Pets On Wheels

Gina Kazimir gave us the scoop on the Pets on Wheels programs

A therapy pet provides affection and comfort to people in hospitals, retirement homes, nursing homes, schools, hospices, people with learning difficulties, and to those in stressful situations, such as disaster areas through friendly, non-judgmental interactions.

Pets on Wheels therapy pets must pass a temperament screening to be certified. However, they are not service animals and do not have the access to public spaces that service animals do.

Therapy pets make very difficult times, better.
Kids who read to pets show improved reading abilities.
