HARD NEWS:

- It is also International Workers Day, as well as the beginning of WESAK
- Yesterday, a guest on Bill Mahers said that 60% of Freddie Gray's neighbourhood had no jobs - the guest came from there also.
 - There is no accountability with the police who do not keep records!
- Obama said that he thought the people of Baltimore want the truth more than anything else
 - said his admin would help local officials get to the truth
- Rachel Maddow's show: Monday is the day of marching for social justice; this year May Day happened to mesh with the - this remarkable day of news in Baltimore also saw protests
 - in Seattle, the San Fran Bay area and who marched with
 - in Chicago, people out in big numbers; NYC - 100s of people gathered in Union Square;
 - on Wed pm huge numbers of people arrested in NYC;
 - Portland people carried signs saying "Don't shoot" and "Black Lives matter"
 - Minneapolis the HS students walked out of school and joined a larger protest "Hands up, don't shoot!"
- this is not just about workers, but also about the police violence - lots of them happening across the country in honour of Marilyn Mosby's indictments.

Camp Lovewave

- Teran said with the astrology, there is a tipping point; the 6 police officers have not been found guilty: only a prosecution against them - innocent until proven guilty
- T: Nick Mosby, her husband, has been in the streets all week; after a victory rally turned into a concert at 4 pm, 300 people were doing the wobble outside the courthouse in Baltimore!
- The people will continue to mobilize and organize
- Tessa Hill Houston, the pres of NAACP in Baltimore, was asked for her reaction to the indictment: Tessa said it's a good thing; there are 4 men who have died in the hands of the police in the last 5 years and nothing brought to justice; it is why the people are outraged.
 - Regardless of the results, these ones have been indicted; whatever else happens, happens in court and they are treated like ordinary citizens.
- Rachel: struck by the response of the vehemence of the police union pres - would not expect them to talk about Mosby as being too conflicted about presenting this matter.
- Tessa: it's a terrible thing to say; even though she is new, she won the election and this is one of the 1st big cases for her to deal with: she has been in office since January - there is nothing to judge on the idea that she is doing anything improper: she gave the indictment after reviewing the case. That is her profession; she has a staff of qualified lawyers to work with here
- There were 50 detectives from the police force sent to her to help.
 - When officers take down a person, and someone dies, they need to be treated the same as anyone else. Let the process work. The citizens of Baltimore and the country are pleased with that.
- T: glad she did not go to a grand jury arrangement: these are have been rigged every time: keep it secret, behind closed doors, etc - not transparent.
- there is no proper policy - the police have been working for the 13 families, the NWO and UN which is not proper protocol or policy.
 - In Ferguson, over half the police members were KKK members - NOT appropriate!
- Rachel: talking to Tessa about what she [RM] reviewed, including videos where Tessa was out, urging people to avoid violence, keep the peace: thinks it must be both challenging & hard
- Tessa: yes, it is hard as people's emotions are running high; you think you can calm people down and have them listen and some do not want to hear it. She was out every single night. Two nights ago there were about 100 - 150 young people from Gilmore Homes, where Freddie Gray lived. The police were bearing down on them and Tessa stepped in between them when the police were getting aggressive: she asked the kids to go home, and hugged them and kissed them – and they listened! Took the bull horn and talked to the leaders: keep on chanting but don't step towards the police – they chanted and then walked several miles back to their homes.

Rachel: leadership is not a theoretical thing; some times it's a very much a granular in-your-face thing. And Tessa agreed

- A lot of the millenials are interested; the teenagers are more galactic than human - they have no grass-roots in the middle of it all experience Of what the prophets' group has done to create space for them to come in and live – in the last hundred year 2 BILLION people have been murdered! It is very difficult for a young person to deal with this, let alone people of our age who can talk about it with others or our age.

R: they have been taken out 2 billion life forms by the reptilian alliances that are not aligned with the Office of the Christ; – it's about the hidden history of our planet and you only get bits and pieces; if you want the truth, have to dig for it and much of it is twisted, convoluted because the people who have brought it forth have risked their lives to do this, and some of them broke through their programming to bring it forth

T: there is a culture of Hitlarianism that has been going on; now they are murdering people in public with impunity and are getting caught; there are some who can afford to have phones with cameras - it was a young black teenager who took the pictures of what happened to Freddie Gray and he gave it to the police!!! That's an act of courage!

- What were we doing when we were 16? Certinly not living in a neighbourhood like Freddie Gray's!

Grateful it's a lot of young people, along with seasoned adults - Ministers, Elijah Cummings who is the rep of that district; people in gov't; councillors; high school teachers – people who work in that community who help to make the community function!

- One kid had a sign: "Scholars, not thugs!" - that's the truth: the education we get is through experience, yet these kids do not even get enough education – this is a systemic problem not based on "I am my brother's keepers" – the wealthy ones are privatizing education and are re-segregating the entire system.

- And also making sure that the people of colour never see the other 80% of available real estate; there are rules in real estate that you don't show people of colour houses in the white areas; if there is a neighbourhood that is trying to integrate, the people of colour will be charged 4x as much as white people. And the rule is that whatever money is collected in a poor district is used for that district: if a young mother who has a child of colour who is doing well and wants to take the kid to another school is not allowed to do this – and they get put in jail if they do it!

