2016-10-06

IRAQ MINISTER: Ancient Alien Spaceport & NIBARU! – Iraqi Transport Minister.
Source RT news - <https://www.rt.com/viral/361721-alien...>

Iraq's Transport Minister, Kazem Finjan, claims "ancient aliens" built earth's first airport 7,000 years ago in the Middle East - and used it for interplanetary missions.

Getting ever so slightly sidetracked during a press conference to announce the construction of a real-life, modern day airport in Dhi Qar, southern Iraq, Finjan suggested spacecraft launched from the same area in 5,000 BC discovered Pluto and the mythical planet of Nibiru.

An apparently well-read individual, Finjan is convinced he has found the proof for his theories.

"I invite those who doubt to read the book of the great Sumerian historian Zecharia Sitchin, or the books of Samuel Kramer including one entitled 'History begins at sumer' which speaks of the first airport constructed on planet earth, and it is there at el Naciria," he continued.

Audio: Laura Flanders 2014-04-08 Jessica Gordon Nembhard: Cooperative Economics and Civil Rights [SEPT 29, 2016]

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=_TVIghQMkBg

This week on the Laura Flanders Show: What role did economic cooperation play in the civil rights movement? As it turns out, a huge one. This forgotten history is the focus of Dr. Jessica Gordon Nembhard's recent book Collective Courage: A History of African-American Economic Thought and Practice, out in bookstores in May.

In 2014, the LF Show was one of the first to report on Gordon Nembhard's work on Black cooperativism and civil rights. Gordon Nembhard has received wide acclaim for both her book and her cooperative work. In August 2016, she was inducted into the Cooperative Hall of Fame, standing alongside cooperative movement heroes such as Shirley Sherrod (former LF guest) and Melbah Smith. Gordon Nembhard is Professor of Community Justice and Social Economic Development in the Department of Africana Studies at John Jay College, of the City University of New York (CUNY).

Gordon Nembhard's research has had formidable impact on the worker co-op sector, co-founded the U.S. Federation of Worker Co-ops and helped that organization build lasting ties with prominent civil rights and cooperative organizations. She is also an active member of the Grassroots Economic Organizing Newsletter collective and recently joined the board of directors of Green Worker Cooperatives.

Whenever I feel separate,
I need to turn myself on,
Like a light switch to allow
The current to flow
Through me from the Divine.

No small order sometimes! Like this week with Saturn square the nodes saying STOP! doubt it, prove it, test it, don't fool yourself, on and on and on..... OMG. With south node Neptune still going on in Pisces, we can all wanna just check out (stare at the clouds like I was in the report haha!) and drift away in our own silent rebellion (Uranus in Aries).

But no, in this Act XXVII of the play, it's apparently time to grow up and stand strong in our own truth and stay open as a conduit of love energy, oh yeah! And with the other aspects happening, join with other like minded souls, show some strength in unity and numbers, and tip the scales, start the domino effect, and rock out this planet with "alternative news," like about how great it is to be alive perhaps? How amazing the people, trees, plants, crystals, sounds, and feelings are? What beautiful new creations are emerging out of people's hearts and minds on a minute by minute basis? Yeah baby! Go!

RI: more about Libra, as we are in the middle of it – reading from Dane Rudyard

Transfiguration is the theme for the section we're in 2nd half is re-construction

the need to keep in operation – steady links between vast unconscious realm and the personality self; need those links to be stabilized.

Develop capacity to develop a calm understanding of the human experiences that one was once deeply involved in [past lives, even in this life – moving forward in this life]

Seeing the breakdown 18 Libra – how to make the vision, incoming impulses acceptable to society

- Seeing protest against disharmonic conditions around social privilege [1%]
- Not all of the past needs to be discarded – can carry forward the good stuff

21* Libra – re-vivifying force of nature – need to stay in contact with nature

- be friendly with the happy; be compassionate with the unhappy; don't give the evil any attention

23* - go for the joyful part of life's processes – we're supposed to be in a creative process!

