HARD NEWS

- reads from Abraham Lincoln 1863, Jan 1st Declared the Emancipation Declaration
- the subsequent 13th amendment ensconced the idea that "Neither salvery or servitude shall exist in the United States" - the 13th Amendment was changed and buried
- the True NESARA law has nothing to do with this -
  - At the moment, we are all slaves, the slaves of England: only the elites got their freedom and that has been like that since the beginning
  - and the original 13th amendment talks about Titles of Nobility especially Esquire
    - you cease being a citizen and become an agent of the queen when you accept a title of nobility, and may not work anywhere in the country of the US
    - Lawyers accept such a title when they pass their BAR exam
  - As St Germain, writing as Shakespeare, said: kill all the lawyers
    - jail for judges is another piece of the story
- all the corporations have incorporated as everything that is NOT the 13th constitution and they have used lawyers; so they all get the death benefit
- anything done in the US is about making money: get people rich at the top of the corporations
- some interesting things are being done like
  - bit coin;
  - cooperatives where folk stay out of the system by setting up a 501C3 - and even that will change with NESARA: there are some organized churches using 501C3s for nefarious purposes
- King of Egypt called Rama: an unusual occurrence - only when something significant happens
  - Told R about the droid landing on comet HB67
  - this was ordered up by the European Space agency
    - Richard Hoagland has brought up that HB67 is not a comet or an astroid, but a disguised starship, part of the Star of Bethlehem fleet of AA Michael
  - that probe/droid may get re-programmed to the voices of the people inside so we can hear what they have to say
  - a very interesting story because there are other heavenly bodies that are not necessarily comets or asteroids, but also disguised crafts. When the signal is given, they will shut off their cloak and we'll see the craft
  - HB67 might be a huge cargo ship, the size of a small planetoid; it's under its own power - comets don't make moves like this one does - there is intelligence in the way it navigates across the solar system
- Things are very close to the breaking point: Keith Olberman texted 2 sentences -
  - the Hammer of Thor has hit the ground
  - Watch for the 13 year old who is now of age to let the world know what Trump did to all those girls on Jeffrey Epstein's island
- other news has kind of pushed this item to the back burner
  - NADA: cases from all the women against Trump, Kissenger, Clinton, and others who have visited the island which ties into Bohemian Grove - all is momentarily right in our faces; media trying to juggle the news stories with the fake ones first, and putting this kind in the back pages – yet it will come forward.

- Trump will not be president: NEVER! Never have a president who has committed violent rape on young girls; the court case is going on right now even if people don't want to believe

KOE: Putin has given Trump enough rope to hang himself; being portrayed that Russia is on Trump's side, yet Trump owes China and Russia a lot of money & alive or dead, they will collect their money

- Trump put $ 60-70,000 forward in Cuba during the time of the embargo to start a casino - a major crime - and Tara thinks he's not alone in this action
- the Castro Brothers want nothing to do with Trump!

T: Freedom is going to take a while: the astrological patterns are starting to break up

- sometimes in our quest for enlightenment we activated the kundalini and got in above our heads -

Carl Boudreau's astrology: the cabal's control after being solid for 50 + years is beginning to break up.

Reading: part of Carl Boudreau's report

The Break Out Moment(s)

The planets in the alignment had no rivals. To break the power of the oligarchic alignment, and not just vary it, one or more of the three outer planets in the alignment would have to move out of the six institutional signs into Aries.

In practice, that meant Uranus, which was coming within striking distance of its Aries ingress. When Uranus entered Aries in 2010-11, the extraordinarily powerful alignment behind global oligarchic madness began breaking up. [this was the impetus for start of Arab Spring]

In Aries, Uranus's independence of the oligarchic alignment was real but not complete. It was no longer in one of the institutional signs was no longer a part of the oligarchic alignment. In Aries, the loyalties of Uranus shifted to the signs of the 99%. [Masses of 99% were out in the streets.]

However, in terms of planetary cycles, Uranus was still subordinate to both Pluto and Neptune. They still exercised significant influence over how Uranus's energies might express. Also, Aquarius, the home sign of Uranus was itself an institutional sign.

Looking back on 2010-11, it is clear that the spirit of protest and reform did reawaken in the 99%. The 1% did find themselves on the defensive.

When it moved into Aries, Uranus formed a square with Pluto which was exact 7 times over a period of 3 years (2012-15). You will also recall the conflicts like those of the Arab Spring, triggered by the Uranus/Pluto square.