- Sister Laurie is working with a lot of young people, and they are being led to blue avian talk from David Wilcock

R checked it out

- these folks who have come from the various ABC agencies that have no names, and from the DUMBases [Deep Underground Military Bases where they snatch kids off the streets, torture them, kill them & scoop out the pineal gland and feed them to the life forms] – the more humanoid life forms who come to the surface, they don't speak of the Office of the Christ or of Ashtar, Sananda, Monca, etc

- David Wilcock speaks of the blue avians – R says it is only a piece of the story, yet there is an Intergalactic Federation of Planets & Sun Systems, and there is an order to how the Universe of Nabadon does its business; it is not just random life forms coming and going and doing what they will with the planet

- R has connected with different folks during his life time and has seen things most folks on the planet have barely heard of, let alone have an opinion about it

R is in his 60s; David Wilcock is in his 40s & he is still cocky though not quite so much as when he

- was 20; he thinks he was Edgar Cayce AND HE IS NOT; people [from the Cayce organization] sat with him for 4 months and know he is not the reincarnation of Cayce
- This rabbit hole goes so far into the trillions and you have to understand about yugas that move through cycles; this is the end of Kali Yuga, one that has been very, very dark.
 - If you knew who Kali is, you'd probably not go there! For everything you do, there are consequences, and these ones think they are so great & the ego is so big, which means the consequences get bigger.
 - There is a brilliant mind there; Wilcok was programmed at the age of 7; he is part of a family lineage and the dark ones wanted to interlope with his energy and confuse people because of the powerful mind that is there.
 - David has taken money from Ben Fulford who is not working for the Light at all – when you work in a magazine like Forbes, you are part of that group
 - Jamie Dimon would not think twice about putting a bullet between E. Warren's eyes – Mother has the last word with her children and it ends in the Dark Rift
 - The end of this cycle is ugly – when we interact with life forms who have forgotten their divinity, we are doing them a service and we are in service to them and this planet: the first order of business is the least among us, the people of colour, are being treated as less than human.
 - Goes into Islamic stuff, as well as transgender, gay, by etc
 - This is a formidable foe: this cannot be set aside and this is scary as a young person: you don't know where this is coming from – it is pure unadulterated evil. The movie theatres are full of this stuff, and there is subtle programming going on - the good guy/ bad guy stuff won't be complete until we actually learn how to end it
 - It will be finished when we learn how to get over our hatred of the feminine.
 - the inception / conception of this country was usurped by powerful, all white, anglo-saxon protestant, property owning males where the term "property" was applied to humans - they defined people of colour in the constitution as 3/5ths of a person
- R takes it to a galactic level: we have folks walking the halls of the West Wing, like the X Men and a brilliant scientist who can hang with his feet from any object & use his feet as hands; some of us are able to do awesome things: it is about our gifts and abilities that are not to our detriment
- brings in same sex relations and trans gender: so many souls coming in at this time, that came in knowing that at the moment of conception with the ages changing so that they would be part of the prophets and heros who came to the forefront -
 - So if you know what's good for you, you'll go to BernieSanders.com and support him!

T: Laurie's young people think Bernie Sanders is a side show!

R: Bernie Sanders IS THE MAIN SHOW; he has sat with Ashtar, the Kind of Swords, and people on the ground who have sat with pres. Obama and the others;

- Obama is a double agent – he is NOT CONTROLLED – only behaving like he does so people will think what they will, and issues will come up –
- Even it seems so slow, MSNBC is going faster than Fox News – and even at that, they are compromised. They talk to people like Rachel and Keith Olberman who quit MSNBC because of Hillary who was arranging before the elections after June, 2007 – it was a clone of Hillary running for president; she had been taken to a solitary confinement prison in The Hague for the murder of 86 innocent men, women and children by arranging to have them killed by setting up a team of 4 operators dressed up like ATS officers
- JFK Jr was going to talk about this when he had his magazine George – she arranged to have him taken out along with both Bush Sr & Jr – they have all been partners for a long time.
 - H C was the one who sliced & diced the tape about the death of the clone of JFK Sr

- The White Knights use clones because it enables to keep the witnessing alive
- When we are 15 – 20, even 35 – 40, patience is not something we have – and this story is 13,000 years old: [it began] when a crystal was blown up and threatened the life of this planet: it created cracks in the 800 mile crust and cracked all the way across the ocean floor to the Azores by the coast of Africa. There is an island to the south of the Azores that has a huge crack in it; with more and more volcanoes erupting where a new island is forming and is just about to surface; the crack is affected; it began during the time of Atlantis!!!
 - the reptilians who did that during Atlantis are the ones still doing it today – reincarnational patterns of the same souls – they don't want to fix things, but just keep everyone dumb

T: there is factual evidence of these things that has not been accessible to the public; they have been covering this things up, and full disclosure is not what they want!