24* - new modes of response to life's basic processes – hopefully we've learned more and can address things in a new way – every death is an omen of re-birth; about seeing through the lies, the propaganda

- the interaction of the spiritual will [Uranus] and the love principle [Pluto] when critical needs arise

27* we're working on developing a consciousness to transcend – getting into our observer self and out of our ego consciousness: don't re-act immediately – with contemplation and mediation consider actions for the good of all concerned

29* the community visible and invisible sustain our efforts, help us out – this can give us a deep sense of participation in the social processes

Audio: the introduction of a piece by John Fugelsang and Robert Weisberg: Dream On [PBS] is the name of the series

Premieres Oct 7th at 10pm EST on PBS. Check local listings.

DREAM ON investigates the perilous state of the American Dream after decades of rising income inequality and declining economic mobility. In an epic road trip, political comedian John Fugelsang retraces the journey of Alexis de Tocqueville, whose study of our young country in 1831 came to define America as a place where anyone, of any background, could climb the ladder of economic opportunity.

Following in the Frenchman's footsteps, Fugelsang asks whether the optimistic spirit of the American Dream that Tocqueville popularized is alive and well in the twenty-first century, or whether George Carlin was right when he famously quipped, "It's called the American Dream because you have to be asleep to believe it."

Interview with scholar and cultural critic, Jeff Chang, on his new book We Gon' Be Alright: Notes on Race and Resegregation, which examines the "recent tragedies and widespread protests that have shaken the country."

In these provocative, powerful essays acclaimed writer/journalist Jeff Chang (Can't Stop Won't Stop, Who We Be) takes an incisive and wide-ranging look at the recent tragedies and widespread protests that have shaken the country. Through deep reporting with key activists and thinkers, passionately personal writing, and distinguished cultural criticism, We Gon' Be Alright links #BlackLivesMatter to #OscarsSoWhite, Ferguson to Washington D.C., the Great Migration to resurgent nativism. Chang explores the rise and fall of the idea of "diversity," the roots of student protest, changing ideas about Asian Americanness, and the impact of a century of racial separation in housing. He argues that resegregation is the unexamined condition of our time, the undoing of which is key to moving the nation forward to racial justice and cultural equity.

Proof big banks knew 2008 crisis was coming, war is for corporate gains & more

<https://www.rt.com/shows/redacted-tonight-summary/362025-us-armed-conflicts-democracy/>

In this episode of Redacted Tonight, Lee Camp explores the crazy reality of endless war in which America is essentially driven by armed conflicts that are not for defending ourselves or spreading democracy, but the acquisition of resources and imperial power. Then Lee reveals new-found explicit proof that the major bankers KNEW that the 2008 financial collapse was coming, even though they testified before Congress that they had been clueless. This damning evidence should be more than enough to throw these sociopaths in jail, but will it? Next, keeping with the big banks theme, correspondent John F. O'Donnell joins Lee at the desk to discuss the despicable behavior of Wells Fargo and discuss if the public outrage may finally be loud enough to force a bank CEO to step down or even be prosecuted. Finally, correspondent Naomi Karavani files a report on the Coal Ash companies and how they're indiscriminately dumping it all over and how the EPA isn't doing anything to stop them. This and more on Redacted Tonight.

The 23 trillion dollars thus magically created were used by the owners of the Federal Reserve Board to buy on the cheap assets around the world whose value had crashed because of the engineered Lehman shock crash, the sources say. "This has amounted to the largest criminal theft of global assets in history using digital money created on computers, backed by nonexistent Gold," was how one CIA officer described the scam. This huge fraud vastly increased the concentration of the Khazarian mafia's ownership of the world's corporations and assets.

Various documents related to this fraud, including copies of the SWIFT transaction documents, can be seen below in the subscription portion of this blog and will be made available free of charge to the general public on Thursday, October 6th.

As this document release illustrates, action against the Khazarian mafia and their Federal Reserve Board based fraudulent financial system is escalating. That is probably why document shredding trucks were seen parked in front of the Fed's New York headquarters last week.

