National conference on Transforming Mathematics Education for Indigenous learners

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Mathematics Alliance

VALUE US. VALUE OUR EDUCATION. VALUE OUR FUTURE.

Conference

Sandon Point Aboriginal Tent Embassy and the University of Wollongong

Sunday 30 October – Wednesday 2 November 2016

ATSIMA, along with the Aboriginal Communities of the Dharawal and Yuin peoples of the Illawarra and South East Coast, is excited to announce that the second Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Mathematics Alliance conference.

The overarching theme of the conference will be quality teaching and learning in mathematics for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students. With the growing STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics) agenda in Australia and around the world, it is critical that our students are not left out of the equation and have the opportunity to be a part of this future as Aboriginal Torres Strait Islander people.

Value us. Value our education. Value our future.

ATSIMA CONFERENCE SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

This event is the second national conference for ATSIMA. ATSIMA knows that maths opens doors to life opportunities. Our vision is:

All Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders students will be successful in mathematics.

The conference brings together leaders and stakeholders from Community, education and business to create connections and grow understanding to improve mathematics learning outcomes and career pathways for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students.
