

FASHION on FILM 2017

Official Rules

The Project: Create a short film on an aspect of the Fashion industry. This could be any format (music video, documentary, narrative etc.) but must have local fashion as a theme. Film makers are required to join <http://www.californiafilm.net/group/fashion-on-film> to be eligible. Find your own subject or contact CFF to find one. CFF can introduce potential film teams who wish help to fashion talent to create a compelling narrative film to screen with the Sacramento Fashion Week 2017.

1. Submission Deadline: ends, February 1st 2017 when all films are due back to CFF. Note: Only films that meet the deadline will be eligible as officially part of the competition.
1. Each team will have one "producer" legally responsible. All Team members must be volunteers.
3. Finished films must be a maximum of 6 minutes in duration including ALL credits. End Credits may not exceed 30 seconds in length <NO ACCEPTIONS>. The finished film must be NTSC mono or two channel stereo in 16x9 aspect ratio.