- Jack Ruby shot a clone of Lee Harvey Oswald to distract people from who really did it! – the original Oswald is alive and well
- Colin Powell, Schwarzkopf were 2 of Bush Sr military leaders who invaded Iraq, Kuwait the 1st time
  - they murdered 200,000 Iraqi children – over 67% of Iraq at that time were under the age of 14; they were child soldiers, and lots of teens – the kids were waving white T-shirts yet the 2 generals ordered the forces to fire on them anyway – on Bush Sr's watch!
- the old earth is dying; new earth is being birthed
- It means in simple language: accentuate the positive and TOTALLY ELIMINATE THE NEGATIVE.
  - Especially do that when you don't want to: there is no more time for the energies going up – cannot hold anger, judgment, blame – we may have the feelings but we don't act on it
  - not even against those who have been murdering us – Praise, respect, thanks and love the feelings which come up

- the negative kinds of things that come up in the feeling body way are here to bring up the lesson which is praise, respect, thank and love –
  - the choice is that if we act on anger, rage or revenge of the sith, there is more consequences coming back on us and the whack-whack therapy will be tough!
- an article yesterday: when Bill and Hillary left the white house in 2004, they trashed it – stole the furniture they liked, also art pieces they liked; ruined the floors, the walls – left nasty stuff behind
  - this is a major crime! Now this is out; the damage is astronomical: the taxpayers paid for it!!!
- another article: murders that apply peculiarly more to Hillary than Bill – goes back to 1980s – enough murders that were on Hillary's shoulders
- Donald Trump has a $300 million bounty on his head!

CONFERENCE CALL

Caller with 2 questions

1. the anomaly in MWG
2. Source of the trashing of the White House: Caller's source called into question the idea that things were "trashed": what do R's sources say?

T: they did it all; that things were not trashed is an HRC cover-up –

2016-09-22 As they left the White House, the Clintons Defaced Walls, Stole Furniture and Much Much Worse [SEE BELOW]

Gerry: have a dedicated team – gives background on what their group is doing

T: that is not Leo Wanta's money: he's an agent of the dark side – the money that was called his money was put into the hedge funds, and China put the same amount

- White Knights, KOS/ Faction 3 told them – they have known this for decades!

Gerry: making headway with the native americans – going forward

- In Texas, a tribe outside Dallas has a lawsuit

T: And there is another pipeline from Toronto to the east, want to get it into the US and go east this one has not been stopped -

- and yes, they are going through native american property – Canada LNG terminal – will result in lots of green house gases – like adding 1 million

email – [damgus29@gmail.com send the environmental articles – CPAWS ]

Raylene: what about the treaties that are being violated? Why not make movies about them?

T: Hollywood is under a gag order; anyone who tries it gets dead fast!

- The energy of the positive thought that we bring in is . . .

RL: natural laws, spiritual laws – all being called in at the same time

T: Mother Earth is already dead – do you know what a mother lion does to her dead offspring?
[eats them so no one else can use / abuse the dead ones in any way]

- There are kinds of signs of the new earth
  - on the way to Yellowstone – went up to another place, walked over a bridge and down into a gorge – looked over and down it was by a waterfall; there was a completely different environment - tropical stuff, like in Hawaii -
  - going up to the top of the mtn near Santa Fe, they park and start going up – see something that is like Fern Gully -
  - saw another doc on people who were high up in the Himalayas – not by usual trails; came across an area where there were hummingbirds! New flowers, new plants – 75* - and 25' of snow everywhere elsewhere

RL: it's crazy now, will get worse and then break

T: those are already about the shift

- when KOE called up and talked about the apparent comet being a cloaked star ship of the New Bethem suite of AA Michael;
- the probe landed on the star ship – those who sent the probe knew what it is and they wanted to see if they can get any more info to make more reverse technology and to hear what was being said by those on board

RL: Told about going through Boston's Logan Airport – thought they were fingerprinting a college kid; happened to her – thinks they are randomly checking to see if people are making bombs – hasn't read anywhere what they are doing with that process – was going to complain to the ACLU as she thinks her rights have been violated – R says good idea.

T: R and T have decided not to fly at all until the current situation changes

RL: the rest of the story: she took an overnigher so she could sleep en route – she was put through the scanner for the 2nd time that day – she said something, the lady pressed a button, someone came and scanned her – she had to clean the energy out of her system

T: it's Chertoff's enegy that is in all those things – he's a demon! WHEN YOU GO THROUGH THOSE THINGS, SEND LOVE!!!!

RL: was exhausted, made sure she said nothing – some guy she met during the process raised questions in her mind about who he was

T: Rama being who he is could mean the plane going down!

- The four 911 widows – one was on a plane between Buffalo and New York; the dark side took the plane down because she was on it. The women had gone to the White House and talked to Barack & Michelle about what they knew: they made an example of that one lady!

RL: people saying in a way we are in WW 3

T: can't emphasize enough: fracking will be quadrupled if the vote is for Hillary

- she is a solid image hologram !!!

RL: how many of her are running around?