- Full disclosure means FULL DISCLOSURE! When you announce the presence of beings who are 15 – 100 MILLION years in advance of this time space continuum we are in on this planet where people think the world is 6000 years old
- There are consequences to all actions & they affect the time-space continuum you are in
 - there are big influences that programming people, and in the education system which is a disinformation train that clogs up the brain and sets you on a course where there is nothing fundamentally true about it, including religion
- Even a free spirit needs discipline; sometimes the lessons require the input of elders and mentorship – with love, David Wilcock is a beautiful soul; he has some things that have consequences; when you take $ from the wrong side of the fence, they have requirements which gets you into trouble.
 - he won't go there when N is discussed – he gets ugly about it – name calling does no good, either, which is part of his program; that he has been programmed to think he is someone he is not, does not mean that he is not a beautiful soul: he is
- The galactics are never going to do this for us: the story of Tessa, chairman of the NAACP of Baltimore, stepping between the riot police and the kids who were in school with Freddie and were his friends; she knows what it means to non-violently take action – by hugging them and kissing them and getting them to leave the police who were aggressive because they had been found out.
- taking knowledge from the elders: you do not know who Bernie Sanders really is – HE'S FROM VENUS! There is a huge amount of wisdom and knowledge there
 - He's working with Ashtar behind the scenes and knows all about NESARA, working with the key players and staying alive and keeping 64 good members together and alive too.
- Marilyn Mosby, 35 years old, black and beautiful with the strength, the fortitude, the knowledge and the wisdom to deal with the head of the police ass'n & the lawyer; husband is on city council
 - The millennial group are the elders of the teenagers in the group – T at 16 years went to Selma to march and was taking help and advice from the nuns. T had left home at 13 years because her father was raping her so she went
- Talks about the abuse of the feminine and not just the sex of the body: honouring the feminine goes beyond gender and colour
- Just because Bernie is 73 years does not mean he has no knowledge or experience to share: has been a mayor, an independent rep of Vermont in Congress and now a independent Senator; he's using wisdom to run as a Democrat and he is not running as a personality to be pitted against Hillary [the pit bull] –
 - the original Hillary taken to The Hague, June, 2007; in solitary; executed in Nov, 2008 by pres-elect Obama
 - what happened in Waco – the ATF officers used nerve gas first and then 4 napalm bombs– the people were burnt alive as they were immobile due to the nerve gas and she is running for president???
- Bless the knowledge coming from David Wilcock: not supportive of NESARA, OR AWARE OF THE POSITION HE IS IN DUE TO THE manipulation of the dark side

NOW Wilcok is in bed with Ben Fulford who is a murderer & and knows it

- We are the ones we have been waiting for: she thanks Laurie who is in a position to help the young people she twitters with

Introducing an Audio from tradetreachery.com

- Alan Grayson, another wise one from the Senate; he and Bernie Sanders are working on all kinds of things
- Tom Hayden in Chicago: Tara met him when she went to a SDA meeting; when she got there, he was locking up the meeting room which Tom and told her they had to leave as the CIA were coming; then she worked with him
- The Ballot or the bullet – you have to work with both MLK energy & Malcolm X energy
- Says to everyone listening: after the celebrations of today, have to go back to the drawing board
- IT IS POSSIBLE to go back and deal with all the ones who were not indicted
- Barack Obama IS A DOUBLE AGENT: take a lesson from what he is doing
 - what he is doing is getting all the rats in a sack into a bigger sack. The G 8 has to do with the 13 families
 - Mother comes in with her very large duffle bag & takes it to the the Dark Rift
 - Alex Jones not a cute guy: got a billion from the Jesuits, a total paid schill to lie about what Obama does; Ron Paul got $2 Billion
 - this is sad and hard to discern & there are many traumas we have all experienced
 - As people get excited by what Jones says, it's another victory for the dark ones; she brings up Sound of Music and how the Nazis used the young man, who loved the oldest daughter, to try and take out the whole von Trapp family
 - Jesse Ventura paid off a man to kill Fred Bell - got money from the Vatican
 - Ron Paul is a white supremacist: only delivered white children!
 - Picture of Ron Paul standing with Don Black from <http://ronpaulsupporters.com/white-power-groups-> he's bot a nazi and a member of the KKK in English

Ron Paul posing for with Don Black, the founder of neo-Nazi website StormFront and past Grand Wizard of the Ku Klux Klan [1]. The person in the hat is Derek Black [2], Don's son. The person who is standing behind the camera taking the picture is Jamie Kelso [3].

- the libertarians of libertarians are the Koch Bros and they are Nazis; the ideas they promulgate are not the real agenda which is about white privilege!

Audio: Severine v T Fleming - Millions of Acres: Young Agrarians Needed - Bioneers

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ahMPtpLLj80>

Published on 5 Nov 2014

In the next 20 years, farmland ownership will shift on a continental scale—400 million acres, yet 70% of American farmland is owned by people 65 and older. How can we help young, motivated agrarians survive daunting structural obstacles and become successful farmers to whom retiring organic farmers can transmit their wisdom? How can we invest in the democratization of our land base? These questions drive Agrarian Trust, started by Greenhorns founder Severine v T Fleming, one of the most dynamic leaders in the young farmers' movement.

Since 1990, Bioneers has acted as a fertile hub of social and scientific innovators with practical and visionary solutions for the world's most pressing environmental and social challenges.

To experience talks like this, please join us at the Bioneers National Conference each October, and regional Bioneers Resilient Community Network gatherings held nationwide throughout the year.

Eckhart Tolle, Dalai Lama, Desmond Tutu & authors – "Educating the Heart and Mind-Creativity"
by Deshna Ubeda on April 15, 2015

Eckhart Tolle is a spiritual teacher and author who was born in Germany and educated at the Universities of London and Cambridge. At the age of 29, a profound inner transformation radically changed the course of his life. The next few years were devoted to understanding, integrating and deepening that transformation, which marked the beginning of an intense inward journey. Later, he began to work in London with individuals and small groups as a counselor and spiritual teacher. Since 1995 he has lived in Vancouver, Canada. Eckhart Tolle is the author of the #1 New York Times bestseller The Power of Now (translated into 33 languages) and the highly acclaimed follow-up A New Earth, which are widely regarded as two of the most influential spiritual books of our time.

His Holiness, the Dalai Lama, is the spiritual leader of the Tibetan people. He frequently states that his life is guided by three major commitments: the promotion of basic human values or secular ethics in the interest of human happiness, the fostering of inter-religious harmony and the preservation of Tibet's Buddhist culture, a culture of peace and non-violence.