<http://www.zerohedge.com/news/2016-09-29/just-spotted-front-new-york-fed-again>

Three months later, the shredders are back...

There can be no doubt about it, the New York Federal Reserve bank is a crime scene and evidence is being destroyed.

The Pentagon meanwhile, has released more details about the new financial system that is will replace the fraudulent and defunct Federal Reserve Board, possibly as early as this month. The voting rights in the new system will be allocated as follows: with China getting...

... 20.09%, The Republic of the United States of America 17.89%, the EU 11.61%, Russia 7.53%, India 4.1% and Japan 3.79%. These are the same proportions as the carbon rights issued by the COP21 agreement which was more about a new financial system than it was about carbon. A full list of countries' voting shares can be seen here:

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Paris_Agreement

Paris Agreement – Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia en.wikipedia.org

The Paris Agreement (French: L'accord de Paris) is an agreement within the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC) dealing with greenhouse ...

The agreement will become law when 55 countries accounting for at least 55% of global carbon emissions ratify. That threshold will be passed when the EU ratifies which their government promises to do by the end of this month.

"The new October fiscal year coincides with the Jewish New Year, China's national day, and the collapse of Deutschebank as the yuan becomes a gold-backed, convertible international reserve currency in the new financial system," Pentagon sources say. This is what is really behind the official inclusion, starting on October 1st, of the Chinese yuan into the IMF's SDR currency basket, other sources confirm. [T: the khazarians and the jews are connected with the chinese]

Once the new system is up and running the US military and agencies will have a much freer hand to take action against the Khazarian mafia because they will no longer have to worry about getting money to pay for their salaries, gasoline etc. At the same time, the Khazarians will no longer be able to afford to pay the salaries of their ISIS, Boko Haram and other mercenary armies. [this is a galactic operation!!!]

In any case, it is now obvious to anybody with a functioning brain that the US military is not obeying the orders of the Khazarian mafia slaves in the State Department or the White House. Skull and Bones Khazarian mafia don US Secretary of State John Kerry was forced to admit in public last week that the military was unwilling to back his threats to take action against Russia in Syria. [thank god!]

Kerry said he 'lost argument' to back Syria diplomacy with force english.alarabiya.net

US Secretary of State John Kerry, in a meeting last week with a small number of Syrian civilians and the real reason for the blustering threats out of the State Department concerning Syria is that the Russians and their allies are systematically destroying the Israeli and oil company ISIS mercenary army operating there, Pentagon sources say. [they are lying about the fact that it is Israel – it is us, the US – and Israel has been running the country since 1949] The destruction included more Israeli and Saudi run command centers, they add.

A legal attack against the Khazarian mafia has also begun. Pentagon sources say "The military is behind the first lawsuit against Saudi Arabia by the widow of a navy commander killed at pentagon on 911 so that, when leaks about Israel's involvement in 911 happen, class action lawsuits will be aimed to bankrupt and sanction the Jewish mafia."

The sources add that "Neocon Ash Carter and CIA boss Saudiphile John Brennan were behind the futile Obama veto of the 911 law, who was then bitch slapped with house and senate overrides."

In another blow to the Khazarian mafia "longtime Rockefeller Stooge Joseph Verner Reed" was among "cabal agents terminated," last week, the Pentagon sources say.

https://www.washingtonpost.com/local/obituaries/joseph-verner-reed-jr-diplomat-and-white-house-protocol-chief-dies-at-78/2016/10/01/d94639f4-87e7-11e6-ac72-a29979381495_story.html

Joseph Verner Reed Jr., diplomat and White House protocol chief, dies at 78

<http://www.washingtonpost.com>

Mr. Reed was an ambassador, George H.W. Bush's protocol chief and a longtime U.N. official.

There was also more subterfuge involving the Clinton Bush mafia last week when Bill Clinton went to the funeral of former Israeli Leader Shimon Peres to hobnob. "Bill went to the funeral only so Hillary could get more Jewish donors," the military sources who monitored his visit say. Hillary, meanwhile, was recorded by the FBI making a deal with Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu to double US aid to Israel in exchange for more money to her foundation, the sources add.