T: There are no more clones, only the solid image hologram – this happened on the weekend before Labour Day

RL: How many times could they copy her DNA?

BBS RADIO

Music: Medicine for the 3rd eye – The Taos Winds recorded this inside the Kings Chamber, in Giza Pyramid – the tones had the proper mHz

Reminder: the seed pods will be released from all the pyramids and will renew the earth with the vines and the xenon gas will be released and our siddhas will be returned; the DNA gets added on so we can become lighter – meaning 5th dimensional and higher light beings.

MOTHER / ALCYONE: [M/A]

Greetings in the Light of the Most Radiant One; in the Office of the Christ and only in the Office of the Christ, we invoke the loving energies of St Germain and the Violet Flame

- We ask for greater heart opening for all; we pray greater capacity for higher love - this energy as we take in more of it, enables a more indepth comprehensive understanding of her energy when she is with us.

Greetings, Children of Ra!

- Indeed, higher vibrations of love coming in already; already in.
  - It is a very auspicious time to be here - many may say we are crazy for saying that,
  - it is the time of which we are in, where the greatest amount of love is needed to shift the frequencies – [it] already has; this is the reason everything is coming up to be transfigured.
  - It is very much a moment where we need eyes to see what they are seeing – the 5th dimension already here; old earth falling away fast; new earth taking up the slack;
  - getting very uncomfortable for the old holographic programs to function. Limping along and in the same breath, rejoice
- it is the most interesting, fascinating time to be in a body and watch, experience what is happening as everything is shifting for the better, even in spite of the fact that it looks like hell on earth. It is like has been said: change your point of view and it's a different reality.
  - How that is made manifest as our energies are getting higher, higher, the old ways of being are falling away, and maybe the best medicine is to do the meditation sitting in a field of flowers – get more done than banging your head against a brick wall!

T: apologizes for interrupting but thought of something having to do with changing point of view: she met a piano tuner who told of an experience of an airplane engine had failed on the plane he was on, going from Nebraska to Chicago – he went into an altered state and held the plane together until they made the landing: this guy knew the mastery of his own being and he used it

M/A: Entirely possible and probable

T: There are going to be many instances when we need to employ those talents

- She knows Mother is mitigating and that we are taking in the vibrations of earth changing yet there are many who have already been dealt with due to the feedback loop
- LA – and other places - will go through something and those who choose to stay need to be aware that they can beam people up and down to the ships, including themselves – will be about having the higher frequencies and having a command of them and having the command of them is major: the old belief systems & religions – judaism, christianity, islam programmend us to believe, for a start off, that we're not really gods; and that
  - if we pray to allah, buddha, christ, a prophet to save you – it will be administered from outside of us – these belief systems have to go!

M/A: It all comes from within; we are the masters of this universe as we are the ones who helped create this story – comes full circle – now we heal it for all space/ time.

- Going through the heart is the way it gets healed. Loving each moment

- It is very much a challenge to be here and be in loving presence, and not get caught up in the maya of the old energies that have not served the people. The time is now to bring all these energies full circle: as she has said, we are the ones; here we all are.
- As we heard that music, it is awakening up abilities, frequencies that we all have within us.
  - This moment that we are experiencing is so much a gift of great magic to be here, to be alive, well, talking, with all that has come in this moment.
  - All the ways in which as we/she can say - the Force is moving things for all to see.
  - Everything that is in this time is about this great awakening that is the shift, the quantum leap in the cells, as it gets more and more defined by our actions based in the laws of love; miracles upon miracles are transpiring even as we/she is here in this one moment of space/ time and just love the moment you are in!
- As the fullness of this moment takes up the awareness we are experiencing, M/A are - it keeps body, mind, spirit focused. The monkey mind gets set aside as this full moment is all that is - there is no room for anything else such as maya, the tricks the mind plays with how things move about in this temple.
  - As things get quiet in the temple, energies shift, like with that 3rd eye meditation - things open up - awareness of the moment of all that is
  - She can say with great certainty it is a very good time to be alive and be here, and she would not wish anyone to have to go through the issues that may seem like walking the paths of Mordor. There is so much that is to be grateful and thankful for, of how things are transpiring in such a magnificent way in spite of the chaos that is brought up for everyone to see each day.
- The dance - yet to get through the chaos is what we've asked to come and do and bring the awareness as more one-pointedness is about the goddess, the return of the melanin, the abilities we all have, to do this with the grace and ease and the wisdom of the ages as we work with the frequencies of what's coming about in the 3rd eye and the higher places, space we go, there is so much beauty, joy to behold.
- Everything that is being brought before us to see is how the crystallization of the frequencies are in this moment: brings up all the stuff that is about these healing frequencies that humanity is needing so desperately, as it seems.
  - The frequencies that are higher and higher in place are about these astronomical alignments; as we move further and further into this Age of Aquarius, things are going to get even more outlandish. It is because this golden age is already with us, and the old won't work any longer.
  - It is this time that we have a new heaven, a new earth – let us work with these frequencies, as what we are looking at and experiencing are moments to send more love to all situations.
  - They can tell us from their vantage point that there are so many beings walking, talking with us, and it is very much the place in which we are already starting to see our friends who walk through walls, who are here, moving the frequencies about. As we get more and more aligned with the frequencies and less with the maya, things get easier.
- She knows that there is so much she could say about the world situation and the issues at hand with her children who have become very much . . . let's just say, as we look at the lights in the sky, know that they are walking amongst us in physical matter, space/time.
- Greetings in the Light of the Most Radiant One