Desmond Tutu is a South African Anglican cleric who is known for his role in the opposition to apartheid in South Africa.

T: wanted to repeat the piece As You Like It – William Shakespeare

Sweet are the uses of adversity which, like the toad are ugly and venomous, yet wears a precious jewel in its head!

We are every single one – there are 80 billion planets in this Universe of Nebadon and human life; some of us are paschats, bird people, crocodile people – does not mean we have to engage in venomous ugliness that lures with the power of money and not the power of love!

The life is an interplay of light and dark,
From sunny days to Noah's ark,
I will use my mind, my strength and my will,
To manifest my soul, It's truth to fulfill.

It's gonna be a Full Moon in Scorpio weekend folks, so the transformation is not over yet. We are being shaken to our roots these days and it can be scary! Scary to confront, speak our truth, be challenged, see our limits, our judgments, and our illusions. Such is Mercury opposite Saturn which is happening at the same time.

The upside of this week is that once we react and spit our facts, we no longer are triggered and that is that (I get on these rhyming trips and can't stop haha!). Seriously, feelings need to be felt and then they stop haggling us and ripping us up triggering guilt or shame cuz we're "not supposed to say that!" or "feel that way" ... "that's just not nice!" But what relief, healing, and clarity can come when it's all out there in the light, to be viewed, examined, sorted, and cleared..... We will sigh a bit AAAAAAHHHHHH! when the work is done....

CONFERENCE CALL

R=15130120&C=706&E=353118](http://www.freeconference.com/RecordingDownload.aspx?R=15130120&C=706&E=353118)

Caller: sent the info on TPP from Alan Grayson –

- they played the video first thing – and do not underestimate what the double agent is doing [Obama]. Yes, the tipping point is now here: we are celebrating the demise of the oligarchy as well as the bankruptcy of the US, and of Bernie Sanders running for President
- Warren won't run as she won't give up her job where she's taking on Jamie Dimon
- We may be seeing musical chairs like we've never seen before!
- Bernie: It's not about me, and I'm in it to win it

Caller: remembered that he said he needed $100, 000 from each person – and women want a woman president

- Say 1/3 of the population were in the voting range – he could very well set the whole thing up and Michelle would walk right in! He said: It's not about me! Bernie has been working for full disclosure for years and years!

Caller: Hillary is taking the easy road – she's just BS ing! That's the energy the caller gets

- Did the same thing when she was working with Bill "Who's hedging their bets?" - reading from Abby Martin's segment on Hillary [Breaking the Set] around Monday, Feb 16th - donation between 10 & 25 Million – kingdom of Saudi Arabia, the Victor Tchimbuk foundation [known for their close ties to Israel]
- Nobody to get as rich as these ones without a noose around their necks – and they will have Nada after them later.
- Greece is in the trouble it is as a result of Henry Poulson of Goldman Sachs going over there, privatizing everything and leaving the people holding the bag. The party which won did a lot of organizing at ground level, rounded up doctors & got them working in communities so the people would not die!
- Greece is the original home of the Palestinians; King Linus & the Mongols came in
- We are going between the 6th and 9th dimensions at the moment.
- We keep looking for the answers outside ourselves, even to the 50,000 technologies – yet we are them – the Atlanteans did not need solar panels or wind mills which kill birds or massive solar panels in the desert which burn up the birds when they land on them;

Great Peacemaker

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Great_Peacemaker

Great Peacemaker

- Skennenrahawi
- Deganawida (in special circumstances)

Onondaga, adopted Mohawk, or Huron orator and statesman

Personal details

Born

16th century[citation needed]

The Great Peacemaker, sometimes referred to as Deganawida or Dekanawida (as a mark of respect, some Iroquois avoid using his personal name except in special circumstances) was, along with Hiawatha, by tradition the founder of the Haudenosaunee, commonly called the Iroquois Confederacy. This was a political and cultural union of several Iroquoian-speaking Native American tribes residing in the present-day state of New York. The union created a powerful alliance of related Iroquoian peoples around the Great Lakes. Historians believe the confederacy may have formed in the 13th or 14th centuries.

Iroquois confederacy

Cohoes Falls in the 18th century AD by Pehr Kalm

The Haudenosaunee name for the Great Peacemaker (Skennenrahawi in Mohawk) means "Two River Currents Flowing Together". There are numerous legends about the Great Peacemaker, some with conflicting information. It is reported that he was born a Huron, and by some accounts, his mother was a virgin, so the birth was miraculous.^[1] Others say he was born an Onondaga and later adopted by the Mohawk. By all accounts, he was a prophet who counseled peace among the warring tribes, and he called for an end to cannibalism. His follower Hiawatha, a Mohawk renowned for his oratory, helped him achieve his vision.

According to the archaeologist Dean R. Snow, the Great Peacemaker converted Hiawatha in the territory of the Onondaga; he next made a solo journey to visit the Mohawk tribe who lived near what is now Cohoes, New York.^[citation needed] Initially, the Mohawk rejected the message of the Great Peacemaker, so he decided to perform a feat to demonstrate his purity and spiritual power. After climbing a tree high above the Ga-ha-oose, the cataract now known as Cohoes Falls, the Great Peacemaker told the Mohawk braves to chop the tree down. Many onlookers watched as the Great Peacemaker disappeared into the swirling rapids of the Mohawk River. They believed he had perished until they saw him the next morning sitting near a campfire. Greatly impressed by the Great Peacemaker's miraculous survival, the Mohawk became the founding tribe of the Iroquois Confederacy.^[1]

The dates Dekanawida lived have not been identified with certainty.

