.5m in undisclosed corporate funds to pay for TV and radio ads backing the judge.

The push was seen as vital, the documents disclose, as a means of retaining the rightwing majority of the court and thereby preserving the anti-union measures introduced by Walker. "If we lose [Justice Prosser], the Walker agenda is toast," one ally writes in an email sent around to the governor's chief of staff and several conservative lobbyists.

In 2015, Justice Prosser refused to recuse himself from a case in which the state supreme court sat in judgment over the John Doe investigation, despite the fact that the investigation focused on precisely the same network of lobbying groups and donors that had helped him hang onto his seat. The judge joined a majority of four conservative justices who voted to terminate the investigation and destroy all the documents now leaked to the Guardian.

Prosser told the Guardian that four years had passed since his re-election before he joined the decision to close the John Doe investigation, over which time any potential conflict of interest had faded.

The John Doe investigation was launched in 2012 after a set of recall elections that were forced on Walker and six Republican state senators in the wake of their hyper-partisan anti-union measure, Act 10. The prosecutors alleged that the governor's campaign committee had operated a coordinated network involving outside lobby groups through which unlimited amounts of corporate money could be channeled without public disclosure.

Walker and the other parties who were the subjects of the John Doe investigation have all protested that they were unfairly accused of legal violations. They point out that no charges have been brought in the case, and that a succession of Wisconsin courts, including the state's highest, have cleared them of wrongdoing.

Walker's campaign told the Guardian that the John Doe investigation was "baseless" and had been shut down multiple times by the state courts. "There is absolutely no evidence of any wrongdoing," a spokesman said.

The third-party lobbying groups that were the subject of the investigation said the prosecutors had accused wholly innocent individuals of crimes that did not exist under state law. They insisted they had a right to comment about public officials and policy and to protect the confidentiality of their donors.
