

Tech Tools for Science

www.actionbioscience.org - articles, lesson, activity ideas www.cellsalive.com - videos, PowerPoints, interactive, games, free quizzes, puzzles www.discoveryschool.com - informational well written, easy to find a certain area in the subject, puzzle maker, lesson plans www.highschoolace.com/ace/ace.cfm - interactive games for students, study material, links to other helpful sites www.educationworld.com/science - has informative articles, lesson plans, resources such as tools and templates www.Chem4kids.com - shows them how to use some science experiments in a common area like household items, gives a web tour of matter and the stages www.tryscience.org – fun & easy science experiments shown step by step <http://classroom.jc-schools.net/basic/science.html> - has simple games to get to know science, quizzes, reviews science subject. Shows links to other helpful sites.

<http://www.teach-nology.com/subjects/science>- has multiple resources for one subject to better understand the area being covered in the chapter, graphic organizers, tutorials, ideas, rubrics

<http://www.ars.usda.gov/is/kids/fair/ideasframe.htm>- Science fair ideas using life science as your base or starting point

Other Cool Sites for All Teachers www.shutterfly.com – create online photo albums to share www.dimdim.com - deliver synchronized live presentations, whiteboards and web pages and share their voice and video over the Internet www.blogspot.com – create free blog www.glogster.com/edu – create glog, can create class usernames to protect privacy and content www.halfbakedsoftware.com – create puzzles, problems, dilemmas for students to solve; must register, free for state-funded programs

<http://skype.com> – video conferencing anywhere in the world; filtered at school www.cutepdf.com – converts files to pdf format www.teachertube.com – like YouTube but for educational purposes has many videos produced by teachers/students and others

<http://www.schooltube.com/> - students/teachers can upload videos to share or watch videos that others have created

<http://twitter.com> - enables quick & short ways to communicate with others

<http://www.wiggio.com/> - allows online collaboration & conferencing: shared calendars, mass text or email messages www.animato.com/education - free for 6 months, online tool helps you create videos to upload & share www.4teachers.org – rubrics, lesson plans, quizzes, calendars.