There was also a lot of contradictory information coming from sources who told this writer that Hillary Clinton was dead. One source insists she is dead and that the Clinton/Trump debate had been recorded in advance. Another source says Hillary was killed and replaced by a clone and since the clones have limited intelligence, she needed an earphone microphone and a teleprompter in order to be able to debate. It is also possible that a body double was used who would also need a teleprompter and earphone so that her handlers could tell her what to say. The technology also now exists to use computer graphics to create debating Hillary.

What is clear in any case is that somebody went to a lot of trouble to make it seem she died, including putting images of her falling down on world TV screens and having TV networks broadcast reports that she died. She also cancelled a whole series of live appearances. This may have been done to prevent her being executed for the crime of mass murder by making would be executioners think she was already dead.

Whatever the case, even if it was the real Hillary, online polls overwhelmingly agree she lost the debate by a huge margin.

There is also an ongoing avalanche of exposure of the criminal activities of the Clinton foundation and of Hillary and Bill Clinton. Forget the stories of their foundation peddling watered down AIDS drugs and the like, the real story is that they are mass murderers involved in the nuclear bomb triggered tsunami attacks against Haiti and Japan.

There is also more and more evidence coming out that the people behind the Federal Reserve Board are Satan worshippers. The latest to be leaked is a video purporting to show Angelina Jolie describe to friends her participation in Satanic rituals.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=vkXS946P4sQ>

Angelina Jolie Admits To Illuminati Sacrifice In Leaked Video

<http://www.youtube.com>

Angelina Jolie admits to the satanic ritual she performed to enter the Order of the Illuminati in newly surfaced secret footage where she is talking to two c...

Jolie has since been offered a post in the Rockefeller's Council on Foreign relations and other powerful positions.

There have also been revelations by former Clinton aides that Hillary Clinton participated in witchcraft activities. Hillary's leaked e-mails show she made sacrifices to Moloch, a different name for Satan.

These revelations jives with what I was told when I visited the P2 Freemason lodge in Italy about how the inner group at the top levels of world power practice human sacrifice, carry out arcane rituals to summon "entities," and run world events in line with movements of the stars and planets. I was poisoned during that visit and was not supposed to live to tell the world about them and their activities.

Now, however, they are being exposed on multiple fronts by whistleblowers, intelligence agencies and others. Once these people are deprived of their money "Majick," they will lose the final remnants of their power and will be systematically hunted down and neutralized. That is why the Federal Reserve Board is being taken down.

The documents below, sent by agency white hats, are concrete evidence the White Dragon Society and its allies are on the case. The guns of October have started to roar. There will be more in November. The attacks will continue until it is finally over and humanity is set free. If we all work on this, victory by Christmas is possible.

2016-10-01 NEW MOON in Libra September 30th / October 1st 2016~

ART BY MYSTIC MAMMA

(Hopi woman by Edward S. Curtis)

NEW MOON* is here again bringing us a new cycle wherein we can plant seeds for a brighter, more compassionate, more cooperative future.*

The archetype of Libra reminds us of our interconnected nature and teaches us about the art of harmonizing with all of our relations.

Ruled by Venus, she inspires us to walk with beauty and bring forth our feminine gifts of empathy, love and creativity to bridge a new understanding of ourselves and each other and the animate world that surrounds us.

Here are the MYSTIC MAMMA Astral Insights from our beloved featured astrologers. First from CHAD WOODWARD from his Kosmic Mind:

"Take a deep breath. You've made it to the New Moon in tropical Libra.

"Feel the inner peace that exists within you; connect with that potential state.*

"Something holds the universe together. No matter what we endure, life seeks to achieve homeostasis.

"It's really an amazing thing. Life always finds a way around things. Every obstacle, challenge, or blockage is just an accent along the pathway to wholeness.

"And each perceived limitation can always be worked with and incorporated somehow.

"Whatever flaws you might think you have can become your allies. They can be a beautiful piece of your wholeness.