Eclipse

In attempting to date the Great Peacemaker, historians and archeologists have researched an incident related to the founding of the Iroquois Confederacy, the life work of the prophet. One rendition of the oral history eventually written down by scholars involves a conflict among the Seneca, the last Iroquois nation to join the confederacy as a founding member. A violent confrontation began; it stopped when the sun darkened and the day seemed to turn to night. Since 1902 scholars have studied the possibility that this event was a solar eclipse, when William Canfield wrote Legends of the Iroquois; told by "the Cornplanter".^[2] Other scholars who refer to this event have been (chronologically): Paul A. W. Wallace,^[3] Elizabeth Tooker,^[4] Bruce E. Johansen,^{[5][6]} Dean R. Snow,^[7] Barbara A. Mann and Jerry L. Fields,^[8] William N. Fenton,^[9] David Henige,^[10] Gary Warrick,^[11] and Neta Crawford.^[12]

Since Canfield's first mention,^[2] and the majority view,^{[3][4][7][9][11]} scholars have widely supported a date of 1451 AD as being of a known solar eclipse and the likely founding date based on this oral account and other evidence. Some argue it is an insufficient fit for the description, and favor a date of 1142, when there was also a documented solar eclipse.^{[5][8]} A few question dating the founding of the confederacy based on the mention of the eclipse.^[10]

Archeological investigation has contributed to discussions about the founding date, as its evidence can be dated and correlated to natural events. In 1982 archeologist Dean Snow said that evidence from mainstream archeology did not support a founding of the confederacy for any dates of an eclipse before 1350 AD (thus ruling out the 1142 AD date.)^[7] By 1998 Fenton considered an eclipse earlier than the 1451 AD majority view unlikely, but possible as long as it was after 1000 AD.^[9] By 2007/8 reviews considered an 1142 AD eclipse as a possible point of reference, even if most scholars supported 1451 AD as the safe choice.^{[11][12]}

Prophecy of the boy seer

The Great Peacemaker worked all his life to bring his vision to fruition. He prophesied that a "white serpent" would come to his people's lands and make friends with them, only to deceive them later. A "red serpent" would later make war against the "white serpent", but an Indian boy would be given a great power. He would be accepted as a chosen leader by the people of "the land of the hilly country." The boy stays neutral in the fight, and he speaks to the people, who number as the blades of grass, but he is heard by all. After a season, a "black serpent" would come and defeat both the "white" and "red serpents". According to the prophecy, when the people gathered under the elm tree become humble, all three "serpents" would be blinded by a light many times brighter than the sun. Deganawidah said that he would be that light. His nation would accept the "white serpent" into their safekeeping like a long-lost brother. [13]

The Great Peacemaker established a council of clan and village chiefs to govern the confederacy. In each tribe, which had matrilineal systems of descent and property-holding, power was shared between the sexes. Most decisions in council were made by consensus, to which each representative had an equal voice. Using the system of the Great Peacemaker and Hiawatha, the Iroquois became the dominant Native American group in the northeast woodlands. The oral laws and customs of the Great Law of Peace became the constitution of the Iroquois Confederacy, established by the 16th century or earlier.

2015-05-02 The theme for May is A NEW ALIGNMENT

<http://thepowerpath.com/monthly-forecast/may-2015-monthly-forecast/>

We have had the theme of "alignment" before at various times but this month's focus is different as the main word to pay attention to is NEW.

We have been shaken, rattled, taken apart, and sideswiped by the unexpected. We have had to accept change and embrace the unknown. The eclipses of March and April affected us on a very deep level, with core issues needing to be acknowledged, forgiven and cleared. We all agree that this is a new time with new possibilities and yet the clarity of what's to come is just beyond our reach. We have glimpsed the potential of more power, but how do we integrate it into our lives?

These times are amazing, unsettled, a bit overwhelming and confusing, scary but awesome at the same time, and full of new opportunities. What is needed now is integration and assimilation that will help create a new alignment serving as a new platform from which we can move forward.

Because everything is different, NEW is the word to keep in mind. It would not serve to try and force things back to an old alignment. Don't wait for things to "get back to normal" because you may be waiting a long time. The key is to embrace what is new and different and allow the new and different to integrate into your life in some way. This may require really letting go of old expectations or the way you thought things should have been. Work with what you have rather than pining after what you don't have.

When there is a possibility for a new alignment there is tremendous potential for having things be very different in a positive way. This is your opportunity to dream bigger and to move beyond the limitations of what you always thought possible. This New Alignment will affect finances, relationships, creativity, the physical body, mental health, and success in projects, work, study and play.

In order for this New Alignment to be of the highest vibration possible for you, it will be important that you do not indulge in negativity, regret, blame, Martyrdom, judgment, disappointment, or any attachment to past issues. This is truly an opportunity for a reset of inspiration, priorities, and optimism.

For some of you the month will be challenging depending on how willing you are to forgive the past. For others of you it will feel like a relief from the upheavals of the past couple of months. The goal is to end up with a NEW ALIGNMENT where you feel more powerful, more inspired, more in love, more trusting, more relaxed, more confident, and physically, emotionally and mentally better than you have ever felt.

Helpful hints:

Be around beauty as much as you can.

Laugh and be in humor as much as possible.

Use the discipline of gratitude to keep from wandering to the past, and sliding into negativity.

Eliminate negative people and environments.

Clean, clear and throw away whatever feels "old".

Choose a practice you can do every day that will keep your focus on the NEW.

