

Women Moving the Edge 12

Hazelwood House
South Devon, UK
April 20 - 23, '12

You are invited, as women, to move the edge of consciousness, through collectively inquiring into this question, from the presence of Source:

If land and stones hold a memory and radiate it out through the ages, dare we open as a portal to re-member and co-create with Earth, to sound a new vibration - a new song - for the future to come?

Women Moving the Edge is a collective, integral practice. Women participating in this program are invited to come to a place of Open Mind, Open Heart and Open Will. From this quality of individual alignment and authenticity, we share with each other in the circle, through verbal and non-verbal means. Sensing, speaking and acting from Source is a feminine way of knowing that we can reconnect with.

This culminates in a collective field of attention, a holding space from where we connect with our guiding question. We are called, each time, to gather around an unmanifest potential. Seeking to explore that potential, we have developed the practice of Collective Sourcing and Collective Presencing.

Women Moving the Edge is a continuous process and what we are invited to collectively sense into is ever widening and deepening. There is an inner, subtle world within our world that we can interact and co-create with and that inter-penetrates and embraces our physical reality. Entering into this relationship in a conscious way gives a new dimension to understanding creation and generativity.

Women Moving the Edge invites the Wholeness of Knowing. From experience we realize that we can know so much more when engaging with all our inner and outer senses. We invite all forms of arts and subtle knowing. Bring your talents, childlike wonder and any materials you/we need!

Collective Presencing means multi-tasking on different levels and being present in different dimensions at the same time. It integrates authenticity, balance, harmony and generative space.

This is a save-the-date announcement!

Women Moving the Edge 12

Hazelwood House
South Devon, UK
April 20 - 23, '12

Visiting Avebury

One day of our gathering will be spent on a trip to Avebury, reconnecting in a conscious way with the stones and what they stand for. Most likely some kind of rituals will unfold from our collective space, all linked with our guiding question. We envision that sound and song will be present too.

This is a save-the-date announcement!

We cannot offer prices yet, as the budget still has to be made; but pencil it in your schedules and spread the word! Thanks!

Dates: Friday April 20, 2012, 3pm to Monday April 23, 2012, 2pm.

Venue: Hazelwood House, Loddiswell, Kingsbridge, South Devon, TQ7 4EB, Tel: + 44 1548 821 232
Rooms already reserved.

As your hosting team we do not facilitate, rather we host this collective, emergent process. We do this by engaging ourselves fully in the collective inquiry. Our intention is for emergence to happen and we apply our mastery and offer teachings wherever needed and useful.
Your hosts: Ria Baeck, Judy Wallace, Helen Titchen Beeth and Rachel Castagne.

Workshop Fee, including lunch and dinner:

Basic Price (due no later than) £

Basic Plus Price (due by) £

The Basic Plus offers the possibility to contribute sponsorship money for women who can't afford the total fee. If not needed for that, it helps to support our research and hosting work. You are always welcome to contribute more. Thanks in advance.

Registration/Information: Contact Rachel Castagne on recastagne@gmail.com or +44 7803 882 293

Join and enjoy our online community!

Women Moving the Edge online community
and the group forming around this gathering:
Group WMtE12 - UK