

MIDWEST GANG INVESTIGATORS ASSOCIATION

2017 MGIA Illinois Chapter Conference

Suburban Law Enforcement Academy
at the College of DuPage
425 Fawell Blvd.

Suburban Law Enforcement Academy (SLEA) at the College of DuPage was founded in 1994. SLEA serves Northern Illinois law enforcement agencies for basic recruit training and provides continuing education in Wisconsin, Indiana and Illinois. More than 10,000 law enforcement officers have been trained at the Academy. SLEA plays a major role by its support of law enforcement personnel with high-quality training and education in a wide variety of skills.

Midwest Gang Investigators
Association Illinois Chapter
Street Gang Conference

Suburban Law Enforcement Academy
at the College of DuPage
425 Fawell Blvd.
Glen Ellyn Illinois

Sponsored by:
DuPage County States Attorney's Office
Suburban Law Enforcement Academy
5.11 Tactical Series

Midwest Gang Investigator's Association

MGIA - Illinois Chapter

The Illinois Chapter of the Midwest Gang Investigators Association will host a conference at the Suburban Law Enforcement Academy in Glen Ellyn Illinois. A diverse agenda of topics related to prevention, investigation and enforcement will be presented by some of the most knowledgeable speakers from the Chicagoland area. Attendees will be provided various perspectives and tended to better prepare them for dealing with problems related to criminal street gang. Breakout sessions will be conducted in which attendees may focus on specific areas of interest in their field. This conference is available only to sworn law enforcement officers, probation/parole officers, correctional officers and prosecutors.

Conference Topics

Registration starts at 7 AM. Opening remarks began at 8 AM. Breakout sessions approximately 1.5 hours in length in the morning and afternoon on both days. All attendees must wear name badges after checking in at registration.

Tentative Topics Include

- Reading The Ink; To law enforcement gang tattoos serve as an intelligence tool and the interpretation and documentation of tattoos can provide a great deal of valuable information.
- Open Source Investigations; techniques for using the internet to investigate gang cases.
- Social Media; and its applications in gang investigate and as a tool for developing gang intelligence.
- Officer safety issues when dealing with Outlaw Motor Cycles Gangs
- Chicago Gang Trends (Social Media & Rap Culture).
- The Use of Mobile Technology when Conducting Gang Investigations

Conference Registration Information

October 30 & 31 2017

Conference fee; $165 (flat rate)

CHECK ONE:

- Law Enforcement
 Corrections
 Probation/Parole
 Prosecutor

Name: _____

Title/Rank: _____

Agency: _____

Address: _____

City: _____

State: _____

Zip: _____

Phone: _____

Email: _____

Method of Payment:

- Check- Make payable to MGIA-Illinois Chapter
 Bill me- Dept. PO # and contact name for billing

_____

No Refunds will be made after October 1, 2017. Please contact Bruce Malkin regarding an appropriate substitute if canceling a registration.

The registration fee includes tuition, Membership in MGIA and Certificate of Attendance.

Mail Application with Payment to :
Criminal Investigator Bruce Malkin
DuPage County Children's Center
422 N. County Farm Rd
Wheaton, IL. 60187