Church Librarians Network

Interested in interacting with more than 1507+ church librarians as you have questions, prayer concerns, ideas, new titles, training events, and pictures of your activities to share? You are invited to join or merely observe the interaction at www.ChurchLibrarians.Ning.com. We look forward to seeing you on the CLN!

Church Library Ministry Quarterly Email Broadcast

A free Church Library Ministry Email Broadcast is available by joining the Church Librarians Network. These emails let you know what is going on at the CLN as well as connect you with articles and other types of announcements.

How-To Resources for Church Librarians

- Church Library Information Service: A comprehensive how-to resource for church librarians to use to manage the information you receive through the Internet and conferences. The starter pack consists of 164 pages of information with tabs for administration, cataloging and classification, collection development, and promotion. This resource will never go out of date. This resource is available in hard copy (a shrink wrap format) and as an ebook (pdf). The ebook edition carries the updates done in 2013.
- A Classification System for Church Libraries: This revised edition is based on the 23rd Edition of the Dewey Decimal System. A time-saving resource for the library classifier.

Equipping Church Librarians for Ministry

Equipping Church Librarians for Ministry (ECLM) is a process designed to make skill development easier for you and your team. Everything you need for ECLM is posted on the Church Librarians Network at EQUIP.

Skill Development Events for Church Librarians

Church librarians, who want to get away to enjoy a time of fellowship and learning with other church librarians will want to consider the variety of events available in the coming months. These events feature excellent conference leaders who are experienced church librarians. For information about these events, go to the Church Librarians Network at Events. You are welcome to participate in all of these events.