"This is what Libra ultimately teaches us. As the archetype of the artist or the lover, Libra seeks to create beauty from whatever it has to work with.

"As you settle into this New Moon, take a deep look at your life, and see the opportunities that exist allowing you to turn your challenges into a work of art.

"It might take the form of stabilizing a relationship, friendship, or professional partnership, or it might take the form of a literal creative endeavor.

"Whatever it is, this New Moon plants the seeds for increased stability and cooperation in some aspect of your life.

"Mercury's retrograde cycle is now over. Perhaps you've encountered some setbacks in the past few weeks. But it's also possible that those setbacks served to gift you with a different perspective.

*"I don't think that Mercury retrogrades ever pass by without teaching us something, or helping us become more aware of the universe we are enmeshed within.

"The final eclipse season of this year is also over, and it has likely left you a bit altered, perhaps it has significantly rerouted your present course. Where do you go from here? This is a time when you may begin to get a better sense of that.

"The planet Jupiter conjoins this New Moon. The God of expansion, abundance, and opportunity steps in to open new doorways.

"This New Moon is a time to make some choices... In Libra, consider the possibility of receiving help from trusted allies, whoever or whatever they might be.

"Don't feel like you have to step into the darkness all by yourself.

*"The most powerful theme of this lunation is a spotlight on the human need for companionship and support. It's our nature, as social creatures, to reach out and support others on their journey.

"How can you reach out? And what do you need for yourself? You may find that the best use of your time right now would be to see who needs help and to equally see where you could benefit from support as well.

"Again, don't step into this darkness alone. This powerful New Moon amplifies our social instincts. If you're open to that, you'll find that new ways to connect and bond will emerge all around you.

*"While it might not be clear where these connections will ultimately lead, this is a potent starting point.

"Also, consider Jupiter's innate ability to bring about restlessness and the need for new experience. It will likely catalyze action to help you move beyond those attachments that hold you back, and to embrace those that can help you step forward.

*"The New Moon makes a sextile to Saturn, which makes it easier to work with current life challenges. You might find that, at the moment, the heaviness of recent obstacles are lifted.

"Neptune also makes a quincunx with the New Moon. What is emerging now does not appear with crystalline clarity, but it's probably enough to entice you to keep going with whatever you've been struggling with.

"Neptune reminds you that you'll never have it all figured out anyway, so stop pretending you ever will.

"Trust in the great mystery, and along the way, grab the helping hand that is offered to you (be discerning, of course).

"Life might still be confusing, but at least you can grapple with that confusion in good company."

SARAH VARCAS from her Astro-Awakenings.co.uk:

"The New Moon in Libra...is a good time to begin again in recent situations of discord and conflict..."

"Human nature is cyclical, moving in ebbs and flows of togetherness and understanding, strife, separation and discord, then back to connection again. This is true of our relationship with ourselves as much as with each other!"

"Nothing remains the same. There is no stasis, even in death. So any notion that nothing can change – least of all us or them, this or that – simply cannot be trusted, especially now!"

"Change is the only constant, a dependable refuge until we know without doubt the sacred essence which feeds us from a different place."

"In an alliance with Neptune and Venus, this New Moon both spiritualizes and grounds our relationships."

"It enables a more compassionate heart and courageous spirit, manifest in a willingness to say the hard stuff whilst holding a space of love and acceptance."

"Only then can we realistically decide where, being these people at this time, life will take us next."

"But if unavoidable separations are on the cards come October, don't resist them. We know in our heart when an ending has arrived, no matter how much we may fight this truth."

"Try, if possible, to relax a little into it, embracing the space of 'only me' where 'we' used to be."

"Whilst this New Moon speaks of love, it is a greater, more enduring kind: love of the Self as it really is, not the false self we create to get by. Love of the divine which flows through us as truth, that burns from within when denied."

"No one person can give or take away this unbounded love for it is none of ours to own and yet all of ours to share."

"This coming month we must do so widely, drink it in deeply and weave it through the very heart of this fantastically tumultuous life."