T: Thank you mother – this is short and sweet, huh?

M/A: yes, this time we are in is about honouring the balancing of these energies – she does not wish to focus on all the death that has transpired in the last little while and it is only about transfiguration. What she has witnessed and looked at in the last few moments, days, hours, she has no words except

"Lord, make me an instrument of thy peace.
Where there is such hatred, let me sow love;
Where there is injury, pardon;
Where there is doubt, faith;
Where there is despair, hope;
Where there is darkness, light;
Where there is sadness, joy.

O divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek
To be consoled as to console,
To be understood as to understand,
To be loved as to love;
For it is in giving that we receive;
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned;
And it is in dying to self [all of the old earth] that we are born to eternal life."

M/A: and that eternal, immortality is a physicality is taking shape right now as our abilities as the moment, as we are being asked to activate our X men abilities

- to interact with each other to , move things forward in a most auspicious way that real magic is coming about.

That magic is - we are the ones who have been spoken of, that are here now at this time for this shift of the ages - the prophets, the heroes - in spite of all the stories

- The millenials, the rainbow crystal children that move it along with the prophets – the heros & the prophets – the 4th turning we are already seeing the revolution, the evolution where all lives matter whether it is the people of Palestine, Nambia, Gaza

T: a 12 year old, a deeply melanated young woman was determined to have a 225 IQ – never been seen before;

M/A: sounds like Metatron gave her the download

T: never under-estimate who the teacher is - yet there are things we can teach those ones too and they are also saying it is time to receive – and the capacity to receive is the most notable Key:

- To say "I Know" has nothing to do with the actions one is doing. It is getting more and more important to not to say "I am just a human" and "I'm sorry "
- the spiritual masters always say DO NOT SAY YOU ARE SORRY: DO NOT DO IT! And that message is no more important than now!

T: so mote it be! She says she loves Mother!

- They went up to Truches to see their friend, whose partner is Carl Calleman, a master astrology who has worked with Barbara Hand Clow, the one showing Saturn's ingresses for 2012, 2013, 2014: the point is that when they went for a walk on the 80 acres – they walked to see the buffalo and it was an altered experience of energy
  - The friend was leading the way and said to tell her if they felt any shift in energy: they felt that change at a grove of trees: a major fairy ring! The Oak trees were completely in a circle which is not normal, and when you got in the middle, your hair was standing on end!
  - We can do this now!
  - MariettaRobert has such a ring: what M & R noticed was there always saw a deer lying on this one spot – they felt the earth, and it was warm in the middle of winter; deer or no deer, the earth was warm.
  - Cynthia Rose Schlosser in GA has such a ring on her land – the dogs, cats always went to sit in the ring – could feel the heat coming off that spot! These things are activated right now! There was one on the Taos ranch they went to
  - Mother, keep the fairy dust coming!

M/A: as we go through this moment here, remember we have the power with love; we have already won! Remember that love is the answer to all the issues

- Greetings in the Light of the Most Radiant One! Kadoish, Kadoish, kadoish . . .

M/A: [her last words] Remember this is the hour!

R: Was on Taos Mtn, working with the energies of the area and the indigenous people, it's Pueblo land, with an Ashtar command base underneath

- he wandered though a cave-like area and at the crystals coming down from the ceiling – there were rainbows and he got lost in the rainbows!

T: someone told them about a rainbow being in a complete circle! Any other message?

R: Keep sending more love to all the situations we are experiencing; it helps us get through the not-so-pretty moments!

2016-09-22 As they left the White House, the Clintons Defaced Walls, Stole Furniture and Much Much Worse

By TruthFeedNews September 22, 2016

<http://truthfeed.com/as-they-left-the-white-house-the-clintons-defaced-walls-stole-furniture-and-much-much-worse/25133/>

In 2001, the Clintons were moving out of the White House to make way for the Bush Administration. Not only did the Clintons steal furniture on their way out of the White House, but they did something far worse. It's yet another reason why they should not be allowed to step foot in the White House AGAIN!

