Go forth, sell tickets

Share it on Facebook, LinkedIn.

Need more volunteers for the setup, selling raffle tix, cleanup.

Program:

Ken Solow talked on the District 7620 film project "Dare To Dream"

It premiered October 2017 through the efforts of Ilana & Dave Bittner and Ken, and addressed the tension within Rotary and the World Health Organization of attacking one health issue vs. overall health care. We saw the 16 minute preview of a 57 minute film. Sale price of the film is $25, of which $18.70 goes to polio eradication (and gets a Gates Foundation match).

Go to <http://DareToDreamFilm.com> to order.

The hopes were that club presidents would show the preview at meetings, with members inspired to download/pay for the full film. Other options could include having a movie night and selling seats.

The film will be featured in the May issue of Rotarian Magazine. It will also be showcased by two large fellowships at the Toronto International Conference - the Polio Survivor Fellowship and the History Fellowship

Sgt. at Arms Montague:

Many Ken dollars.

50/50 Raffle:

Nope

The pot is growing, buy more tickets!