CATHY PAGANO from her Wisdom of Astrology.com:

"New Moons nights are magical times. The night sky fills with millions of stars with no Moon in the sky to enchant our eyes."

"We look up and look out into the universe, just as the far side of the Moon does. We look into eternity. And a new seed gets planted in our collective psyche.

"Each New and Full Moon occupy different signs of the Zodiac, and so different energies are evoked and different desires are stirred up...

"Even more than with other signs, Libra strongly affects everyone, because Libra is the sign of the Other, so it impacts all our Relationships, even our relationship to our Self..."

"Libra wants real justice, fairness and balance in our laws, our beliefs and our actions.

"And yet while it is an air/thinking sign, Libra has heart. With Venus/Aphrodite as the ruler of Libra, she balances her head and her heart to help us find truth, beauty and love.

"With Aphrodite comes the Muses, inspiring us to create Art That Matters to others..."

"What about using ART to speak about this election in the US? Where are our musicians and artists in this time of dire beauty and chaos?"

"The Arts speak to justice, beauty and truth. It is a heartfelt expression that speaks to us viscerally..."

"Now, to add a little more spice to this juicy energy, the biggest planet in our solar system, Jupiter, has just arrived in the sign of Libra, and will be traveling through it until next October 2017.

"So the sign of Libra and all our relationships will be especially energized this year..."

"We might find ourselves stepping out of our personal concerns and opening our hearts to future generations who need us to stand up for justice now..."

"Saving our planet is about leaving a sustainable and sustaining Earth for future generations.

"Jupiter in Libra can encourage our more noble character to stand up and have a say in how our laws affect us and the world.

"And in the relationship realm, Jupiter in Libra can help us be both noble and truthful about our relationship needs. So on all levels, this is the year to engage with zest and joy in relationships!"

"...At this New Moon, Venus helps us dig out the truth of our hearts—what fears live there, what hopes want to blossom, what visions want to manifest.

"All too often in astrology, we reduce Venus/Aphrodite to a few key words like love, sex, beauty and money, values..But those words do not begin to describe the deep mystery of Venus/Aphrodite, who leads us to Wisdom!"

"Any goddess energy that can give us that gift is deeper than a few catchwords..."

"As Evening Star, Venus gives us a bigger stage to act upon. What and who can you influence with your truth and wisdom?"

"Venus is asking us to remember who we really are and to access our wisdom.

"We live in a living, evolving universe. Anything is possible..."

A Message to Lightworkers - September 30, 2016

The latest guidance from our friends, the Galactic, Elemental, Ascended Master, and Angelic beings known as the Collective:

Greetings, Brave Light Beings!

We are very pleased to have this opportunity to speak with you again today.

You would perhaps be surprised to learn, that before incarnating, you "looked forward" (though from a dimension where time does not exist) to this part of your Earth journey, when the energies would be pouring in, and you would squint at the brightness of them.

You knew that you would feel unsure at times regarding how to take these powerful energies -- the ego-mind tries to struggle against them at times, thinking that these are not helpful moments, as they can feel so strange and challenging.

Many are reporting feeling weak or shaky. Others feel upended emotionally, or seeing that their current job, relationship, or home no longer fits who they are. Even their clothing or hairstyle may seem to belong to someone else.

These are all beautiful indications of the wild river ride you are on, and the bravery and tenacity with which you are steering your small vessel through powerful rapids.

Understand that it will not always be this way.

You will not always feel to be under constant waves of change, with the outer world in turmoil, such as current happenings around the world bear witness to.

Consider it a beautiful, empowering, and positive sign that all appears to be in flux now.

For before a new system comes in, the old must crumble and fall by the wayside.

And though that is difficult for the left-brain and ego-mind to grasp or accept at times, without panicking, nevertheless -- you knew these moments would occur, and you have subconsciously waited with baited breath through the entirety of this Earth life for this very moment.

And so, the moment arrives.

And it is a protracted moment, having taken centuries to get here, and decades of your lifetime to unfold.