Besides the stolen furniture, Hillary Clinton and her lackeys defaced walls, stole a presidential seal dating back to the Eisenhower years, damaged furniture they deemed not expensive enough to take, and left a huge mess in the offices, making it look like a rave party had taken place there.

They left behind offensive and derogatory statements about Bush, defaced keyboards so the letter W could not be used, stole doorknobs and other small items, and left behind prank signs as well as many other immature acts. Apparently, the Clintons are petty, reckless, and have no respect for the taxpayers or the donations they give to for president's household and office.

A complete list of all the damages is in the GAO 02-360 'The White House: Allegations of Damage During the 2001 Presidential Transition,' an official document of the aftermath of the Clinton Administration. So, liberals can't chalk this up to a conspiracy theory.

And the Democrats want someone this immature and disrespectful back in the White House?

The Clintons stole or destroyed thousands of dollars of donated items in the White House, a place We the People provide for THEM as they lead this country. In no way do any of those items belong to one president—whether they are taken or destroyed is not up to them.

The Clinton family claims they returned the furniture they had mistaken as being personally donated to the Clinton family, while other items reported missing at the end of Bill Clinton's administration were never returned.

Of course, this has Hillary written all over it. I can't think of another person who would steal from and deface the White House. Her greed is apparent with these actions, and it's almost a guarantee that if she's elected, some of the missing items will suddenly reappear in the White House.

Hillary was the first person to condemn Donald Trump for his "reckless temperament," stating further that he is not suitable to be commander-in-chief, and yet evidence of her own reckless and overall immature behavior further shoves her into a hypocritical light.

What will happen to the White House when she's done with it the second time around? Will she burn it down next time? Make sure no one else can use it once she's knocked off her high horse?

The Obamas may be gunning for Hillary to win the election in November, but one can only hope for America's sake this doesn't come happen. Not only will our beloved White House be brought down, but so will our great country. We the People cannot allow this to happen!

2016-09-23 October 2016 - The Deep Astrological Context

CARL BOUDREAU

The Deep Astrological Context of October 2016

Jupiter recently entered Libra in the context of a major astrological transition. A powerful astrological configuration has dominated global affairs for something approaching half a century. This slow break up this configuration was the context of Jupiter's Libra ingress.

The thought patterns and social, political and economic structures that this configuration called into being are being tested. The bill for work undone, for challenges unmet and problems neglected and mishandled are coming due.

An immense, concentrated flow of powerful energies are being re-mixed, rechanneled and re-purposed. I believe the best way, perhaps the only way, to effectively convey the scale and complexity of this transition is to take what folks in the news media refer to as "A Closer Look," or a "Deep Dive."

I think it is only by going over the details that we will gain an understanding of what we are up against.

The Oligarchic Alignment

By late 1971, the three outer planets, Uranus, Neptune and Pluto, had all begun lengthy transits of the six signs (Libra thru Pisces) associated with our professional and governing elites. We might refer to these signs collectively as the institutional or administrative signs.

By the end of 1980, Saturn and Jupiter had joined Uranus, Neptune and Pluto in the administrative signs. In other words, Jupiter and Saturn also became part of what, for reasons that will soon become apparent, I refer to as the oligarchic alignment.

The basic three-planet alignment remained in effect for nearly forty years. Singly or together, Jupiter and Saturn would also have been part of that alignment for much of that time.

Force Multipliers

We need to take a moment to grasp just how much power was concentrated in this alignment and for how long.

The three outer planets are especially powerful. Individually, each exercise immense influence over an entire region of collective consciousness for an extended period. Collectively, they strongly influence the totality of collective consciousness. Their influence is global.

This influence is intensified when all three bodies are concentrated in one part of the Zodiac. It's even greater when, was the case, the signs involved include the home signs of all three planets (Uranus/Aquarius, Neptune/Pisces, Pluto/Scorpio). These planets also had a home field advantage. It's greater when this tight concentration spans decades, as it did in this case.

We're talking about the lion's share energy in the Zodiac working in close coordination in their own section of the Zodiac. Combined, these three planets probably accounted for most of the creative energies at work in the Zodiac from 1971 until very recently.

Placement in the institutional signs, Libra thru Pisces (the signs of the 1%), is another major force multiplier. Combined, these six signs and their ruling planets govern the totality of global, political and economic power in the world. The institutional/administrative signs and their native planets have comprehensive, long-term effects on a global scale.

The power in this alignment would have been augmented while Jupiter and Saturn were also transiting these six institutional signs. It would have been even further augmented in those months of the year when the inner planets were transiting these same signs. All the energy in the Zodiac was concentrated in these signs for significant stretches.