Allow new and wonderful things into your life.

Watch for synchronicity and pay attention to what shows up.

Clean up your diet and eliminate bad habits.

How the month shows up

YOU PERSONALLY

This is both an exciting and challenging month. It is always refreshing and inspiring to feel new energies coming in however it may be uncomfortable for those of you with a need for security. It just means that you will have to focus on aligning a new sense of security for yourself that includes a greater trust in things working out no matter what they look like or feel at the moment.

We can't stress enough the importance of a constant vigil around letting go of the old attachments and expectations. To the extent that you are still attached, you cannot make space for the New Alignment so necessary right now for moving forward. So forgive the past, whatever it is, and allow for the good things that are showing up in your life to take root in a new alignment.

If your life has felt out of balance, this is also the month where you should revisit what balance means to you and where you fell out of balance. Not enough time for self? Not enough stimulation for growth? Not enough love? Too much stress? Too many obligations for other people? Not enough creativity? Whatever it is, spend a bit of time bringing your intentions into a new alignment so you can feel more balanced. You have a great opportunity to actually experience your life in a completely new way so focus on the new and pay attention to what is coming into your life.

RELATIONSHIPS

Every relationship has an opportunity to be realigned to a new frequency, to a new configuration, to a new balance. Look at each of your important relationships and see if and where they are misaligned. What needs adjustment? Where do you give your power away? What needs a better balance? Where are you spending too much energy, and where not enough? Where are your attachments and where do you have trouble letting go?

This is a beautiful time for feeding the right relationships with love and beauty and bringing them into a New Alignment. If they are not right, it is a beautiful time to let them go. Relationships this month should provide you with an opportunity for inspiration, excitement, community, and higher centered experiences. Especially around community projects, anything that was only talked about but never accomplished has an opportunity to manifest this month as people open themselves up to new experiences and are inspired by collective projects.

Of utmost importance is to bring your relationship with yourself into a new alignment by forgiving the past, neutralizing judgment and resistance and moving towards deep acceptance of who you are.

ENVIRONMENT

As we have mentioned many times, the environment always supports what is happening in the big picture. The greater environment is currently supporting great change. It too is striving for a new alignment in magnetic fields, stability, weather patterns and earth movement. We have seen how these adjustments can be devastating in the short term and how resilience, acceptance and flexibility is required for change and a new alignment.

We are likely to see more shifting, movement and adjustments. The New Alignment in the environment will most likely bring about a change in weather and climate and make it difficult to predict anything based on old patterns. Personal flexibility is always called for around weather especially during times of intensity and change.

On the other hand, your personal environment is something you can proactively affect by paying attention to what wants to be changed, cleaned, released, eliminated, moved around, improved or introduced. Since your personal outer environment is also symbolic of your inner personal environment be aware of setting a New Alignment in both. A wise woman once said, "no space on the outside, no space on the inside". So have your New Alignment include getting rid of physical, emotional, mental and energetic clutter and attachments both in your outer personal environment and your inner personal environment.

HEALTH/PHYSICAL BODY

The body is having a rough time and has been for a while. This call to a New Alignment is confusing and ungrounded and can cause unnecessary anxiety and worry. The body is used to responding to mental thoughts and beliefs. Fear of the unknown, limiting beliefs, and mistrust of anything new throws the body into suspicion and creates symptoms such as aches and pains and retention of energy related to what it knows at least will keep it alive. Recently the body has had difficulty keeping up with all the changes and upgrades to a higher vibration. The body is often in resistance to change and will be the last to get with the program.

If your body has been less than acceptably functional, have compassion for its struggle and let go of your expectations and judgment. Cut it some slack and nurture it as best you can.

This month you have the opportunity to bring the body online and to bring all pieces into a New Alignment. This will require patience, love, support, understanding and a deeper relationship with your body. Talk to it, appreciate it, honor it, have gratitude for it. Without the body, you have no life on this planet. Commit to taking care of it and do something new this month for your body that honors that commitment.

If you have recently gone through any unexpected physical crisis or condition that is challenging, you have an opportunity this month to reset, realign, rebalance and heal into a new state of well-being.

Since a New Alignment includes a rebalance of electromagnetics within the body it is also helpful to increase your intake of minerals and make sure the water you are drinking is spring, charged, structured, or mineral water.

BUSINESS/PARTNERSHIPS/PROJECTS

This is an amazing month for projects. With the theme of New Alignment look for pieces to come together with synchronicity and ease around projects, partnerships and business endeavors. This is the time you have been waiting for. With the focus moving towards alignment rather than towards breaking apart, you can observe perfect chemistry coming together for cooperative efforts. Ideas that were only dreams will suddenly become viable in the physical. But you have to be ready.

Readiness is being able to read the signs, trust the synchronicity and not drag your heels. If it feels easy, it is right and you should trust it. If it is a challenge where every door seems to close, it is not the right path. Look at what is showing up in your life and allow it to align itself to you in a way that supports where you are going. You need not know all the details. You just have to trust.

DATES AND TIME FRAMES

May 1-7: This is a "down time" that allows for paying attention to the details and giving yourself the time to notice what is leaving your life, what is coming in and what wants to be integrated in this New Alignment. Do not overfill your plate with too much to do, and make sure to leave plenty of space to just feel and BE with the new power and energy that wants to come in as part of the New Alignment without having to DO too much. A big part of this month is about assimilation and balance.

One of the things most out of balance most of the time is how much we spend DOING and how little we give ourselves to just BE. This week, be conscious of this balance and move towards "being" a bit more than you are used to. Work on your receiving, observation and acceptance. Relax, play and dream. The great thing about allowing a New Alignment is that you just have to be willing to allow it. Nothing to "do".