Yet, it is here: the disclosing, unveiling, and unmasking of those no-longer-powerful forces that would take you and your world further down a dark path of service to them, including loss of your individual Divine essence.

Their dark visions and plans are crumbling further each day -- they are quite alarmed at the speed at which this is occurring, in fact.

So that when you see a supposed "debate" on television between one dark but organic and one manufactured lifeform, both claiming to be human and to be leaders, you know far better.

The masses are, for the vast majority, unwilling now to take in the deceptions they have been so carefully trained to believe in. These same energies that are helping you birth your Ascension have brought them inevitably to this moment.

And so we see not only thousands standing with the Earth Protectors of North Dakota, but many millions.

We see not only thousands objecting to the dehumanizing rhetoric about Syrian and other refugee populations, but many millions.

And we see, with the establishment of the National Museum of African American History and Culture, a reflection of the very great shift that has occurred over the past few decades, for all races and cultures, around the world.

Understand that for more than 20 years, President Obama and those supporting him (those now in the physical and those in the etheric) have been sending out the energies of empowerment, truth, stability, justice, and equality -- the foundations of NESARA law – not only to the entire US, but to the entire world -- all nations and all peoples.

This is a powerful beacon, and we lend our Light and energies to it as well, and ever shall, dear ones, unless your blessed Mother Earth wishes otherwise.

Know that this temporary time of growing-pains discomfort, of seeing old issues and conflicts rising to the surface, aren't only a matter of police shootings or stolen primaries, or your and your loved ones' struggles with money or health or well-being, as difficult as all of that is.

This new era signals the release of the third dimensional construct, and the birth of the Ascended consciousness -- the crystalline awareness that is reconstructing every physical cell and lifting every part of your life to an entirely new level.

And so -- uncomfortable and strange? Most certainly.

But un-asked for? Most assuredly not.

For you yourselves are birthing your own Ascension, your own fifth dimensional reality, and your own powerful growth and higher awareness.
So that while you may not currently have your own spacecraft outside your home, you have nonetheless, made room for such in your consciousness. You have created the reality of such, with your joyful expectation, your joyful command.

You are in fact, the ones who have decided "And so it is! Bring this New Earth and new life forth, our collective souls! Bring this forth and create this, Universe!"

And so mote it be.

Namaste, dear ones!

Your Galactic and soul families crowd round you now, full of joy, full of admiration and amazement, at your strength, your courage, and your increasingly powerful Light, and we join them in thanking you for your beautiful service to humanity, to your own soul's growth, to the saving and healing of your planet.

And so it is!

Warriors of the Rainbow Prophecy 2014-04-22 <http://www.ancient-origins.net/myths-legends/warriors-rainbow-prophecy-001577>

johnblack

"One day... there would come a time, when the earth being ravaged and polluted, the forests being destroyed, the birds would fall from the air, the waters would be blackened, the fish being poisoned in the streams, and the trees would no longer be, mankind as we would know it would all but cease to exist"

This is how the 'Rainbow prophecy' begins, as retold by a woman of the Cree Indian nation of America over a century ago.

The Cree are one of the largest groups of the First Nations Native Americans in North America. There are over 135 bands of Cree living in Canada, with a total population of approximately 200,000 today.

The Rainbow prophecy, as it has come to be known, refers to the keepers of the legends, rituals, and other myths that will be needed when the time comes to restore the health on Earth. It is believed that these legendary beings will return on a day of awakening, when all people will unite and create a new world of justice, peace and freedom, and they will be named the 'Warriors of the Rainbow'. They will reteach the values and the knowledge that has been lost in time, demonstrating how to have wisdom and extra-perception, and how unity, harmony and love is the only way forward.

The rainbow reference relates to the different colours of the original people:

"At the beginning of this cycle of time, long ago, the Great Spirit came down and He made an appearance and He gathered the peoples of this earth together, they say on an island which is now beneath the water, and He said to the human beings, "I'm going to send you to four directions and over time I'm going to change you to four colours, but I'm going to give you some teachings and you will call these the Original Teachings and when you come back together with each other you will share these so that you can live and have peace on earth, and a great civilization will come about."