Pluto Over All

One way to assess the relative strength of planets is by their place in a given planetary cycle. For example, we can gauge the overall strength of Pluto in this alignment by its place in the Uranus/Pluto and Neptune/Pluto cycles. By this measure, Pluto dominated the entire oligarchic alignment for its entire existence.

Pluto is known for the exercise of raw power. The terms "brute force", "absolute power", "total domination", "unrelenting control" and "obsessive manipulation" are typically associated with Pluto. In so many words, the power inherent in the oligarchic alignment would have been driven by the relentless power of Pluto.

The Duration

As the planets transited month by month, year by year, the astrological power concentrated in the oligarchic alignment would have fluctuated marginally. But it would have remained at high levels throughout.

At no point would the astrological power in the remaining six signs - the signs associated with the 99% (Aries thru Virgo) - come even close to the power concentrated in Libra thru Pisces at its lowest.

Given the way sign rulerships and relative planetary power works, the energies of Sun, Moon, Mercury, Venus and Mars would tend to fall into line behind the more powerful, slower moving outer planets.

For decades, as a practical matter, by virtue of derivative house relationships, the Pluto/Neptune/Uranus/Saturn/Jupiter alignment would have determined how Sun, Moon, Mercury, Venus and Mars energies expressed.

Theoretically, people should have been moved to resist the formation of an oppressive and exploitative global oligarchy. Perhaps some were. However, the effect of what resistance there was appears, in retrospect, to have been minimal or judging by the damage done, insufficient. There were bound to have been some striking variations, oscillations, anomalies and seeming exceptions along the way. But these would not have changed the overall picture. Neither would minor errors in astrological calculation. The oligarchic alignment was in full force, operating under Pluto's firm hand for the better part of 50 years.

We are necessarily painting in broad strokes. However, this much seems certain. We're dealing with a complex, unusually potent and long-lived astrological formation with many moving parts in place and operative for something approaching a half century.

That process and the policies, practices and institutions that came into existence during its tenure are currently in the process of breaking up. We're talking about disorder on a grand scale and the epidemic psychospiritual stress that comes with it.

Global Oligarchy

The outsized energetic advantage of the global elites translated into even greater economic, social and political advantage than they already enjoyed simply by virtue of their position in society. As is now quite clear, this intense concentration of planetary power in administrative signs - the signs of the governing elites - rather quickly translated into global oligarchy.

The power of national elites became even greater when, as a matter of course, local and national oligarchs grew, combined and grew into global oligarchy - global rule by a small, wealthy and powerful elite.

Why a Global Oligarchy?

There is nothing inherently or necessarily oligarchical in the astrological signs, houses, planets and aspects or in the archetypal principles and themes associated with them. In fact, too, I think we were meant to resist the temptation to oligarchy.

It seems clear why oligarchic trends prevailed if we take into account our economic and political legacy as a race. The concentration of wealth and power in the hands of a few, or even a single individual, is a historical commonplace. There are countless examples of such.

Let us just say that as a result of this history, layer upon layer of pro-oligarchic patterning was sedimented in global collective consciousness. Given this legacy, it is not difficult to understand how a massive, exclusive, generations-long concentration of planetary power in the signs of already wealthy and powerful elites would give rise to global oligarchy.

We might say that given our history and the existence of this alignment, the emergence of a global oligarchy was overdetermined, perhaps even massively overdetermined.

Oligarchs Gone Wild

With Uranus, Neptune and Pluto in houses controlled by the 1%, the 1% decided what if anything ever warranted protest or needed reform (Uranus). They were empowered to chose which ideals would guide us (Neptune). They also decided who should hold power, how it should be wielded and why (Pluto).

For much of the time, the oligarchs also decided what was logical and legal (Saturn), who would become wealthy, how wealthy they would become, who would share in that wealth and why (Jupiter).

For going on half a century, the oligarchs made virtually all the rules. They won every hand. They decided every case. By the end, they called every shot.

But that was us, drinking our own oligarchic kool aid. We followed the yellow brick road that we ourselves had paved to global oligarchy.

The Break Out Moment(s)

The planets in the alignment had no rivals. To break the power of the oligarchic alignment, and not just vary it, one or more of the three outer planets in the alignment would have to move out of the six institutional signs into Aries.

In practice, that meant Uranus, which was coming within striking distance of its Aries ingress. When Uranus entered Aries in 2010-11, the extraordinarily powerful alignment behind global oligarchic madness began breaking up.

In Aries, Uranus's independence of the oligarchic alignment was real but not complete. It was no longer in one of the institutional signs was no longer a part of the oligarchic alignment. In Aries, the loyalties of Uranus shifted to the signs of the 99%.

However, in terms of planetary cycles, Uranus was still subordinate to both Pluto and Neptune. They still exercised significant influence over how Uranus's energies might express. Also, Aquarius, the home sign of Uranus was itself an institutional sign.