May 3: Full Moon is Sunday, May 3 at 9:42 PM Mountain Daylight Time (MDT). This full moon is a chance for a reset in perception and supports forgiveness, creativity, beauty, appreciation, and all things feminine. It is a chance to experience self-love and the love of spirit. It is a day to reconnect with what is important to the emotional body and to honor your connection to all of nature.

Anything you do today will be supported to be practical, grounded and nurturing. Give yourself time to be out in nature and to appreciate all the beauty around you. Also give yourself the gift of something of the physical realm that you can indulge yourself in, grateful for the ability to manifest.

May 8-15: This is a great window of manifesting change in the form of a New Alignment. Look for unexpected opportunities and make sure you are disciplined about the letting go of what is in the way of what is showing up. This is a time to scrutinize your attachments and move yourself into the flexible position of being able to move into something new without the old holding you back.

Be willing to listen to others that may have great ideas and inspiration around something you yourself cannot yet see. Collaborate when possible with others and be willing to accept support as it shows up. Watch for Impatience during this time as a new power and energy wants to come through you and manifest. Wait for synchronicity and right timing.

May 16-22: Can you have it? This is the theme for this time frame. Doubt can set in when things seem too good to be true or when something that has been going well suddenly takes a turn for the worse. This is a time to build trust and to keep your eye on the goal. There will be ups and downs in energy, self worth, optimism, trust, and doubt.

It is important to keep your vibration high at all costs during this time. Any practice you have that you can do every day even if you don't feel like it will pay off. Work on your "havingness" and keep resetting your alignment. It is important not to get too fixated on the little things that are not working but rather focus on the larger picture of your life and trust that the new dream is aligning itself whether you are aware of it or not.

May 17: New Moon is Sunday, May 17 at 10:14 PM Mountain Daylight Time (MDT). This is a deep reset time. You may experience a drop in your energy and feel like hibernating most of the day. This is deep assimilation and should be honored as a still point in your life. Acknowledge the earth and the grounding that Pacha Mama provides. Honor the Sun and its life giving properties.

This is also a good day to revisit your priorities and determine once again what may be out of balance. Make a commitment to rebalance what needs it. If there are still things that need clearing out in order for you to be more balanced, make a plan for that to happen.

May 23-31: This can be a super fun time as long as you are able to laugh and find humor in the challenges that you have navigated or are in the process of navigating. This time is marked by a great desire for community and collaboration especially around creativity and creative projects. The "artisan" role of the year is alive and well and supports personal expression though something new and different.

You will be inspired and enthusiastic about life and all the opportunities, and maybe finally see what is possible in your life that you never thought possible. It is also a time that higher centered experiences are available and you may feel truly inspired by your connection to spirit.

Beware of putting too much on your plate and feeling overwhelmed. Always consider your balance as you allow a New Alignment. It is OK to say no to the things that feel just a little too much for you right now. They will still be there in the future if they are truly aligned.

Have fun, play, laugh and allow!

Many Blessings!

Have a great month,

Lena

Gibbous Moon Phase: trust, magic

Moon in Libra/Scorpio (9:48 pm ET/1:48 am UT Sunday)

Goddess of Wisdom: Chinnamasta (Goddess Who Expands The Mind)

God of Will: Ian (God of The East)

Skill: lighten up; experiment with new combinations/possibilities

True Alignments: creating form, symmetry and asymmetry, tradition, acrobatically maneuvering around obstacles or interference, basic values, basic instincts, cutting away the extraneous to gain clarity, protection, taking personal responsibility

Catalysts for Change: enabling, taking responsibility for someone else's healing journey, puzzled, feeling victimized, smugness, boredom, obscuring the facts, bossing others, aggression, hurting another's feelings

Sabian symbol for the Lunar Month: "the music of the spheres"

Today's energy focuses on solutions. Changing or re-arranging different elements of a situation will open up an answer.

The Sun is located at the degree of "a porter carrying heavy baggage." If we are feeling burdened or weighed down, it is our job to release ourselves from some of that. In the fifth dimension, we are responsible for ourselves. We have the power to release and transcend any situation. We can lighten ourselves up. When we do, we come into better alignment and are happier.

The fifth dimension is filled with love and light, no doubt, but it is not free of duality. In the interests of keeping it real and aiming for wisdom, here is the other octave of the energy:

Throughout the Gibbous Moon phase, archontic energies have been acting out. These have been "pre-emptive" strikes in advance of tomorrow's Full Moon and an energetic dynamic called Thor's Hammer that is going to do exactly what it implies: drop the hammer. Thor's Hammer is also called the Fist of God. (It is rather interesting that the new "Avengers" movie was released yesterday.)

In terms of the music of the spheres (the archetypal science of energy), Gibbous Moon phase is the magical time of the month when manifestation is easiest. People who are born under the Gibbous Moon phase can manifest out of thin air. It's a mindset of resonance and it is tied to the power of belief. Gibbous is magical.

Archontic energies, which are, in essence, panicking from suffocation, have been using this property/opportunity of Gibbous Moon phase to shape perception and reality. They have full knowledge of what is coming from higher spiritual realms with the Full Moon (because they understand the music of the spheres). So over the past several days they have been going wild. In the US, we see fear and aggression loaded into the field of consciousness with attempts to stir chaos, rioting, division, and hate. We see the most-anticipated and largest grossing-professional boxing event timed to the eve of the Full Moon, activating the instinctual body (of men in particular, which is ripe for battle, stemming from the return of the sacred masculine). And "top horse" is crowned with the Kentucky Derby.

