“Yes We Can!”

Featuring Dick Hoyt

What are two or three personal “daily difficulties” where you find yourself tempted to say “no I can’t?”

What some possible “Yes I can” solutions or commitments in each of the areas of difficulty on the left?

What are some team “daily difficulties” where it might be easier to say “no we can’t” to patients or each other?

What are some “Yes we can” commitments in each of the challenging areas as a team on the left?