Looking back on 2010-11, it is clear that the spirit of protest and reform did reawaken in the 99%. The 1% did find themselves on the defensive.

When it moved into Aries, Uranus formed a square with Pluto which was exact 7 times over a period of 3 years (2012-15). You will also recall the conflicts like those of the Arab Spring, triggered by the Uranus/Pluto square.

Call for Backup

Liberal and progressive candidates won high office but their hands were still tied by the oligarchic establishment. Some political leaders just exploited the rebellious spirit to set up populist dictatorships. Uranus in Aries wasn't going to be enough.

So some of us awakened under the influence of Uranus in Aries, but most remained under the spell of oligarchy. It was going to take more to weaken the alignment's hold on our political and economic imaginations and, by extension, its hold on our affairs.

Neptune is next in line to leave the alignment, but it won't enter Aries until 2025-26. Realistically, to break the grip of oligarchy, we'd need an assist from one of the inner planets, namely Saturn. It is the only inner planet with the heft to put a dent in the power of the alignment.

Saturn's Big Ingress - the Mutable T-Square.

This brings us to the Saturn Sagittarius ingress of 2014-15. In late 2015, Saturn transitioned from Scorpio into Sagittarius for the full transit.

In Sagittarius, Saturn is actually within the oligarchic alignment. Also, by virtue of its position in the various planetary cycles, Sagittarius already had significant leverage over the energies in the alignment.

Unlike its earlier transit of the institutional signs (in the 80s and 90s), however, Saturn was not under Pluto's thumb. Saturn had true leverage. Common sense has, in fact, been gaining ground in public discussion.

Saturn Weighs In

Overall, though, in terms of planetary cycles, Saturn gained only marginally by moving into Sagittarius. Taken by itself, Saturn in Sagittarius account for only part of the improvement. Far more importantly, I think, in Sagittarius, Saturn formed a mutable T-Square. This T-Square was the perfect vehicle for Saturn's energies and it dramatically enhanced Saturn's sobering, salutary influence on global affairs.

The mutable T-Square put the brakes on the creation and spread of oligarchic ideology. People became increasingly aware of oligarchy's downside and critical of measures taken to support it. The mutable T-Square is an engine of truth, reason, moral rectitude and spiritual uplift, a perfect complement to, or extension of, Saturn's native powers. Locking The North Node, Jupiter and Saturn into an adversarial relationship with Neptune effectively checked the influence of the oligarchs.

The mutable T-Square is now acting as a serious restraint on the once reckless, feckless exercise of oligarchic power. The age old illusions that inspired oligarchy and the misconceptions that made it so appealing are increasingly coming in for scrutiny.

You will doubtless have noticed the sharp increases in investigative journalism, exposés, whistleblowing, information leaks, fact finding and fact checking generally. Protest movements are gaining ground. Leaders have begun calling our oligarchy what it is. They are also actively discussing alternative governing philosophies.

There has been increased pushback against the lies and illusions that support the oligarchy. Also, the oligarch's exercise of power exclusively on their own behalf is meeting with increasing resistance.

Having said all that, energy combinations that include Saturn and Pluto are typically harsh. All the better, then, to know that Jupiter's influence over the oligarchic alignment is now growing. Even with Uranus in Aries, Saturn in Sagittarius and the mutable T-Square, considerable strength remains in the oligarchic alignment. Global momentum toward oligarchy continues.

Jupiter Re-Enters the Oligarchic Alignment

As I wrote in September's post, when Jupiter entered Libra it moved from a position of marked impairment to one of relative empowerment.

The energies of the alignment were already being exercised under Saturn's stern, disciplined eye. Jupiter's Libra ingress will add the energies of spiritual uplift, human decency, compassion, generosity and optimism to the mix.

Jupiter's movement into Libra will further moderate and mitigate the effects of the oligarchic alignment. Over time, it will loosen Pluto's obsessive grip on our affairs and lessen the harshness of its influence.

Moving into Libra, an institutional sign, gave Jupiter full standing in the oligarchic alignment. In terms of planetary cycles, its current position in the Jupiter/Saturn, Jupiter/Neptune and Jupiter/Pluto cycles grant it leverage over all three of these bodies.

In the coming year, as Jupiter moves quickly toward Scorpio, Jupiter will also achieve definitive leverage over Uranus in Aries. In Scorpio, Jupiter will also enjoy a more harmonious relationship with Pluto and a more intimate, positive interaction with Saturn.

Jupiter is above all, a generous and compassionate influence. In Libra, with its leverage over Saturn, Pluto, and Neptune, it will inject common sense and decency into the fraught, vexed negotiations between the 99% and the 1%.