Outside the US, you are witnessing the battlefield because if Americans can't rise with the wave of higher consciousness before the archons choke out and unleash war, much suffering will ensue.

But here's the thing: we will. Americans rally and rise to the occasion. The dreaming of Gaia Sophia and her spirit of liberty have been focused here for a while.

And now a Band of Brothers, the spiritual force of her knights led this month by the King of Battle, is responding and engaging the sacred masculine in each of us all around the world.

As the Gibbous Moon waxes into the Full, the power of love prepares to flood the field. So, until then, we remember what is really happening. Together, we hold the line that is aligned with the value and beauty of life.

Note: I will post a Sunday report tomorrow that goes more into the Full Moon.

P.S. I discussed the Full Moon energetics on Phoenix Rising Radio this week. Here is the link to the archive if you missed the show:

2015-04-29 Alchemy and Surrender – Sunday’s Full Moon in Scorpio

collage by Emily

This super-charged lunar cycle started with the Aries New Moon on April 18 and will peak at Sunday’s Full Moon in Scorpio (8:42pm Pacific). At the New Moon, Scorpio’s modern ruler Pluto, God/Goddess of the Underworld, turned Retrograde, suggesting that our courageous new beginnings required a purge of old patterns and energies.

The Plutonian purging theme continues and culminates at the Scorpio Full Moon, which lights up the basement of the subconscious and reveals inner blocks to creativity and growth. Where have you lost your power, passion and vitality? Where are you playing it safe and not playing your edge? What do you need to let go of so you can create what you really want?

Taurus-Scorpio themes amplified at this Full Moon include power, money and resources, intimacy and sexuality (just a few light areas...), and the tension between holding on and letting go, control and surrender. The Scorpio Full Moon also illuminates our shadows, the parts of ourselves we’ve rejected, suppressed, denied or disowned.

Jupiter in Leo tightly squares the Full Moon, stirring up the potential for reactivity, melodrama and over-indulgence. Since the Sun, Moon and Jupiter are all in fixed signs, there’s also the possibility of going into stuckness and stubbornness. The higher potential here is to surrender to the wisdom of the heart, and allow it to guide us through the Scorpionic intensity and into a deeper state of trust, intimacy and authenticity.

Most appropriately, Nelys the Alchemist showed up when I asked the faeries for insight into this Full Moon (Scorpio is the High Priestess of Alchemy). "When things are stuck and movement has become impossible, Nelys firmly waves her rowan wand and things happen in ourselves and in the world." However! When I picked Nelys, her card was reversed:

"You may be getting in Nelys's way as she does her work. To put it bluntly, you may be the main obstacle in your own path. It may be necessary to transform attitudes and behaviors. She will first approach you with tact and a kindly faery warning, pointing out an alternate path you might try. At this point, it would be well to begin actively cooperating with her energy of alchemical transformation." (Brian Froud's The Faeries' Oracle)

Here in the Northern Hemisphere, this Full Moon coincides with Beltane – the Venusian high holyday celebrating fertility. Beltane was traditionally honored by making love in the fields to bless the crops. Although often celebrated on May 1, Beltane marks the halfway point between Spring Equinox and Summer Solstice, and occurs when the Sun reaches 15 degrees of Taurus, on May 5. This Full Moon is ideal for working some sex magic and Earth magic – get creative, people. At the very least, send a dose of mega-love and gratitude to your favorite home planet.

If you have some astro-technical know-how, you can discover more about what this Full Moon means for YOU by finding the house in your birth chart that contains 13 degrees Scorpio. The areas of your life signified by that house are where you're invited to: regenerate, transform, heal and "let go to grow;" surrender control so that more power can come through; explore the depths and reveal your secrets; share your vulnerability and deepen intimacy.

2015-04-26 Tesla's $3,000 Powerwall Will Let Households Run Entirely On Solar Energy!

The wait is over! Tesla announced a home battery and utility-scale battery that will power future homes.

We had gotten rumor of this new battery back in February when Elon Musk discussed it during an earnings call, but no additional details were made available at that time.

Tesla announced last September its plans to build a new Gigafactory in Reno, Nevada, 62 million has been spent so far. When all is said and done an estimated $5 billion will be spent on this project. Tesla plans to begin building lithium-ion batteries at this facility in 2017. The lithium-ion battery technology is being positioned to be the front runner in emerging energy storage that also provides supplementary electricity. Could this technology ultimately threaten our traditional electric grid? These new batteries when combined with the rapidly expanding residential solar market present exciting new opportunity's for off the grid living.

Tesla has teamed up with SolarCity, a company chaired by Musk and ran by his cousin Lyndon Rive. Founded in 2006, the company has over 160,000 customers and controls almost 40% of the residential market. Solarcity installs panels for both commercial and residential applications and leases them for less than what you pay on your energy bill, and they sell surplus energy back to local utility's. This model has proven to be extremely successful for SolarCity. They have begun installing Tesla batteries mostly in commercial buildings at this time. The batteries allow them to store excess energy for use during peak hours. This has shown to shave off 20-30 percent of energy bills. Solar City is currently running a pilot program with around 500 homes in California. The project is using 10-kilowatt-hour battery packs that supply homes with about 2 days of power in the event of an outage.

Electric cars, space exploration, low-cost wireless internet for anyone, and now home batteries. Tesla Motors Inc has shown us that they are not just car makers, it begs to question what does Tesla have in store for the future?
