

Proclamation

by Governor Joe Manchin III

Whereas, citizens of the State of West Virginia, as well as around the world, are experiencing negative news on a daily basis, and as a result are feeling the negative emotional and health impacts of this news; and,

Whereas, everyone should have the opportunity to be positive and to do something positive; and,

Whereas, Positive Day promotes and supports the people, organizations and programs that are committed to promoting positive thought and action;

Now, Therefore, Be it Resolved that I, Joe Manchin III, Governor of the Great State of West Virginia, do hereby proclaim October 11, 2008, as:

Positive Day

in the Mountain State and encourage all citizens to join me in this observance.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of West Virginia to be affixed.

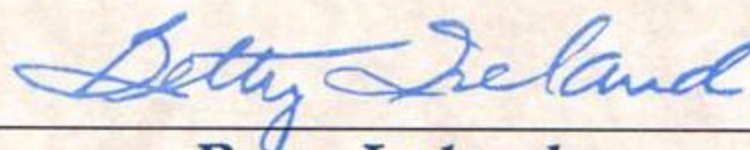

Done at the Capitol, City of Charleston, State of West Virginia, this the Sixth day of October, in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Eight, and in the One Hundred Forty-sixth year of the State.

Joe Manchin III
Governor

By the Governor:

Betty Ireland
Secretary of State