As I mentioned above, Neptune is next in line to leave the alignment, but it won't enter Aries until 2025-26. That being so, we must depend on incremental change for continuing improvement. We will have to work hard for the next decade with the planetary resources already in place.

The Mills of the Gods Grind Slowly

September's Jupiter Libra ingress could not immediately compensate for all the difficulties of August's and September's charts. Nor could it compensate for everything that had gone before, nor for the continuing unfoldment of events already in motion.

Neither could Jupiter's Libra ingress compensate for all the difficulties inherent in the immense and complex transition now taking place.

Under present astrological circumstances, no single planetary ingress could do that. We are just in the midst of a lengthy, complicated and difficult transition.

If the pace of change were slower, it would be agonizing. If it were faster, change would be even more dangerously disruptive than it already is.

Having said all that, October's vibes will be easier and less treacherous with Jupiter's Libra ingress than without it.

October 2016

The full implications of the above are difficult to quite grasp. However, the events of October offer an opportunity for a closer, illuminating look at what we can expect in the immediate future.

Too Many Memories

We've just endured three eclipses in two months. Eclipses tend to bring life changing events and epochal, irreversible social, economic and political changes. Corners tend to be turned. There tend to be consequences. Chickens come home to roost.

There will be no eclipses in October. That will have to be an improvement. However, the lack of eclipses will not necessarily bring calm or afford peace of mind.

The memory of recent events will keep people alert and on edge. We will be dealing with the aftershocks, the follow on effects, of these three eclipses. If only because of what we have been through, tension and anxiety will likely remain high. But October will have its own, additional sources of disquiet.

Too Many Moons for Comfort

In October, there will be an 'excess of lunar energy' to contend with. Essentially, we have a two month period (September and October) with three New Moons worth of energy to process.

This will bring higher than normal levels of mental and emotional volatility, especially after a series of three eclipses. The extra New Moon will make the psychospiritual pot boil more vigorously generally.

New Moon in Libra, Sept 30/Oct. 1, 2016 UT

Full Moon in Aries, October 16, 2016 UT

New Moon in Scorpio, October 30, 2016 UT

The Big One

We'll also need to contend with a Mars/Pluto conjunction.

Mars Conjunct Pluto at 15° 4' Capricorn, October 19 UT

The conjunction will be a powerfully disruptive event in and of itself. Both Pluto and Mars will be in forward motion. The conjunction is taking place in cardinal signs. Also, this is the first (and only) time the conjunction will be exact. These factors suggest a powerful detonation.

The Mars/Pluto conjunction will build on the aftershocks of the eclipses. The general excess of lunar energy will further multiply its psychosocial side effects.

The Mars/Pluto conjunction on October 19, then, looks like a high impact Mars/Pluto encounter. It will doubtless generate some very upsetting headlines in the runup, during, and in the aftermath of the blast.

The natural and man made disasters, the violent confrontations, the bitter public controversies it inflames will be impressive, I think. But the potentially catastrophic effects will be the least of it. They are likely to be limited in number and localized.

The conjunction's effects on our politics, however, will be intense and pervasive and, in all likelihood, will affect most of us quite personally.

New Fire in the Embers

Countless bitterly contested issues remain unresolved from the Uranus/Pluto square of 2012-15. These innumerable, often vexed issues - many sharply contested - still simmer, ready to flare anew.

The issues still simmering from the Uranus/Pluto square grew out of tensions that built up between the 1% and the 99% over several decades. These issues, in their turn, have roots very deep in our collective history. The Mars/Pluto conjunction will be strong enough to expose these roots.

The restorative energies of Jupiter/Venus and Saturn will then be applied to healing and resolving these issues.

Mixing Painful and Healing Emotions

I think the best way to understand this complex, delicate and volatile process is by looking at the dispositor chart for the conjunction. In this chart, the scary bits are clearly represented.

Uranus is in Aries, the home sign of Mars. Mars and Pluto are in Capricorn, the natural sign of Saturn. Sober Saturn has the last word in this potentially explosive quartet.

But from Saturn the baton passes to Jupiter in mutual reception with Venus. Benevolent energies of Jupiter and the sweet energies of Venus, between them, get the final word.

We see a dual process. The Mars/Pluto blast will open fault lines. Sealed passages will split open. Dormant issues will flow out amid pain and outrage.

Then, in quick succession, the sobering energies of Saturn, the soothing and healing energies of Venus and Jupiter will be applied.

The real positives of October will come from the impetus and the unusual opportunity to resolve deep and vital issues with a rare combination of healing and restorative energies.

October will not bring instant and total relief. It will bring an extraordinary opportunity to revisit and work toward a resolution of difficult issues, effectively laying the groundwork for a new world, free of much that hobbled the old world.