Prophecy as told by Lee Brown of the Salish Tribe at the 1986 Continental Indigenous Council, Alaska.

A particularly interesting part of the prophecy relates to the choosing of leaders. According to the story, a leader will not be the one that talks the loudest, boasts of successes, or has the support of the elite. Leaders will be those whose actions speak the loudest, the ones that have demonstrated wisdom and courage and have proven that they work for the benefit of all. Isn't this how things should be?

The Rainbow has always held special significance among the different Native American Indian Nations. It is connected to the Spirit (Supreme God/Creator) in all things. Apart from the Cree prophecy there are many prophecies and stories from the Hopi, the Zuni and the Cherokee related to the rainbow warriors.

“There will come a day when people of all races, colors, and creeds will put aside their differences. They will come together in love, joining hands in unification, to heal the Earth and all Her children. They will move over the Earth like a great Whirling Rainbow, bringing peace, understanding and healing everywhere they go. Many creatures thought to be extinct or mythical will resurface at this time; the great trees that perished will return almost overnight. All living things will flourish, drawing sustenance from the breast of our Mother, the Earth.

“The great spiritual Teachers who walked the Earth and taught the basics of the truths of the Whirling Rainbow Prophecy will return and walk amongst us once more, sharing their power and understanding with all. We will learn how to see and hear in a sacred manner. Men and women will be equals in the way Creator intended them to be; all children will be safe anywhere they want to go. Elders will be respected and valued for their contributions to life. Their wisdom will be sought out. The whole Human race will be called The People and there will be no more war, sickness or hunger forever.”

Navajo-Hopi Prophecy of the Whirling Rainbow

“In the time of the Seventh Fire, a New People would emerge. They would retrace their steps to find the wisdom that was left by the side of the trail long ago. Their steps would take them to the elders, who they would ask to guide them on their journey. If the New People remain strong in their quest, the sacred drum will again sound its voice. There will be an awakening of the people, and the sacred fire will again be lit. At this time, the light-skinned race will be given a choice between two roads. One road is the road of greed and technology without wisdom or respect for life. This road represents a rush to destruction. The other road is spirituality, a slower path that includes respect for all living things. If we choose the spiritual path, we can light yet another fire, an Eight Fire, and begin an extended period of Peace and healthy growth.”

Grandfather William Commanda, Circle of All Nations Prophecy of the Seven Fires of the Anishnabe, From Ancient Wampum Belt

While Wikipedia would have people believe that the legend originates in a 1962 book titled 'Warriors of the Rainbow' by William Willoya and Vinson Brown, the reality is that the prophecy is ancient, passed down as oral history over many generations. Brown, himself, admitted that his research came from the Hopi prophecies, and the book has been criticised as an attempt to evangelize with the Native American community by relating the prophecy of the Rainbow Warriors to the Second Coming of Christ.

References to a new Era, a Golden Age characterised by harmony, stability and prosperity, do not just belong to the Native Americans, but can be found in myths and legends from all over the world. It is known as Chryson Genos in Greek mythology, the Kali yuga in Vedic and Hindu culture, and gullaldr in Norse mythology. One aspect that is common among many legends of the Golden era is the return of beings or gods that will aid in the restoration of the Earth.

In classical Greek mythology, the Golden Age was presided over by the leading Titan Cronus. In some version of the myth, Astraea also ruled. She lived with men until the end of the Silver Age but, in the Bronze Age, when men became violent and greedy, fled to the stars, where she appears as the constellation Virgo, holding the scales of Justice, or Libra.

Whether these prophecies are true or not, much of what is spoken about – the era of greed and violence – is a reality throughout much of the world today. Corruption, greed, poverty, consumerism, power to the few, and injustice are predominant characteristics of our civilization accompanied by a great technological advancement that has become a weapon for mass destruction and a tool for suppressing resistance. Whether beings from the past will interfere or not, one thing is for sure, life cannot continue in this way forever.
