The True Story of Deborah

by Deborah J. Boyd, Jan 22, 2008

The intuitive modern story of the Biblical character of 4,000 BC.

The only successful Avatar in the known history of the world lived about 6,000 years ago. In 4,000 BC there were 7 million people, estimated through modern technique, then Living in the world. Deborah was married but the modern English Christian Bible does not tell us if she had any children. She and her husband came from 2 different tribes, Referred to as clans in the day of Deborah. The Bible tells Us his name but little else.

In the day of Deborah the World leadership was appointed by the Yaweh. The Yaweh has since been translated as God. Deborah was the first woman Judge and the 4th and final Divine Judge of the ancient Israel. This day I will tell you the true story. The many years that have past since they began to write down the stories of the Bible have seen several translations. Prior to writing the stories of heros and their relation to the Yaweh was passed down through oral Tradition.

The only way to know the truth now is intuitively because in the day of Deborah they did not have devices to record the voice nor did they have the ability to write yet. Deborah is called a military leader in the modern interpretation. This Is confusing because she was not a general or involved with The military the way the men wrote it. She was a Warrior Spirit. A Warrior Spirit is a defender of the Realm. The Realm is all of the spiritual energy of the Yaweh. The Yaweh is a collective of all spiritual energy. Part is in the material world and part is in reserve. This reserve spiritual energy is referred to as God, Allah, the Universe and probably other names depending on the culture, intelligence, and beliefs of the story teller.

Being Psychic is not as mysterious as people would have you believe in modern times. Being psychic is the ability to connect and interpret the Yaweh by a spirit in the material world. The warrior spirit able to do this is therefore the most powerful person on Earth. Using the Power of Attraction, the Warrior Spirit is able to be the Prophet. The Prophet is merely a person who has learned to communicate with the Yaweh who, as a pure source of energy, can evade time as we know it. The Yaweh is like a Juke box. You can play past, present, or future "films" of The material world.

Does this mean the future is laid out already? No because of free will. We as the material manifestation of Yaweh can Rewrite the script at any time. The more popular the writer, the more likely the change is to occur. It is true that Deborah went with Barak to face the enemy. She was not a general but more like what we call a chaplain in today's world. The enemy of Deborah has not been portrayed too well over the years. The enemy was a rogue clan that split off from the other clans of Israel. So when Deborah went out with Barak and the archers and other members of the defenders of Israel, she was going to face a confused cousin. Now all the people in the mental health industry can claim ownership of Deborah as the first practitioner. This is a very good interpretation.

Since the world was run by men in the Day of Deborah The Great, they told her story from the view of men. Since men were originally hunters their answer too often is to kill who Does not agree with their point of view. It is unfortunate that women can listen to the men and also think that killing is the answer. Negotiation is not killing. Negotiation is the Combination of speaking and listening and compromise.

Deborah The Great never picked up a weapon, never killed anyone nor wished for anyone to be killed. The poor tent girl picked up signals from the Yaweh and noot being trained in the industry, interpreted the signal as an instruction to kill the Charismatic leader of the rogue tribe.

The other part of the story left out of the Bible is that when Deborah returned the lost tribe came along. In those days, Ordinary people were like sheep. Without the Charismatic leader, they did not know what to do. Someone cried out to follow Deborah and they did. You see Deborah split up is very similar to a modern day sport cheer. Deborah becomes like the cheer of the cheerleader. So you see her enemy was merely a flock of sheep following a troubled spirit.
