Council 568 wanted to sponsor a speaker series to bring notable people in to help evangelize our members and community. The first quest speaker chosen was Reverend James Kubicki, SJ who is the National Director of the Apostleship of Prayer. He is also the author of "A Heart of Fire: Rediscovering Devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus". Since he was scheduled for Valentine's Day week-end it was presented as "The True Love Story". Our Council decided this would also be a good time to let our new members meet some of our long-time members so we decided on a Valentine's Day social where Fr Kubicki would be in attendance and meet our members. Door prizes were provided by our chaplain Fr Hai Dihn. To make it a success, the Council was to provide the food and beverages. We established a calling tree and had 10 "captains" call members and invite them to the dinner and to the presentation of Fr Kubicki the following morning. We had 90 people in attendance at the social and another 90 in attendance at the Saturday "speech". The sacrament of reconciliation was held after the speech. The Council also provided a light breakfast before the speech and food at a break in the speech. The Council also had Knights of Columbus related displays set up in the Church Hall on the Knights of Columbus. ☒
