I pray that you'll have a blessed week and keep each in prayer. If there ever was a time to “bear one another burden” it is now; we need to band together and pray for each other; I will be praying for each of you. Also, please don't forget to pray for the people in Japan and another group of people has been on my heart, the veterans who have served their country and come back and have to live on the streets. Please join me in praying for them; they also need our prayers. It is so sad that they are “the forgotten people” after risking their lives for their country.

Shalom,

Dr. Hooks
